ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR, AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 10, 1958.

I. Triumph Mines, Limited ("Issuer") a Canadian corporation, filed with the Commission on May 24, 1955 a notification and offering circular relating to a proposed offering of 450,000 shares of its nonassessable common voting stock at 50 cents per share, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (b) thereof and Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that Regulation D is unavailable pursuant to Rule 501 (c) (2) in that officers of the issuer, Samuel Arthur Liening and Robert Roy Armstrong, are subject to a permanent injunction issued by the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, Northern Division on April 18, 1958 enjoining, among other things, their activities in connection with the purchase and sale of securities.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 509 (a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under section 3 (b) and Regulation D be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing; that, within 20 days after receipt of such request, the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Sugar Requirements and Quotas

[Sugar Reg. 814.25, Amdt. 1]

PART 814—ALLOTMENT OF SUGAR QUOTAS

MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA, 1958

Basis and purpose. This allotment order is issued under section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922, as amended, hereinafter called the "act") for the purpose of allotting the 1958 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area. The basis and purpose of the order are more fully explained below.

Effective date. Allotments established by this order are larger than the allotments established in S. R. 814.25. To afford adequate opportunities to plan and accomplish marketings of the additional quantities of sugar in an orderly manner, it is imperative that this order be effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237), is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and, consequently, this order shall be effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Preliminary statement. Section 205 (a) of the act requires the Secretary to allot a quota whenever he finds that the allotment is necessary, among other things (1) to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar or liquid sugar and (2) to afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market sugar or liquid sugar. Section 205 (a) also requires that such allotment be made after such hearing and upon such notice as the Secretary may prescribe.

Pursuant to the applicable rules of practice and procedure a preliminary finding was made that allotment of the quota is necessary, and a notice was published on January 25, 1958 (23 F. R. 514), of a public hearing to be held at New Orleans, Louisiana, in the Monteleone Hotel, on February 25, 1958, at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Secretary (1) to affirm, modify or revoke the preliminary finding of necessity for allotments, (2) to establish a fair, efficient and equitable allotment of the 1958 quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area for the calendar year 1958, (3) to revise or amend the allotment of the quota for the purpose of (a) allotting any increase or decrease in the quota, (b) prorating any deficit in the allotment for any allottee and (c) substituting final data for estimates of such data, and (4) to make provisions for the transfer and exchange of allotments. The hearing was held at the place and time specified in the notice and testimony was given with respect to all of the issues referred to in the hearing notice.

Based upon the record of the hearing and pursuant to the applicable rules of practice and procedure, the Acting Administrator, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture, on May 24, 1958, filed a recommended decision and proposed order with respect to the allotment of the 1958 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Notice of such filing and opportunity to file exceptions thereto (23 F. R. 3599) was given to all interested persons in the manner provided in the rules of practice and procedure.

At the time of the hearing and the issuance of the Recommended Decision relating to this allotment order, only estimated data for 1957 production, 1957 marketings and January 1, 1958, inventories were available. Final data have subsequently become available, have been made a part of the official records of the Department and are herein substituted for estimates of such data as provided for in the findings and conclusions.

Basis for findings and conclusions. Section 205 (a) of the act reads in pertinent part as follows:

• • • Allotments shall be made in such manner and in such amounts as to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such quota or proration thereof, by taking into consideration the processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets or sugarcane to which proportionate shares, determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 302, pertained; the past marketings or importations of each such person and the ability of such person to market or import that portion of such

quota or proration thereof allotted to him * * *

The record of the hearing indicates that the prospective supply of mainland cane sugar available for marketing in 1958 exceeds the quota for that area to an extent that allotment of the quota is necessary (R. 8).

The Government witness introduced for the record annual data on processings, past marketings and inventories for the period 1953 through 1957 (R. 8, 9; Ex. 5).

All three factors specified in the provision of law quoted above have been considered and each is given a percentile weighting by the formula on which this allotment of the 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota is based. That formula follows the proposal made in the record in regard to the measures and weightings of factors to be used for determining allotments (R. 20–22; Ex. 7) and all processors of the area joined in recommending its adoption (R. 19, 32) and no separate Government proposal was made.

The procedure for determining 1958 allotments is the same as that used in allotting the 1957 quota with one exception. Provision is made to make an allotment to any processor, in addition to the allotment otherwise determined for such processor, to permit the marketing in 1958 of sugar which the processor could not market in 1957 because he was unable to accurately estimate his production and, as a result, declared too large a deficit in his 1957 allotment. No such additional allotment would be made to either a processor who had sufficient sugar available but declared a deficit because he did not desire to market as much sugar as his 1957 allotment would permit, or a processor who declared a deficit and did not have sufficient sugar available to market more than permitted within his 1957 allotment, adjusted for the deficit (R. 25–28).

In Louisiana, processors produce sugar during the four months, October through January. Under these circumstances processors cannot determine the exact quantity of sugar which they will produce for marketing within the calendar year (R. 18, 27). Thus, the provision was proposed for making an additional allotment to any processor who declared a greater deficit than his final production warranted to facilitate obtaining the release of probable, but not absolutely certain, deficits in allotments sufficiently in advance of the end of the year to enable full use of the quota for the area and thus contribute to a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of such quota.

This provision in 1958 would affect only one allottee. Iberia Sugar Coop., Inc., would receive an allotment of 308 tons, in addition to the allotment which this allottee would otherwise receive. The hearing record reveals that this allottee's share of the 1957 market included 308 tons which was relinquished to other processors through error in estimating its 1957 crop; that the allottee had the ability to market the sugar and would have done so in 1957 had the error not occurred; and that other processors as a group benefited to the extent of 308 tons by increases in their 1957 allotments (R. 17 and Brief). All processors concerned signed a stipulation favoring such an additional 1958 allotment to Iberia Sugar Coop., Inc., together with a waiver of any legal right to object to such a provision and this stipulation and waiver is a part of the record of the hearing.

The record of the hearing contains only a single proposal or recommendation on each of the matters with respect to which a finding or conclusion is made in this order, and each such proposal or recommendation either was concurred in by all interested persons or no alternative or dissenting view was expressed.

Findings and conclusions. On the basis of the record of the hearing, I hereby find and conclude that:

(1) January 1, 1958, effective inventories of mainland cane sugar approximated 237,000 short tons, raw value. With favorable crop conditions in 1958 the total supply of sugar available for marketing in 1958 is expected to exceed the quota established for the area.

(2) The supply situation makes necessary the allotment of the 1958 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area to assure an orderly flow of such sugar in the channels of interstate commerce, to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar, and to afford all interested persons equitable opportunities to market sugar within the quota.

(3) Processings of all sugar from 1957-crop sugarcane by each processor, exclusive of known quantities of sugar produced from sugarcane to which proportionate shares did not pertain, is a fair, efficient and equitable measure of processings of sugar from the 1957-crop of sugarcane to which proportionate shares pertained.

(4) An allotment of 100 short tons, raw value, shall be established for the Louisiana State University.

(5) An allotment of 308 short tons, raw value, shall be established for Iberia Sugar Coop., Inc., to be added to the allotment determined for said allottee in accordance with the method set forth in (6) and (7), below.

(6) The remainder of the 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota for consumption within the continental United States, after allotting 408 tons as provided in (4) and (5), above, shall be allotted to all processors other than Louisiana State University by measuring and weighting each of the three factors specified in section 205 (a) of the act and determining allotments as follows, based on data in the hearing record and final data of which official notice will be taken.

(a) The factor processings from proportionate shares shall be measured by each processor's production of sugar from 1957-crop sugarcane, in short tons, raw value, exclusive of known quantities of sugar produced from sugarcane to which proportionate shares did not pertain, expressed as a percentage of the total of the measure for all processors, and weighted by 60 percent.

(b) The factor past marketings shall be measured by each processor's average annual marketings within his allotment for the years 1953 through 1957, in short tons, raw value, expressed as a percentage of the total for all processors of the measure, and weighted by 20 percent.

(c) The factor ability to market shall be measured by the sum of (1) each processor's January 1, 1958, effective inventory and (2) his share of the difference between 587,068 short tons, raw value, and total January 1, 1958, effective inventories of all processors. Each processor's share of such difference shall be determined by applying to the area total difference the percentage that his average 1953–57 new-crop marketings within the processor's allotments were of the area average. The sum of (1) and (2), above, in short tons, raw value, expressed as a percentage of the total of the measure of all processors should be weighted by 20 percent.

(d) The total of the percentages resulting from (a), (b) and (c), above, for each processor shall be multiplied by the quantity in short tons, raw value, by which the quota exceeds 408 tons allotted in (4) and (5), above, to determine his allotments in short tons, raw value.

(7) The quantity of sugar and the percentages referred to in paragraph (6), above, based upon final data, to be used in the determination of allotments are as set forth in the following table:

Processor	Processings of sugar from 1957-crop cane		Past marketings average within allotments, 1953–57		Ability to market					Processor's percentage share of the quota less 408 tons [2]

[1] The difference between 587,068 tons (initial 1958 quota established by S. R. 811 amounting to 587,476 tons less 408 tons allotted to Louisiana State University and Iberia Sugar Coop., Inc.) and 242,399 tons (1–1–58 effective inventory) amounting to 344,669 tons prorated on the basis of each processor's 1953–57 average new-crop marketings within allotments (Col. 6).

[2] Determined by weighting "processings" (Col. 2) by 60 percent; "marketings" (Col. 4) by 20 percent; and "ability" (Col. 9) by 20 percent.

(8) Wm. T. Burton Industries, Inc., shall succeed to all interest in the historical data, pertinent to determining allotments, of the former allottee, Burton-Sutton Oil Co., Inc.

(9) The order shall be revised without further notice or hearing, for the purpose of (a) substituting final data for estimated data on 1957-crop processings, 1957 marketings and January 1, 1958, inventories used in measuring the factors, when such data become part of the official records of the Department; (b) allotting any area deficit which increases the 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota for consumption within the continental United States; (c) making allotments to give effect to any change in quota due to action pursuant to sections 201 and 202 (a) of the act and (d) allotting any quantity of an allotment to other allottees, when written notification of release of such allotment becomes part of the official records of the Department. In making revisions to give effect to quota changes indicated under (b) and (c), above, allotments shall be computed in the same manner as is provided for in this order. Revisions of allotments referred to in (d), above, shall be made by increasing proportionately, the allotments otherwise established by this proceeding except that the quantity prorated to any allottee shall be limited in accordance with statements in writing from allottees releasing allotments in excess of specific quantities.

(10) Official notice will be taken of written notification to the Sugar Division by an allottee that he is unable to fill part of his allotment when the notification becomes a part of the official records of the Department, any regulation issued by the Secretary which changes the 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota and final data for 1957-crop processings, 1957 marketings and January 1, 1958, inventories that become a part of the official records of the Department.

(14) To aid in the efficient movement and storage of sugar, provision shall be made to enable a processor to market a quantity of sugar of his own production in excess of his allotment equivalent to the quantity of sugar which he holds in storage and which was acquired by him within the allotment of another allottee of the 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota.

(15) Allotments established in the foregoing manner and in the amounts set forth in the order provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of any 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota that may be established for consumption within the continental United States and meet the requirements of section 205 (a) of the act.

Order. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act: It is hereby ordered, That § 814.25 be amended to read as follows:

§ 814.25 Allotment of the 1958 sugar quota for the Mainland Cane Sugar Area—(a) Allotments. The 1958 Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota for consumption within the continental United States of 685,441 short tons, raw value, is hereby allotted to the following processors in amounts which appear opposite their respective names:

(b) Marketing limitations. Marketings shall be limited to allotments as established herein subject to the prohibitions and provisions of § 816.3 of this chapter (23 F. R. 1943).

(c) Exchanges of sugar between allottees. When approved in writing by the Director of the Sugar Division, or the Chief of the Quota and Allotment Branch thereof, Commodity Stabilization Service of the Department, any allottee holding sugar or liquid sugar acquired by him within the allotment of another person established in paragraph (a) of this section, may ship, transport or market up to an equivalent quantity of sugar processed by him in excess of his allotment established in paragraph (a) of this section. The sugar or liquid sugar held under this paragraph shall be subject to all other provisions of this section as if it had been processed by the allottee who acquired it for the purpose authorized by this paragraph.

(d) Delegation. The Director of the Sugar Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, is hereby authorized to revise the allotments established under this order without further notice or hearing in accordance with findings and conclusions heretofore made, to give effect to (1) the reallocation of any quantity of an allotment released by an allottee and (2) any change in the Mainland Cane Sugar Area quota.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Avocado Order 16, Amdt. 1]

PART 969—AVOCADOS GROWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 69, as amended (7 CFR Part 969) regulating the handling of avocados grown in south Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Avocado Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of avocados, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as herein after set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter set forth. A reasonable determination as to the time of maturity of avocados must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Avocado Administrative Committee until July 8, 1958; a determination as to the time of maturity of the varieties of avocados covered by this amendment was made at the meeting of said committee on July 8, 1958, after consideration of all available information relative to such maturity and growing conditions prevailing during the current season for such avocados, at which time the recommendations and supporting information for such maturity regulation were submitted to the Department; such meeting was held to consider recommendation for such regulation after giving due notice thereof, and interested parties were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this regulation are identical with the aforesaid recommendations of the committee and information concerning such provisions has been disseminated among the handlers of avocados; and compliance with the provisions of this regulation will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the provisions of § 969.316 (b) (23 F. R. 4349), are hereby amended by revising the dates appearing in columns (2), (4), (6), and (8) of Table 1, applicable to the Trapp, Waldin, and Petersen varieties of avocados, so that after such revision the portion of such table applicable to such varieties shall read as follows:

Variety (1)	Date (2)	Minimum weight or diameter (3)	Date (4)	Minimum weight or diameter (5)	Date (6)	Minimum weight or diameter (7)	Date (8)
Trapp	Aug. 11, 1958	14 ounces 3 9/16 inches	Aug. 25, 1958	12 ounces 3 7/16 inches	Sept. 8, 1958	10 ounces 3 5/16 inches	Sept. 29, 1958
Waldin	Aug. 18, 1958	16 ounces 3 9/16 inches	Sept. 1, 1958	14 ounces 3 9/16 inches	Sept. 15, 1958	11 ounces 3 7/16 inches	Oct. 13, 1958
Petersen	do	12 ounces 3 9/16 inches	do	11 ounces 3 5/16 inches	do	10 ounces 3 7/16 inches	Oct. 6, 1958

(c) The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 29, 1958.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: July 15, 1958.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

Subchapter B—Trade Practice Conference Rules

[File No. 21-516]

PART 42—BUILDING WIRE AND CABLE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

Due proceedings having been held under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission:

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules as hereinafter set forth, which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of July 18, 1958.

Statement by the Commission. Trade practice rules for the Building Wire and Cable Manufacturing Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under the trade practice conference procedure.

The industry for which these rules are established consists of persons, firms, corporations and organizations engaged in the manufacture and sale of building wire and cable products limited to 600 volts maximum capacity and generally referred to as types R, RH, RW, RH-RW, RHW, RR, TW, UF, SEU, SEA, SD, NM and ABC.

Proceedings relating to the establishment of these rules were instituted upon an application of the Building Wire and Cable Association, Inc. A general industry conference was held under Commission auspices in New York City on October 11, 1957, at which proposals for rules were submitted for consideration of the Commission. Thereafter, proposed rules were published by the Commission and made available to all industry members and other interested or affected parties upon public notice whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions or amendments as they desired to offer, and to be heard in the premises. Pursuant to such notice a public hearing was held in Washington, D. C., on April 2, 1958, and all matters there presented, or otherwise received in the proceeding, were considered by the Commission.

Thereafter, and upon full consideration of the entire matter, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved the rules as hereinafter set forth.

The rules, as approved, become operative thirty (30) days after the date of promulgation.

The rules. These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote the maintenance of fair competitive conditions in the interest of protecting industry, trade, and the public. It is to this end, and to the exclusion of any act or practice which fixes or controls prices through combination or agreement, or which unreasonably restrains trade or suppresses competition, or otherwise unlawfully injures, destroys, or prevents competition, that the rules are to be applied.

Sec.
42.0 Definitions.
42.1 Misrepresentation (general).
42.2 Substitution of products.
42.3 Misleading price lists.
42.4 Deceptive invoicing, etc.
42.5 Prohibited discrimination.
42.6 Prohibited forms of trade restraints (unlawful price fixing, etc.).
42.7 Prohibited sales below cost.
42.8 Inducing breach of contract.
42.9 Consignment distribution.
42.10 Enticing away employees of competitors.
42.11 Defamation of competitors or false disparagement of their products.
42.12 Commercial bribery.
42.13 Arrangements to exclude sales of competitors' products.
42.14 Push money.
42.15 Tie-in sales; coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products.
42.16 Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices.

AUTHORITY: §§ 42.0 to 42.16 issued under sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45.

§ 42.0 Definitions—(a) Industry members. As used in this part, "industry members" include all persons, firms, corporations and organizations engaged in the manufacture and sale of industry products as defined in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Industry products. As used in this part, "industry products" are building wire and cable products limited to 600 volts maximum capacity and generally referred to as types R, RH, RW, RH-RW, RHW, RR, TW, UF, SEU, SEA, SD, NM and ABC.

§ 42.1 Misrepresentation (general). It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, in connection with the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of industry products, to make or publish, or cause to be made or published, by way of advertising, labeling, or otherwise, any statement or representation which, directly or by implication, has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the kind, type, grade, quality, price, size, weight, strength, composition, durability, capacity, safety, or availability, of any industry product, or which has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any other material respect. [Rule 1]

§ 42.2 Substitution of products. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry to make an unauthorized substitution of products, where such substitution has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, by:

(a) Shipping or delivering industry products which do not conform to samples submitted, to specifications (in bids or otherwise) upon which the sale is consummated, or to representations made prior to securing the order, without advising the purchaser of the substitution and obtaining his consent thereto prior to making shipment or delivery; or

(b) Falsely representing the reason for making a substitution. [Rule 2]

§ 42.3 Misleading price lists. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member, in the course of or in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of industry products, to publish or circulate price lists which have the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any material respect. [Rule 3]

§ 42.4 Deceptive invoicing, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for members of the industry to issue invoices, billings, or sales slips which by reason of misstatements therein or omissions therefrom have the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any material respect. [Rule 4]

§ 42.5 Prohibited discrimination[1]— (a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc., which effect unlawful price discrimination. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce, and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them: Provided, however:

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use;

(2) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

NOTE: Cost justification under the above proviso depends upon net savings in cost based on all facts relevant to the transactions under the terms of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. For example, if a seller regularly grants a discount based upon the purchase of a specified quantity by a single order for a single delivery, and this discount is justified by cost differences, it does not follow that the same discount can be cost justified if granted to a purchaser of the same quantity by multiple orders or for multiple deliveries.

(3) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned, such as but not limited to obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned;

(5) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent the meeting in good faith of an equally low price of a competitor.

NOTE: See subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended, which is set forth in the note following paragraph (f) of this section.

(b) The following are examples of price differential practices to be considered as subject to the prohibitions of paragraph (a) of this section when involving goods of like grade and quality which are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and which are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use, and when:

(1) The commerce requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section are present; and

(2) The price differential has a reasonable probability of substantially lessening competition or tending to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition with the industry member or with the customer receiving the benefit of the price differential, or with customers of either of them; and

(3) The price differential is not justified by cost savings (see paragraph (a) (2) of this section); and

(4) The price differential is not made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned (see paragraph (a) (4) of this section); and

(5) The lower price was not made to meet in good faith an equally low price of a competitor (see paragraph (a) (5) of this section).

Example 1. The granting of a discount on a purchase made by a customer which is not granted on purchases made by all other customers, or which is not granted in the same amount on the purchases of all other customers.

Example 2. At the end of a given period an industry member grants a discount to a customer equivalent to a fixed percentage of the total of such customer's purchases during the period and fails to grant a discount of the same percentage to all other customers on their purchases during such period.

Example 3. An industry member sells goods to one or more of his customers at a higher price than he charges other customers for like merchandise. It is immaterial whether or not such discrimination is accomplished by misrepresentation as to the grade and quality of the products sold.

Example 4. Terms of 2/10th prox. are granted by an industry member to some customers on goods purchased by them from this industry member. Another customer or customers are, nevertheless, allowed to take an additional discount when making payment to the industry member within the time prescribed.

Example 5. At the time of price decline, price adjustments upon inventory of customers are granted to some customers and not to other customers.

NOTE: As previously indicated, the foregoing are examples of practices to be considered violative of the prohibitions of paragraph (a) of this section when involving goods of like grade and quality and when not subject to the other exemptions, exclusions, or defenses set forth in this paragraph.

(c) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(d) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(e) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all competing purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

[1] As used in this part, the word "commerce" means "trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States."

NOTE: See subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended, which is set forth in the note following paragraph (f) of this section.

(f) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any person engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this section.

NOTE: This paragraph is a restatement of section 2 (f) of the Clayton Act as amended. In a complaint proceeding under this section, in order to make out a prima facie violation, the Commission must show that the favored buyer induced or received the lower price knowing, or knowing facts from which he should have known, that such price was violative of section 2 (a) of said act and not justified under subparagraph (2), (4), or (5) of paragraph (a) of this section. When, in any such proceeding, the issue is limited to the question of whether the price differential involved made only due allowance for differences in cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the goods were sold and delivered, the Commission may establish a prima facie case in a number of ways, including:

(1) By showing that the buyer paying the lower price knew that the methods by, and quantities in, which the goods were sold and delivered to him by the seller, were the same as in the case of the competing buyer or buyers paying the higher price or prices; or

(2) By showing, when there is a difference in the methods or quantities in which the goods were sold and delivered by the seller to the buyer than in the case of the competing buyer or buyers paying the higher price or prices, that the buyer paying the lower price or prices knew the nature and extent of such differences and knew or should have known that they could not have resulted in sufficient cost savings of the kind and character specified as to justify the price differential.

NOTE: This section is based on the provisions of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act.

Subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended, which reads as follows, is in amplification of the note to paragraph (a) (5) of this section and of the note to paragraph (e) of this section. "Upon proof being made, at any hearing on a complaint under this section, that there has been discrimination in price or services or facilities furnished, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification shall be upon the person charged with a violation of this section, and unless justification shall be affirmatively shown, the Commission is authorized to issue an order terminating the discrimination: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall prevent a seller rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing that his lower price or the furnishing of services or facilities to any purchaser or purchasers was made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, or the services or facilities furnished by a competitor."

§ 42.6 Prohibited forms of trade restraints (unlawful price fixing, etc.)[2] It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, either directly or indirectly, to engage in any planned common course of action, or to enter into or take part in any understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy, with one or more members of the industry, or with any other persons or persons, to fix or maintain the price of any goods or otherwise unlawfully to restrain trade; or to use any form of threat, intimidation, or coercion to induce any member of the industry or other person or persons to engage in any such planned common course of action, or to become a party to any such understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy. [Rule 6]

§ 42.7 Prohibited sales below cost. (a) The practice of selling products of the industry at a price less than the cost thereof to the seller, with the purpose or intent, and where the effect is, or where there is a reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or tend to create a monopoly, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) This section is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued with the wrongful intent or purpose referred to and where the effect is, or where there is reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or to create a monopoly. Among the situations in which the requisite purpose or intent would ordinarily be lacking are cases in which such sales were: (1) Of seasonal goods near the conclusion of the season; (2) of obsolescent goods; (3) made under judicial process; or (4) made in bona fide discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(c) As used in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the term "cost" means the respective seller's cost and not an average cost in the industry whether such average cost be determined by an industry cost survey or some other method. It consists of the total outlay or expenditure by the seller in the acquisition, production, and distribution of the products involved, and comprises all elements of cost such as labor, material, depreciation, taxes (except taxes on net income and such other taxes as are not properly applicable to cost), and general overhead expenses incurred by the seller in the acquisition, manufacture, processing, preparation for marketing, sale, and delivery of the products. Not to be included are dividends or interest on borrowed or invested capital, or nonoperating losses, such as fire losses and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Operating cost should not be reduced by items of nonoperating income such as income from investments, and gain on the sale of capital assets.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving an industry member from compliance with any of the requirements of the Robinson-Patman Act. [Rule 7]

§ 42.8 Inducing breach of contract. (a) Knowingly inducing or attempting to induce a breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services under any circumstance having the capacity and tendancy or effect of substantially injuring or lessening present or potential competition, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to imply that it is improper for any industry member to solicit the business of a customer of a competing industry member; nor is the section to be construed as in anywise authorizing any agreement, understanding, or planned common course of action by two or more industry members not to solicit business from the customers of either of them, or from customers of any other industry member. [Rule 8]

§ 42.9 Consignment distribution. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping industry products on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose of or with the effect of artificially clogging or closing trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their products to consumers through regular channels of distribution, thereby injuring, destroying, or preventing competition, or tending to create a monopoly or unreasonably to restrain trade. Nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of industry products in good faith where suppression of competition, restraint of trade, or undue interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution is not effected; nor shall anything in this section be construed to authorize any agreement, understanding, or planned common course of action by and between industry members mutually to conform or restrict their practice of shipping goods on consignment with the intent or effect of lessening competition. [Rule 9]

§ 42.10 Enticing away employees of competitors. Knowingly enticing away employees or sales representatives of competitors under any circumstance having the capacity and tendency or effect of substantially injuring or lessening competition is an unfair trade practice: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting em-

[2] The inhibitions of this section are subject to Public Law 542, approved July 14, 1952, 66 Stat. 632 (the McGuire Act) which provides that with respect to a commodity which bears, or the label or container of which bears, the trade-mark, brand, or name of the producer or distributor of such commodity and which is in free and open competition with commodities of the same general class produced or distributed by others, a seller of such a commodity may enter into a contract or agreement with a buyer thereof which establishes a minimum or stipulated price at which such commodity may be resold by such buyer when such contract or agreement is lawful as applied to intrastate transactions under the laws of the State, Territory, or territorial jurisdiction in which the resale is to be made or to which the commodity is to be transported for such resale, and when such contract or agreement is not between manufacturers, or between wholesalers, or between brokers, or between factors, or between retailers, or between persons, firms, or corporations in competition with each other.

ployees from seeking more favorable employment, or as prohibiting employers from hiring or offering employment to employees of competitors in good faith and not for the purpose of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition. [Rule 10]

§ 42.11 Defamation of competitors or false disparagement of their products. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the quality, grade, origin, use, construction, design, performance, properties, manufacture, or distribution of the products of competitors or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies or services, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 11]

§ 42.12 Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry, directly or indirectly, to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors. [Rule 12]

§ 42.13 Arrangements to exclude sales of competitors' products. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to sell or contract for the sale of any industry products for use or resale, or to fix a price charged therefor, or discount from, or rebate upon, such price, on the condition, agreement, or understanding that the purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in new or used products of a competitor or competitors of such industry member, where the effect of such sale or contract for sale, or such condition, agreement, or understanding may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce. [Rule 13]

§ 42.14 Push money. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member to pay or contract to pay anything of value to a salesperson employed by a customer of the industry member, as compensation for, or as an inducement to obtain, special or greater effort or service on the part of the salesperson in promoting the resale of products supplied by the industry member to the customer:

(a) When the agreement or understanding under which the payment or payments are made or are to be made is without the knowledge and consent of the salesperson's employer; or

(b) When the terms and conditions of the agreement or understanding are such that any benefit to the sales person or customer is dependent on lottery or chance; or

(c) When any provision of the agreement or understanding requires or contemplates practices or a course of conduct unduly and intentionally hampering sales of products of competitors of an industry member; or

(d) When, because of the terms and conditions of the understanding or agreement, including its duration, or the attendant circumstances, the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly; or

(e) When similar payments are not accorded to salespersons of competing customers on proportionally equal terms in compliance with sections 2 (d) and (e) of the Clayton Act.

NOTE: Payments made by an industry member to a salesperson of a customer under any agreement or understanding that all or any part of such payments is to be transferred by the salesperson to the customer, or is to result in a corresponding decrease in the salesperson's salary, are not to be considered within the purview of this section, but are to be considered as subject to the requirements and provisions of section 2 (a) of the Clayton Act.

§ 42.15 Tie-in sales; coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products. The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products of the industry as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably to restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 15]

§ 42.16 Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices. It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm, or corporation to aid, abet, coerce, or induce another, directly or indirectly, to use or promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in this part. [Rule 16]

PART 37—PREPAYMENT AND REFUNDS

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF 5-CENT CHARGE FOR UNPAID AND SHORT PAID MAIL

Amend paragraph (b) of § 37.1 Postage payment (23 F. R. 4601) by adding at the end thereof the following: "Beginning August 1, 1958, and continuing through October 31, 1958, the 5-cent charge for unpaid and short paid mail provided by this paragraph is suspended. During this period the charge for unpaid and short paid mail shall be the deficient postage only. This suspension of the 5-cent charge for unpaid and short paid mail is for the purpose of giving mailers time to become familiar with the new postage rates effective August 1, 1958."

Appendix—Public Land Orders

UTAH

PARTIALLY REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER OF APRIL 17, 1926, CREATING PUBLIC WATER RESERVE NO. 107

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Executive Order of April 17, 1926, creating Public Water Reserve No. 107, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands in Utah:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 38 S., R. 24 E.,
Sec. 1, NW¼SE¼.

The area described contains 40 acres.

2. The lands are in Utah Grazing District No. 6, and are suitable for crop production, if irrigated.

3. No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

4. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 16, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 15, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 15, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws, and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location for non-metalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 15, 1958.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City, Utah.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 7—LIST OF FORMS, PART II, INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACT

CARRIER'S MONTHLY REPORT OF NO EXCESS DRIVING TIME AND NO EXCESS TIME ON DUTY BY DRIVERS

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of July A. D. 1958.

The matter of Form BMC–62, Carrier's Monthly Report of No Excess Driving Time and No Excess Time on Duty by Drivers,[1] being under consideration; and

It appearing that following reclassification by the Interstate Commerce Commission of motor carriers of property, revision of Form BMC–62 so as to clarify its applicability to both Class I and Class II of motor carriers of property is desirable;

It further appearing that this revision is merely an instruction which conforms with the requirement of § 195.9 (c) which became effective April 1, 1958, and therefore, pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1003) for good cause it is found that notice of proposed rule making is unnecessary;

It is ordered, That the order of July 29, 1955, in so far as it prescribed Form BMC–62 is vacated as of the effective date of this order;

It is further ordered, That Form BMC–62 (1958), Carrier's Monthly Report of No Excess Driving Time and No Excess Time on Duty By Drivers, is approved, adopted, and prescribed for appropriate use as required by § 195.9 (c) and that § 7.62 be amended accordingly, provided, that stocks of Form BMC–62 in the possession of carriers or their suppliers on the effective date hereof may be used;

And it is further ordered, That this order shall be effective July 9, 1958, and shall continue in effect until further order of the Commission.

Notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy thereof with the Director, Federal Register Division.

(49 Stat. 546, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 304)

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter B—Hunting and Possession of Wildlife

PART 6—MIGRATORY BIRDS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Basis and purpose. By notice of proposed rule making published on February 12, 1958 (23 F. R. 910), the public was notified of proposed changes in Part 6, Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, which would add cowbirds to the species of migratory birds that may be killed without a permit under § 6.62 and add house finches to the designated species of depredating birds that may be killed in California under § 6.63 when damaging or about to damage agricultural or horticultural crops. These changes were deemed desirable since investigations by Service personnel and others show that cowbirds frequently cause widespread damage to agricultural crops. Furthermore, the California Department of Agriculture has reported serious agricultural crop damage caused by house finches and has requested that provisions be made whereby such birds may be killed when found causing such damage. This report has been confirmed by qualified Service personnel.

Interested persons were invited to submit their views, data, or arguments in writing with respect to the proposed changes to the Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Washington 25, D. C., on or before the expiration of 30 days from the date of publication of the notice. Consideration having been given to all relevant matters presented, it has been determined that without unduly endangering the cowbird and house finch populations, the best interests of agriculture and horticulture will be served by permitting depredating members of these species to be killed in the manner contemplated by the proposed amendments. Accordingly, Part 6 of the regulations is amended in pertinent part as follows:

1. The headnote and the introductory paragraph of § 6.62 are amended to read as follows:

§ 6.62 Depredating blackbirds, cowbirds and grackles. Any person without a permit, may kill yellow-headed, red-winged, bi-colored red-winged, tricolored red-winged, and Brewer's Blackbirds, cowbirds, and all grackles under the conditions and restrictions prescribed in this section when found committing or about to commit serious depredations upon any agricultural crop or ornamental or shade trees.

2. The introductory paragraph of § 6.63 is amended to read as follows:

§ 6.63 Designated species of depredating birds in California. In any county in California in which meadowlarks; horned larks; Gambel's Nuttall's, golden-crowned, white-crowned, and other crowned sparrows; goldfinches; house finches; and California woodpeckers, Lewis woodpeckers, and flickers are, under extraordinary conditions, seriously injurious to agricultural or other interests, the agricultural commissioner, without a permit may kill or cause to be killed under his general supervision and direction such of the aforesaid migratory birds as may be necessary to safeguard from their depredations any agricultural or horticultural crop in such county, subject to the conditions and restrictions prescribed in this section.

Since the foregoing amendments serve to relieve existing restrictions on the killing of cowbirds and house finches when found depredating upon agricultural or horticultural crops, they are exempt from the 30-day advance publication requirement imposed by section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003 (c)), and they shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 104—BRISTOL BAY AREA

REDUCTION OF FISHING TIME

Basis and purpose. Because of declining red salmon runs in the Egegik and Ugashik districts of Bristol Bay, immediate reduction in fishing time is necessary.

Section 104.9, as amended July 14, 1958, is further amended under Item 1 by changing the period after 1958 to a comma and adding the following: "and in the Egegik and Ugashik districts to the period from 9 a. m. July 17 to 9 p. m. July 17, 1958."

Since the decline of runs in the two districts involved require immediate action to secure needed escapement, notice and public procedure on this amendment is impracticable and it shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (68 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 966]

[Docket No. AO-257-A4]

HANDLING OF MILK IN SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreements Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Monroe, Louisiana, on March 4–6, 1958, pursuant to notice thereof issued on February 7, 1958 (23 F. R. 911).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, on June 24, 1958 (23 F. R. 4750) filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision containing notice of the opportunity to file written exceptions thereto.

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. Extension of the marketing area.
2. Revision of order provisions with respect to the classification of milk.
3. The level of class prices in the present and proposed extended marketing area.
4. Establishment of location adjustments from the nearer of the city halls at Shreveport and Monroe, Louisiana, and the revision of the present rate of adjustment.
5. Changes in the assignment and transfer of bases.
6. A revision of the computation of the value of producer milk when a handler has other source milk allocated to Class I in the same month that associated producer milk is assigned to such handler.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The Shreveport, Louisiana, marketing area should be expanded to include all the territory in Claiborne, Lincoln, Morehouse, Ouachita, and Union Parishes, and redesignated as the Northern Louisiana marketing area.

Three proposals were made with respect to expanding the marketing area. In addition to the area herein recommended producers proposed the inclusion of Caldwell, Madison, Richland and West Carroll Parishes; handlers proposed (1) the inclusion of Franklin Parish, and (2) Natchitoches Parish, the city of Leesville and the military installation at Camp Polk in Vernon Parish.

The recommended area includes the principal sales areas of those distributors in and around Monroe who compete with presently regulated Shreveport handlers. The cities of Haynesville and Homer in Claiborne parish are presently a part of the marketing area. A regulated handler at Haynesville and a handler operating an approved plant at El Dorado, Arkansas, compete with each other in the distribution of fluid milk products throughout Claiborne parish as well as these two cities. These handlers and those located in Ouachita Parish also compete for the supply of producer milk in Claiborne Parish. The trade situation in Union Parish is similar to that in Claiborne except that the centers of population are smaller. It is in the remaining three—Lincoln, Ouachita, and Morehouse—of the five parishes herein recommended in the expansion of the marketing area where the trade between the regulated distributors located in Shreveport and Monroe is the most extensive. Located within these three parishes are five milk distributors procuring milk from approximately 200 producers. One of these distributors located in Monroe is currently regulated by the order. Sales distribution of all five of these handlers is interwoven in the additional five parishes recommended herein to be added. Two regulated handlers located in Shreveport distribute fluid milk products in Monroe and the territory between the two cities. Such sales represent approximately 10 percent of their business. Approximately 10 percent of the fluid milk business of a Monroe handler is distributed in the present Shreveport area.

The handling of milk under the present Shreveport order and in the new territory recommended is closely related, as previously demonstrated. The health regulations applicable to milk sold in these markets are the same. Hence, it is concluded that expansion of the Shreveport area should be limited to the parishes herein recommended. These parishes embrace most of the trade territory of the group of competing distributors operating therein. It is this inter-relationship of the trade, that determines and justifies the extension of the Shreveport marketing area, herein recommended. Such extension may be said to be essential to the maintenance of stability and orderly marketing in the market for producer milk.

The inclusion of Natchitoches Parish and parts of Vernon Parish has been an issue in two previous decisions (19 F. R. 887 and 21 F. R. 3967). In both decisions the conclusion was to reject the addition of this territory as a part of the marketing area. These decisions found that the supply of producer milk was not adequate on a year-round basis for the Class I needs of the existing marketing area; presently regulated handlers apparently are able to compete successfully with milk distributors in these parishes as well as in the larger territory of central and southeastern Louisiana; and finally such a proposal would bring under regulation handlers with sources of supply and points of distribution primarily associated with other markets. For these reasons, and the fact that this record adds no new evidence in support of the proposal, it is concluded that this territory should not be included in the marketing area.

The evidence does not justify the inclusion of the parishes of Caldwell, Franklin, Madison, Richland and West Carroll. The excluded parishes are essentially rural in character and the distribution therein represents fringe area sales to the Northern Louisiana (Shreveport-Monroe) area as proposed in this decision. It is not necessary or feasible to include in a marketing area all of the territory where a regulated handler competes for retail and wholesale outlets.

Two distributors operating in these parishes have a minor portion of their sales in the area herein recommended. Whether the volume of such sales would be great enough to make them subject to the regulation is not clear. One of these distributors proposed the inclusion of Franklin parish for protection against competition with unregulated distributors. While he is a major distributor in Franklin parish, having approximately 80 percent of the sales, his testimony showed that nearly half of his business is in localities that were not proposed for the marketing area. No sales are made in these parishes from fluid milk plants located in the present marketing area. Distribution in these five excluded parishes is a minor portion of the sales of a presently regulated fluid milk plant located in Monroe and of another plant located in Monroe which would be regulated by the inclusion of the area herein recommended. Thus the exclusion of these parishes would not unduly restrict sales or the procurement of producer milk by regulated handlers.

The provisions of the order modified, as recommended herein, are appropriate and economically sound for the regulation of the handling of milk both for the present marketing area and for the additional territory. The expanded market territory, however, should be redesignated the Northern Louisiana marketing area.

2. The order provisions affecting the classification of milk should be revised.

Two proposals were made with respect to the classification of milk. One proposal would merely clarify the order language. The other proposal would increase the daily amount of skim milk permitted to be accounted for as dumped and classified as Class II, from 1,500 pounds to 2,500 pounds, or 7 percent of skim milk received in producer milk, whichever is greater. The present and proposed provisions require that the market administrator be given at least 24 hours' notice of the handlers' intention to make such disposition of skim milk.

The evidence is that handlers move excess skim milk to manufacturing plants or dispose of it as livestock feed whenever it is possible to do so. The producers' association has full supply contracts with several handlers and assists other handlers in obtaining supplies of milk when the market is in short supply. Under these market conditions and where the order requires that handlers must account for dumped skim milk as a Class II disposition and notify the market administrator in advance of such dumping of skim milk there is no need to place a quantitative limitation. It is therefore recommended that the order language with respect to classification be revised for clarification and also to eliminate the present limitation on the amounts of skim milk that may be dumped during the months of April, May and June, and accounted for as Class II disposition.

3. The class prices for milk in the present marketing area should apply to the extended area. Action with respect to class prices in the present marketing area was taken in a separate decision issued June 10, 1958.

Producers proposed that a higher Class I price—15 cents per hundredweight above Shreveport—should apply to milk received from producers at fluid milk plants located in the parishes of Ouachita and Morehouse. A handler also recommended that the differential in these two parishes should be 20 cents above Shreveport.

The procurement of supplies and sales of fluid milk products under the present Shreveport order and in the additional area recommended is closely related. The relationship of the supply of producer milk to Class I sales in the new territory is approximately the same as in the present marketing area. The utilization of producer milk in Class I, in the present area, averages over 90 percent. The same high Class I utilization has been experienced in the additional territory.

Until the summer of 1957, Class I prices and blend prices to producers in the Ouachita-Morehouse area have been 15–20 cents per hundredweight higher than prices under the order. Such was also the case before April 1955 when the order was first made effective. But, marketing conditions in the whole Northern Louisiana marketing area, as recommended herein, are not static. A handler, presently regulated by the order, located in Ouachita Parish started distributing milk in the rural areas of the present marketing area in April 1955. Since that time distribution has increased and includes the metropolitan area of the city of Shreveport. Likewise two handlers located in Shreveport have gradually extended their sales territory eastward to include Ouachita Parish, where the cities of West Monroe and Monroe are located. The fact that the location differential for the regulated plant in Ouachita Parish is nineteen and a quarter cents less than the price of producer milk delivered to fluid milk plants in Shreveport resulted in a lowering of class prices and prices to dairy farmers by handlers in this general area.

But under existing market conditions, previously stated in this decision (i. e. intramarket trade competition, common areas of procurement and similar supply-demand relations) the Class I price structure in the new territory should be the same as that in the present marketing area.

4. In the expanded marketing area location adjustments should apply to milk received from producers at fluid milk plants located more than 50 miles from either the city hall in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana, whichever is closer. The rate at such plants should be 12 cents less than the announced price and less an additional 1 cent for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof for fluid milk plants located beyond 80 miles.

The recommended differential provision would result in the same Class I price at all plants within the expanded marketing area. The provisions of the order presently provide location adjustments beyond a 40-mile radius of the city hall in Shreveport. The rate is 1.75 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that the fluid milk plant is located from the Shreveport city hall. Two plants currently regulated under the order have location differentials of 12.25 cents and 19.25 cents. Producers proposed at the hearing that the location adjustments should not apply to milk received from producers at fluid milk plants located within 75 miles of the city hall at either Shreveport or Monroe and that the rate should be reduced to 1 cent for each 10 miles distance from the city hall. But, this proposal would extend uniform Class I prices to possible plant locations far beyond the borders of the expanded area. Evidence supports uniform prices within the area, but not for locations at substantially greater distances from central area points.

Hence, it is recommended that location adjustments should apply only to milk received at fluid milk plants more than 50 miles from either the city hall in Minden or Monroe. These cities would serve as convenient locations in the expanded area from which to determine zones for location differentials. Milk produced closer than 50 miles can be readily transported directly from producers' farms to distributing plants in the principal consuming communities in the marketing area as recommended herein. Therefore, the need for location differentials at plants within the marketing area is not justified under present marketing conditions. A higher rate for relatively short distances is justified as compared with long-distance movements of milk. The record evidence substantiates a differential of 12 cents per hundredweight hauling cost within the radius of 50 to 60 miles of the recommended basing points and 1 cent for each additional 10 miles beyond 60 miles. The producers' association procures and hauls supplemental supplies of bulk milk from nonfluid milk plants to effect full supply contracts that it has with some handlers. The proposed location adjustment rate represents the actual cost of hauling such milk by the cooperative in fulfilling their contracts with handlers. There was no opposition to the use of this rate, but it was supported by a handler witness. The location differential for existing approved plants located outside the marketing area will be approximately the same as under the present order provisions. In paying producers, the applicable location differential should be the same as the Class I price differential to handlers. This is as the order presently provides.

5. The base plan rules should be revised.

In the order provisions defining distributing and supply plants certain requirements are set forth which determine that such plants are primarily associated with this marketing area. Therefore, dairy farmers who become producers under the order as a result of a plant becoming a fluid milk plant by meeting the required distributing or supply plant qualifications or by the extension of the marketing area should be assigned bases. Accordingly, the order language has been revised to provide assignment of bases to dairy farmers who become producers under such circumstances.

The intent of the order is to provide a means of determining a base for each producer in accordance with the actual receipts of milk at fluid milk plants during the base-forming period. To accomplish this intent under conditions where bases are transferred, the total base should be determined by adding together the milk deliveries of the transferee and transferor during the base-forming period and dividing this total by the number of days from the first day milk was received from either producer during the base-forming period to the last day of such period but not less than 90. This proposed revision of the base rules conforms with the practices currently in effect in this market as a result of administrative decision.

6. No change should be made in the computation of the value of producer milk.

Producers requested a review of the computation of the value of producer milk when a handler has other source milk allocated to Class I in the same month that associated producer milk is assigned to such handler. Producers failed to offer a specific proposal to amend the order in respect to the problem cited.

The record evidence is that handlers are not displacing producer milk in their Class I utilization with receipts of bulk milk from other sources. It is not intended that associated producer milk affect the handlers cost of milk. The associated producer provisions merely provide a sharing of returns among producers and associated producers. There was no showing that the present allocation provisions of the order failed to insure that producer milk receives the highest utilization possible, since any receipts of other source milk is subtracted first from the Class II utilization of the fluid milk plant. Under these circumstances additional safeguards to protect the interests of producers permanently associated with the market are not justified by the evidence.

The entire order is redrafted to incorporate conforming provisions to accommodate the changes recommended herein.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings on exceptions. In arriving at the findings and conclusions, and the regulatory provisions of this decision, each of the exceptions received was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions, and the regulatory provisions of this decision are at variance with any of the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, Marketing Area", and "Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, Marketing Area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order as hereby proposed to be amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

Referendum Order; Determination of Representative Period; and Designation of Referendum Agent

It is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted to determine whether the issuance of the attached order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, marketing area, is approved or favored by the producers, as defined under the terms of the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and who, during the representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale within the aforesaid marketing area.

The month of May 1958 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the conduct of such referendum.

John D. Nord is hereby designated agent of the Secretary to conduct such referendum in accordance with the procedure for the conduct of referenda to determine producer approval of milk marketing orders, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 10, 1950 (15 F. R. 5177), such referendum to be completed on or before the 15th day from the date this decision is issued.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of July 1958.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, Marketing Area

§ 966.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to receipts of other source milk allocated to Class I, producer milk, associated producer milk and Class I milk distributed on routes in the marketing area by a nonfluid milk plant.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Shreveport, Louisiana, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 966.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 966.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States as is authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 966.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as is authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 966.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

§ 966.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 966.6 Northern Louisiana, Marketing Area. "Northern Louisiana, Marketing Area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all territory within the boundaries of the Parishes of Bossier, Caddo, Claiborne, Desoto, Lincoln, Morehouse, Ouachita, Red River, Union, and Webster, all in the State of Louisiana.

§ 966.7 Distributing plant. "Distributing plant" means any plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to an average of more than 1,500 pounds per day or not less than 4 percent of the Grade A milk and skim milk received from producers and other plants is disposed of during the month through routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 966.8 Supply plant. "Supply plant" means any plant from which "Grade A" milk or skim milk is received during the month at a distributing plant:

(a) In any of the months of March through June; and

(b) On ten or more days or in an amount equal to a daily average of not less than 8,300 pounds in any of the months of July through February.

§ 966.10 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means (a) a fluid milk plant and (b) any milk processing or packaging plant from which Class I milk is disposed of through routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets located in the marketing area.

§ 966.11 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing, or packaging plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 966.12 Producer. "Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade "A" inspection requirements for milk for fluid consumption which milk is (a) received at a fluid milk plant or (b) diverted for the account of a handler from such plant during the month to a nonfluid milk plant; Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted; And provided further, That this definition shall not include any such person with respect to milk produced by him which is subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing order issued pursuant to the Act.

§ 966.13 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat in milk produced by a producer and received at the fluid milk plant directly from producers or diverted pursuant to § 966.12.

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

§ 966.13a Associated producer. "Associated producer" means a person who, with respect to any milk not accepted at a fluid milk plant or diverted from it by a handler in any month, meets all of the following qualifications:

(a) Produces milk in conformity with the sanitation requirements of any duly constituted health authority relating to milk for fluid consumption;

(b) Delivered milk for not less than 60 days during the preceding months of September through December, which milk was received at or diverted from a fluid milk plant; and

(c) Certifies in writing to the market administrator, on or before the first day of any month following the first month in which any of his milk is not accepted at or diverted from a fluid milk plant, that he is ready and willing to deliver his milk to such fluid milk plant, and does so perform in response to appropriate request from the handler through the market administrator.

§ 966.13b Associated producer milk. "Associated producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat sold during the month by associated producers to a nonfluid milk plant(s) which, during such month, utilized skim milk and butterfat in products designated pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (1): Provided, That the sale of such milk by associated producers is reported to and verified by the market administrator pursuant to § 966.32 (c).

§ 966.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 966.41 (a) (1), except (1) such products received from other fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (1) and (6) from any source (including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed or converted to another product during the month.

§ 966.15 Handler. "Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more approved plants.

§ 966.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who produces milk and operates an approved plant but who receives no milk from dairy farmers or producers.

§ 966.19 Base milk. "Base milk" means producer milk received by a handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler during the base-operating period, which milk is not in excess of bases computed pursuant to § 966.80.

§ 966.20 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means producer milk received by a handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler during the base-operating period, which milk is in excess of the base milk received during the month, and shall include all milk received from producers for whom no daily average base can be computed pursuant to § 966.80.

§ 966.21 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 966.25 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 966.26 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 966.27 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of funds provided by § 966.94 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 966.93 necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties);

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records for examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as the Secretary may request;

(g) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 966.30 to 966.32, or payments pursuant to §§ 966.90 to 966.95, inclusive;

(i) On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, report to each cooperative association which so requests the amount and class utilization of milk received by each handler from producers who are members of such cooperative association. For the purpose of this report the milk so received shall be prorated to each class in the proportion that the total receipts of milk from producers by such handler were used in each class;

(j) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 966.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 966.52 (a), both for the current month; and the minimum price for Class II milk pursuant to § 966.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to § 966.52 (b), both for the preceding month;

(2) On or before the 10th day of each month, the uniform price(s) computed pursuant to § 966.72 or § 966.73 as applicable, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 966.91.

(k) Mail to each handler at his last known address a statement showing for such handler:

(1) On or before the 5th day of the month the names and addresses of associated producers assigned to such handler;

(2) On or before the 12th day after the end of the month (i) the amount and value of producer milk in each class and the total thereof; (ii) for the months of the base-operating period, the amounts and value of his base and excess milk, respectively; and

(3) On or before the 10th day of the month the quantity and butterfat test of associated producer milk assigned to such handler and the amount in payment thereof to be remitted to the market administrator for payment to associated producers pursuant § 966.90 (f): Provided, That during the base-operating period such notification shall include the quantity and butterfat test of associated producer milk designated as base and excess milk and the amount thereon to be remitted.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 966.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his fluid milk plants as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk received from each producer and, for the months of the base-operating period, the quantities of base milk and excess milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 966.41 (a) (1) received from fluid milk plants of other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk;

(d) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in inventories of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 966.41 (a) on hand at the beginning and end of the month;

(e) Utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section including a statement of the disposition of Class I milk outside the marketing area; and

(f) Such other information with respect to receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 966.31 Payroll reports. On or before the 20th day of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for deliveries of milk for the preceding month for each of his fluid milk plants which shall show:

(a) The name and address of each producer;

(b) The total pounds and the average butterfat test of milk received from such producer;

(c) The number of days, if less than the entire month, for which milk was received from such producer; and, for the months of the base-operating period, such producer's deliveries of base milk and excess milk;

(d) The rate and net amount of payment to each producer; and

(e) The nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments.

§ 966.32 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler and each handler operating a nonfluid milk plant shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe;

(b) Each handler, who causes milk to be diverted for his account directly from a producer's farm to a nonfluid milk plant, shall prior to such diversion report to the market administrator and to the cooperative association of which such producer is a member his intention to divert such milk, the proposed date or dates of such diversion, and name of the plant to which such milk is to be diverted; and

(c) Each associated producer shall submit to the market administrator on or before the 3d day of the month, a statement of the quantity and butterfat test of his milk sold during the preceding month to a nonfluid milk plant which during such month utilized skim milk and butterfat in Class II products pursuant to § 966.41 (b) on or before the 12th day of the month, payment statements, weight slips, or other acceptable evidence to verify the quantity and butterfat test of milk sold pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 966.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat from any source;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream and other milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers and cooperative associations including any deductions authorized by producers or cooperative association and disbursements of money so deducted.

§ 966.34 Retention of records. All books and records required this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act, or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 966.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat at fluid milk plants which is required to be reported for the month pursuant to § 966.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 966.41 to 966.46.

§ 966.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 966.43 and 966.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat: (1) Disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk and drinks, cream, cultured sour cream, and any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk except that classified pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) and (5) of this section; (2) used to produce concentrated fluid milk; and (3) not specially accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce eggnog, aerated cream products, ice cream, ice cream mix, ice milk, ice milk mix, frozen desserts, evaporated milk, condensed milk and milk products packaged in hermetically sealed containers or any other product not specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section;

(2) Disposed of and used for livestock feed or skim milk dumped during April, May and June: Provided, That in the case of skim milk dumped, the market administrator is given at least 24 hours' notice of the handler's intention to make such disposition and the amount involved;

(3) Contained in inventory of milk and milk products designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section on hand at the end of the month;

(4) In shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in receipts from producers and other source milk;

(5) Disposed of to commercial bakeries or food product manufacturing plants (other than nonfluid milk plants) which do not dispose of milk for fluid consumption; and

§ 966.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall assign shrinkage at the fluid milk plant(s) of a handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat classified as Class II milk; and

(b) Assign the resulting amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 966.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified as Class II milk;

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 966.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 966.41 (a) (1), to the fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 966.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (2) and (b) and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have other source milk during the month, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I utilization to the producer milk of both handlers;

(b) As Class I milk, if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 966.41 (a) (1);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant, unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The transferring handler claims Class II utilization in a product specified in § 966.41 (b);

(2) The operator of such nonfluid milk plant maintains adequate books and records showing the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant, which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(3) The Class I milk, as defined pursuant to § 966.41 (a) (1) in such nonfluid milk plant does not exceed the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in milk received during the month from dairy farmers, who the market administrator determines constitute the regular source of supply for such plant: Provided, That any Class I milk in excess of receipts from such dairy farmers shall be assigned to milk, skim milk or cream so transferred or diverted.

§ 966.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat solids content of such product together with all of the water originally associated with such solids content.

§ 966.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 966.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk received at the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler each month as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 966.42 (b);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk as defined pursuant to § 966.14;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory on hand at the beginning of the month and classified pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (3);

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk contained in products designated as Class I milk in § 966.41 (a) (1) received from the fluid milk plants of other handlers, according to the classification of such skim milk as determined pursuant to § 966.44 (a);

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section;

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 966.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the highest of the prices computed, pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department, divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 4.0.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the Chicago butter price, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 4.0.

(2) From the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.96.

(c) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for ungraded milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department.

§ 966.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 966.52 and 966.53, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his fluid milk plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. Through June 30, 1960, the minimum price shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus $2.00 for each of the months of March, April, May and June, and plus $2.40 for all other months; and

(b) Class II milk price. The minimum price shall be the price computed pursuant to § 966.50 (c) for the months of March, April, May and June and the higher of the prices computed pursuant to § 966.50 (b) or (c) for all other months, rounded in each case to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 966.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices calculated pursuant to § 966.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent butterfat at the appropriate rate, rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent, determined as follows:

(a) Class I price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the preceding month by 0.120;

§ 966.53 Location adjustment to handlers. For milk received from producers at a fluid milk plant located more than 50 but not more than 60 miles by shortest hard surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from either the City Hall in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana, whichever is closer and which is classified as Class I, the prices determined pursuant to § 966.51 (a) shall be reduced 12 cents and by an additional one cent for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 60 miles.

§ 966.54 Use of equivalent price. If for any reason a price quotation required by this part for computing class prices, or for any other purpose, is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to such required price.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 966.60 Producer-handler. Sections 966.40 to 966.46, 966.50 to 966.53, 966.70 to 966.72, 966.80 to 966.82, and 966.90 to 966.96 shall not apply to producer-handler.

§ 966.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. (a) An approved plant will be considered to be a nonfluid milk plant during the month for the purpose of this part if (1) a larger volume of Class I milk is disposed of from such plant in the marketing area of another order issued pursuant to the act than is distributed in the Northern Louisiana marketing area (i) through retail or wholesale outlets (other than distributing plants) during the month, or (ii) to distributing plant(s) in each of the preceding months of September through December, and (2) such plant would be subject to the classification and the pricing provision of such other order.

(b) The operator of such approved plant shall with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 966.30 and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 966.70 Net obligation to handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price and add together resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (6) and (b) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add an amount computed as follows:

(1) Determine the pounds, if any, that the skim milk or butterfat in inventory subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (3) and (b) is not in excess of the quantity in producer milk classified as Class II milk (other than as shrinkage) for the preceding month; and

(2) Multiply such pounds by the difference between the Class I price in the current month and the Class II price in the preceding month adjusted by the appropriate butterfat differentials;

(d) Add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months;

§ 966.71 Computation of aggregate value used to determine uniform prices. For each month, the market administrator shall compute for each handler who operates a fluid milk plant an aggregate value from which to determine the uniform price(s) per hundredweight for producer milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 966.70 an amount equal to the volume of associated producer milk assigned to such handler pursuant to § 966.27 (k) (3) multiplied by the Class II price;

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers determined pursuant to § 966.91 and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk and associated producer milk;

(c) Add an amount equal to the total deductions to be made pursuant to § 966.92; and

(d) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating a fraction of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month.

§ 966.72 Computation of uniform prices. For each month which is not in the base-operating period, the market administrator shall compute the uniform price for producer milk received by each handler by dividing the aggregate value computed pursuant to § 966.71 by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by, and associated producer milk assigned to, such handler. The result less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content at a fluid milk plant located not more than 50 miles from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana.

§ 966.73 Computation of the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk. For each of the months of the base-operating period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler a uniform price for base milk and for excess milk as follows:

(a) Compute the value, subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, of excess milk received by such handler by multiplying the quantity of such milk by the Class II price;

(b) Compute the value of base milk received by such handler by subtracting the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section from the value obtained pursuant to § 966.71: Provided, That if such resulting value is greater than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of such base milk by the Class I price, such value in excess thereof shall be added to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section to the extent the excess price shall not exceed the base price. Any additional value remaining shall be prorated on a volume basis between excess and base milk;

(c) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section by the hundredweight of base milk. This result less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content at a fluid milk plant located not more than 50 miles from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana; and

(d) Add the value represented by any fraction of a cent subtracted pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section to the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and divide by the hundredweight of excess milk. This result less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content at a fluid milk plant, located not more than 50 miles from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana.

DETERMINATION OF BASE

§ 966.80 Computation of daily average base for each producer. The daily average base for each producer shall be an amount calculated by the market administrator as follows: Divide the total pounds of milk received by the handler(s) from such producer during the base-forming period by the number of day's production a producer delivered during the base-forming period, but not less than 90.

§ 966.81 Computation of base. The base of each producer to be applied during the base-operating period shall be a quantity of milk calculated by multiplying the daily base of such producer by the number of days for which such producer's milk was received by such handler during the month.

§ 966.82 Base rules. The following rules shall apply for the establishment and transfer of bases:

(a) The base shall be assigned to the producer for whose account milk is received by a handler during the base-forming period and to each person for whose account producer milk was delivered to a plant that did not qualify as a fluid milk plant during each month of the base-forming period but which qualifies as a fluid milk plant during any of the months of February through July, bases shall be assigned on deliveries at such plant in the same manner as if such plant was a fluid milk plant during each month of the base-forming period; and

(b) An entire base shall be transferred by the market administrator to another person upon receipt of an application form, approved by the market administrator, and signed by the base-holder(s), or his heirs, and by the person to whom such base is transferred subject to the following condition:

(1) If a base is transferred to a producer already holding a base, a new base shall be computed by adding together the producer milk deliveries of the transferee and transferor during the base-forming period and dividing the total by the number of days from the first day of delivery by either the transferee or transferor during the base-forming period to the last day of December inclusive but not less than 90 days.

§ 966.83 Announcement of established bases. On or before the 25th day after the end of the base-forming period, the market administrator shall notify each producer and the handler receiving milk from such producer of the daily base established by such producer.

PAYMENTS

§ 966.90 Payments to producers. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows:

(a) On or before the 28th day of each month, for milk received during the first 15 days of the month at not less than the Class II price for the preceding month;

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month which is not in the base-operating period for milk received during such month, an amount computed at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight pursuant to § 966.72 subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 966.91 and 966.92, respectively, plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producers; and less (1) payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section; (2) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 966.93 and (3) proper deductions authorized by such producer;

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the months of the base-operating period for milk received during such month, after allowance for payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producer, marketing service deductions pursuant to § 966.93 and proper deductions authorized by such producer, an amount computed:

(1) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for base milk computed pursuant to § 966.73 for the quantity of base milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 966.91 and 966.92, respectively; and

(2) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for excess milk computed pursuant to § 966.73 for the quantity of excess milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 966.91 and 966.92, respectively;

(d) On or before the 11th and 25th days of each month, in lieu of the payment pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) and (c) of this section, respectively, each handler shall pay to a cooperative association which so requests, with respect to producers for whose milk such cooperative association is authorized to collect payment, an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers;

(e) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) or (d) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer or cooperative association from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The daily and total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

(f) On or before the 12th day after the end of the month, each handler having associated producer milk shall remit to the market administrator for payment to associated producers an amount computed by multiplying the quantity of associated producer milk assigned to such handler pursuant to § 966.27 (k) (3) by the difference between such handler's uniform price(s) as determined pursuant to § 966.72 or § 966.73, as applicable, and the Class II price determined pursuant to § 966.51 (b). Such amounts shall be maintained by the market administrator in a separate fund out of which he shall, on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, make appropriate payment to each associated producer, such payments to be verified pursuant to § 966.32 (c) (2).

§ 966.91 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform prices to be paid each producer pursuant to § 966.90 shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in producer milk allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 966.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

§ 966.92 Location differentials. In making payment to producers and cooperative association pursuant to §966.90 a handler may deduct, with respect to producer and associated producer milk received at or assigned to a fluid milk plant located more than 50 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana, the amount per hundredweight applicable to such plant pursuant to § 966.53.

§ 966.93 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 966.90 shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as may be prescribed by the Secretary and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association.

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the service set forth in paragraph (a) of this section and for whom a cooperative association is authorized to receive payment for marketing services as set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers and shall pay such deductions to the cooperative association entitled to receive it, on or before the 15th day after the end of the month during which such milk was received. Such deductions shall be accompanied by a statement showing the quantity of milk for which such deduction was computed for each such producer. In lieu of such statement, the handler may request the market administrator to furnish such cooperative association the information reported for such producers pursuant to § 966.31.

§ 966.94 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler except a producer-handler, shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within the month of (a) other source milk which is allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (2) and (b); (b) producer milk including such handler's own production; (c) Class I milk distributed during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets located in the marketing area from a nonfluid milk plant other than a plant as defined under § 966.61; and (d) associated producer milk.

§ 966.95 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 966.96 Termination of obligation. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money;

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this subpart, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler and said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this subpart to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this subpart shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8 (c) (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 966.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 966.101.

§ 966.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provisions of this part whenever he finds this part or any provisions of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 966.102 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 966.103 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 966.110 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his Agent or Representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 966.111 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

MEMBER LINES OF GULF AND SOUTH ATLANTIC HAVANA STEAMSHIP CONFERENCE

NOTICE OF AGREEMENT FILED FOR APPROVAL

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreement has been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (39 Stat. 733, 46 U. S. C. 814):

Agreement No. 4188-20, between the member lines of the Gulf and South Atlantic Havana Steamship Conference, modifies the basic agreement of that conference (No. 4188, as amended), covering the trade from U. S. Gulf and South Atlantic ports south of Virginia, to Havana, Cuba, and to Cuba Mainland Outports, Mariel and Matanzas, either by direct service or via Havana. The purpose of the modification is to add a provision that no member shall charter or otherwise make available, except by direct sale, any vessel owned, chartered or otherwise controlled, to any non-member for operation in the trade covered by the Conference.

Interested parties may inspect this agreement and obtain copies thereof at the Regulation Office, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D. C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to the agreement and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

Dated: July 15, 1958.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

ORDER SCHEDULING HEARING CONFERENCE

In re applications of Charles R. Bramlett, Torrance, California, Docket No. 11978, File No. BP-9833; Latin-American Broadcasting Corporation, Monterey Park, California, Docket No. 11981, File No. BP-10811; Radio Orange County, Inc., Anaheim, California, Docket No. 12218, File No. BP-11236; Anaheim-Fullerton Broadcasting Co., Inc., Anaheim-Fullerton, California, Docket No. 12219, File No. BP-11242; for construction permits.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration the necessity of setting a date for a hearing conference;

It appearing that an oral argument on a petition to amend filed by Radio Orange County, Inc. was scheduled for July 14, 1958, but that developments in the case have apparently rendered such argument unnecessary; and

It further appearing that a hearing conference is desirable;

It is ordered, This 14th day of July 1958, that the oral argument scheduled for July 14, 1958, is cancelled and a hearing conference will be held on July 18, 1958, at 2:00 p. m.

Released: July 14, 1958.

POMPANO BEACH BROADCASTING CORP. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING INDEFINITE POSTPONEMENT OF DATES FOR EXCHANGING WRITTEN DIRECT CASES AND FOR HEARING

In re applications of Pompano Beach Broadcasting Corporation, Pompano Beach, Florida, Docket No. 12422, File No. BP-11297; Voice of South Miami Broadcasters, Inc., South Miami, Florida, Docket No. 12423, File No. BP-11410; Louis G. The Hearing Examiner having before him for consideration a "Motion for Extension of Procedural Dates" filed jointly on July 9, 1958, in the above-entitled matter by counsel for all four applicants; and

It appearing that the applicants have reached tentative agreements looking toward settlement of the case which might make possible the granting of two of the four applications involved herein (Louis G. Jacobs and Pompano Beach Broadcasting Corporation); and

It further appearing that no useful purpose would be served by exchanging written direct cases and going to hearing on the dates now specified; and

It further appearing that counsel for the Broadcast Bureau has consented to an indefinite postponement of the dates for exchanging written direct cases and for hearing in this matter,

It is accordingly ordered, This 14th day of July 1958, that the dates for exchanging written direct cases and for hearing (July 10, 1958, and July 21, 1958, respectively) in this matter be and they hereby are continued indefinitely.

Released: July 14, 1958.

MICHIGAN WISCONSIN PIPE LINE CO. ET AL.

ORDER POSTPONING DATE OF HEARING

JULY 14, 1958.

In the matters of Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company, Docket No. G-13246; Northern Indiana Public Service Company, Docket Nos. G-12871, G-[illegible]; Northern Illinois Gas Company, Docket No. G-13408; Michigan Gas Utilities Company, Docket No. G-13858.

The above proceedings were consolidated for hearing on July 8, 1958, pursuant to an order of the Commission dated [illegible] 16, 1958, to determine the allocation of the incremental supply of gas available to Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company (Michigan Wisconsin).

At the opening of the hearing on July 8, 1958, Applicant (Michigan Wisconsin), offered to introduce into evidence a proposed unfiled tariff changing its existing straight commodity rate to a two-part demand commodity rate form and rate level. Michigan Wisconsin requested that the proposed change in tariff form the basis for allocation of its supplies in these proceedings. The Examiner ruled that although the proposed change in rate form and rate level was not in issue in these proceedings, he would receive evidence upon which an allocation could be made, predicated both on the existing tariff as well as the proposed tariff.

On July 11, 1958, Staff Counsel filed and served on the parties an appeal from the ruling of the Examiner allowing the introduction of evidence on the proposed change of tariff in these proceedings and requested, because of the urgency of this appeal, that the Secretary allow five days from the date of service of the appeal upon the parties for the filing of replies.

The Commission finds:

(1) An appeal from a ruling of the Examiner in these proceedings has been filed by Staff Counsel stating that it is urgent to obtain a prompt Commission decision on said appeal to prevent detriment to the public interest.

(2) It is necessary in the public interest that further hearings in these proceedings be postponed until such time as the Commission has had an opportunity to pass upon Staff Counsel's appeal.

The Commission orders: For the reason stated in Finding No. 2, the hearings in these proceedings, which are in recess on July 14, 1958, and are scheduled to be reconvened on July 15, 1958, be and the same hereby are postponed until such further date as the Commission may determine, pending its decision on the appeal of Staff Counsel.

By the Commission.

[Project No. 2246]

COUNTY OF YUBA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY PERMIT

JULY 14, 1958.

Public notice is hereby given that County of Yuba, State of California, of Marysville, California, has filed application under the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a-825r) for a preliminary permit for proposed water-power Project No. 2246 to be known as the Greater Yuba River Water and Power Development and located on the Yuba River and its tributaries, North Fork Yuba River and Middle Fork Yuba River, and Dry Creek, a tributary of Bear River, in Yuba, Sierra, and Nevada Counties, California, in the region of Downieville, North San Juan, Sheridan, Wheatland, Marysville, Yuba City, Lincoln, Smartsville, Grass Valley, Nevada City, and Camptonville and to consist of an "initial development", a "later development", and an "ultimate development" described as follows: Initial development—(1) New Bullards Dam and Reservoir, consisting of a dam about 490 feet high with crest at elevation 1900, located on the North Fork Yuba River 800 feet downstream from the existing Bullards Bar Dam, and a reservoir with total storage capacity of 645,000 acre-feet at elevation 1895 (including 300,000 acre-feet of flood control) and water-surface area of 3,650 acres, which reservoir would inundate the existing Bullards Bar hydroelectric development of Pacific Gas and Electric Company licensed by the Commission as Project No. 187; (2) Freemans Dam and Reservoir, consisting of a dam about 535 feet high with crest at elevation 1910, located on Middle Fork Yuba River, and a reservoir with total storage capacity of 420,000 acre-feet at elevation 1900 and water-surface area of 2,700 acres; (3) New Bullards-Colgate Tunnel, consisting of a pressure tunnel 5.7 miles long, with peak capacity of 2,840 cfs, connecting New Bullards Reservoir to Colgate Powerhouse Extension; (4) Colgate Powerhouse Extension, consisting of a powerhouse located on the Yuba River and with installed capacity of 331,000 horsepower, which would adjoin or be near the existing unlicensed Colgate Powerhouse of Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the existing Englebright Reservoir of the California Debris Commission would serve as an afterbay; (5) Waldo Dam and Reservoir, consisting of a dam about 210 feet high with crest at elevation 445 located on Dry Creek, and a reservoir with total storage capacity of 300,000 acre-feet and water-surface area of 4,200 acres lying entirely within Beal Air Force Base boundary; (6) Englebright-Waldo Tunnel, consisting of a new tunnel outlet from Englebright Reservoir with tunnel therefrom about 6.4 miles long with capacity of 1,000 cfs to Waldo Reservoir, and a branch thereof about 2.1 miles long with capacity of 750 cfs to Parks Powerhouse; and (7) Parks Powerhouse, located on the southern edge of Yuba River Canyon just below Parks Bar Bridge and with installed capacity of 18,000 horsepower; Later development—(8) Pittsburgh Hill Dam, Reservoir and Powerhouse, consisting of a dam about 355 feet high with crest at elevation 2255, located on North Fork Yuba River, a reservoir with total storage capacity of 90,000 acre-feet at elevation 2250 and water surface area of 850 acres, and a powerhouse at base of dam with installed capacity of 32,300 horsepower; and Ultimate development —which possible development would include six dams—Omega, Washington, Edwards and French Corral on South Fork Yuba River and Moores Flat and Badger Hill on Middle Fork Yuba River, which reservoirs and associated powerhouses are estimated to provide annually the following: 280,600 acre-feet of conserved water; 119,000,000 kilowatt-hours of electric energy; 287,000 acre-feet of emergency dry year irrigation water; and 130,000 acre-feet of flood control storage. The proposed project would be in physical conflict with constructed licensed Project No. 187 and with proposed Projects Nos. 2238 and 2240, applications for preliminary permits for which are now pending before the Commission, and might conflict with water use by licensed Project No. 1403 of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which consists of a powerhouse supplied by a penstock from Englebright Dam.

No construction is authorized under a preliminary permit. A permit, if issued merely gives permittee, during the period of the permit, the right to priority of application for license while the permittee undertakes the necessary studies and examinations, including the preparation of maps and plans, in order to determine the economic feasibility of the proposed project, the means of securing the necessary financial arangements for construction, the market for the project power, and all other information necessary for inclusion in an application for license, should one be filed.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last date upon which protests or petitions may be filed is August 25, 1958. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-15457]

OHIO VALLEY GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JULY 16, 1958.

Take notice that the Ohio Valley Gas Corporation (Applicant), a public utility engaged in the distribution of natural gas in the State of Indiana, having its principal place of business in Winchester, Indiana, filed an application on July 11, 1958 for an order, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, directing American Louisiana Pipe Line Company (American Louisiana), to sell and deliver to Applicant certain volumes of natural gas for resale and distribution in Portland, Indiana, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

By order of the Commission issued September 4, 1956, in the consolidated proceedings at Docket Nos. G-2306, et al. (16 F. P. C. 397), American Louisiana was ordered and directed to sell and deliver 2,500 Mcf of natural gas per day to Applicant for resale and distribution in Portland, Indiana. Deliveries of such natural gas commenced in November, 1956.

In the proceedings at Docket Nos. G-10396 et al., Applicant was permitted to intervene and there requested allocation of an additional volume of 1,000 Mcf of gas per day from American Louisiana for distribution in Portland.

By order of the Commission issued April 17, 1958, in the matters of Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company, et al., Docket Nos. G-13246 et al., Applicant was permitted to intervene in said proceedings in order to show its further increased requirements of natural gas from American Louisiana for Portland.

Applicant is herein requesting an order of the Commission directing American Louisiana to sell and deliver to Applicant, for resale and distribution in Portland, Indiana, an additional volume of 1,350 Mcf of gas per day over and above the presently allocated 2,500 Mcf per day and the 1,000 Mcf per day additional quantity requested in Docket No. G-10396. The additional quantity of 1,350 Mcf of gas per day represents the third-year needs of consumers in Portland as shown by the following estimate of annual and peak-day requirements.

Annual (Mcf)

620,308	682,777	733,368

Peak-day (Mcf)

1958-59	1959-60	1960-61

Applicant states that American Louisiana has available an unallocated supply of natural gas which enables it to sell and deliver to Applicant the additional quantity of 1,350 Mcf per day requested herein, and that the sale and delivery of such additional quantity of gas will not impair American Louisiana's ability to render adequate service to its existing customers or subject it to any undue burden.

In a related motion filed on July 11, 1958, Ohio Valley Gas Corporation requests that the instant 7 (a) application be consolidated with the proceedings in Docket Nos. G-13246 et al., since Applicant is an intervener in the aforesaid proceedings which Applicant alleges involve common questions of law and fact with the application in Docket No. G-15457.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations, and to that end:

Take further notice that protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 31, 1958.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-1156]

EQUITY CORP. AND FINANCIAL GENERAL CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER EXEMPTING TRANSACTION BETWEEN AFFILIATES

JULY 11, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that The Equity Corporation ("Equity"), a registered closed-end, non-diversified, investment company, and Financial General Corporation ("Financial"), an affiliated company of Equity, have filed a joint application and an amendment thereto pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act, the purchase by Financial from Equity of 49,989 shares of stock of United Insurance Company ("United") which constitute all of that company's capital stock, except for eleven directors' qualifying shares. The purchase is to be made at a price of $18.05 per share or an aggregate cash consideration of $902,187.

The amended application recites, among other things, that Equity acquired 29,989 shares of common stock, $10 par value of United (then named The Erie Insurance Company) from Bell Aircraft Corporation on June 3, 1955 for a cash consideration of $499,817. Subsequent to such acquisition, United's capitalization was increased from 30,000 shares to 50,000 shares of common stock, $10 par value. The additional 20,000 shares were purchased by Equity for $500,000, making its total investment, in United including certain capitalized expenditures, an aggregate of $1,001,819 equivalent to $20.04 per share. United is an Iowa insurance company, which writes automobile liability and physical damage insurance. It was organized in January 1954, by Bell Aircraft Corporation and is authorized to do an insurance business in 9 states and the District of Columbia. Since its organization net premiums earned by United have increased from $6,975 in 1954 to $203,083 at December 31, 1957. Net losses have declined from a high of $55,331 as of December 31, 1956 to $11,648, as of December 31, 1957. The book value of the common stock of United at December 31, 1957 was $17.79 per share.

It is further recited in the amended application that the difference between the proposed purchase price of $18.05 per share and the book value of $17.79 per share arises from the variation between the method of determining net worth for Insurance Department purposes and the method of determining book value in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the insurance field. In valuing insurance company stocks for the purpose of sale, it is further stated that it is customary to place a valuation upon estimated equity in the reserves for unearned premiums, i. e., the difference between actual premiums and estimated losses, and to add this estimated amount, less the anticipated Federal income tax thereon, to the purchase price of the stock. The customary allowance in the fire and casualty field for this equity is 40 percent; however, in the instant case an allowance of only 25 percent, less 30 percent estimated tax or $11,945 was taken which reflects the actual experience of United in its operations for the past year.

Equity owned 66.69 percent of the outstanding common stock of Financial. On March 27, 1958, Equity declared a dividend on its common stock payable in Financial common stock on June 10, 1958, to record holders on April 25, 1958, at the rate of 13/100ths of a share of Financial common stock for each share of Equity common stock held on that date. Upon completion of this dividend distribution Equity will own only 24.61 percent of the outstanding voting securities of Financial. The distribution by Equity of the Financial stock and the proposed sale of its direct holdings in United is in conformity with Equity's adopted program to substantially disassociate itself from the banking and insurance businesses which is conducted by Financial through its subsidiary companies.

Equity and Financial are affiliated persons of each other as defined in the act, hence the transaction between them is prohibited under section 17 (a) unless the Commission grants an exemption pursuant to section 17 (b). Section 17 (a) of the act, with certain exceptions, prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company from purchasing or selling any security to such registered investment company or any company controlled by such registered company. Under section 17 (b) of the act the Commission shall grant an exemption from the act if it finds that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any one concerned and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of the registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and with the general purposes of the act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 24, 1958, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the amended application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

LANDIS MACHINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 14, 1958.

In the matter of Landis Machine Company, common stock; File No. 1-650.

Midwest stock exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above-named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

The Fayscott Corporation has come to own all but 480 of the 47,070 outstanding shares.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before July 29, 1958, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 201 et seq.), the regulations on employment of learners (29 CFR Part 522), and Administrative Order No. 485 (23 F. R. 200) and Administrative Order No. 507 (23 F. R. 2720), the firms listed in this notice have been issued special certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wage rates lower than the minimum wage rates otherwise applicable under section 6 of the act. The effective and expiration dates, occupations, wage rates, number or proportion of learners, learning periods, and the principal product manufactured by the employer for certificates issued under general learner regulations (§§ 522.1 to 522.11) are as indicated below. Conditions provided in certificates issued under special industry regulations are as established in these regulations.

Apparel Industry Learner Regulations (29 CFR 522.1 to 522.11, as amended, and 29 CFR 522.20 to 522.24, as amended).

Williamson-Dickie Manufacturing Co., Eagle Pass, Tex.; effective 7-1-58 to 6-30-59 (denim dungarees and jackets).

Winchendon Fashions, Inc., 61 Railroad Street, Winchendon, Mass.; effective 7-2-58 to 7-1-59 (dresses).

The following learner certificates were issued for normal labor turnover purposes. The effective and expiration dates and the number of learners authorized are indicated.

Clayton Garment Co., Inc., Clayton, Ala.; effective 7-2-58 to 7-1-59; 10 learners (men's sport shirts).

Pajama-Craft Manufacturing Co., Inc., Littlestown, Pa.; effective 7-3-58 to 7-2-59; 10 learners (men's and boys' pajamas).

Relda Apparel Manufacturing Co., Inc., 47 Main Street, Hughesville, Pa.; effective 7-10-58 to 7-9-59; 10 learners (women's dresses).

Rhea Manufacturing Co., Colquitt Division, Colquitt, Ga.; effective 7-8-58 to 7-7-59; 10 learners (dresses).

The following learner certificates were issued for plant expansion purposes. The effective and expiration dates and the number of learners authorized are indicated.

Blackwelder Manufacturing Co., Inc., Yadkinville Highway, Mocksville, N. C.; effective 7-1-58 to 12-31-58; 10 learners (ladies' pajamas).

Delta Shirt Manufacturing Co., Inc., Bayard, N. M.; effective 7-3-58 to 1-2-59; 25 learners (boys' shirts).

Hosiery Industry Learner Regulations (29 CFR 522.1 to 522.11, as amended, and 29 CFR 522.40 to 522.43, as amended).

Clayson Knitting Co., Star, N. C.; effective 7-1-58 to 6-30-59; five learners for normal labor turnover purposes (seamless).

Gaby Hosiery Mills, Inc., Mill Street, Dandridge, Tenn.; effective 7-7-58 to 7-6-59; five learners for normal labor turnover purposes (seamless).

Knitted Wear Industry Learner Regulations (29 CFR 522.1 to 522.11, as amended, and 29 CFR 522.30 to 522.35, as amended).

Carmi Ainsbrooke Corp., Olney, Ill.; effective 7-3-58 to 7-2-59; 5 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (men's shorts).

Ithaca Textiles, Inc., 402-406 East State Street, Ithaca, N. Y.; effective 7-7-58 to 7-6-59; 5 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (women's knitted underwear).

I. Mathews and Brothers, 64 Conduit Street, New Bedford, Mass.; effective 7-3-58 to 7-2-59; five learners for normal labor turnover purposes (ladies' and children's underwear).

Regulations Applicable to the Employment of Learners (29 CFR 522.1 to 522.11, as amended).

William B. Kessler, Inc., Pleasant and Tilton Streets, Hammonton, N. J.; effective 7-2-58 to 1-1-59; 5 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes in the occupations of, sewing machine operator, handsewer, final presser, and finishing operations involving hand sewing, each for a learning period of 480 hours at the rates of at least 85 cents an hour for the first 280 hours, and not less than 90 cents an hour for the remaining 200 hours (men's suits, slacks, and sport coats).

The following learner certificates were issued in Puerto Rico to the companies hereinafter named. The effective and expiration dates, learner rates, occupations, learning periods, and the number or proportion of learners authorized to be employed, are as indicated.

Shelen, Inc., San Vicente No. 18, Mayaguez, P. R.; effective 6-19-58 to 12-18-58; authorizing the employment of 15 learners for plant expansion purposes in the occupation of sewing machine operators, for a learning period of 480 hours at the rates of 60 cents an hour for the first 320 hours and 70 cents an hour for the remaining 160 hours (girdles and garter belts).

Soil Electronics Manufacturing Corp., P. O. Box 325, Roosevelt, P. R.; effective 6-16-58 to 12-15-58; authorizing the employment of 5 learners for plant expansion purposes in the occupations of, resistor manufacturing, cell manufacturing, and subassembly and cable, each for a learning period of 480 hours at the rates of 70 cents an hour for the first 240 hours and at 80 cents an hour for the remaining 240 hours (resistors, soil blocks and subassembly and cable making).

Each learner certificate has been issued upon the representations of the employer which, among other things, were that employment of learners at subminimum rates is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, and that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available. The certificates may be annulled or withdrawn, as indicated therein, in the manner provided in Part 528 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of any of these certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof within fifteen days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to the provisions of 29 CFR 522.9.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of July 1958.

MILTON BROOKE,
Authorized Representative of the Administrator.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 6—EXCEPTIONS FROM COMPETITIVE SERVICE

ENTIRE EXECUTIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, paragraphs (g) and (s) of § 6.101 are amended as set out below.

§ 6.101 Entire Executive Civil Service. * * *

(g) Any position the duties of which are part-time or intermittent in which the appointee will receive compensation during his service year that aggregates not more than 40 percent of the annual salary rate for the first step of GS-3. This limitation on compensation includes any premium pay such as for overtime, night, Sunday, or holiday work. It does not, however, include any mandatory within-grade salary increases to which the employee becomes entitled subsequent to appointment under this authority. Appointments under this authority shall not be for job employment. In the Metropolitan Area of Washington, D. C., appointments under this authority shall be subject to the prior approval of the Commission.

* * * * *

(s) Temporary or intermittent positions at GS-7 and below when the appointees are to assist scientific, professional, or technical employees. Persons employed under this provision shall be (1) bona fide students at high schools or accredited colleges or universities pursuing courses related to the field in which employed, or (2) bona fide high school science and mathematics teachers. No person shall be employed under this provision (1) in a position of a routine clerical type; or (2) in excess of 130 working days a year; or (3) at a compensation during a period of a year that aggregates for positions at GS-4 and below more than 40 percent of the annual salary for the first step of GS-3, and for positions at GS-5, 6, or 7 more than 33⅓ percent of the annual salary for the first step of the grade at which the position is classified. The grade level at which the person enters on duty determines the pay limitation applicable to him throughout his service year. These limitations on compensation include any premium pay such as for overtime, night, Sunday, or holiday work. They do not, however, include any mandatory within-grade salary increase to which the employee becomes entitled subsequent to appointment under this authority.

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.3731 to 52.3743 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION, STYLES, COLOR, PROPORTION OF INGREDIENTS, AND GRADES

§ 52.3731 Product description. Frozen turnip greens with turnips is the product prepared from the clean, sound, succulent leaves and the clean, sound, succulent roots of the turnip plant (Brassica rapa) by washing, sorting, trimming, blanching, and proper draining, and is then frozen in accordance with good commercial practice and maintained at temperatures necessary for the perservation of the product.

§ 52.3732 Styles of frozen turnip greens with turnips—(a) General. The style of frozen turnip greens with turnips applies to the form of the leaf material used and to the turnip root ingredient of the product. The turnip root ingredient is prepared in one of the following forms: Whole; sliced; diced; and cut.

(b) "Style I Whole Leaf" is the style of frozen turnip greens with turnips that consists of the leaf with adjacent portions of the stem, together with a single form of the turnip root ingredient.

(c) "Style II Sliced" is the style of frozen turnip greens with turnips that consists of leaves with adjacent portions of the stem which have been sliced into reasonably uniform strips, together with a single form of the turnip root ingredient.

(d) "Style III Cut or Chopped" is the style of frozen turnip greens with turnips that consists of leaves with adjacent portions of the stem which have been cut or chopped into small pieces, together with a single form of the turnip root ingredient.

§ 52.3734 Recommended proportion of ingredients. It is recommended that frozen turnip greens with turnips consist of 50 percent or more, by weight, of turnip greens and not less than 20 percent nor more than 50 percent, by weight, of turnips.

§ 52.3735 Grades of frozen turnip greens with turnips. (a) "U. S. Grade A" (or "U. S. Fancy") is the quality of frozen turnip greens with turnips in which the turnip ingredient is fairly uniform in size and each ingredient possesses similar varietal characteristics; possesses a good flavor; possesses a good color; is practically free from defects; possesses a good character; and scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(b) "U. S. Grade B" (or "U. S. Extra Standard") is the quality of frozen turnip greens with turnips in which each ingredient possesses similar varietal characteristics; possesses a reasonably good flavor; possesses a reasonably good color; is reasonably free from defects; possesses a reasonably good character; and scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of frozen turnip greens with turnips that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.3736 Ascertaining the grade—(a) General. In addition to considering other requirements outlined in the standards, the following quality factors are evaluated in ascertaining the grade of the product:

(1) Factors not rated by score points.
(i) Uniformity of size.
(ii) Varietal characteristics.
(iii) Flavor.
(iv) Proportion of ingredients.

(2) Factors rated by score points. The relative importance of each factor which is rated is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given for each such factor is:

Factors:	Points
Color	20
Defects	40
Total score	100

(b) Evaluation of quality. The rating for the factors of color, defects, and character (with respect to each ingredient) and the evaluation of uniformity of size and similar varietal characteristics are determined immediately after thawing so that the product is sufficiently free from ice crystals to permit proper handling as individual units. A representative sample is cooked to ascertain the tenderness of the frozen leaf and root ingredient before final evaluation of the score for character. The flavor is also ascertained on the cooked product.

(c) Definition of requirements not rated by score points. (1) "Good flavor" means that the product, after cooking, has a good, normal flavor and odor and is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(2) "Reasonably good flavor" means that the product, after cooking, may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(3) "Fairly uniform in size" means that the turnip ingredient units may vary in size but not to an extent that seriously detracts from the appearance of the product.

§ 52.3737 Ascertaining the ratings for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

(b) (A) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that possess a good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the leafy ingredient posseses a bright, practically uniform typical green color of young tender turnip greens and that the turnip ingredient possesses a practically uniform bright characteristic color for the variety of young tender turnips, which ingredients have been properly prepared and properly processed.

(c) (B) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that possess a reasonably good color may be given a score of 14 to 16 points. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means that the color of the leafy ingredient is reasonably bright and typical of reasonably young and reasonably tender turnip greens and that the turnip ingredient possesses a characteristic color for the variety, which color is typical of reasonably young and reasonably tender turnips which have been properly prepared and properly processed.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.3739 Defects—(a) General. The factor of defects refers to the degree of freedom from sand, grit, or silt, harmless extraneous material, and from damaged leaf and turnip ingredient.

(1) "Sand, grit, or silt" means any particle of earthy material.

(2) "Harmless extraneous material" means any extraneous vegetable substance, such as weeds or grass, that is harmless.

(3) "Damage" means damaged by yellow, brown, or other discoloration affecting any leaf or portion of leaf, stem or portion of stem, and damage by discoloration, insect injury, pathological injury, or other means affecting any leaf or unit of turnip ingredient. Minute, insignificant blemishes shall not be considered as damage.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that no grit, sand, or silt may be present that affects the appearance or edibility of the product, and that there may be present for each 10 ounces, net weight, of turnip greens with turnips not more than:

(1) In whole leaf style, an aggregate of 6 inches in length of grass and weeds: Provided, That the total amount does not materially affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(2) In other styles no grass or weeds or pieces of grass or weeds that materially affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(3) An aggregate area of damage affecting 3 square inches (3" x 1") of leaves and stems or portions of leaves and stems, and 5 percent, by count, of units of turnip ingredient affected by damage: Provided, That damaged units do not materially affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(c) (B) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that are reasonably free from defects may be given a score of 28 to 33 points. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that the product may contain a trace of grit, sand, or silt that does not seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the product and that there may be present for each 10 ounces, net weight, of turnip greens with turnips not more than:

(1) In whole leaf style an aggregate of 9 inches in length of grass and weeds: Provided, That the total amount does not seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(2) In other styles no grass or weeds or pieces of grass or weeds that seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(3) An aggregate area of damage affecting 6 square inches (6" x 1") of leaves and stems or portions of leaves and stems, and 10 percent, by count, of units of turnip ingredient affected by damage: Provided, That damaged units do not seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the product.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.3740 Character—(a) General. The factor of character refers to the tenderness and texture of the product and the degree of freedom from fibrous or pithy turnip material.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that possess a good character may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Good character" means that the leafy ingredient is tender and practically free from coarse or tough leaves and stems and that the turnip ingredient possesses a tender texture and is practically free from fibrous or pithy units.

(c) (B) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that possess a reasonably good character may be given a score of 28 to 33 points. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the leafy ingredient is reasonably tender and reasonably free from coarse or tough leaves and stems and that the turnip ingredient possesses a reasonably tender texture and is reasonably free from fibrous or pithy units.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Frozen turnip greens with turnips that fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

EXPLANATION AND METHODS OF ANALYSIS

§ 52.3741 Explanation and methods of analysis. (a) The proportion of each of the ingredients is determined on the thawed product by the following procedure:

(1) Separate the leafy ingredient from the turnip ingredient from all of the containers in the sample.

(2) Composite the leafy ingredient and weigh.

(3) Composite the turnip ingredient and weigh.

(4) Add the weights of each of the ingredients to obtain the total weight of the combined ingredients in all of the containers in the sample.

(5) Calculate the percent of each of the ingredients by dividing the total weight of the combined ingredients into the composite weight of each ingredient and multiply by 100.

(b) Compliance with the requirements for proportions of ingredients will be determined by averaging the percent, by weight, of each ingredient in all of the containers in the sample: Provided, That any deviation from the recommended proportion of ingredients in any container is within the limits of good commercial practice.

LOT INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION

§ 52.3742 Ascertaining the grade of a lot. The grade of a lot of frozen turnip greens with turnips covered by these standards is determined by the procedures set forth in the Regulations Governing Inspection and Certification of Processed Products Thereof, and Certain Other Processed Food Products (§§ 52.1 through 52.87; 22 F. R. 3535).

[Valencia Orange Reg. 145]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.445 Valencia Orange Regulation 145—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by tending to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for such oranges as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices, and is not for the purpose of maintaining prices to farmers above the level which it is declared to be the policy of Congress to establish under the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 17, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 27, 1958, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 600,600 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

[Plum Order 23]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.606 Plum Order 23—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 8, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1958, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Sharkey plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, sixty-six and two-thirds (66⅔) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and thirteen-sixteenth (1 13/16) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than fifty (50) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and thirteen-sixteenth (1 13/16) inches in diameter, if the average percent of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title; 23 F. R. 3509); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.607 Plum Order 24—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 8, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1958, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Queen Ann plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1 with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage in addition to the tolerances permitted for such grade; and,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, sixty-six and two-thirds ($66\frac{2}{3}$) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and thirteen-sixteenths ($1\frac{13}{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than fifty (50) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and thirteen-sixteenths ($1\frac{13}{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percent of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed thirty-three and one-third ($33\frac{1}{3}$) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title; 23 F. R. 3509); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.608 Plum Order 25—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 8, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1958, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Emily plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and, except to the extent otherwise permitted under this paragraph,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, sixty-six and two-thirds ($66\frac{2}{3}$) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and thirteen-sixteenth ($1\frac{13}{16}$) inches in diameter; Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than fifty (50) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and thirteen-sixteenths ($1\frac{13}{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed thirty-three and one-third ($33\frac{1}{3}$) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed thirty-three and one-third ($33\frac{1}{3}$) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the following applicable requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, seventy-five (75) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1\frac{10}{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than thirty-seven and one-half ($37\frac{1}{2}$) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1\frac{10}{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a $7\frac{1}{2}$-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days: Provided, That, shipment is also made on the particular calendar day by such shipper of the full quantity of such smaller sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on such day under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(4) When used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title; 23 F. R. 3509); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.609 Plum Order 26—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 8, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1958, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of President plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and, except to the extent otherwise permitted under this paragraph,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, sixty-six and two-thirds (66⅔) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and thirteen-sixteenth ($1^{13}/_{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than fifty (50) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and thirteen-sixteenth ($1^{13}/_{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the following applicable requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, seventy-five (75) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1^{10}/_{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than thirty-seven and one-half (37½) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1^{10}/_{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7½-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days: Provided, That, shipment is also made on the particular calendar day by such shipper of the full quantity of such smaller sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on such day under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(4) When used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) §§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title; 23 F. R. 3509); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

[Plum Order 27]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.610 Plum Order 27—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 8, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1958, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Giant plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, seventy-five (75) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1^{10}/_{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than thirty-seven and one-half (37½) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1^{10}/_{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percent of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7½-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title; 23 F. R. 3509); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.611 Plum Order 28—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 8, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1958, no shipper shall ship from any shipping point during any day any package or container of Late Duarte plums unless such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and, except to the extent otherwise permitted under this paragraph,

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, sixty-six and two-thirds (66⅔) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and thirteen-sixteenth ($1^{13}/_{16}$) inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than fifty (50) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and thirteen-sixteenth ($1^{13}/_{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum size requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if said quantity does not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums shipped by such shipper which meet the size requirement of said subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and all such smaller plums meet the following applicable requirements:

(i) If the plums are packed in a standard basket, they are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack;

(ii) If the plums are packed in any container other than a standard basket, seventy-five (75) percent, by count, of the plums measure not less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1^{1}0/_{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That, individual containers in any lot may contain not more than thirty-seven and one-half (37½) percent, by count, of plums which measure less than one and ten-sixteenth ($1^{1}0/_{16}$) inches in diameter, if the average percentage of such smaller sized plums in all containers in such lot does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent: And provided further, That, if the plums are packed in a special plum box and are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 7½-row standard pack, they shall be deemed to meet the minimum requirements of this subparagraph; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in the package or container do not vary more than one-fourth inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(3) If any shipper, during any day of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than the size prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity of such undershipment may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next 2 succeeding calendar days: Provided, That, shipment is also made on the particular calendar day by such shipper of the full quantity of such smaller sized plums such shipper is authorized to ship on such day under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(4) When used in this section, "U. S. No. 1," "fairly uniform in size," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title; 23 F. R. 3509); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "special plum box" shall mean the special plum box set forth in section 828.15 of the Agricultural Code of California; "6-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 39 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 52 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "7½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 56 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "8½-row standard pack" shall mean that the top layer of the pack contains 72 plums which are fairly uniform in size and the plums in the top layer are not superior in size to those in the remainder of the pack; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(5) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this section. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 953.855 Lemon Regulation 748—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based becomes available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 16, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 20, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 27, 1958, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 372,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[7 CFR Part 941]

[Docket No. AO-101-A23]

MILK IN CHICAGO, ILL., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Chicago, Illinois, on June 17, 1958, pursuant to notice thereof issued on June 6, 1958 (23 F. R. 4084).

The material issues on the record of the hearing related to:

1. Modifying the requirements that a country plant must meet to qualify as a pool plant.

2. The need for immediate action by the Secretary with respect to issue No. 1.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The performance standards for country plants to attain pool plant status under the order should be modified. As now provided in the order a country plant may attain pool plant status during the month by shipping at least 50 percent of the butterfat in, or 50 percent of the volume of, milk received from dairy farmers to pool plants distributing Class I or Class II milk in the marketing area. If a country plant ships at least 50 percent of its receipts from dairy farmers during the preceding period of September through November, it is accorded pool plant status for the months of December through August.

The Pure Milk Association, which producer cooperative markets the milk of 25 country plants under the Chicago order, proposed that the monthly shipping requirement percentage for country plants to pool be changed from 50 to 30 and that August through October replace September through November as the period during which a country plant shall ship a specified percentage of its receipts in order to be accorded pool plant status for the following 9 months.

Milk moving from country plants to pool plants distributing milk in the marketing area or to other pool plants does not have to be utilized in such pool plants in order to be credited toward the 50 percent shipping requirement. In order to insure that their country plants will meet the minimum performance standards for participation in the pool, handlers have found it necessary to ship milk or cream to pool plants, which milk or cream was not actually needed for fluid use in the market. In order to qualify its country plants, Pure Milk Association shipped to pool plants in each of the months of October and November 1957, for example, over 12 million pounds of milk equivalent of milk or cream that had to be returned to the country for manufacture.

Location differential credits to handlers are applicable on milk or cream shipped to a pool plant distributing milk in the marketing area whether such milk or cream is used in the pool plant, reshipped to another plant or is returned to the original shipping plant. The application of location differential credits on such milk not needed for fluid distribution reduces the value of producer milk in the pool thereby reducing overall returns to producers. Moreover, extra hauling costs are incurred by handlers on such milk that moves to pool plants solely for the purpose of qualifying country plants for pool plant status.

Performance standards should be such that any plant that has as its major function the supplying of milk to the market may pool its sales and share in the marketwide pool. Such standards should not be so high that they force milk to be transported to pool plants distributing milk in the marketing area if such milk is not needed to supply fluid milk outlets. A minimum standard is necessary, however, to avoid the possibility that a plant otherwise not associated with the market might qualify itself for equalization payments to its own advantage and to the disadvantage of the market.

It is economically more feasible to meet the needs of the market for Class I and Class II purposes from those farms and plants nearest the market before bringing in milk from more distant plants. The performance standards should be such, however, that milk from more distant plants would be available for the market when it is needed. If all of the milk received from pool plants within 100 miles of Chicago had been used for Class I and Class II purposes in 1956, 33 percent of the receipts from all other pool plants would have been needed to meet the Class I and Class II requirements of the market. Under similar conditions in 1957, 30 percent of the receipts from pool plants located beyond 100 miles of Chicago would have been needed to meet the Class I and Class II requirements. The performance standards should require that at least this amount of milk be made available by country plants.

The minimum standards now in the order have forced milk to be transported to the maketing area when such milk was not needed for Class I and Class II purposes. Such uneconomical movements of milk, resulting in lower returns to producers and extra costs to handlers, have tended to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the Chicago area. Reducing the shipping requirement to 30 percent for country plants to attain pool plant status during any month will insure an adequate supply for the market without forcing handlers to move milk to the market when it is not needed for fluid purposes.

August through October should replace September through November as the period during which a country plant may obtain pool plant status for the following 9 months by shipping a specified percentage of its receipts from dairy farmers to pool plants. The pattern of production for the Chicago market has changed in recent years so that August is one of the 3 months of lowest production. Deliveries by producers during August have been less than during November in each of the 3 preceding years. According pool plant status to a plant during the months of seasonally high production on the basis of its supplying the market during the preceding fall months contemplates using as such basis the 3 months of the year when production for the market is low in relation to the demand for Class I and Class II milk. Replacing November with August as one of the months in the 3-month period during which a plant's shipments will qualify it as a pool plant during the following 9 months will accomplish this purpose.

Besides proposing that August through October should replace September through November as the period during which a country plant's shipments may earn pool plant status during the following 9 months, producers proposed reducing the required shipping percentage for the period from 50 to 30. In addition to the requirement of shipping 50 percent of its receipts from dairy farmers during the 3-month period, each plant is now required to ship 30 percent of such receipts in each of the months during this period. During the 3 lowest production months of 1956 and 1957, 48 percent of the milk receipts from supply plants located more than 100 miles from Chicago would have been needed to supply the Class I and Class II needs of the market if all of the milk from plants within 100 miles of Chicago had been utilized for Class I and Class II purposes. Although it is conceivable that maintaining the percentage requirement of 50 percent might work a hardship on some plants now associated with the market, it was not established that a reduction to 30 percent is necessary or desirable at this time. Neither was it established that fixing a percentage somewhat above that proposed by producers would work a hardship on any handler. Revising the requirement from 50 to 40 percent of its receipts from dairy farmers that a country plant must ship during the 3-month period of August through October to qualify as a pool plant in the following 9 months will contribute to orderly marketing and thereby best tend to effectuate the intent of the act under present conditions in the Chicago market.

In opposing the producers' proposal of changing from 50 to 30 the percentage that a country plant must ship during the month to qualify as a pool plant, handlers proposed retaining the 50 percent rate but qualifying plants on a handler instead of on an individual plant basis. That is, a handler would qualify his plants collectively on the basis of the percentage that the aggregate shipments from them was of their aggregate receipts. Although there may be some merit to enabling Chicago order handlers to qualify their plants on such a basis, the data presented at the hearing with respect to this proposal were insufficient to justify taking any action on it at this time.

2. The due and timely execution of the function of the Secretary under the act imperatively and unavoidably requires the omission of a recommended decision by the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, and the opportunity for exceptions thereto, on the above issue.

The conditions complained of are such that it is urgent that remedial action be taken as soon as possible. It is therefore found that good cause exists for omission of the recommended decision in order to inform interested parties of the conclusions reached. Uncertainty on the part of interested parties might lead to instability in the market. Knowledge of the action decided upon by the Secretary will permit those affected to adjust their operations promptly in accordance with such decision.

Delay beyond August 1, 1958, will defeat the purpose of the amendment. Accordingly, the time necessarily involved in the preparation, filing, and publication of a recommended decision, and exceptions thereof, would make such relief substantially ineffective and therefore should be eliminated in this instance. The notice of hearing stated that consideration would be given to the question of whether economic and marketing conditions require emergency action with respect to any or all amendments deemed necessary as a result of the hearing. Action under the procedure described above was requested by proponents at the hearing.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. (a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the prices of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Marketing agreement and order amending the order, as amended. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area" and "Order amending the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

Determination of representative period. The month of May 1958 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the attached order amending the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area, is approved or favored by producers, as defined under the terms of the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and who, during such representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale within the aforesaid marketing area.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of July 1958.

[SEAL] DON PAARLBERG,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Chicago, Illinois, Marketing Area

§ 941.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Except in subparagraph (4) thereof, delete "50 percent" in each instance wherein it appears in § 941.66 (b) and substitute therefor "30 percent."

2. Delete "50 percent" in each instance wherein it appears in § 941.66 (b) (4) and substitute therefor "40 percent."

3. Delete "September, October, and November" in each instance wherein it appears in § 941.66 (b) and substitute therefor "August, September, and October."

4. In § 941.66 (b) (4) delete "December of the same year and continuing through August" and substitute therefor "November of the same year continuing through July".

[F. R. Doc. 58-5560; Filed, July 18, 1958; 8:55 a. m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

[Docket No. AO-173-A10]

MILK IN WICHITA, KANSAS MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Allis Hotel, Wichita, Kansas, beginning at 10:00 a. m., local time, on August 5, 1958, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Wichita, Kansas marketing area.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and emergency marketing conditions which relate to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order.

The proposal relative to a redefinition of the marketing area raises the issue whether the provisions of the present order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, if they were applied to the marketing area as proposed to be redefined and, if not what modifications of the provisions of the order would be appropriate.

Proposal No. 9 refers to the Class I price. Although, the Class I price is a primary determinant of supply and demand responses, other provisions of the order are related. Accordingly, the hearing will be open to consideration of location differentials to handlers and producers, to all aspects of the definition of pool plants, compensatory payments and to the definitions of approved dairy farmer, producer, handler, producer-handler, producer milk and other source milk.

The proposed amendments, set forth below, have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the Wichita Milk Producers Association:

Proposal No. 1: Amend § 968.3 to read as follows:

§ 968.3 Wichita, Kansas, marketing area. "Wichita, Kansas, marketing area" means all territory within the limits of Sedgwick County and Cowley County, and the towns of Mulvane, Belle Plaine, Oxford and Geuda Springs in Sumner County, all within the State of Kansas.

Proposal No. 2: Amend § 968.5 to read as follows:

§ 968.5 Approved dairy farmer. "Approved dairy farmer" means any person who holds a currently valid permit or license issued by any health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area for the production of milk to be disposed of as Grade A milk, or produces milk acceptable to agencies of the United States Government for fluid consumption in its institutions or bases as Type II, No. 1, or Type III, No. 1 which is received at a plant supplying Class I milk to such an institution or base in the marketing area.

Proposal No. 3: Amend § 968.7 to read as follows:

§ 968.7 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means any plant (a) approved by any health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area for the handling of milk to be disposed of for fluid consumption as milk in the marketing area at which milk is received from approved dairy farmers, or (b) supplying to any agency of the United States Government located within the marketing area Class I milk products accepted as meeting the requirements of Type II, No. 1 or Type III, No. 1.

Proposal No. 4: Amend paragraph (b) of § 968.9 Handler by deleting the present provision and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

A cooperative association which delivers 50 percent or more of the Grade A milk produced by its members to handlers subject to full regulation by this part (with respect to the milk of its member producers which is delivered to the pool plant of another handler in a tank truck owned or operated by such cooperative association for the account of such cooperative association), such milk shall be considered as having been received by such cooperative association at the plant to which it is delivered.

Proposal No. 5: Amend § 968.9 by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Any cooperative association with respect to the milk of its member producers which is caused by it to be diverted to a nonpool plant for the account of such cooperative association.

Proposal No. 6: Consider the necessity for the insertion of a new definition for a supply plant to be included in the order as § 968.9 with the present § 968.9 and subsequent sections being renumbered. This proposed definition will involve consideration of qualification standards for a supply plant to qualify as a pool plant.

Proposal No. 7: Consider the need for amending § 968.41 (a), (b) and (c), to provide for the proper classification of any new products which may become subject to the classification provisions of the Order by virtue of the proposed expansion of the marketing area.

Proposal No. 8: Amend § 968.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class by substituting a comma in place of the period at the end of the sentence and adding the following words: "Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk used or disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids."

Proposal No. 9: Amend § 968.51 (a) so as to provide for the establishment of the proper Class I differential and to provide for the automatic adjustment of the Class I price based upon the relationship of producer receipts to Class I sales.

Proposal No. 10: Consider the need for amendments to §§ 968.61 and 968.62 to establish the basis for computing compensatory payments on other source milk received by handlers from non-pool plants subject to the pricing provisions of another Federal Milk Marketing Order and Agreement and from non-pool plants which are not subject to the pricing provisions of other Federal Milk Marketing Orders and Agreements.

Proposal No. 11: Consider the need for the insertion of a new § 968.81 (b) to provide for location differentials to producers for milk delivered to pool plants located more than a specified distance outside the Wichita, Kansas, marketing area.

Proposal No. 12: Make such other conforming changes in other provisions of Federal Marketing Order No. 68 as may be necessary to effectuate the intent of the above specific proposed amendments.

Proposed by the Beatrice Food Co., DeCoursey Cream Co., Hyde Park Dairies Inc. and Steffens Dairy Foods Company:

Proposal No. 13: Amend § 968.3 to include all the territory within the counties of Sumner, Harper, Kingman, Reno, Rice, McPherson, Harvey, Butler, Elk, Chautauqua and Greenwood, all within the State of Kansas.

Proposed by Tip Top Dairies:

Proposal No. 14: Amend § 968.3 to include all the territory within Marion County.

Proposal No. 15: Amend the provisions in the order whereby the milk used for the manufacture of cottage cheese be accounted for on the basis of the sales of cottage cheese.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, 2700 East Central, Wichita 2, Kansas, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of July 1958.

Deputy Administrator,

1958 CROP SUGAR BEET PRICES IN IMPERIAL VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING AND DESIGNATION OF PRESIDING OFFICERS

Pursuant to the authority contained in subsection (c) (2) of section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 929; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1131), and in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure applicable to wage and price proceedings (7 CFR 802.1 et seq.), notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held as follows: At El Centro, California, at 10:00 a. m., August 5, 1958, Farm Bureau Building, 1000 Broadway.

The California Beet Growers Association, Stockton, California has informed the Department that processors who purchase sugar beets in the region commonly known as Imperial Valley, California, have proposed changes in the purchase contracts to be applicable to the 1958 crop. The Association has requested the holding of a hearing to afford interested persons an opportunity for the presentation of evidence to be taken into consideration by the Secretary in determining fair and reasonable prices for sugar beets produced in that region. The record and the hearing (identified as Docket No. SH 165) will be reopened for that purpose and the scope of the hearing will be limited to the presentation of evidence relative and pertinent to fair and reasonable prices for sugar beets produced in the Imperial Valley.

The hearing, after being called to order at the time and place mentioned herein, may be continued from day to day within the discretion of the presiding officers and may be adjourned to a later day or to a different place without notice other than the announcement thereof at the hearing by the presiding officer.

In the interest of obtaining the best possible information, all interested persons are requested to appear at the hearing to express their views and present appropriate data in regard to the foregoing matter.

A. A. Greenwood and Charles F. Denny are hereby designated as presiding officers to conduct either jointly or severally the foregoing hearing.

Issued this 14th day of July 1958.

TOLERANCES AND EXCEPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF TOLERANCES FOR RESIDUES OF MALATHION

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (1), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (1)), the following notice is issued:

A petition has been filed by American Cyanamid Company, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, New York, proposing the establishment of tolerances for residues of malathion in or on raw agricultural commodities, as follows:

8 parts per million in or on figs.
4 parts per million in or on meat and meat byproducts of sheep and goats.

The analytical method proposed in the petition for determining residues of malathion is that described in the Journal of Agricultural and Food Chemistry, Volume II, No. 11, pages 570–573 (1954).

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING COMMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 6 and 9 of the Commission's rules and regulations to require the use of single sideband transmission in fixed radiotelephone service below 25,000 kc, except Alaskan and maritime fixed, Docket No. 11513; and in the matter of amendment of Part 9 of the Commission's Rules to require the use of single sideband transmission in the aeronautical mobile service for radiotelephony on frequencies below 25,000 kc, Docket No. 11678; and in the matter of amendment of Parts 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 16, and 19 of the Commission's rules concerning type acceptance of transmitters, bandwidth and spurious emissions, Docket No. 11654.

The Commission having under consideration a petition dated June 30, 1958, filed by Aeronautical Radio Inc. (ARINC) as supplemented by letter dated July 9, 1958, requesting a further extension of time in which to submit comments directed to the Commission's Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making (released October 21, 1957) in the above-entitled matters; and

It appearing that the petitioner, as licensee of numerous aeronautical en route and aeronautical fixed facilities serving both domestic and international civil air routes, is directly concerned in the outcome of these proceedings; and

It further appearing that in response to an earlier ARINC petition (January 27, 1958) the Commission adopted an order on February 3, 1958, extending the time for filing comments in the above-captioned matters from February 3, 1958, to July 15, 1958, on the ground that a related study of single sideband standards for the aeronautical mobile service undertaken by the Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics (RTCA SC–84) had not been completed; and

It further appearing that the earliest date on which RTCA SC–84 can complete its Report is July 17, 1958, in which event final consideration could be given that Report by the RTCA Executive Committee at its scheduled meeting August 11, 1958; and

It further appearing that irrespective of RTCA's ability to meet the above-mentioned target dates, the public interest would be served by further extending the final date for submission of comments in view of the close interrelationship of the forthcoming RTCA SC–84 Report with the subject matter of these proceedings:

It is ordered, This 15th day of July 1958, that, pursuant to the authority contained in section 0.322 (b) of the Commission's rules, the time for filing comments in the above-captioned matters is hereby extended from July 15, 1958, to October 15, 1958, and that rebuttal comments may be filed within 20 days from such extended date.

Released: July 15, 1958.

1. Antitoxins

B. histolyticus Antitoxin—17.
B. oedematiens Antitoxin—1-8-17.
B. sordellii Antitoxin—17.

Botulism Antitoxin—17.
Diphtheria Antitoxin—1-8-11-14-17-56-64-73-99-101-110-144.
Dysentery Antitoxin, Shiga—1.
Gas Gangrene Polyvalent Antitoxin—8-17-101-144.
Perfringens Antitoxin—1-8-17-56-110.
Staphylococcus Antitoxin—73.
Tetanus Antitoxin—1-2-8-11-14-17-56-64-73-99-101-110-144.
Tetanus and Gas Gangrene Polyvalent Antitoxin—1-8-17-56-101-110-144.
V. septique Antitoxin—1-8-17-56-110.

2. Therapeutic Immune Serums

Antibrucella Serum—2.
Antierysipeloid Serum—110.
Anti-Hemophilus Influenzae Type b Serum—99.
Antimumps Serum—140-184.
Antipertussis Serum—8-140-144-184.
Antipneumococcic Serum—99.
Antirabies Serum—17-238.
Anti-Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever Serum—2.
Antitularemic Serum—2.
Chicken Pox Immune Serum (Human)—171.
Measles Immune Serum (Human)—113-139-171-187.
Mumps Immune Serum (Human)—113-139-140-171-187.
Pertussis Immune Serum (Human)—139-140-171-187.
Poliomyelitis Immune Serum (Human—113-187.
Scarlet Fever Immune Serum (Human)—113-139-171-187.

3. Blood and Blood Derivatives

Antihemophilic Globulin (Human)—8-99.
Antihemophilic Plasma (Human)—140-165-184.
Citrated Whole Blood (Human)—2-99-113-139-140-154-161-162-163-164-165-166-167-168-169-170-171-173-175-178-181-182-183-185-187-190-191-192-194-195-197-198-199-201-202-203-204-209-212-213-214-215-217-218-219-220-221-222-224-226-227-228-229-231-233-234-235-236-237-239-240-241-244-246-248-249-250-251-252-254-259-260-261-262-263-264-265-266-267-268-269-270-271-272-273-274-276-277-278-284-285-286-287-288-289-290-293-295-296-298-300-301.
Fibrin Film—8-149.
Fibrin Foam—8-149.
Fibrinogen—2-8-52-99-156.
Histamine Azoprotein—1.
Human Blood Cells—2.
Immune Serum Globulin (Human)—1-2-8-17-52-64-99-110-140-149-171-184-258.
Mumps Immune Globulin (Human)—8-140.
Normal Horse Serum—14-99-144.
Normal Human Plasma—2-8-64-99-113-140-149-162-165-171-182-184-185-187-190-192-199-215-231-243-245-275.
Normal Human Serum—113-139-187.
Normal Rabbit Serum—99.
Normal Serum Albumin (Human)—2-8-52-64-99-140-149-171-184.
Packed Red Blood Cells (Human)—113-140-161-166-169-175-181-182-185-190-191-194-215-222-235-252.
Pertussis Immune Globulin (Human)—140.
Poliomyelitis Immune Globulin (Human)—1-2-8-17-52-64-99-110-140-149-171-184-258.
Profibrinolysin (Human)—156.
Radio-Iodinated (I^{131}) Serum Albumin (Human)—43-52-281.
Resuspended Red Blood Cells (Human)—99-113-140-165-166-182-185-191-215-235.
Single Donor Plasma (Human)—139-161-169-181-187-190-191-194-203-252.
Tetanus Immune Globulin (Human)—8.
Thrombin—1-2-8-51-149-156.

4. Bacterial Vaccines

BCG Vaccine—188.
Cholera Vaccine—1-2-8-11-17-56-101-144.
Bacterial Vaccine made from Partially Autolyzed Pneumococci—56.
Pertussis Vacine—1-2-8-14-17-30-56-64-99-101-110-120-121-144.
Pertussis Vaccine Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed—8.
Pertussis Vaccine Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed—1.
Plague Vaccine—8.
Typhoid Vaccine—1-2-8-11-14-56-64-99-101-105-110-120-121-144.
Typhoid and Paratyphoid Vaccine—1-2-8-14-17-56-64-99-101-110-120-144.
Polyvalent bacterial vaccines with "No U. S. Standard of Potency"—1-2-8-17-30-56-91-101-105-110-111-119.

5. Sensitized Bacterial Vaccines

Cholera Vaccine—2.
Pertussis Vaccine—2.
Typhoid Vaccine—2.
Typhoid and Paratyphoid Vaccine—2.
Polyvalent sensitized bacterial vaccines with "No U. S. Standard of Potency"—2.

6. Bacterial Antigens

Bacterial Antigen with Antihistaminic—2.
Pseudomonas Polysaccharide—184.
Polyvalent bacterial antigens with "No U. S. Standard of Potency"—1-2-30-56-108-110-135-177-283-299.

7. Modified Bacterial Antigens

Polyvalent modified bacterial antigens with "No U. S. Standard of Potency"—1.

8. Toxoids and Toxins for Immunization

Diphtheria Toxoid—1-2-8-14-17-56-64-73-99-101-110-120-121-144.
Diphtheria Toxoid Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed—8.
Diphtheria Toxoid Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed—1-14-17-99-144.
Diphtheria Toxoid Protamine Precipitated—2.
Diphtheria Toxoid-Antitoxin Mixture—1.
Scarlet Fever Streptococcus Toxin for Immunization—1-17-101-144.
Staphylococcus Toxoid—1-2-11-17-73-101-110.
Streptococcus Erythrogenic Toxin—101.
Tetanus Toxoid—1-2-8-14-17-56-64-73-99-101-110-144.
Tetanus Toxoid Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed—8.
Tetanus Toxoid Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed—1-17-99-144.

9. Multiple Antigen Preparations

Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—1-2-8-56-101.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids and Pertussis Vaccine Combined Alum Precipitated—1-2-8-56-99.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Alum Precipitated and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—17-101-110-144.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids and Pertussis Vaccine Combined Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed—1-17-99-144.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids and Pertussis Vaccine Combined Aluminum Phosphate Precipitated—64.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—8.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed Combined—8.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Combined—1-8-17-56.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Combined Alum Precipitated—1-2-56-99-101-110-144.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Combined Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed—1-17-99-144.
Diphtheria and Tetanus Toxoids Combined Aluminum Phosphate Precipitated—64.
Diphtheria Toxoid Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—8.
Diphtheria Toxoid and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—8.
Diphtheria Toxoid and Pertussis Vaccine Combined Alum Precipitated—2-121.
Diphtheria Toxoid Alum Precipitated and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—1-101-110-120-144.
Diphtheria Toxoid and Pertussis Vaccine Combined Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed—1.
Diphtheria Toxoid Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—144.
Staphylococcus Toxoid-B. Vaccine made from Staphylococcus (Aureus)—101.
Staphylococcus Toxoid and Bacterial Antigen made from Staphylococcus (Albus and Aureus)—1-52.
Staphylococcus Toxoid-Streptococcus Toxin-B. Vaccine made from Staphylococcus (Aureus), Streptococcus (Hemolyticus), D pneumonia and H. influenzae—101.
Tetanus Toxoid and Pertussis Vaccine Combined—8.
Tetanus and Diphtheria Toxoids Combined Alum Precipitated (For Adult Use)—2-56-101-144.
Tetanus and Diphtheria Toxoids Combined Aluminum Hydroxide Adsorbed (for Adult Use)—8.
Tetanus and Diphtheria Toxoids Combined Aluminum Phosphate Adsorbed (for Adult Use)—144.

10. Viral and Rickettsial Vaccines

Adenovirus Vaccine—1.
Encephalitis Vaccine, Herpes "F" Strain—17.
Equine Encephalomyelitis Vaccine (Eastern)—8-110.

Equine Encephalomyelitis Vaccine (Western)—8-110.
Influenza Virus Vaccine—1-2-17-56-101-110-297.
Mumps Vaccine—17-56.
Poliomyelitis Vaccine—1-2-8-56-110-144.
Q Fever Vaccine—17.
Rabies Vaccine—1-2-17-56-99-101-110-120-121-144.
Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever Vaccine—2-17.
Smallpox Vaccine—1-2-8-14-17-56-64-99-101-144.
Typhus Vaccine—2-56-110.
Typhus Vaccine (Epidemic)—17-101.
Yellow Fever Vaccine—101.

11. Diagnostic Substances for Dermal Tests

Blastomycin—1.
Blastomycin, Pin Test—291.
Coccidioidin—8.
Coccidioidin, Pin Test—291.
Diphtheria Toxin for Schick Test—1-2-8-14-17-56-64-99-101-110-120-121-144.
Histoplasmin—1-56-99.
Histoplasmin, Pin Test—291.
Lymphogranuloma Venereum Antigen—17-52.
Mumps Skin Test Antigen—56-139.
Scarlet Fever Streptococcus Toxin for Dick Test—1-2-17-101-144.
Schick Test Control—1-2-8-14-56-64-99-101-110-120-121-144.
Tuberculin, Autolytic—1.
Tuberculin, Old—1-8-14-17-56-64-99-110-121-144.
Tuberculin, Patch Test—17.
Tuberculin, Pin Test—291.
Tuberculin, Purified Protein Derivatives—1-2.

12. Diagnostic Substances for Laboratory Tests

Anti-A Blood Grouping Serum—2-8-14-17-113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-163-164-165-166-168-179-181-184-185-187-191-232-257.
Anti-B Blood Grouping Serum—2-8-14-17-113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-163-164-165-166-168-179-181-184-185-187-191-204-232-257.
Anti-A,B Blood Grouping Serum—113-139-140-156-157-158-164-179-181-184.
Absorbed Anti-A Serum—113-139-140-155-156-157-158-163-164-179-184.
Group AB Serum (Human)—140-184.
Anti-Rh Typing Serums:
Anti-Rh_o (Anti-D)—14-17-113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-163-164-165-166-167-168-179-181-184-185-187-232-275.
Anti-Rh_o' (Anti-CD)—14-17-113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-163-164-165-166-167-179-184-185-187-232-257.
Anti-Rh_o'' (Anti-DE)—113-139-140-155-156-157-158-163-164-165-179-184.
Anti-Rh_o rh' rh'' (Anti-CDE)—113-139-140-156-157-158-164-165-179-184.
Anti-rh' (Anti-C)—113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-163-164-167-179-184-185.
Anti-rh'' (Anti-E)—113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-163-164-165-166-167-179-184-185.
Anti-hr' (Anti-c)—113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-164-166-167-179-184-185-232.
Anti-hr'' (Anti-e)—155-156-157-159-164-166-179.
Anti-rh^w (Anti-C^w)—156-157-159.
Anti-Rh_o+$\mathfrak{R}h_o$ (Anti-D+D^u)—159.
Anti-Fy^a Serum (Anti-Duffy)—155-156-157-164-280.
Anti-Jk^a (Anti-Kidd)—164.
Anti-k (Anti-Cellano)—155-156-157.
Anti-K Serum (Anti-Kell)—140-155-156-157-159-164-165-166-179-280.
Anti-rh^w and Anti-K Serum (Anti-(C^w+Kell))—155.
Anti-Le^a Serum—(Anti-Lewis)—159-164.
Anti-Le^b Serum—159.
Anti-M Serum—17-140-155-156-157-159-164-168-179-184.
Anti-N Serum—17-140-155-156-157-168-179-184.
Anti-P Serum—157-164.
Anti-S Serum—156-164.
Anti-Human Serum—14-17-113-139-140-155-156-157-158-159-161-164-165-167-168-179-181-184-187-232-257-279-280.
Anti-Human Precipitin Serum—140-155-157-184.
Anti-Influenza Virus Serum for the Hemagglutination Inhibition Test—1.
Influenza Virus Hemagglutinating Antigen—1.
Pneumococcus Typing Serum—99.

13. Allergenic Extracts

Allergenic Extracts (including pollens and miscellaneous substances)—1-8-17-30-43-56-84-91-101-103-105-107-110-119-144-147-152-193-292.
Allergenic Extract-Schistosoma mansoni—177.
Fungus Antigens—56.
Poison Ivy Extract—1-2-8-30-91-102-110-119-144.
Poison Ivy Extract Alum Precipitated—105.
Poison Ivy-Poison Oak Extracts Combined—30-110.
Poison Ivy-Oak-Sumac Extracts Combined—119-144.
Poison Oak Extract—2-8-30-91-102-110-144.
Poison Sumac Extract—119.
Tincture Poison Ivy—102-174.
Trichinella Extract—17.

14. Trivalent Organic Arsenicals

Dichlorophenarsine Hydrochloride—1.
Oxophenarsine Hydrochloride—1.

15. Miscellaneous

Antivenins:
Antivenin (Latrodectus mactans)—2.
Antivenin (Crotalidae) Polyvalent—144.
Antivenin, Scorpion—176.
Blood Group Specific Substances:
Blood Group Specific Substance A—164.
Blood Group Specific Substance B—164.
Blood Group Specific Substances A and B—2.
Enzymes:
Streptokinase-Streptodornase—17.
Venoms:
Bee Venom—2.
Cobra Venom Solution—125.
Cobra Venom with Silicic and Formic Acids—125.
Russell Viper Venom—129.

TUBINGS AND MEAT CASINGS MADE OF HIDE FLESHINGS OR HIDE SPLITS

TARIFF CLASSIFICATION

JULY 14, 1958.

It appears probable that a correct interpretation of the tariff laws requires that tubings and meat casings of various types made of hide fleshings (also known as hide splits) be subject to a duty, by virtue of the similitude clause in paragraph 1559, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, equal to the duty applicable to tubings and casings made of regenerated cellulose compounds (other than cellulose acetate) under paragraph 31 (b) (1) or (2), Tariff Act of 1930, as modified, which is 20 cents per pound or 25½ percent ad valorem, respectively. Such tubings and casings are now classified under a uniform and established practice as nonenumerated manufactured articles under paragraph 1558, Tariff Act of 1930, as modified, with duty at the rate of 10 percent ad valorem.

Pursuant to section 16.10a (d) of the Customs Regulations, notice is hereby given that the existing uniform practice of classifying such merchandise under paragraph 1558 is under review in the Bureau of Customs.

Consideration will be given to any relevant data, views, or arguments pertaining to the correct tariff classification of the tubings and casings which are submitted in writing to the Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D. C. To assure consideration, such communications must be received in the Bureau not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice. No hearings will be held.

Acting Commissioner of Customs.

Federal Maritime Board

[Docket No. 825]

PAN ATLANTIC STEAMSHIP CORP. ET AL.; PACIFIC COAST/PUERTO RICO GENERAL INCREASE IN RATES AND CHARGES

NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE OF PROCEEDING

On July 7, 1958, the Board entered the following second supplemental order in this proceeding:

It appearing that the Pan Atlantic Steamship Corporation, Pope & Talbot, Inc., Waterman Steamship Corporation (Puerto Rican Division), and the Bay Cities Transportation Company, through the Pacific Coast/Puerto Rican Conference, Agent C. R. Nickerson, filed on statutory notice effective August 15, 1957, and later, increases in rates and charges of approximately 15 percent;

It further appearing that the Board by order dated August 13, 1957, suspended said increases until December 16, 1957, and undertook an investigation on its own motion to determine the reasonableness and lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges, such investigation to be designated as Docket No. 825;

It further appearing that the Board by amended order dated August 16, 1957, vacated so much of its order of August 13, 1957, as directed the suspension of the aforesaid increases in rates and charges of respondent lines;

It further appearing that in said amended order dated August 16, 1957, the Board further ordered the said respondent carriers to keep an account of all freight monies received from August 20, 1957, to December 15, 1957, inclusive, by reason of the aforesaid increase in rates over the rates previously in effect;

It further appearing that the Board, in supplemental order dated October 10, 1957, expanded Docket No. 825 to include investigation of the increase in rates and charges of approximately 15 percent named in new tariff schedules published and filed by Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., effective October 16, 1957, and subsequently deferred to become effective October 21, 1957; and the said carrier was added as a respondent to the proceeding and was ordered to keep an account of all freight monies received from October 21, 1957, to February 21, 1958, inclusive, by reason of the aforesaid increases in its rates over its rates previously in effect;

It further appearing that in said amended order of August 16, 1957, and supplemental order of October 10, 1957, the Board ordered all respondents to repay the sums, if any, which the facts and circumstances as found by the Board would warrant, to the respective persons who had paid the freight during the four-month periods heretofore cited;

It further appearing that under date of October 28, 1957, Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., sought special permission to reduce the increase of 15 percent effective October 21, 1957, to approximately 7½ percent; and under date of November 7, 1957, the Board granted special permission No. 3657 and as a result thereof, the reduced rates became effective November 11, 1957;

It further appearing that under date of November 4, 1957, C. R. Nickerson, Agent, Pacific Coast-Puerto Rican Conference sought special permission on behalf of the Conference lines to reduce the initial increase of 15 percent, effective August 20, 1957, to approximately 7½ percent and that under date of November 7, 1957, the Board granted special permission No. 3659 became effective November 13, 1957;

It further appearing that respondent conference lines have moved the Board to discontinue this proceeding in view of the reduction of the increase in rates from 15 percent to 7½ percent;

It further appearing that from a review of financial records and other relevant data pertaining to the operations of respondent lines, the rates and charges, rules, regulations and practices of respondents in schedules presently in effect are not unjust or unreasonable;

It further appearing, that respondents have undertaken voluntarily to refund to the respective persons who have paid them so much of the freight monies received under the 15 percent rate increase as exceeds the rate which would have been applicable under the presently effective tariff reflecting the 7½ percent increase;

It is ordered, That in consideration of the aforementioned undertaking of respondents to refund a portion of the monies collected under the original 15 percent increase, the motion of respondent conference lines be granted and that this proceeding be discontinued;

It is further ordered, That copies of this order shall be filed with said tariffs in the Regulation Office of the Federal Maritime Board; that a copy hereof shall be forthwith served upon Pan-Atlantic Steamship Corporation, Pope & Talbot, Inc., Waterman Steamship Corporation (Puerto Rico Division), Bay Cities Transportation Company, Isbrandtsen Company, Inc., and Pacific Coast-Puerto Rico Conference, C. R. Nickerson, Agent; and that said protestants, agent and carriers be duly notified of the dismissal of the investigation and that notice thereof be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: July 16, 1958.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

[Docket No. 840]

ANCHOR LINE LTD. ET AL.

NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND OF CONSOLIDATION AND HEARING

On July 11, 1958, the Federal Maritime Board entered the following order:

It appearing that pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U. S. C. 814), an agreement was filed for approval and assigned Federal Maritime Board Agreement No. 8400, between Anchor Line Limited, The Bristol City Line of Steamships Ltd., Canadian Pacific Railway Company, The Cunard Steam-Ship Co., Ltd., Ellerman's Wilson Line Limited, Furness, Withy & Co. Limited, Manchester Liners Ltd., and The Ulster Steamship Company, Ltd.; and

It further appearing that pursuant to notice of filing of said agreement, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 18, 1958 (23 F. R. 349), the member lines of the Great Lakes-United Kingdom Westbound Conference (operating under approved Agreement No. 8140, as amended), filed a petition alleging that Agreement No. 8400, if approved, would result in a situation detrimental to the commerce of the United States and requesting an investigation and hearing and disapproval of Agreement No. 8400; and

It further appearing that the member lines of said Agreement No. 8140, which are also members of the Great Lakes-United Kingdom Eastbound Conference (approved Agreement No. 8130), have filed a complaint, Docket No. 833, against the approval of said Agreement No. 8400 and alleging, among other things, that said agreement is in violation of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended; and

It further appearing that by order of April 7, 1958, the Board on its own motion instituted a proceeding, Docket No. 834, to determine whether operations under Agreement No. 8400 would violate section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916; and

It further appearing that Dockets Nos. 833 and 834 have been consolidated for hearing and report; and

It further appearing that the parties to Agreement No. 8400, have filed a petition dated May 13, 1958, under sections 15 and 22 of the Shipping Act, 1916, in which the Board is requested (1) to reconsider and declare null and void its previous approval of Agreements Nos. 8130 and 8140, (2) to dismiss the complaint in Docket No. 833, (3) to discontinue the proceeding in Docket No. 834, and (4) to approve Agreement No. 8400; and

It further appearing that the member lines of Agreements Nos. 8130 and 8140 have filed a motion to dismiss the petition dated May 13, 1958, setting forth a general denial of all allegations in said petition and a request for oral argument; and

It further appearing that petitioners, in reply to said motion, asked the Board to deny the motion, to grant the relief sought by the petition, and to hear oral argument thereon; and

It further appearing that said petition dated May 13, 1958, presents issues, among others, that the Board withdraw its approval of Agreements Nos. 8130 and 8140, which can be resolved only by hearing under sections 15, 22 and 23 of the Shipping Act, 1916; and good cause appearing therefor;

It is ordered, That the petition of May 13, 1958, for dismissal of the complaint in Docket No. 833, and for the discontinuance of the Board's investigation in Docket No. 834, be, and it is hereby, denied;

It is further ordered, That the motion to dismiss the petition of May 13, 1958, and the requests for oral argument on such motion, be and they are hereby, denied; and

It is further ordered, That the remaining issues presented by said petition of May 13, 1958, be set for hearing and investigation, and consolidated with the pending proceedings in Dockets Nos. 833 and 834 for hearing and report; and

It is further ordered, That this order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and a copy thereof served on each party in Dockets Nos. 833 and 834.

Pursuant to the above order, notice is hereby given that the hearing herein ordered will be held before an examiner of the Board's Hearing Examiners' Office at a date and place to be determined and announced by the Chief Examiner. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Board's Rules of Practice and Procedure, and a recommended decision will be issued by the examiner.

All persons (including individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships, and public bodies), having an interest in this proceeding and desiring to intervene therein, should notify the Secretary of the Board promptly and file petitions for leave to intervene in accordance with Rule 5 (n) (46 CFR 201.74) of said rules.

Dated: July 16, 1958.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

EUDORA LIVESTOCK AUCTION ET AL.

DEPOSITING OF STOCKYARDS

It has been ascertained that the Eudora Livestock Auction, located in the downtown section of Eudora, Arkansas, originally posted on June 26, 1957, as being subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), no longer comes within the definition of a stockyard under the act for the reason that it is no longer being operated as a public market. The owner of this market has built new facilities approximately two miles outside the city limits of Eudora, Arkansas, and notice of proposed posting of the new market is being issued.

It has also been ascertained that the Winneshiek Co-operative Association Sales Pavilion, Decorah, Iowa, originally posted on March 5, 1957, as being subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, no longer comes within the definition of a stockyard under the act for the reason that it no longer meets the area requirements, and that The Inter-State Stock Yards, Toledo, Ohio, originally posted on November 1, 1921, as being subject to said act, no longer comes within the definition of a stockyard under the act for the reason that it is no longer being operated as a public market.

Accordingly, notice is given to the owners of the aforementioned stockyards and to the public that such livestock markets are no longer subject to the provisions of the act.

Notice or other public procedure has not preceded promulgation of the foregoing rule since it is found that the giving of such notice would prevent the due and timely administration of the Packers and Stockyards Act and would, therefore, be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. There is no legal warrant or justification for not depositing promptly a stockyard which no longer is within the definition of that term contained in said act.

The foregoing is in the nature of a rule granting an exemption or relieving a restriction and, therefore, may be made effective in less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. This notice shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PROPOSED POSTING OF STOCKYARDS

The Director of the Livestock Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, has information that the livestock markets named below are stockyards as defined in section 302 of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 202), and should be made subject to the provisions of the act.

Eudora Livestock Auction, Eudora, Ark. (Located approximately 2 miles outside city limits).

Sargent Livestock Commission Company, Sargent, Nebr.

Union Stockyards, McAlester, Okla.

Notice is hereby given, therefore, that the said Director, pursuant to authority delegated under the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U. S. C. 181 et seq.), proposes to issue a rule designating the stockyards named above as posted stockyards subject to the provisions of the act, as provided in section 302 thereof.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed rule may do so by filing them with the Director, Livestock Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Project No. 2247]

NORTHERN LIGHTS, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY PERMIT

JULY 15, 1958.

Public notice is hereby given that Northern Lights, Inc., of Sandpoint, Idaho, has filed application under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a-825r) for a preliminary permit for proposed water-power Project No. 2247, to be located on Smith Creek, a tributary of the Kootenai River, in Boundary County, Idaho, in the region of Porthill, and to consist of a small dam above a waterfall on Smith Creek; a powerhouse below the falls with an installed capacity of about 600 kilowatts, developing about 190 feet of head; and a pipeline extending from the dam to the powerhouse.

No construction is authorized under a preliminary permit. A permit, if issued, merely gives permittee, during the period of the permit, the right to priority of application for license while the permittee undertakes the necessary studies and examinations, including the preparation of maps and plans, in order to determine the economic feasibility of the proposed project, the means of securing the necessary financial arrangements for construction, the market for the project power, and all other information necessary for inclusion in an application for license, should one be filed.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last date upon which protests or petitions may be filed is August 21, 1958. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 15, 1958.

Take notice that Atlantic Seaboard Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in Charleston, West Virginia, filed an application on May 22, 1958, as supplemented on June 19, 1958, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant seeks authority to construct and operate:

1. Approximately 12 miles of 26-inch loop line in West Virginia, between its Seneca and Lost River Compressor stations on its Cobb-Rockville line.

2. Approximately 5.7 miles of 26-inch loop line in Shenandoah County, Virginia, on its Cobb-Rockville line, east of the Lost River Station.

Applicant states that its proposed facilities will increase its system capacity to render additional service to existing customers and market area beginning with the 1958-59 heating season.

Applicant estimates its total system requirements at 828,800 Mcf for the designed peak-day of the 1958-59 winter period. Applicant's presently estimated daily transmission capacity with existing facilities, is 792,300 Mcf, leaving a capacity deficiency on a peak-day of 36,500 Mcf. The proposed facilities, with capacity of 828,800 Mcf per day, will enable Applicant to overcome this deficiency during the 1958-59 winter season. The system is designed to meet every customer's maximum contract demand on the same day.

The estimated aggregate cost of the proposed facilities is $2,092,900, which sum will be obtained from Applicant's parent, The Columbia Gas System, Inc., by the sale of securities to the latter, as has been its practice in the past.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on September 9, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 8, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. G-12156]

OHIO FUEL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 15, 1958.

Take notice that The Ohio Fuel Gas Company (Applicant), an Ohio corporation and a subsidiary of The Columbia Gas System, Inc., having its principal place of business at 99 North Front Street, Columbus, Ohio, filed on March 5, 1957, an application, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, authorizing it to construct and operate certain proposed facilities, and for permission to abandon certain other facilities, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate: Approximately 6.3 miles of 12¾-inch O. D. natural gas transmission pipeline in Sandusky County, Ohio, extending from Line D-100 to Line D-12 near Fremont; together with valves, fittings and incidental facilities necessary for proper operation and control.

Applicant alleges that this proposed new connection will replace substantially greater sections of Line D which are no longer capable of providing required service.

Applicant proposes to abandon approximately 2.9 miles of 16-inch O. D.; 17.3 miles of 12¾-inch O. D. and 1.2 miles of 10¾-inch O. D. pipe from Line D, which Applicant alleges is no longer suitable for continued operations because these sections are limited by their inability to carry pressures higher than 160 psig.

The Bellevue-Norwalk-Sandusky area and the Wellington Storage area require more gas than these existing lines can deliver. The new 6.3 miles of 12¾-inch will permit pressures up to 337 psig at Line D–100 and is proposed to permit adequate service to said area and the delivery of gas into the Wellington Storage area in volumes sufficient to assure adequate flexibility of storage operations and maintenance of input schedules.

The proposed abandonment would eliminate existing service to twenty-two rural customers.

The estimated cost of the proposed construction is $243,000, which will be financed by The Columbia Gas System, Inc. The estimated cost of removing the facilities to be abandoned is $90,000; the salvage value is estimated at $146,000, and the credit to fixed capital is estimated at $171,160.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 18, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 6, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812–1164]

DIVERSIFIED INVESTMENT FUND, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION OF PURCHASE OF SECURITIES DURING EXISTENCE OF UNDERWRITING SYNDICATE

JULY 14, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that Diversified Investment Fund, Inc. ("Applicant"), a registered open-end diversified investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 10 (f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 10 (f) of the act the proposed purchase by Applicant of not to exceed 5,000 shares of the 4⅞ percent Cumulative Preferred Stock of Boston Edison Company.

Boston Edison Company has filed a registration statement with the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 proposing a public offering of 250,000 shares of its Cumulative Preferred Stock. The registration statement for the sale of such stock became effective July 9, 1958, with a public offering price of $101.80 per share. Dick & Merle-Smith, of which Julian K. Roosevelt, a director of the Applicant, is a partner, is among the group of investment bankers who are underwriting the public offering. The Applicant proposes to purchase the Preferred Stock, subject to a review of the offering price and the dividend rate, from underwriters or members of the selling group other than Dick & Merle-Smith.

If Applicant were to purchase 5,000 shares, it would require no more than 2 percent of the total offering and it is expected that the purchase will represent an investment of less than four-fifths of 1 percent of the Applicant's total assets as of June 30, 1958.

Section 10 (f) of the act provides, among other things, that no registered investment company shall knowingly purchase or otherwise acquire, during the existence of any underwriting or selling syndicate, any security (except a security of which such company is the issuer) a principal underwriter of which is a person of which a director or member of an advisory board of such registered investment company is an affiliated person unless the Commission by order grants an exemption therefrom. Since Julian K. Roosevelt is an affiliated [illegible] of an investment banking firm which [illegible] part of the underwriting group of [illegible] securities being offered, the proposed purchase by Applicant is subject to the provisions of section 10 (f) of the act.

The application represents that the proposed purchase of the Boston Edison Cumulative Preferred Stock is consistent with the investment policy of the Applicant.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 28, 1958, at 12:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] NELLYE A. THORSEN,
Assistant Secretary.

TARIFF COMMISSION

NONMETALLIC MINERALS AND PRODUCTS THEREOF; WORKS OF ART, ANTIQUES, AND MODELS

HEARINGS ON PROPOSED REVISED AND CONSOLIDATED TARIFF SCHEDULES

Under section 101 (b), Title I, Customs Simplification Act of 1954, as amended, and section 332 of the Tariff Act of 1930,

The United States Tariff Commission hereby gives notice that Schedule 5, entitled "Nonmetallic Minerals and Products Thereof", and Part 5 of Schedule 7, entitled "Works of Art, Antiques, and Models", of the proposed revised and consolidated tariff schedules are being released today and that public hearings thereon will begin at 10 a. m., e. d. s. t., on Tuesday, the 16th day of September 1958 in the Hearing Room of the Tariff Commission, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington 25, D. C.

Requests to appear at the hearings on these schedules must be filed in writing with the Secretary of the Commission not later than September 5, 1958. Parties who have properly entered an appearance by this date will be individually notified of the date on which they are scheduled to appear. Such notice will be sent as soon as possible after September 5, 1958. Any person who fails to receive such notification by September 9, 1958 should immediately communicate with the office of the Secretary of the Commission.

In its public notice issued January 17, 1958, regarding hearings on Schedule 1 (Animal and Vegetable Products) of the proposed revised and consolidated tariff schedules (23 F. R. 449 et seq.; weekly Treasury Decisions, Vol. 93, No. 4, January 23, 1958) interested parties were notified regarding the rules governing the conduct of the hearings, and the submission of written statements. The Commission's notice of January 17 applies to the hearings on the schedules being released today to the extent that they are applicable.

As each of the schedules is completed and released, copies thereof are made available for public inspection at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., and New York, N. Y.; at all field offices of the Department of Commerce, and at the offices of collectors of customs and appraisers of merchandise at all headquarters ports of entry in the United States.

Issued: July 15, 1958.

By order of the Commission.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

PART 722—COTTON

SUBPART—REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO MARKETING QUOTAS FOR UPLAND COTTON OF THE 1958 AND SUCCEEDING CROPS

RATE OF PENALTY

Basis and purpose. Section 346 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that whenever farm marketing quotas are in effect with respect to any crop of cotton, the producer shall be subject to a penalty on the farm marketing excess at a rate per pound equal to 50 percent of the parity price per pound for cotton as of June 15 of the calendar year in which such crop is produced. When the regulations pertaining to marketing quotas for upland cotton of the 1958 and succeeding crops were approved by the Secretary of Agriculture on May 8, 1958, the parity price per pound for upland cotton as of June 15, 1958, was not available and the exact rate of penalty could not be included in such regulations. Such parity price is now available and the purpose of this amendment is to establish and include in the regulations the exact rate of penalty per pound of upland cotton for the 1958 crop of such cotton.

Cotton is presently being harvested in the southernmost areas of the United States and it is necessary that this amendment be made effective at the earliest possible date in order that the exact rate of penalty may be made known to producers who desire to market cotton and to buyers who are charged in the regulations with the duty of collecting penalty on the cotton marketed subject to the penalty and the lien for the penalty. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice and public procedure requirements and compliance with the 30-day effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Section 722.51 of the regulations pertaining to marketing quotas for upland cotton of the 1958 and succeeding crops (23 F. R. 3231) is hereby amended by addition of a new paragraph (a) at the end thereof which reads as follows:

(a) Penalty rate for 1958 crop. The parity price for cotton effective as of June 15, 1958, is 38.68 cents per pound. The rate of penalty for cotton produced in 1958 as calculated on the basis of such parity price and in accordance with the provisions of § 722.26 shall be 19.3 cents per pound of lint cotton.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 346; 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1346)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of July 1958. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

SUBPART—REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO MARKETING QUOTAS FOR EXTRA LONG STAPLE COTTON OF THE 1958 AND SUCCEEDING CROPS

RATE OF PENALTY

Basis and purpose. Section 347 (c) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that the applicable penalty rate for extra long staple cotton (hereinafter referred to as "ELS cotton") under section 346 of the act shall be the higher of 50 percent of the parity price or 50 percent of the support price for ELS cotton as of the date specified in section 346, which date is June 15 of the calendar year in which the ELS cotton crop is produced. When the Regulations Pertaining to Marketing Quotas for Extra Long Staple Cotton of the 1958 and Succeeding Crops were approved by the Secretary of Agriculture on May 8, 1958, the parity price per pound for ELS cotton as of June 15, 1958, was not available and the exact rate of penalty for 1958 could not be included in such regulations. Such parity price is now available and the purpose of this amendment is to establish and include in the regulations the exact rate of penalty per pound of ELS cotton for the 1958 crop of such cotton.

In view of the early harvest date in the southernmost areas of the United States, it is necessary that this amendment be made effective at the earliest possible date in order that the exact rate of penalty may be made known to producers who desire to market ELS cotton and to buyers who are charged in the regulations with the duty of collecting the penalty on ELS cotton marketed subject to the penalty and the lien for the penalty. Accordingly, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the notice and public procedure requirements and compliance with the 30-day effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Section 722.152 of the regulations pertaining to marketing quotas for extra long staple cotton of the 1958 and succeeding crops (23 F. R. 3241) is hereby amended by addition of a new paragraph (a) at the end thereof which reads as follows:

(a) Penalty rate for 1958 crop. The parity price for ELS cotton effective as of June 15, 1958, is 83.2 cents per pound. Section 101 (f) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, provides that the support price for 1958 crop ELS cotton shall not exceed the same per centum of the parity price as for the 1956 crop. Such per centum was 75 percent. No increased price support levels for 1958 crop ELS cotton have been established pursuant to section 402 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended. Accordingly, if the support price for 1958 crop ELS cotton were determined on the basis of the June 15, 1958 parity price, the support price thus determined could not exceed 75 per centum of the parity price for ELS cotton as of June 15, 1958. Thus, the parity price, being higher than the possible support price, is used in accordance with the provisions of § 722.126 in calculating the rate of penalty for 1958 crop ELS cotton. Such rate of penalty shall be 41.6 cents per pound of ELS lint cotton.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 346, 347; 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 63 Stat. 674, 675, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1346, 1347)

PART 728—WHEAT

SUBPART—1959–60 MARKETING YEAR

PROCLAMATION OF RESULTS OF MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

Section 728.909 is issued to announce the results of the wheat marketing quota referendum for the marketing year, July 1, 1959, through June 30, 1960, under the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The Secretary proclaimed a marketing quota for wheat for the 1959–60 marketing year (23 F. R. 1984). The Secretary announced (23 F. R. 1985) that a referendum would be held on June 20, 1958, to determine whether or not wheat producers were in favor of or opposed to marketing quotas for the marketing year July 1, 1959, through June 30, 1960. Since the only purpose of this proclamation is to announce results of the referendum, it is found and determined that with respect to this proclamation application of the notice and procedure provision of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

§ 728.909 Proclamation of the results of the wheat marketing quota referendum for the marketing year 1959–60. In a referendum of farmers who will be subject to quotas on the 1959 crop of wheat held on June 20, 1958, 230,300 eligible farmers voted. Of those voting 193,583 or 84.1 percent favored quotas for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1959. Therefore, wheat marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1959–60 marketing year.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of July 1958.

PART 730—RICE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO RICE MARKETING QUOTAS

RICE ACREAGE AND RATE OF PENALTY

The purpose of the amendments herein is (1) to exclude from the definition of "rice acreage" certain acreages outside field border levees or inside of drainage ditch banks under certain conditions when such acreages cannot be harvested or destroyed by mechanical means; and (2) to amend the rate of penalty provisions to put into effect the increase in the rate of penalty provided in Public Law 85-443, and to state the 1958 rate of penalty in cents per pound.

Since farmers have already planted the 1958 crop of rice on their farms and soon will be making plans to harvest such crop, it is imperative that they be notified of these amendments as soon as possible. In addition the amendment with respect to the rate of penalty merely repeats the provisions of a newly enacted law and involves a mathematical computation. Accordingly it is hereby found that compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, and these amendments shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 730.951 (v) (definition of "rice acreage") is amended by striking out the word "and" immediately preceding the language "(5)", by changing the period at the end thereof to a comma, and by adding the following language: "and (6) any acreage seeded to rice outside of the field border levee where such levee is bounded by a fence or other barrier which would make it impossible to harvest or destroy the rice from such area by mechanical means, and any acreage seeded to rice inside of drainage ditch banks where the topography would make it impossible to harvest or destroy the rice from such acreage by mechanical means: Provided, That the seeding operations have been performed with an end gate seeder or by airplane."

2. Section 730.972 is amended to read as follows:

§ 730.972 Rate of penalty. The rate of penalty on rice shall be 65 per centum of the parity price per pound of rice as of June 15 of the calendar year in which the crop is produced. The rate of penalty applicable to the 1958 crop of rice shall be 3.88 cents per pound, which is 65 per centum of the parity price per pound of rice as of June 15, 1958, which is determined to be 5.98 cents per pound.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375)

Issued this 17th day of July, 1958.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Reg. 747, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U S C 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (iii) of § 953.854 (Lemon Regulation 747, 23 F. R. 5298) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(iii) District 2: 418,500 cartons.

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1681]

[Anchorage 025709]

ALASKA

REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 1065 OF FEBRUARY 3, 1955

By virtue of the authority vested in the President, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10365 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Public Land Order No. 1065 of February 3, 1955, which withdrew the following-described public lands in Alaska for use of the Department of the Army in connection with an antiaircraft artillery firing range, is hereby revoked:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 12 N., R. 1 W.,
Secs. 19, Lots 3 and 4, E½SW¼, and S½SE¼;
Secs. 29, Lots 1, 2, and 3, and NE¼NE¼;
Secs. 30, Lots 1 and 2.
T. 13 N., R. 4 W.,
Secs. 1, Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, E½W½, and E½;
Secs. 2, Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, SE¼NE¼, S½NW¼, and S½;
Secs. 3, Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, S½N½, and S½;
Secs. 4, Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, S½N½, and S½;
Secs. 5, Lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, S½N½, and S½;
Secs. 6, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7, S½NE¼, SE¼NW¼, E½SW¼, and SE¼.

The areas described aggregate both public and non-public land, 4,480 acres.

2. Lots 4 and the SE¼NE¼, of sec. 23, and the NE¼NW¼, sec. 25, T. 12 N., R. 4 W., have been patented.

3. The remaining lands consist of swampy lowlands bordering on Turnagain Arm tide lands.

4. In accordance with section 202 (b) of the act of July 28, 1956 (70 Stat. 709, 711, 48 U. S. C. 46-3 (b)), and subject to the requirements of that act and the regulations in 43 CFR Part 76, the Territory of Alaska shall be entitled until October 16, 1958, to a preferred right of selection of the restored lands in connection with its mental health program, except as against prior existing valid rights, or as against equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation.

5. Subject to any valid existing rights, the requirements of applicable law, and the preference right of selection of the Territory of Alaska, the public lands described in paragraph 1 of this order are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

(a) Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraph.

(b) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(c) All valid applications under the Homestead, Alaska Homesite, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. 279-284, as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on October 16, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on January 15, 1959, will be governed by the time of filing.

(d) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (b) and (c) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on January 15, 1959, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

6. The lands will be open to location under the United States mining laws, beginning at 10:00 a. m. on January 15, 1959.

7. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (L MFR, ADF, VOR, TerVOR, VOR/DME, ILS, or RADAR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100 (a) are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.
If an instrument approach procedure of the above type is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitudes shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

6. The radar procedures prescribed in § 609.500 are amended to read in part:

RADAR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.

If a radar instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below. Positive identification must be established with the radar controller. From initial contact with radar to final authorized landing minimums, the instructions of the radar controller are mandatory except when (A) visual contact is established on final approach at or before descent to the authorized landing minimums, or (B) at pilot's discretion if it appears desirable to discontinue the approach. Except when the radar controller may direct otherwise prior to final approach, a missed approach shall be executed as provided below when (A) communication on final approach is lost for more than 5 seconds during a precision approach or for more than 30 seconds during a surveillance approach; (B) directed by radar controller; (C) visual contact is not established upon descent to authorized landing minimums; or (D) if landing is not accomplished.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Production and Subsistence Loans

[Administration Letter 576(441)]

PART 341—POLICIES AND AUTHORITIES

SUBPART A—OPERATING LOANS TO FULL-TIME FAMILY-TYPE FARMERS

SPECIAL TYPE LOANS IN HAWAII

Part 341, Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (22 F. R. 685, 7629), is amended to provide exceptions to eligibility, loan purpose, and rates and terms provisions with respect to certain types of loans in Hawaii, and to read as follows:

§ 341.5 Eligibility—(a) Applicant. • • •

(9) The provisions of subparagraphs (7) and (8) of this paragraph are modified to the extent that loans to full-time family-type farmers in Hawaii for the purpose of establishing such crops as coffee, sugarcane, and pineapple or any similar crop, which requires 18 months or more from planting to initial harvest time may be made to otherwise qualified applicants.

(i) After the loan is made, the borrower must be engaged in agriculture as farm owner, tenant, or farm laborer, and must have the time and means of adequately caring for his plantings.

(ii) The applicant must agree that after his farm comes into full production, the major portion of his income will be derived from farming operations and that he will spend the major portion of his time in carrying on his farming operations.

§ 341.8 Loan purposes. (a) • • •

(13) In the Territory of Hawaii loans may also be made to full-time family-type farmers for the following purposes:

(i) Necessary coffee-drying equipment and trellis for passion fruit may be purchased with Operating loan funds under provisions of this paragraph, provided such equipment does not become a part of the real estate and thereby prevent the Farmers Home Administration from obtaining an enforceable chattel lien on such equipment. Consideration should be given to the acquisition of such equipment through the use of group services where possible.

(ii) Subject to the limitations prescribed in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph loans may be made for erecting necessary farm buildings and making essential repairs and improvements to existing farm buildings, provided the buildings, repairs, or improvements for which the loan is made are normally considered a part of the cost of operating the farm and will enable the applicant to establish or reorganize an approved farming enterprise, and not more than $2,000 may be advanced to a borrower for any or all such purposes during any fiscal year.

(iii) Subject to the limitations prescribed in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph loans may be made for the establishment and improvement of pastures, hay crops, coffee, pineapple, banana, and similar perennial-type crops and for the construction of terraces, waterways, and farm ponds, the clearing, levelling and drainage of land, and the payment for other approved soil and water conservation and improvement measures, provided not more than $2,000 may be advanced to a borrower for any or all of such purposes during any fiscal year.

(iv) When loans are made to tenants for real estate improvements authorized in subparagraphs (10), (11), (12) of this paragraph and this subparagraph, the lease must provide for an assignment of the lease to the Government or to someone designated by the Government, and loans may not be made to tenants operating on Hawaiian Homes Commission lands unless its present regulations and policies are changed in a manner which would permit the Farmers Home Administration to obtain a valid crop mortgage.

dates, the initial payment will be scheduled on a date coinciding with the date the income is to be received but not more than 24 months from the date of the loan check.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 104—BRISTOL BAY AREA

PART 115—SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA AREA

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

JULY 21, 1958.

Basis and purpose. In accordance with the requirements of § 104.9 announcement is hereby made that the number of units registered to fish in the various districts of Bristol Bay for the week ending July 26, 1958 is as follows:

Naknek-Kvichak—301 units.
Nushagak—182 units.
Egegik—91 units.
Ugashik—63 units.

The red salmon runs continue to be weak in the Naknek-Kvichak, Egegik, and Ugashik districts and continued restricted fishing time is required. Therefore, the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 104.9 notwithstanding, fishing is restricted in the Naknek-Kvichak, Egegik, and Ugashik districts to the following periods:

From 9 a. m. July 21 to 9 p. m. July 21 and from 9 a. m. July 24 to 9 p. m. July 24, 1958.

Basis and purpose. The pink salmon runs in the northern part of Southeastern Alaska are not entering the streams in adequate numbers because of extremely dry weather, requiring temporary closures until adequate escapements are secured, and Part 115 is hereby amended accordingly.

Section 115.5 is amended in paragraph (a) Icy Strait district (1) (ii) by adding the following: "The weekly closed period in the Eastern section is extended to include the period from 6 a. m. July 21 to 6 a. m. July 24, 1958"; in paragraph (b) Western district (1) (ii), (2); and in paragraph (c) Eastern district (2) and (3); by adding the following: "the weekly closed periods are extended to include the period from 6 a. m. July 21 to 6 a. m. July 24, 1958."

Because of continued weak runs in the three districts of Bristol Bay specified and the extremely low water levels in the pink salmon streams in Southeastern Alaska, which preclude suitable escapements into the streams, notice and public procedure on these amendments are not in the public interest and they shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[49 CFR Parts 187, 189]

[Ex Parte No. MC–52]

FREIGHT SCHEDULES OF RATES AND CHARGES OF MOTOR CONTRACT CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

JULY 7, 1958.

These rules are proposed in accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1003), and under the authority of sections 204, 210a and 218 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended.

Interested parties may file with this Commission on or before October 6, 1958, written statements of facts, opinions or arguments concerning the rules herein proposed. Any such statements shall conform to the specifications provided in Rule 15 of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR 1.15). One signed original and seven copies shall be furnished for the Commission's use.

No formal hearing is contemplated with respect to these proposed rules, but informal conferences may be arranged with designated officials of the Commission.

The proposed rules have been set out without explanation below. It is believed that their nature and purpose will be readily understood by those conversant with the present rules carried in Tariff Circular MF No. 2, and in Special Circular M No. 1 (49 CFR 187.0–187.11 and 189.1–189.5), which are being canceled.

These proposals have been set out in codified form for convenient reproduction in that form in the proposed tariff circular.

Notice to the public will be given by depositing a copy of this notice in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission for inspection and by filing a copy with the Director, Federal Register Division.

By the Commission, Division 2.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. MCCOY,
Secretary.

Regulations issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission under the authority of sections 204, 210a and 218 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, to govern the construction, publication, filing, posting and maintenance for public inspection, of freight schedules of motor contract carriers of property.

PART 187—FREIGHT RATE TARIFFS, SCHEDULES AND CLASSIFICATIONS

SCHEDULES OF MOTOR CONTRACT CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

Sec.
187.1 Conformity required.
187.2 Definitions.

Sec.
187.3 Waiver of rules; rejection of schedules.
187.4 Publication, filing and posting of schedules.
187.5 Form and content of schedules.
187.6 Applications for special permission.
187.7 Power of attorney.
187.8 Change of name or transfer of entire operation.
187.9 Transfer of part of an operation.
187.10 Assumption of operating control by receiver.
187.11 General instructions.
187.12 Temporary operations of contract carrier properties.

§ 187.1 Conformity required. Every schedule filed with the Commission shall conform to the regulations set out in §§ 187.1 to 187.12.

§ 187.2 Definitions. As used in §§ 187.1 to 187.12:

(a) The term "act" means the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended.

(b) The term "Commission" means the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(c) The term "contract carrier" means a contract carrier of property as defined in section 203 (a) (15) of the act.

(d) The term "rates" means actual rates and charges and minimum rates and charges except where the context indicates otherwise.

(e) The term "schedule" means a publication stating rates of a contract carrier or rules and other provisions applicable in connection with those rates, or a publication containing rates together with such rules and other provisions.

§ 187.3 Waiver of rules; rejection of schedules—(a) Waiver of rules. In response to an application which has been prepared in the manner outlined in § 187.6, and which provides adequate justification for that action, the Commission in its discretion may authorize the waiving of any of these regulations in this part, or the notice requirements of the act.

(b) Rejection of schedules. Any schedule tendered for filing which fails to give lawful notice of the change in rates, or other provisions which it proposes to establish, or which fails to meet the requirements of the regulations in this part, or which violates any order of the Commission or of a court, is subject to rejection by the Commission. When a schedule is rejected, the Commission, acting through a designated administrative officer, will inform the carrier who tendered it for filing, in writing, of the reasons for rejection and will return the rejected schedule to that carrier.

(c) Commission may direct reissue. For good cause the Commission may at any time without formal hearing direct the reissue of any schedule.

§ 187.4 Publication, filing and posting of schedules—(a) Contract carriers must file schedules. Except as otherwise provided in §§ 187.10 to 187.12 and except to the extent that the Commission grants relief from the requirements of the act for filing schedules every contract carrier shall publish and file in its own name schedules clearly and explicitly stating actual rates and charges (see Notes A and B to this section) covering the services which it performs, together with rules, regulations and practices affecting those rates and charges or the value of the service thereunder, except that a carrier serving but one shipper having rendered continuous service to such shipper for not less than one year may file reasonable minimum rates and charges (see Note A to this section) covering the services which it performs, together with rules, regulations and practices affecting those rates and charges or the value of the service thereunder, unless the Commission requires the filing of actual rates and charges.

NOTE A. Rates shall be stated in cents or in dollars per 100 pounds, per mile, per hour, per ton of 2,000 pounds, per ton of 2,240 pounds, per truckload of specified amount or per other defined unit.

NOTE B. Section 218 of the act requires that the schedule of a contract carrier, who files actual rates and charges, shall contain rates, charges and other provisions precisely as provided by the effective contract or contracts between the carrier and its shipper or shippers. When a contract carrier has more than one contract covering similar but not identical services or contracts covering identical services for which different rates of compensation are provided by the contracts, exceptional care must be exercised to accomplish publication of clear and explicit schedule provisions that reflect actual rates, charges, rules, or practices. In such case, the carrier may publish a separate schedule for each contract provided the carrier submits in the same envelope with the schedule, when tendered for filing, a separate statement identifying the contract in connection with which the schedule applies. If rates, charges and other provisions applying in connection with more than one contract are published in a single schedule, the carrier filing the schedule shall submit in the same envelope with the schedule, when tendered for filing, a separate statement indicating as to each rate table, charge, item, rule or regulation, the contract or contracts in connection with which that rate table, charge, item, rule or regulation applies.

(b) Agency or joint schedules prohibited. A contract carrier may not participate in a tariff or schedule issued by another carrier or by an agent except that it may participate under power of attorney in an agency publication containing highway distances and in an agency publication containing the regulations promulgated by the Commission to govern the transportation of explosives or other dangerous articles. See § 187.5 (v).

(c) Three copies to be filed. Three copies of every schedule must be filed with the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C. All three copies, together with a true copy of each contract or amendment to a contract filed with that schedule to comply with the requirements of § 187.4 (f), shall be included in one package marked "Tariffs" and addressed to Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., and shall be accompanied by a letter of transmittal (in duplicate if receipt is desired) listing the schedules, contracts and amendments to contracts enclosed therewith. All postage or other charges must be prepaid.

(d) Letters of transmittal. Each transmittal letter shall bear the signature of the person issuing the schedule, except that it may bear the personal signature of the carrier's representative duly authorized to file schedules with the Commission, provided that a properly attested letter of authorization accompanies the letter of transmittal or has previously been submitted and is effective in the Commission's files. At any one time a carrier may have in effect in the Commission's files one and only one such letter of authorization. The Commission may decline to accept for filing any schedule not accompanied by a properly signed letter of transmittal.

(e) Notice of filing. (1) Each new rate or charge and each reduced rate or charge, also each new or changed rule, regulation or practice which effects a reduction in rates or charges or which increases the value of the service shall be published in a schdeule which shall be posted and filed with the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C., at least 30 days prior to the effective date of such rate, charge, rule, regulation or practice.

(2) Increased rates or charges and changes in rules, regulations, or practices which effect a decrease in the value of service or increase in a rate or charge, and rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices republished without change, shall be published in a schedule which shall be posted and filed with the Commission at least one day prior to the effective date of such rates, charges, rules, regulations, or practices. See §§ 187.5 (g) and 187.6.

(f) Schedules must be supported by a true copy of each related contract. Schedules shall not be published and filed to apply on any commodity or from or to any point or for any service, not covered by contract filed with the Commission, except that a contract carrier may file a schedule of rates covering services for which it has on file with the Commission no schedule in effect or published to become effective at a future date, provided it files therewith a true copy of the contract, or amendment to an existing contract, between the shipper and the carrier for those services.

NOTE: The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to the filings of schedules of carriers transporting only bullion, currency, jewels, or other precious or very valuable articles.

(g) Posting of schedules. At its headquarters or general offices every contract carrier shall keep available for public inspection a complete file of all its effective schedules. Upon request assistance shall be furnished to anyone seeking information from those schedules.

§ 187.5 Form and content of schedules—(a) Form of schedule. A schedule shall be filed in book or pamphlet form. It shall be plainly printed, mimeographed, planographed, stereotyped, or reproduced by other similar durable process on paper of good quality of size 8 by 11 inches. It shall contain no alteration or erasure. A margin of not less than five-eighths of an inch with no printing thereon shall be provided on the binding edge of each page.

(b) Numbering of schedules. Schedules other than supplements shall bear consecutive MF-I. C. C. numbers beginning with MF-I. C. C. No. 1 or continuing with the next consecutive MF-I. C. C. number in the same series of schedules.

(c) The number assigned to a schedule which has been rejected may not be used again. The rejected schedule may not be referred to in any subsequent schedule as having been cancelled, amended or withdrawn, but the schedule published in its stead shall bear the following notation:

Issued in lieu of (here identify the rejected schedule) rejected by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(d) Title page. The first (front or top) page of a schedule shall be prepared as a title page showing in the upper right-hand corner its MF-I. C. C. number and immediately thereunder notice of cancelation specifying the number of any schedules being canceled thereby.

(e) Name of carrier. On the upper central part of the title page shall appear the name of the issuing carrier exactly as it is shown in the carrier's permit, and the number of that permit.

(f) Application of schedule. Below the carrier's name and permit number shall be shown, following the words "Contract Carrier Schedule of Actual Rates and Charges Applying On" or "Contract Carrier Schedule of Minimum Rates and Charges Applying On", whichever is more appropriate, a short, specific description of the commodity or commodities covered by the schedule (or the word "Commodities" where the articles covered are too numerous to list); and a brief description of the territories within which or points from, to, or between which the schedule applies.

(g) Issued and effective dates. On the lower left-hand side of the title page shall be shown the date of issue and on the lower right-hand side the date on which the schedule is to become effective. Schedules which contain new or changed rates or other provisions effective on more dates than one shall show a general (title page) effective date not earlier than 30 days subsequent to the date on which the schedule is filed with the Commission, followed by a notation reading substantially as follows: "except as otherwise provided on page (here give reference to the page or pages on which new or changed rates or other provisions are shown as becoming effective on dates other than the general effective date of the schedules)".

(i) Table of contents. Immediately after title page shall be published a table of contents arranged in alphabetical order to indicate the page on which each subject is treated. If the schedule contains so small a volume of matter that its title page and interior arrangement plainly disclose its contents, the table of contents may be omitted.

(j) Index of commodities. Next shall be provided a complete alphabetical index of commodities indicating the number of the page on which rates or charges on each commodity will be found.

(k) Index of points. Following the index of commodities a schedule naming specific points shall publish an index showing those points, the states in which they are located and the page or pages on which each point is named.

(l) Rules. Rules and other provisions affecting rates and charges shall be published following the index of points. Each rule and other governing provision must be designated as an "item", and be given a separate "item" number; portions which can be understandingly read without recourse to the whole and "exceptions" to the general application of a rule or other such provision may be published in separate paragraphs and such paragraphs may be given subnumbers or letters.

(m) Commodity descriptions. The commodity or commodities upon which rates are to apply should be described in an orderly manner and as specifically as conditions permit. Exceptional care should be exercised so that descriptions will not be so general as to embrace articles not intended to be covered.

(n) Rate tables. Rate tables shall follow commodity descriptions and shall name the commodities on which the rates apply, or make reference to pages or items listing those commodities. As far as practicable rate tables shall show points of origin or destination alphabetically. If desired, points in any one state may be shown in a separate alphabetical list and the several state lists arranged alphabetically by states.

(o) Multiple minimum-quantity rates. Different rates based on different minimum quantities may be published provided the schedule shows clearly in connection with such provisions whether the lowest charge obtainable under the different rates and minimums applicable thereto (or actual quantities, if greater) will be applied, or whether the provisions will be applied in some different, explicitly stated manner.

(p) Mixed shipments. Rates may be established on different articles for mixed quantity shipments. Minimum quantities should be specified together with a statement in connection with the commodity description that the rates apply on mixed quantity shipments. Such rates may also be made applicable upon straight shipments of one or more or all of the articles by a provision to that effect in connection with the commodity description. When more than one article is included in an item or commodity description, the schedule should state whether or not the rates apply on straight or mixed shipments or both.

(q) Changes must be indicated. Schedules must indicate any change thereby made in existing rates or rules, regulations, practices or other provisions by use of the reference marks specified for the purpose in paragraph (r) of this section.

(r) Uniform reference marks. All schedules shall indicate changes made in existing rates, rules, regulations, practices or other provisions by use of the following uniform symbols in connection with those changes:

(s) Explanation of abbreviations and reference marks. At the end of each schedule there shall appear an Explanation of Abbreviations, followed by an Explanation of Reference Marks. Under the Explanation of Abbreviations shall appear an explanation of all abbreviations used in the schedule, except that commonly used abbreviations of state names or parts of names of companies, places or addresses may be omitted. Under the Explanation of Reference Marks shall appear an explanation of all characters, symbols or reference marks used in the schedule, except reference marks, characters or symbols which are explained on the page or pages of the schedule on which they appear.

(t) Distance rates. Schedules carrying rates dependent on mileages or distances for their application shall publish those distances between points or provide a simple definite method for determining them.

(u) Supplements. A change in or addition to a schedule shall be known as an amendment, and shall be published in a supplement. Supplements shall be numbered consecutively and shall carry the same MF-I. C. C. number as the schedule amended. Each supplement shall specify on its title page the supplement or supplements or schedule which it cancels, and shall also list by their numbers the supplements containing effective changes from matter published in the originally filed schedule. The matter contained in each supplement shall be arranged in the same general manner and order as the schedule which it amends. The following is the maximum number of effective supplements permitted to any one schedule:

17 pages or more—3 supplements.

In addition to the above, schedules of 17 or more pages may have one additional supplement of not exceeding 4 pages. Supplements announcing adoptions or suspension effected by orders of the Commission will not be counted in computing the allowable number of supplements.

(v) Explosive and dangerous articles. Schedules which contain rates for the transportation of explosives or other dangerous articles must also contain the rules and regulations promulgated by the Commission governing the transportation thereof, or must bear specific reference to the MF-I. C. C. number of a separate publication which contains such rules and regulations.

(w) Item amendment. When an amendment is made in a numbered item, such item shall be published in the supplement in its entirety as amended. The revised item showing the amended provision should be given the same item number with a letter suffix; for example: Item 40–A cancels Item 40; Item 40–B cancels Item 40–A; and so on. When any rate or other provision contained in an item designated by an item number is amended, resulting in the cancellation of all or a portion thereof, the cancelled matter shall not be reproduced in the new item effecting the cancellation except to the extent necessary to identify the item.

§ 187.6 Applications for special permissions. (a) Reductions in rates and charges and establishment of new rates and charges on less than statutory notice; waiver of requirements of the regulations in this part. The act authorizes the Commission in its discretion and for good cause shown to permit reductions in or the establishment of new rates or charges on less than statutory notice, and also to permit departure from the Commission's regulations. This authority will be exercised only in cases where actual emergency and real merit are shown. Commercial competition or the desire to meet the rates of a competing carrier that has given statutory notice for reduced rates or for the establishment of new rates and charges will not of itself be regarded as cause for permitting changes in rates or other provisions on less than statutory notice. Clerical or typographical errors in schedules constitute good cause for the exercise of this authority, but every application based thereon must plainly specify the error, together with a full statement of the attending circumstances and must be presented with reasonable promptness after publication of the defective schedule.

(b) Applications shall be submitted in duplicate on paper 8 by 11 inches in substantially the form shown below and shall furnish all pertinent information. They should be numbered consecutively and must bear the signature and title of the owner or of an officer or duly authorized representative of the carrier.

does hereby petition the Interstate Commerce Commission that he (it) be permitted, under section 218 of the act, to put in force the following provisions to become effective ------ days after the filing thereof with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Your petitioner further represents that the said, (state whether rates, charges, or other provisions) above mentioned will be published in (here show matter as directed by paragraph (e) of this section).

1. (Here state matter as directed by paragraph (f) of this section).

2. (Here state matter as directed by paragraph (g) of this section).

3. (Here show justification as directed by paragraph (h) of this section).

The above statement was subscribed and sworn to before me this ------ day of ---------- 19--.

(Notary Public)

(c) Partial use of authority prohibited: The authority granted by special permission, if used, must be used in its entirety and in the manner set forth in the order of special permission. If it is not desired to use all of the authority granted, and less or more extensive or different authority is desired, a new application complying with the provisions of this rule in all respects and referring to the previous permission must be filed.

(d) The proposed provisions shall be set forth clearly and completely in the application. An accompanying exhibit may be used if identified by letter, such as "Exhibit A", and so referred to in the application. If the proposed provisions consist of rates, all points of origin and destination must be shown or definitely indicated; if permission is sought to establish a rule, the exact wording of the proposed rule must be given.

(e) The application shall show MF–I. C. C. numbers of the schedules in which the proposed rates, rules or other provisions will be published. If publication is to be made in schedules already referred to, that shall be stated.

(f) The application shall set forth the rates or provisions which it is desired to change. Where the matter to be shown is voluminous or for other reasons difficult of presentation, it shall be included in an accompanying exhibit, properly identified and referred to in the application. Reference shall be made by MF–I. C. C. number, supplement number and item or page number to the schedules in which rates or provisions to be superseded are published. The extent to which cancellations will be made must be definitely indicated.

(g) Applications should name the carriers, and specify by I. C. C. or MF–I. C. C. number the schedules or tariffs maintaining corresponding rates or other provisions. Applications should also state whether those carriers have been notified of the applications, including any short-notice features. Applications to establish on less than thirty days' notice schedules to cover temporary operating authority granted under the authority of section 210a of the act should show that common carriers or their tariff publishing agents as well as contract carriers maintaining corresponding rates or other provisions have been advised of the proposals. All applications shall state what objections or other views have been expressed by the carriers so notified. The Commission must obtain information of the types mentioned before acting upon requests for tariff-circular relief or short notice; and applications will be handled with materially more speed when the carriers in filing their applications are careful to furnish the facts requested.

(h) Applications shall state the special circumstances or unusual conditions relied upon as justifying the requested permission, together with any related facts or circumstances which may aid the Commission in determining whether the requested permission is justified. If permission to establish provisions on less than statutory notice is sought, the petitioner shall state why the proposed provisions could not have been established upon thirty days' notice.

§ 187.7 Power of attorney. (a) The forms set forth in this section shall be used by a contract carrier of property to give authority to an agent to publish distance tariffs and supplements thereto or tariffs and supplements thereto naming rules and regulations as promulgated by the Interstate Commerce Commission to govern the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles. See § 187.6 (b).

(d) Full and correct carrier name to be shown: In the space for the name of the carrier in Forms MFA 4 and MFA 5, there must be shown, if the carrier is an individual, the individual name followed by the trade name, if any. If the carrier is a partnership, the correct names of all partners must be given followed by the trade name, if any. If the carrier is a corporation, the correct corporate name must be used. (See paragraph (e) of this section.)

(e) Persons who may sign powers of attorney: If the carrier is an individual, the power of attorney must be signed by the individual. If a partnership, the power of attorney must be signed individually by each partner. If the carrier is a corporation, the power of attorney must be signed by the president or a vice president, attested by the secretary of the corporation, and the corporate seal shall be affixed. In all cases, the name of the carrier must be identical with the name as it appears in the permit issued by the Commission.

(f) Type of publication to be specified: The power of attorney shall specify whether the agent designated therein shall publish a distance tariff or a tariff of rules and regulations governing the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles.

(g) Agents, who may be: Agents may be natural persons, corporations, or unincorporated associations whose articles of association (or other form of agreement) have been approved by the Commission in a proceeding pursuant to the provisions of section 5a, Part I of the act. An officer or employee of an incorporated tariff publishing agent may not act as agent in his individual capacity for the publication of tariffs.

(h) Revocation of powers of attorney. A power of attorney may be revoked upon not less than sixty days' notice to the Commission by filing a notice of revocation with the Commission, serving at the same time a copy thereof on the agent in whose favor such power of attorney was executed. Such notice shall not bear a separate serial number, but shall specify the form and number of the power of attorney to be revoked, shall name the agent and alternate agent, if any, in whose favor the power of attorney was executed, shall specify a date upon which revocation is to become effective, which must not be less than sixty days subsequent to the date of its receipt by the Commission and shall be executed in the following manner on paper of good quality, size 8 by 11 inches:

§ 187.8 Change of name or transfer of entire operation. (a) Adoption notice: When the name of a contract carrier is changed or when its operating control is transferred to another contract carrier, the carrier which will thereafter operate the properties shall file with the Commission and post an adoption notice numbered in its MF–I. C. C. series reading as follows:

The ---------- (name and doing business as, if any, of the adopting carrier) hereby adopts, ratifies and makes its own, in every respect as if the same had been originally filed and posted by it, all schedules, powers of attorney and other instruments whatsoever filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by, or heretofore adopted by, the ---------- (name and doing business as, if any, of the old carrier) prior to ---------- (date).

(b) In addition to the adoption notice, the new carrier shall immediately file with the Commission and post a consecutively numbered supplement to each of the effective schedules issued or adopted by its predecessor reading as follows:

Effective ---------- (here insert date shown in the adoption notice) this schedule, or as amended, became the schedule of ---------- (name and doing business as, if any, of the new carrier) as per its adoption notice MF–I. C. C. No. ------.

(c) Succeeding supplements to such schedules filed by the adopting carrier shall be numbered consecutively following the number of the adoption supplement.

(d) As soon as practicable a schedule adopted in its entirety shall be republished in the series of the adopting carrier. The notice directing its cancelation shall identify it by reference to its MF–I. C. C. number and to the series in which it was issued. Any schedule not so reissued prior to its second adoption shall immediately thereafter be republished in the series of the second adopting carrier.

§ 187.9 Transfer of part of an operation. (a) When the operating control of a contract carrier's properties is transferred in part to another contract carrier, the old carrier shall issue a supplement to each of its affected schedules upon 30 days notice carrying this cancellation notice:

Effective ---------- (date) the rates, charges, rules and regulations in this schedule are withdrawn and canceled insofar as they apply ---------- (here describe the operations transferred). For rates, charges, rules and regulations to apply see schedule MF–I. C. C. No. ------, issued by (name and doing business as, if any, of the new carrier). Note—whenever necessary the term, "minimum rates", shall be substituted for the term, "rates", in this notice.

(b) The new carrier shall issue and file at the same time, to become effective on the same date, a schedule or schedules establishing on 30 days' notice rates, rules and regulations in lieu of those withdrawn by the old carrier.

§ 187.10 Assumption of operating control by a receiver. Adoption notices similar to those prescribed in § 187.8, but numbered consecutively in the MF–I. C. C. series of the old carrier, must immediately be filed by a receiver when he assumes full possession and operating control of a carrier's lines, and must show the name of the receiver on the title page in connection with the carrier name. When such possession and operating control are terminated, the carrier taking over the properties in their entirety shall file an adoption notice, and if a change in the name of the carrier has been made, shall also file supplements as prescribed in § 187.8.

NOTE: As used in §§ 187.10 and 187.11, the term "receiver" means a receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, assignee, or other similar party.

§ 187.11 General instructions.[1] (a) Notices of adoption shall be filed with the Commission immediately and if possible on or before the date shown therein. Copies shall be sent to each agent to which power of attorney has been given by the old carrier. The effective date must be the date (as shown in the body of the notice) on which the change in name or operation occurs, except that if prior approval by the Commission of such change is required, the effective date shown shall not antedate that approval.

(b) Powers of attorney: Powers of attorney adopted by a receiver or other carrier shall, within 120 days, be replaced and superseded by new powers of attorney issued by, and numbered in the series of the receiver or other new carrier, except that a receiver may number powers of attorney in the old series (see also § 187.12). The cancellation reference to the former power of attorney must include the name or initials of the former issuing carrier. Powers of attorney which will not be replaced by new issues shall be regularly revoked on the notice and in the manner prescribed by § 187.7.

(c) Adoption notices and special supplements issued under the authority of §§ 187.8 to 187.11, shall contain no other matter.

§ 187.12 Temporary operation of contract carrier properties. (a) When temporary authority to take over the operating control of all or a portion of the operations of a contract carrier is granted pursuant to the provisions of section 210a (b) of the act, the new carrier that assumes temporary control of the operations of the old carrier shall, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, comply with the provisions of §§ 187.8, 187.9 and 187.11.

(b) New powers of attorney to be in series of old carrier. The new carrier is not required to reissue the adopted powers of attorney during the period of temporary control of the operations of the old carrier. New powers of attorney authorizing the publication of provisions applicable from or to points included in the temporarily controlled operations shall be in the series of the old carrier; for example:

MFXA 2 No. 6 (Roe's Trucking Series)

John Doe Transport, Inc., Operator of Richard Roe d/b/a Roe's Trucking (Post Office Address).

(c) Publications of the new carrier to be in its name as operator of the old carrier. Changes in schedules of rates, minimum rates, charges or provisions relating thereto, applying from, to, or between points in the temporarily controlled operations shall be published and filed in the name of the new carrier as operator of the old carrier and numbered in the series of the old carrier. For example, if John Doe Transport, Inc., assumes temporary control of the operations of Richard Roe, d/b/a Roe's Trucking, the title page of schedules must show the I. C. C. number and name of the carrier in substantially the following manner:

MF-I. C. C. No. 17 (Roe's Trucking Series)

John Doe Transport, Inc., Operator of Richard Roe d/b/a Roe's Trucking.

(d) Adoption notice to be filed when permanent authority is granted to take over temporarily controlled operations. When permanent authority to take over the temporarily controlled operation is granted pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the act, the new carrier shall file an adoption notice and otherwise comply with provisions of §§ 187.8, 187.9 and 187.11.

(e) Adoption notice to be filed when temporary authority ends. If the temporary authority to assume operating control of the old carrier is discontinued or vacated, the old carrier must file an adoption notice and otherwise comply with §§ 187.8, 187.9 and 187.11. The effective date to be shown in the adoption notice and adoption supplements is the date on which the new carrier's temporary authority to operate the properties of the old carrier expires or is vacated.

FIRMA LEO SAVELSBERG, FELDSAATEN-GROSSHANDLUNG

ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD

In the matter of Leo Savelsberg, doing business under the firm name and style of Firma Leo Savelsberg, Feldsaaten-Grosshandlung, 21 Durenerstrasse, Julich, Rhineland, Germany, Respondent; File 23-483.

There is pending an investigation concerning certain exportations of seed from the United States and the indicated unauthorized transshipment and diversion thereof to unauthorized destinations including the Communist sector of Berlin, which investigation is concerned also with the conduct of the respondent, Leo Savelsberg, doing business under the firm name and style of Firma Leo Savelsberg, Feldsaaten-Grosshandlung, insofar as such conduct might have been related to the purchase and subsequent transshipment and diversion of all or a portion of such seed; and the Director, Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce, U. S. Department of Commerce, has applied for an order denying to said respondent all export privileges for an indefinite period by reason of his failure and refusal to respond to written interrogatories duly served on him. The application was made pursuant to § 382.15 of the Export Regulations (Title 15, Chapter III, Subchapter B, CFR) and, in accordance with the practice thereunder, was referred to the Compliance Commissioner of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce who, after considering evidence in support thereof, has recommended that it be granted.

Now, upon receipt of the Compliance Commissioner's recommendation, after reviewing and considering the evidence submitted in support of the application, in which evidence it appears (1) that the respondent, during the course of his business, became informed and knew that the American seed acquired by him was prohibited by the Department of Commerce from being transshipped to Soviet destinations, (2) that, having such knowledge, he nevertheless sold to and caused a portion of such seed to be delivered to a purchaser in the Communist sector of Berlin, and (3) that material interrogatories were duly served on him to which he has failed, omitted, and refused to respond without reasonable cause and without adequate explanation and, having concluded further (a) that this order is reasonable and necessary to protect the public interest and to achieve effective enforcement of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and (b) that it is advisable that persons in the United States and in other parts of the world be informed by publication of this order of the provisions hereafter set forth so that the respondent may be prevented from receiving and transshipping commodities exported from the United States so long as it is effective: It is hereby ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which the respondent, Leo Savelsberg or his company, Firma Leo Savelsberg, Feldsaaten-Grosshandlung, appears or participates as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

II. The respondent, his firm, successors or assigns, partners, representatives, agents, and employees, are hereby denied all privileges of participating directly or indirectly in any manner, form, or capacity in any past, present, or future exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation in an exportation shall include and prohibit said respondent's and such other persons' and firms' participation (a) as parties or as representatives of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document; (c) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities in whole or in part exported from the United States; and (d) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of exports from the United States.

III. This denial of export privileges shall apply not only to the respondent, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which he now or hereafter may be related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade involving exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

IV. This order shall remain in effect until the respondent satisfactorily answers or furnishes written information or documents in response to the interrogatories heretofore served on him or gives adequate reason for his failure or refusal to respond, except insofar as it may be amended or modified hereafter in accordance with the Export Regulations.

V. No person, firm, corporation, or other business organization, within the United States or elsewhere (whether or not engaged in trade relating to exports from the United States) shall, on behalf of or in any association with the respondent or any related party, without prior disclosure of the facts to and specific authorization from the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly in any manner, form, or capacity (a) apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation of commodities from the United States, or (b) order, receive, buy, sell, deliver, use, dispose of, finance, transport, forward, or otherwise service or participate in an exportation from the United States, or in a reexportation of any commodity exported from the United States, or do any of the foregoing acts with respect to any exportation in which respondent or any related party may have any interest or obtain any benefit of any kind or nature, direct or indirect.

VI. In accordance with the provisions of § 382.11 (c) of the Export Regulations, the respondent may move, at any time prior to the cancellation or termination hereof, to vacate or modify this indefinite denial order by filing an appropriate application therefor, supported by evidence, with the Compliance Commissioner, and he may request oral hearing thereon, which, if requested, will be held before the Compliance Commissioner at Washington, D. C., at the earliest convenient date.

Dated: July 16, 1958.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

BARRANCA MESA, LOS ALAMOS COUNTY, NEW MEXICO

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO ESTABLISHMENT OF A RESIDENTIAL AREA AND SALES OF BUILDING LOTS IN SUCH AREA

I hereby affirm that pursuant to authority of section 161 (e) and (g) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, 42 U. S. C. 2201 (e) and (g), the following delegation of authority was issued as set forth below by K. E. Fields on May 14, 1958.

Dated: July 15, 1958.

PAUL F. FOSTER,
General Manager.

I hereby delegate to the Manager, Los Alamos Area Office, the following authority with respect to establishment of a residential area on Barranca Mesa, Los Alamos County, New Mexico, and to sales of building lots in such residential areas.

a. To select an area in Los Alamos County, New Mexico, to be identified as Barranca Mesa Subdivision No. 1.

b. To execute and record in the record books of the local government a subdivision plat of Barranca Mesa Subdivision No. 1, Los Alamos County, New Mexico, and in such subdivision plat to dedicate areas to the use of the public with the retention of such easements in dedicated areas as he deems appropriate.

c. To cooperate with other agencies of the Federal Government in establishing standards for the subdivision, and to make formal agreement with such agencies as to the following of such standards.

d. To prepare such protective covenants insuring the quality of Barranca Mesa Subdivision No. 1 as he deems appropriate and to execute and record such protective covenants in the record books of the local government.

e. To prepare, execute, and record in the record books of the local government a document embodying a guarantee to sell to record owners of building lots utilities in accordance with delegation of authority dated March 10, 1958, from the General Manager, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, to the Manager, Los Alamos Area Office.

f. To sell and convey the Government's interest in any lot in Barranca Mesa Subdivision No. 1, to fix the sale price of each lot in such subdivision (said price to be not less than the appraised valuation), and to execute sale contracts, deeds, and modifications thereof and other documents in connection therewith.

g. To prepare, execute, and record documents, for the revocation, vacation, and withdrawal of the subdivision plat, protective covenants and utilities guarantee from the record books of the local government as may become necessary to accommodate changed conditions. Authority to revoke, vacate, or withdraw the subdivision plat, protective covenants, and utilities guarantee as a result of changed conditions is limited solely to those portions of the subdivision, title to which still remains in the Government.

h. To administer the provisions of deeds and other documents, file documents, make determinations, and take such other action as is necessary or incidental to the establishment of Barranca Mesa Subdivision No. 1, the sale of lots in such Subdivision, and the execution of documents or the administration of the provisions thereof.

Actions heretofore taken consistent with the authorities granted by this delegation are hereby ratified and confirmed.

The authorities granted by this delegation may also be exercised by any person acting in the stead of the above-mentioned official.

Witness my hand this 14th day of May 1958.

K. E. FIELDS,
General Manager,
United States Atomic Energy Commission.

AEROJET-GENERAL NUCLEONICS

PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF CONSTRUCTION PERMIT AND FACILITY LICENSE

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission proposes to issue to Aerojet-General Nucleonics, San Ramon, California, a construction permit substantially as set forth below unless within fifteen (15) days after the filing of this notice with the Federal Register Division a request for a formal hearing is filed with the Commission as provided by the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2). For further details see (1) the application submitted by Aerojet-General Nucleonics, and amendment thereto, and (2) a memorandum by the Division of Licensing and Regulation which summarizes the principal factors considered in reviewing the application for license, both on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C. A copy of item (2) above may be obtained at the Commission's Public Document Room or upon request addressed to the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Notice is also hereby given that if the Commission issues the construction permit, the Commission may without further prior public notice convert the construction permit for Model AGN-211 reactor Serial No. 101 to a Class 104 license authorizing operation of the reactor by Aerojet-General Nucleonics at the company's facilities at San Ramon, California, if it is found that the reactor has been constructed in accordance with the specifications contained in the application, and in conformity with the provisions of the act and of the rules and regulations of the Commission, and in the absence of any good cause being shown to the Commission that the granting of such license would not be in accordance with the provisions of the act. The license authorizing operation of the reactor will include a condition that a maximum of 0.2 percent excess reactivity may be present in the reactor with the experimental facilities empty and a maximum of 0.4 percent excess reactivity may be present in the reactor with moderator or fuel in the experimental facilities. Additional Class 104 licenses authorizing operation of Model AGN-211 reactors at a level of 15 watts will not be issued by the Commission until the applicant furnishes the Commission with a report setting forth the measured radiation dose rates during operation of reactor Model AGN-211 Serial No. 101 at 15 watts at the surface of the pool, on the bridge, at the outer surface of the shield, at the console, and at any area where persons may be expected to be located during operation of the reactor.

Dated: July 15, 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

H. L. PRICE,
Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION PERMIT

By application dated April 7, 1958, and amendment thereto dated May 23, 1958, Aerojet-General Nucleonics, San Ramon, California, requested a Class 104 license, defined in § 50.21 of Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities", Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, authorizing construction and operation of ten nuclear reactors of a type designated by Aerojet-General Nucleonics as Model AGN-211 and referred to as Serial Nos. 101 through 110 (hereinafter referred to as "the reactors") at a maximum power of 15 watts (thermal). The reactors will be semi-portable, plastic core, swimming pool-type, research reactors using uranium enriched to 20 percent in the isotope uranium-235 as fuel. Reference to the application herein will be to the original application as amended.

The Atomic Energy Commission (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission") finds that:

A. The reactors will be utilization facilities as defined in the Commission's regulations contained in Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities".

B. The reactors will be useful in the conduct of research and development activities of the types specified in section 31 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (hereinafter referred to as "the act").

C. Aerojet-General Nucleonics is financially qualified to construct and operate the reactors in accordance with the regulations contained in Title 10, Chapter I, CFR.

D. Aerojet-General Nucleonics is technically qualified to design and construct the reactors.

E. Aerojet-General Nucleonics has submitted sufficient information to provide reasonable assurance that the reactors can be constructed at the proposed location without undue risk to the health and safety of the public.

F. Aerojet-General Corporation has submitted proof of financial protection which satisfies the requirements of Commission regulations currently in effect.

Pursuant to the act and Title 10, CFR, Chapter I, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities", the Commission hereby issues a construction permit to Aerojet-General Nucleonics to construct the reactors in accordance with the specifications contained in the application. This permit shall be deemed to contain and be subject to the conditions specified in §§ 50.54 and 50.55 of said regulations; is subject to all applicable provisions of the act and rules, regulations and orders of the Commission now or hereafter in effect; and is subject to the additional conditions specified below:

A. The earliest and latest completion dates on each reactor shall be as set forth below. The term "completion date" as used herein means the date on which construction of the reactor is completed except for the introduction of the fuel material.

AGN Serial No.	Earliest completion date	Latest completion date
101	July 31, 1958	Jan. 1, 1959
102	Aug. 1, 1958	Do.
103	do	June 1, 1959
104	do	Do.
105	do	July 1, 1959
106	do	Do.
107	do	Aug. 1, 1959
108	do	Do.
109	Sept. 1, 1958	Sept. 1, 1959
110	do	Do.

B. The reactors shall be constructed and located at the location in San Ramon, Contra Costa County, California, specified in the application.

Upon completion of the construction of the reactor designated as Model AGN-211, Serial No. 101 in accordance with the terms and conditions of this permit, and upon finding that the reactor authorized has been constructed in conformity with the application and in conformity with the provisions of the act and of the rules and regulations of the Commission, the Commission will issue a Class 104 license to Aerojet-General Nucleonics pursuant to Section 104c of the act, with license shall expire 20 years after the date of this construction permit. Such license shall include, as one of its conditions, a requirement that a maximum of 0.2 percent excess reactivity may be present in the reactor with the experimental facilities empty and a maximum of 0.4 percent excess reactivity may be present in the reactor with moderator or fuel in the experimental facilities.

Date of issuance:

[Docket No. 50-18]

GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

ISSUANCE OF FACILITY LICENSE AMENDMENT

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission has issued the following Amendment (No. 6) to License DPR-1 authorizing the General Electric Company as requested in its application for license amendment No. 26 to conduct tests in its Vallecitos Boiling Water Reactor to (1) irradiate two antimony cylinders, (2) evaluate the performance of an automatic reactor pressure control system, and (3) investigate the mechanical performance of a fuel element type designed for use in the first fuel loading of the Nuclear Merchant Ship Reactor (Savannah). The Commission has found that operation of the facility in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license as amended will not present undue hazard to the health and safety of the public and will not be inimical to the common defense and security.

The Commission has found that prior public notice of proposed issuance of this amendment is not necessary in the public interest since the conduct of the proposed additional experiments does not present any substantial changes in the hazards to the health and safety of the public from those presented by the previously approved operation of the Vallecitos Boiling Water Reactor.

In accordance with the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2) the Commission will direct the holding of a formal hearing on the matter of the issuance of the license amendment upon receipt of a request therefor from the licensee or an intervener within thirty days after the issuance of the license amendment. For further details, see (1) the application for license amendment submitted by General Electric Company and (2) a hazards analysis of the proposed experiments prepared by the Division of Licensing and Regulation, both on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C. A copy of item (2) above may be obtained at the Commission's Public Document Room or upon request addressed to the Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 15th day of July 1958.

AMENDMENT OF UTILIZATION FACILITY LICENSE

In addition to the activities previously authorized by the Commission under License No. DPR-1, as amended, the General Electric Company (hereinafter referred to as the "licensee"), is authorized to perform the tests described as "Irradiation of Lockheed Sources", "Automatic Pressure Regulator Test", and "Operation With Savannah Fuel", in the application amendment No. 26 dated June 20, 1958, in accordance with the procedures and subject to the limitations stated therein.

In performing these tests, the licensee shall comply with the conditions and requirements contained or incorporated in paragraph 4 of License No. DPR-1 as amended.

This amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

Date of issuance: July 15, 1958.

NUCLEAR ENGINEERING CO., INC.

APPLICATION FOR LICENSE TO PROVIDE RADIOACTIVE WASTE DISPOSAL SERVICE

Please take notice that an application for a license to provide radioactive waste disposal service for special nuclear material has been filed by Nuclear Engineering Company, Inc., 2600 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, California.

The application specifies that a maximum possession limit of five hundred (500) grams of U-235 contained in uranium, twenty (20) percent enriched in the U-235 isotope.

The applicant proposes to dispose of the wastes in the Pacific Ocean at 123°-18' and 123°30' N. longitude; 37°38' W. latitude and 123°24' and 123°30' N. longitude; 37°43' W. latitude in depths of 1,000 fathoms or greater. The application states that all wastes will be packaged prior to disposal.

The material will be packaged and stored at the Cowell Cement Plant, Cowell, California.

A copy of the application is available for public inspection in the Atomic Energy Commission Public Document Room at 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C.

Nuclear Engineering Company, Inc., currently possesses an AEC license which permits disposal of packaged radioactive waste material in the Pacific Ocean. A copy of this license is on file in the Public Document Room.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 11997; FCC 58-687]

VARIOUS NON-GOVERNMENTAL SERVICES IN CERTAIN RADIO SPECTRUM

NOTICE OF HEARING ON STATUTORY INQUIRY INTO ALLOCATION OF FREQUENCIES

In the matter of statutory inquiry into the allocation of frequencies to the various non-Governmental Services in the radio spectrum between 25 Mc and 890 Mc; Docket No. 11997.

As indicated in the initial Order of Inquiry in the above-entitled matter released on April 11, 1957, the Commission intends to conduct a fact-finding hearing in this proceeding concerning service allocation needs in that portion of the spectrum between 25-890 Mc. In response to the Commission's initial order, a large number of interested persons have filed comments, and a large number of these have indicated an intention to appear and present evidence at such hearing.

The Commission is, of course, desirous of receiving in evidence all testimony which will be of assistance in its examination and review of basic frequency allocation policies in the light of present and future needs. However, the Commission wishes to avoid prolonging the hearing unduly and to prevent, insofar as possible, the introduction of evidence which will be merely repetitious or cumulative. In order to accomplish this purpose the procedure set forth below will be followed.

All persons desiring to appear and present evidence at the fact-finding hearing shall submit on or before October 1, 1958, the name of each proposed witness and a detailed outline setting forth the substance of the evidence, both oral and written, that each such witness proposes to present. The Commission wishes to emphasize that witnesses will not be permitted to testify concerning matters not included in these statements unless expressly requested by the Commission to do so.

Initially these outlines will be for the use of the Commission counsel only and will not be made available to other parties to the proceeding. An original and four copies of each such outline should be served on the General Counsel of the Commission, and each should be plainly entitled "Statement of Proposed Evidence for Docket No. 11997."

Based upon these statements it will be determined which witnesses will be invited to testify and what testimony and exhibits they will be asked to present. The Commission wishes to urge that, wherever possible, all members of an industry group or association be represented by an industry spokesman or spokesmen. When an industry group is to be represented by an industry spokesman, any member of that industry group who desires to present his own witnesses will be required to show in detail the reasons why such additional representation is necessary, and what the additional evidence will be.

As soon as practicable after October 1, 1958, the Commission will issue a notice designating a firm hearing date. A list of the witnesses selected to testify setting forth the approximate date on which they may expect to appear will also be issued. All such witnesses will be required to submit copies of the actual testimony and exhibits they will present at the hearing prior to the date on which they are scheduled to appear. Details concerning such submissions will be specified in a subsequent notice.

All parties participating in the hearing will be given an opportunity to submit to Commission Counsel suggested questions which they desire to be asked of any of the witnesses at the hearing. However, the selection of questions and all of the questioning, will be by the Commission and Commission Counsel. After all the evidence has been presented the Commission will determine what further proceedings, if any, will be held in this docket.

Dated: July 16, 1958.

Released: July 17, 1958.

[Docket No. G-15452]

MIDSTATES OIL CORP.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

JULY 16, 1958.

Midstates Oil Corporation (Midstates) on June 19, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule [1] for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated June 17, 1958.
Purchaser: Mississippi River Fuel Corporation.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 7 to Midstate's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 7.
Effective date: August 1, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by Midstates).

In support of the proposed increase Midstates states that the scale of prices is beneficial to both buyer and seller since buyer is interested in a long-term commitment of the gas reserves and seller's costs increase with the age of the producing property and depletion of reserve. Also that without such price escalation to provide a relatively uniform net income Midstates would not have entered into such long-term contract.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 7 to Midstate's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 7 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 7 to Midstate's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 7.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until January 1, 1959 and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioners Kline and Hussey dissenting).

[Docket No. G-15252]

SAMEDAN OIL CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 16, 1958.

Take notice that on June 9, 1958, Samedan Oil Corporation, Operator (Applicant), filed in Docket No. G-15252 an application, pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, for authorization to abandon service of natural gas to Permian Basin Pipeline Company (Permian) from the Hughes B-3 Lease, Penrose Skelly Field, Lea County, New Mexico, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The subject service, covered by a sales contract dated September 3, 1954, by and between Applicant and A. A. Kemnitz, non-operator, as sellers, and Permian, as buyer, was authorized by the Commission on September 21, 1956, in Docket No. G-4312.

Applicant states that rapid pressure decline in Well No. 6 located on the Hughes B-3 Lease made delivery into the high-pressure system of Permian impossible and that attempts to deliver gas by means of a booster plant constructed by Permian have proved so costly as to make delivery into Permian's lines wholly and completely uneconomical.

Applicant further states that a representative of Permian advises that Permian is agreeable to the aforesaid abandonment.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 7, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 6, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G-11797]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO AMEND AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 16, 1958.

On June 9, 1958, El Paso Natural Gas Company filed a petition to amend the Commission's order issued March 26, 1958, in Docket Nos. G-11797 and G-12580 issuing certificates of public convenience and necessity to El Paso to construct and operate facilities for the transportation and sale of an additional 185,000 Mcf of natural gas per day.

El Paso desires to delete some of the certificated facilities and to construct and operate other facilities in lieu thereof and to remove from service certain compressor installations in Yuma County, Arizona, all as fully described in the petition which is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection.

El Paso says that the changes in the facilities for which authority is requested will not result in any change in the total estimated cost in the over-all construction project of Docket No. G–11797 and that the difference which is anticipated to occur in the total direct cost of the project will be borne by the contingency fund provided in the original application in Docket No. G–11797.

The changes in the facilities originally certificated in Docket No. G–11797 and the facilities now proposed in lieu thereof are summarized as follows:

Field facilities—(A) San Juan Basin. (a) Delete 28.6 miles of 10 to 16-inch field pipelines authorized to connect certain reserves to the Chaco extraction plant.

(b) Delete conversion and modification of certain compressor cylinders at Applicant's existing Kutz Canyon and Angel Peak compressor stations.

(c) In lieu of the deletions, construct and operate 3,660 additional compressor horsepower, together with appurtenances, at three existing field compressor stations already connected to the Chaco plant, as follows: Ballard, 660 HP., Largo, 2,000 HP., and Lindreth 1,000 HP.

(B) Permian Basin. (a) Delete those additions and modifications to Applicant's Jal No. 2 gasoline absorption plant as originally proposed and reduce the additional boiler plant equipment and general structures proposed at Applicant's Jal No. 3 gasoline absorption plant.

(b) In lieu of the deletions and reductions, construct and operate additional fractionating equipment at existing Jal No. 4 plant to process liquid products from the Jal area (this plant will be the central fractionating plant); construct and operate a total of 13.9 miles of 4½-inch and 2⅜-inch liquid product pipelines connecting the various Jal plants, and modify existing facilities at Jal No. 3 and Jal No. 1 gasoline plants, to facilitate the transfer of liquid products to Jal No. 4 plant.

Main line facilities—(A) Yuma branch pipeline. (a) Delete a total of 74.0 miles of 10¾-inch pipeline looping an existing 5-inch lateral to the Yuma, Arizona, area.

(b) In lieu of the deletion, construct and operate a total of 79.0 miles of 10¾-inch, 12¾-inch, and 16-inch loop line on the Yuma lateral.

(B) Compression—San Juan Mainline. (a) Delete a total of 16,500 additional horsepower certificated for existing Williams, Leupp, and Navajo Compressor Stations and the 20,000 horsepower new compressor station known as Window Rock Station.

(b) In lieu of the deletions, construct and operate a new 10,000 horsepower electric driven centrifugal compressor station to be known as Seligman Compressor Station[1] in Yavapai County, Arizona; 2,400 additional horsepower at Williams and 5,000 additional horsepower at Leupp Compressor Stations; construct and operate a new 17,500 horsepower compressor station to be known as Window Rock Station in unsurveyed lands in the Navajo Indian Reservation in Arizona.

(C) Main line metering facilities. Petitioner proposes to construct and operate a new meter station to serve the Axis Power Plant of Arizona Public Service Company near Yuma, Arizona, consistent with the new location of the plant. The original proposal was to meter the gas at the existing Yuma meter station.

(D) Main line communications equipment. Additional communications equipment are proposed in this petition to connect the new Seligman Compressor Station to Petitioner's communciation system.

Costs. A comparison of estimated costs for the entire Docket No. G–11797 project as certificated with the entire project as revised, is as follows:

	Total direct cost	General overhead	Contingency	Total cost of project
Revised estimate	$96,864,000	$4,773,000	$3,363,000	$105,000,000
Original estimate	95,454,000	4,773,000	4,773,000	105,000,000

No change in the financing plans as originally proposed will result and Petitioner expects no material change in cost of service from that originally expected. No change in sales volumes or pipeline capacity will result from the changes proposed.

Facilities to be abandoned. Petitioner proposes to remove from service and place in stock for future service elsewhere, the 1050 horsepower of packaged portable compressor units currently in service on the Yuma 5-inch branch line, authorized in Docket Nos. G–2279 and G–10954. The estimated cost of removal is $32,000.

These matters should be disposed of promptly. Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 8, 1958 at 9:30 a. m., e. d. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by said petition: Provided, however, That after a noncontested hearing, the Commission may dispose of the proceedings pursuant to § 1.30 (c) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure provided for herein it will be unnecessary for Petitioner to appear or to be represented at the hearing unless otherwise informed.

Protests, notices and petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 5, 1958. Failure of any party to appear and participate in the hearing will be construed as waiver of intermediate decision proceeding where waiver is requested.

Secretary.

[1] This station, with gas turbine driven compressor units, was originally proposed and is still pending in El Paso's Docket No. G–12580. A concurrent petition in that docket requests deletion of the station from that application.

[Docket No. G–13875]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JULY 16, 1958.

Take notice that Northern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in Omaha, Nebraska, filed an application on December 10, 1957, as amended June 2, 1958, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant, by its amended application, seeks authorization to construct and operate a 2,000 horsepower compressor unit for its Redfield, Iowa, station, together with field lines and 14 wells for the purpose of large scale testing of the Mt. Simon formation at its Redfield storage, to determine its feasibility as a gas storage reservoir.

Applicant plans to inject gas initially into Mt. Simon at a rate of 19,000 Mcf per day, increasing to 40,000 Mcf per day when the proposed compressor and field lines are completed and the necessary 4 or 5 wells are available for injection.

Applicant plans a maximum injection rate of 85,000 Mcf per day when the total of 14 wells to be drilled become available for injection. This maximum rate is expected to be reached during the coming summer. An inventory of about 8 billion cubic feet is expected by October 31, 1958. Applicant estimates that with this inventory, about 1 billion cubic feet can be withdrawn for testing purposes during the winter of 1958–59. A total of 25 billion cubic feet is estimated to be reached in 1959.

The total estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $1,866,000. Applicant states that the investment and expenses incurred during the testing operations will not be capitalized until the Mt. Simon formation is utilized to provide additional capacity for its system. Financing of the proposed facilities is to be carried out with funds on hand or generated by company operations. No additional sales or services are proposed.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 5, 1958.

[Docket No. G–15454]

UNITED PRODUCING CO., INC.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

JULY 16, 1958.

United Producing Company, Inc. (United) on June 20, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its effective rate schedule for the sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, dated June 18, 1958.
Purchaser: Cities Service Gas Company.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 2 to United's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 5.
Effective date: July 23, 1958 (effective date is the effective date proposed by United).

In support of the proposed favored-nation increase United cites the contractual covenant and the triggering renegotiated increase of Republic Natural Gas Company for its sale in the same field and county, and submits Cities Service's letter advising as to the triggering increase. United also states that the contract was negotiated at arm's length, the favored-nation provisions were inserted for seller's protection and the increased price is not out of line with other prices being received in the area and to deny same would result in irreparable damage to seller and unjustly enrich buyer.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 2 to United's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 5 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 2 to United's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 5.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until December 23, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

HERMAN BROWN

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGE IN RATES

JULY 16, 1958.

Herman Brown (Brown) on June 23, 1958, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of Change, undated.
Purchaser: Consolidated Gas Utilities Corporation.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 1 to Brown's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.
Effective date: July 24, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the proposed favored-nation rate increase, Brown states that the increased price is just and reasonable and to deny same would be discriminatory as other sellers are receiving the same price for gas in the area. Brown submits copies of the letter agreement establishing the 11.0-cent price.

The increased rate and charge so proposed has not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 1 to Brown's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in Supplement No. 1 to Brown's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until December 24, 1958, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission (Commissioners Kline and Hussey dissenting).

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

CHINESE HOG BRISTLES

PROPOSED DISPOSITION OF HOLDINGS IN NATIONAL STOCKPILE

Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (e) of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act, 53 Stat. 811, as amended, 50 U. S. C. 98b (e), notice is hereby given of a proposed disposition of approximately 1,518,899 pounds of Chinese hog bristles now held in the national stockpile. This quantity is the remaining stockpile inventory of Chinese hog bristles and is in addition to the 2,000,000 pounds covered by the notice of proposed disposition which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 3, 1955 (20 F. R. 8869).

The Office of Defense Mobilization has made a revised determination, pursuant to section 2 (a) of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act, that there is no longer any need for stockpiling Chinese hog bristles The revised determination was by reason of obsolescence of Chinese hog bristles for use in time of war and was based upon the finding of the Office of Defense Mobilization that new materials, within the meaning of section 3 (e) (2) of the act, have been developed for the same uses for which Chinese hog bristles were stockpiled.

General Services Administration proposes to sell said bristles either by competitive bidding or at fixed prices established by General Services Administration. The bristles will be offered for sale in lots of varying quantities and composition in order to provide an opportunity to purchase to all consumers and dealers. The bristles will also be made available for transfer to any Federal agency having a need therefor.

It is believed that this plan of disposition will protect the United States against avoidable loss on the sale or transfer of the bristles and also protect producers, processors, and consumers against avoidable disruption of their usual markets.

It is proposed to make the Chinese hog bristles covered by this notice available for sale or transfer after January 22, 1959.

Dated: July 17, 1958.

FRANKLIN FLOETE,
Administrator of General Services.

PART 938—POTATOES GROWN IN THE RED RIVER VALLEY OF NORTH DAKOTA AND MINNESOTA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 938.300 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 135 and Order No. 38 (7 CFR Part 938), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the Red River Valley of North Dakota and Minnesota effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Red River Valley Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from August 3, 1958, through June 30, 1959, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety unless such potatoes grade U. S. No. 2, or better, grade, and

(i) If of the round varieties, are 2 inches minimum diameter; or

(ii) If of any other variety, including but not being limited to the long varieties such as Russett Burbank, are 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight; or

(iii) Except if they are packed for and meet the requirements of size B for the lot.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from August 1 through November 1, 1958, no handler shall ship a lot of potatoes if such potatoes are more than "moderately skinned" which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in such lot have more than one-half of the skin missing or "feathered."

(3) The limitations of subparagraph (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not apply to shipments of certified seed potatoes.

(4) Except as otherwise provided, the various terms, grades and sizes referred to in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 1556 of this title; 23 F. R. 3141) including the tolerances set forth therein; and all other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: July 18, 1958, to become effective August 3, 1958.

PART 131—HANDLING OF ANTI-HOG-CHOLERA SERUM AND HOG-CHOLERA VIRUS

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO BUDGET OF EXPENSES AND FIXING RATES OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1958

On June 10, 1958, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (23 F. R. 4035) regarding the budget of expenses and the fixing of the rates of assessment for the calendar year 1958, under the marketing agreement and the marketing order (9 CFR 131.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of anti-hog-cholera serum and hog-cholera virus. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to Public Law No. 320, 74th Congress, approved August 24, 1935 (7 U. S. C. 851 et seq.).

The notice provided a period of 30 days for interested parties to file data, views or arguments with the Hearing Clerk. After consideration of all relevant matters, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, it is hereby found and determined that:

Section 131.158 is added to read as follows:

§ 131.158 Budget of expenses and rates of assessment for the calendar year 1958.—(a) Budget of expenses. The expenses which will necessarily be incurred by the Control Agency, established pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and of the marketing order (§§ 131.1 to 131.96), for the maintenance and functioning of said Agency during the calendar year 1958, will amount to $44,440.00 under the recommendation of the Control Agency, from which shall be deducted the unexpended balance of $6,254.03 on hand with said Control Agency on January 1, 1958, from assessments collected during the calendar year 1957, leaving a balance of $38,185.97 to be collected during the calendar year 1958.

(b) Rates of assessment. Of the amount of $38,185.97 to be collected during the calendar year 1958, the sum of $29,021.34 shall be assessed against handlers who are manufacturers, and $9,164.63 shall be assessed against handlers who are wholesalers. The pro rata share of the expenses of the Control Agency to be paid for the calendar year 1958 by each handler who is a manufacturer shall be $19.96 for each ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof of serum and virus sold by such handler during the calendar year 1957 and the pro rata share of such expenses to be paid for the calendar year 1958 by each handler who is a wholesaler shall be $25.00 for the first ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof and $8.80 for each additional ten thousand dollars or fraction thereof of serum and virus sold by such handler. Such assessments shall be paid by each respective handler in accordance with the applicable provisions of the marketing agreement and order (§§ 131.1 to 131.96).

(c) Terms. As used in this section, the terms "handler", "manufacturer", "wholesaler", "virus", and "serum" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said marketing agreement and marketing order (§§ 131.1 to 131.96).

Findings relative to effective date. It is hereby further found that (1) the fiscal year of the Control Agency established pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and the marketing order corresponds to the calendar year, and the current calendar year 1958 is already well advanced; (2) the expenses of operating this regulatory program since January 1, 1958, have been paid with funds representing assessments collected in excess of expenses incurred during the calendar year 1957 and prepayments of a portion of their 1958 assessments by manufacturer and wholesaler handlers; (3) nearly all such funds have now been expended; (4) in order for the administrative assessments to be collected, it is essential that the specification of the assessment rates be effective immediately so as to enable the Control Agency to perform its respective duties and functions under the aforesaid marketing agreement and marketing order; and (5) no preparation with respect to this determination is required of persons regulated which cannot be completed prior to the effective date hereof. Wherefore, it is hereby determined that good cause exists for making this determination effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of July 1958, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Administrator,
Agricultural Research Service.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 9]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

This amendment to Part 507 contains the Airworthiness Directives amended or issued during June 1958. Individual notice of the Airworthiness Directives contained herein has been given to operators and other interested persons who are subscribers to a Civil Aeronautics Administration mailing service.

In the interest of safety, compliance with the notice, procedures and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore, is not required.

Section 507.10 (a) is amended as follows:

1. 58-8-2 Cessna 172 as it appeared in 23 F. R. 3587 is amended by changing the compliance paragraph to read as follows:

Compliance required before next flight, unless already accomplished, and at least every 25 hours thereafter, except that the airplane may be flown to place of inspection with cabin air control in "off" position. The 25-hour inspection may be discontinued upon inspection and installation of Cessna Service Kit SK-172-10.

It is further amended by adding a fourth paragraph to read as follows:

Even though SK-172-10 has been installed, if occupants experience headache, drowsiness, sluggishness, or smell exhaust gases, the cabin air heater and any other openings in the firewall into the engine compartment should be immediately closed and fresh air admitted into the cabin. Inspect the cabin heater and entire exhaust manifold before next flight. If cracks are found, replace the defective part before further operation.

2. 57-13-6 Hiller UH-12, UH-12A, UH-12B and UH-12C as it appeared in 23 F. R. 435 is amended by adding item (4) as follows:

(4) Upon installation of improved tail rotor blades, P/N 55064 in accordance with Hiller Service Bulletin No. 80, the special inspections called for in Parts (1) and (2) above are no longer required.

3. 57-22-1 Piper PA-16, PA-20 and PA-22 as it appeared in 23 F. R. 439 is amended by deleting item 4 and substituting the following:

(4) The sealing of the firewall on all PA-16, PA-20 and PA-22 aircraft must be inspected at 100-hour intervals in accordance with Piper Service Bulletin No. 161. If found deficient, it must be resealed in accordance with the manufacturer's service bulletin or accepted aeronautical practices.

4. 46-13-3 Lockheed 18 as it appeared in 21 F. R. 9452 is amended by changing the second sentence of 1 (b) to read as follows: "At each engine change, remove plate and elbow on bottom of sump housing (P/N 114690) and inspect hopper with a light and mirror."

5. 58-10-9 Viscount 700 series as it appeared in 23 F. R. 4726 is amended by adding "This supersedes AD 58-7-5."

6. The following new airworthiness directives are added:

58-11-1 Douglas. Applies to all DC-6 and DC-7 series aircraft as indicated below.

Several instances have been reported wherein cracks have been found or failures have occurred in the nose wheel upper retract link assembly, P/N 5325437. In at least one case, failure resulted in folding of the nose gear when the aircraft stopped, following landing and taxi.

The failures occurred in the forged and fitting, P/N 5328993, caused by a crack starting in the vicinity of the 1/8 inch radius where the fitting is machined to the O. D. of the tube, P/N 2329712. Cracks in the unfailed parts were found in the same location. Failures occurred on two airplanes having a total of 24,000 and 13,800 hours respectively and a crack was reported on one airplane with 7,521 hours. The airplane time is not significant since the interchange of landing gear components at major overhaul may result in the gear components actually having more or less time than the airplanes themselves.

Subsequent to DC-6 series fuselage No. 435 and DC-7 series fuselage No. 434, Douglas increased the 1/8 inch radius to 3/4 inch radius. The following must be accomplished on all nose gear upper retract link assemblies, P/N 5325437, delivered by the manufacturer that do not incorporate the larger radius.

(1) Inspect the right and left hand forged end fitting with the 1/8 inch radius at the earliest possible opportunity where facilities are available, and in any case, at the inspection period nearest 100 hours. Inspection should preferably be accomplished by magnaflux; however, dye penetrant inspection can be considered satisfactory if parts are uniformly warmed to open tight cracks.

(2) If cracks are found, parts must be replaced. No rework is considered feasible.

(3) Parts which are not cracked should be reworked at the earliest practicable opportunity to increase the 1/8 inch radius to 3/4 inch and polish the area to a 32 microinch finish. The reworked area should be protected with zinc chromate primer and aluminized lacquer and the reworked parts properly identified to distinguish them from those manufactured with the 3/4 inch radius.

(4) After the initial inspection, all parts must be inspected regularly at the inspection period nearest to 300 hours until rework is accomplished.

(5) After rework, inspections at frequent intervals should continue to assure that the rework has removed damaged material and/or incipient cracks.

(Douglas Alert Service Bulletin A-677 for the DC-6 series and A-139 for the DC-7 series cover the above subject and describe how to increase the 1/8 inch radius to a 3/4 inch radius.)

58-11-2 Lockheed. Applies to All Lockheed Model 18 Aircraft. (This AD revises AD 58-7-2 by changing the repetitive inspection requirements.)

Compliance required as indicated.

A number of reports has been received relative to cracks in the welds of the drag strut yoke, P/N XY450-2L-1, on the main landing gear. These cracks, as they progress, result in a continuing reduction in the strength of the landing gear and hence render the landing gear unairworthy. It is, therefore, necessary to inspect the main landing gear for cracks in the area indicated as follows:

(1) Not later than July 1, 1958, and at each 500 hours operation thereafter inspect the main landing gear by means of dye penetrant, magnetic particle or equivalent.

(2) At each 100 hours operation conduct a visual inspection using an eight-power magnifying glass or equivalent.

In the event cracks are found, the oleo strut must be replaced.

If the oleo strut is replaced by a new part, the above inspections need not be resumed until after 3,000 hours of service.

This supersedes AD 58-7-2.

58-11-3 Lockheed. Applies to All Lockheed Model 18 Series And PV-1 Aircraft.

Compliance required as soon as possible, but not later than December 1, 1958.

Numerous reports have been received of cracks occurring at the base of the rudder cable attachment tangs, on rudder control quadrant, Lockheed P/N 53026. There is evidence that excessive clearance may exist between the tangs and the rudder cable attach fittings which permits a bending load to be applied at the base of the tangs, when the AN5 attach bolts are tightened.

P/N 53026 should be inspected by means of a dye penetrant or equivalent inspection means in the areas noted above. If cracks are found, the parts must be replaced.

Furthermore, the means of attaching the rudder cables to the quadrant must be modified to preclude over-loading the attach tangs and subsequent occurrence of cracks due to the tightening of the attach bolts.

Two acceptable means of accomplishing the modification are noted below:

(1) Replace both the AN5 bolts with AN4-12A bolts, AN365 nuts and AN960-516 washers, under the head and nut in conjunction with a 1/4" x 032 wall cadmium plated steel spacer one inch long as a sleeve. The length of the sleeve may protrude past the thickness of the washers a maximum of 1/8" or a minimum of 0.003" so that when tightened, the nut will bottom against the spacer and not on the washers.

NOTE: To compensate for machining tolerances and casting variation, additional washers or various length sleeves may be used to obtain the proper sleeve exposure.

(2) Replace the AN5 bolts with AN23-9 clevis bolts, AN-516 washers, AN320-6 nuts and AN380-2-3 cotter pins.

NOTE: If more than 1/4 inch of bolt grip is exposed after installing the nut and washer due to machining tolerances and casting variation, place additional washers under the head of the bolt to reduce the grip exposure to a minimum of 0.003 inch.

(Lockheed Service Bulletin No. 18/SB130 covers this same subject.)

58-11-4 Lockheed. Applies to Model 1649A.

Compliance required as indicated.

Model 1649A aircraft have been found to have possibly hazardous autopilot induced wing-aileron flutter under certain combinations of boost package tolerances and autopilot transfer valve following failure at speeds above 215 knots indicated airspeed. This speed must not be exceeded in autopilot operation until further information is issued as to corrective action.

(This is also covered in Lockheed message to operators, dated May 22, 1958.)

58-12-1 Douglas. Applies to All DC-3 Series Aircraft.

Compliance required whenever the center or outer wing attach angles or doublers, the spar butt plates, or the compression angles on the center wing or the waffle plates on the outer wing are reworked or replaced or when an outer wing panel is substituted for another.

As a result of the inspections required by AD 39-24-1, it has been found that numerous cracks are occurring in the wing attach angles and doublers at a relatively low number of hours of operation after replacement as required by that AD. In the past, many of these failures have been attributed to the type of operations or to the use of inadequate tooling for replacement of the attach angles and doublers. It has now been determined that, in many cases, little or no attention is given to the maintenance of proper tolerances at the attach point between the center and outer wing panels which may be contributing to such failures.

Therefore, prior to replacement of an outer wing panel, the following tolerances must be adhered to:

(1) Compression angles attached to the corrugations and stringers and the spar cap butt plates of the center wing must be held in plane with the attach angle to a plus or minus 0.002 inch tolerance.

(2) The waffle plates attached to the stringers and the spar cap butt plates of the outer wing must be held in plane with the attach angle to a plus or minus 0.008 inch tolerance.

(3) This range will allow a maximum of 0.010 inch interference to a maximum 0.010 inch clearance between the compression angles and plates, and the butt plates when the wing is installed.

(4) It is acceptable to have either interference or clearance; however, the most desirable joint is from flush to an 0.005 inch accumulative interference fit.

This supplements AD 39-24-1.

58-12-2 Piper. Applies to All Model J-3, PA-11, PA-15, PA-16 and PA-17.

Compliance required not later than July 15, 1958.

There is a possibility that some aileron hinge reinforcing brackets, P/N 10931-03, supplied to the field during the past three years were fabricated from aluminum instead of steel. Brackets which have been replaced since June 1954 must be inspected to determine the type of material. All aluminum brackets are to be removed and replaced with steel brackets.

(Piper Service Bulletin No. 165 covers this subject.)

58-12-3 Applies to All Aircraft With Sea Level Engines Equipped With Pressure Type Carburetors.

Compliance required as indicated.

A number of in-flight power failures attributed to ice formation in the carburetor and induction system have occurred with sea level engines having pressure type carburetors. Accordingly, pilots must refrain from entering into and continuing flight in atmospheric conditions of snow, sleet, hail or heavy rain with temperatures of 60° F. or below unless the aircraft is equipped with a carburetor air heater which will provide 90° F. temperature rise when the outside air temperature is 30° F. and the engine is developing no more than 75 percent power.

Not later than October 1, 1958, a placard must be installed at the "carburetor heat" or "alternate air" control to read "Flight in snow, sleet, hail or heavy rain below 60° F. prohibited." This placard may be removed when an adequate air heater as described above is provided.

58-12-4 Beech. Applies to Models B50, C50, D50, E50 and F50.

Compliance required as soon as possible but not later than November 15, 1958.

The AN3158 tail light assembly does not meet the requirements of the Civil Air Regulations for intensity and light pattern. It must be replaced by an assembly meeting those requirements. Beech kit 50-169 provides an acceptable assembly.

(Beech Service Bulletin 33, 24, 17, 9 and 2 for B50, C50, D50, E50 and F50, issued April 1958, covers this same subject.)

58-12-5 Lockheed. Applies to All Model 1649A Aircraft.

Compliance required as indicated.

Model 1649A aircraft have been found to have possible hazardous wing bending oscillation, dynamically induced by aileron oscillation, under certain combinations of boost package tolerances and autopilot modulating piston follow-up failure. In order to correct this condition, the following must be accomplished:

Modify the aileron control valve by installing a new modulating piston stop to meet limits of aileron deflection rates of 7.5° per second minimum and 11° per second maximum. The valve is then to be reidentified as 963182-11 and to be painted yellow to denote noninterchangeability with elevator and rudder valves. Details of the necessary modifications are given in Lockheed communication FS/225805-W, dated June 13, 1958.

This modification is to be accomplished as soon as maintenance schedules will permit but not later than January 1, 1959. Until the modification is accomplished, the airplane must be flown in autopilot operation at speeds not to exceed 215 KIAS.

This supersedes AD 58-11-4.

58-13-4 Sud Aviation. Applies to Model SE3130 Alouette II Helicopters.

Compliance required as indicated.

Prior to next flight unless already accomplished, and every subsequent fifty hours, inspect the reinforcement plates at the root end of the tail rotor blades for defective bonding. Defective bonding can be determined by tapping the bonded area with a coin. Defective blades must be replaced.

French SGACC considers this directive mandatory with which the CAA concurs.

(Sud Aviation Helicopter Service Bulletin AL34.11131 covers this same subject.)

58-13-5 Wright Engines. Applies to All Wright TC18DA and TC18EA Series Engines Except as Noted.

Compliance required as indicated.

To improve engine reliability, the following items must be accomplished:

(1) At first overhaul after August 1, 1958, but no later than March 1, 1959, install piston compression ring, Wright Aeronautical Division P/N 147414, or subsequently approved ring in the No. 2 ring groove. WAD Service Bulletins Nos. TC18-269B and TC18E-81B, cover this same subject.

(2) At first overhaul after July 1, 1958, and each succeeding overhaul, install only new, resin graphite coated pistons in the master rod cylinders (1 and 2). In other locations, continued time pistons may be used provided they are recoated with either resin or spray graphite and are otherwise satisfactory for reuse. In addition, prior to reuse, the top and second grooves of all these pistons must be inspected for ring groove step wear and contouring of the ring groove wall. If any of these conditions are found, the piston must be regrooved. WAD Repair Instruction Nos. 860468 and 72-5-12 cover this same subject.

(3) Applies to TC18EA series engines only. At next overhaul but not later than March 1, 1959, fuel injection pumps must be timed so that the end of injection occurs at 35° ATC on the intake stroke on the right hand injection pump and 25° ATC on the left hand injection pump. In addition, at first overhaul after August 1, 1958, but not later than March 1, 1959, compensated length fuel injection lines must be installed on cylinders Nos. 6, 13, 15, 17, and 18. WAD Service Bulletin No. TC18E-118 covers this same subject.

(4) At next overhaul but not later than March 1, 1959, the spark advance relays used in the ignition distributors on the subject engines must be assembled with increased relay spring pressures. Detailed instructions for setting the required spring pressure are contained in Scintilla Division Service Bulletin No. 408A.

(5) At first overhaul after July 1, 1958, but not later than March 1, 1959, the valve springs used in all TC18 engines must have the coil ends contoured per WAD Service Bulletins Nos. TC18-339 or TC18E-159.

(6) To insure that the proper power recovery turbine cooling shield to wheel lip clearance is retained, this clearance must be checked at each regular periodic inspection. The maximum service limit for this clearance is 0.080 inches (wheel in outer-most position) for a maximum circumferential distance of 180°. WAD Service Bulletins Nos. TC18-323 and TC18E-140 cover this same subject.

(7) To insure proper retention of the power recovery turbine wheel, the shaft and shaft nut threads must be inspected for wear and distortion at every power recovery turbine overhaul. WAD Service Bulletins Nos. TC18-327 and TC18E-146 detail the techniques and limits for such inspections. In addition, at first overhaul after September 1, 1958, but not later than March 1, 1959, the power recovery turbine must be assembled with WAD P/N 147555 nut or subsequently approved turbine wheel retaining system.

(8) To prevent inadvertent loss of oil from the power recovery turbine fluid couplings, at next engine overhaul but not later than March 1, 1959, the PRT oil control valve must incorporate a WAD P/N 147465 valve body. WAD Service Bulletins Nos. TC18-302A and TC18E-115A cover this same subject.

(9) To insure proper retention of the power recovery turbine nozzle, WAD P/N 492D21, nozzle to nozzle support attaching screws should be removed at next PRT overhaul and replaced with either WAD P/N 6043D8 or 492D65 screws. Until this is accomplished, a daily check of the tightness of the nozzle must be made in accordance with the instructions contained in WAD letter to all operators dated June 10, 1958.

(10) At first overhaul after August 1, 1958, but not later than March 1, 1959, the rocker box drain manifold and sumps must be removed in accordance with WAD Service Bulletins Nos. TC18-347 or TC18E-166.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 249—FORMS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

FORMS FOR CURRENT REPORTS

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted certain amendments to Form 8-K (§ 249.308), which is the form prescribed for current reports filed pursuant to sections 13 and 15 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Notice of the proposed action was published May 20, 1958, in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 5699.

The amendments relate to Item 11 of the form which requires information in regard to matters submitted to a vote of security holders either at a meeting of such security holders or otherwise. One of the amendments pertains to paragraph (b) which calls for information in regard to the election of directors. The purpose of the amendment is to clarify this paragraph to indicate more clearly the information required thereby. Another amendment relates to Instruction 2 to the item, which has been construed by certain issuers not to require the furnishing of information in certain cases where it is the intention of the item and the instructions that such information be furnished.

The amendments are adopted pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 13, 15 (d) and 23 (a) thereof. Item 11 of the form as amended reads as follows:

Item 11. Submission of matters to a vote of security holders. If any matter has been submitted to a vote of security holders, through the solicitation of proxies or otherwise, furnish the following information:

(a) The date of the meeting and whether it was an annual or special meeting.

(b) If the meeting involved the election of directors, state the name of each director elected at the meeting and the name of each other director whose term of office as a director continued after the meeting.

(c) Briefly describe each other matter voted upon at the meeting and state the number of affirmative votes and the number of negative votes cast with respect to each such matter.

Instructions. 1. If any matter has been submitted to a vote of security holders otherwise than at a meeting of such security holders, corresponding information with respect to such submission shall be furnished. The solicitation of any authorization or consent (other than a proxy to vote at a stockholders' meeting) with respect to any matter shall be deemed a submission of such matter to a vote of security holders within the meaning of this item.

2. Paragraph (a) need be answered only if paragraph (b) or (c) is required to be answered.

3. Paragraph (b) need not be answered if (i) proxies for the meeting were solicited pursuant to Regulation 14, (ii) there was no solicitation in opposition to the management's nominees as listed in the proxy statement, and (iii) all of such nominees were elected. If the registrant did not solicit proxies and the board of directors as previously reported to the Commission was re-elected in its entirety, a statement to that effect in answer to paragraph (b) will suffice as an answer thereto.

4. Paragraph (c) need not be answered as to procedural matters or as to the selection or approval of auditors.

5. If the issuer has published a report containing all of the information called for by this item, the item may be answered by a reference to the information contained in such report, provided copies of such report are filed as an exhibit to the report on this form.

(Sec. 23, 48 Stat. 901, as amended, 15 U. S. C. 78w)

The foregoing action shall become effective August 16, 1958.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] NELLYE A. THORSEN,
Assistant Secretary.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 6302]

PART 171—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS RELATING TO LIQUOR

NATIONAL EMERGENCY TRANSFERS OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

Section 3183 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 permitted the use of beverage distilled spirits for industrial purposes and made provision for appropriate safeguards and controls with respect to the withdrawal and movement of such spirits. The provisions of section 3183 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 were implemented by Treasury Decision 5864 approved November 2, 1951, which added Subpart G "National Emergency Transfers of Distilled Spirits" to 26 CFR (1939) Part 171. The provisions of section 3183 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 were reenacted without material change as section 5217 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Such regulations are prescribed under and made applicable to section 5217 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, insofar as such regulations are not inconsistent with the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, by virtue of section 7807 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and Treasury Decision 6091, approved August 16, 1954.

Public Law 85-517, approved July 11, 1958, amends section 5217 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by changing the termination date for such section to July 11, 1960.

In order to reflect in such regulations the new termination date, § 171.280 is amended by striking in the first sentence the date, "July 11, 1958" and inserting in lieu thereof the date, "July 11, 1960".

Because these amendments merely extend the termination date of the regulations, it is found impracticable and contrary to the public interest to comply with the public rule making and effective date requirements of section 4 (a) and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003).

(Sec. 5217, 68A Stat. 641, as amended; 26 U. S. C. 5217)

[SEAL] RUSSELL C. HARRINGTON, Commissioner.

Approved: July 16, 1958.

Deputy to the Secretary.

ARMY BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF MILITARY RECORDS

In § 581.3 (f), subparagraph (3) (vi) is changed to read as follows:

§ 581.3 Army Board for Correction of Military Records. • • •

(f) Action on application. • • •

(3) Staff action. • • •

(vi) After the appropriate Secretary has taken action on the record, the applicant or his counsel is entitled, upon request, (a) to inspect the record of proceedings; and (b) to receive a copy of the Board's findings, decisions, and recommendations; unless the Chairman considers that granting the request would be detrimental to the public interest.

T. 45 N., R. 63 W.,
Sec. 4, NE¼SW¼.
T. 46 N., R. 64 W.,
Sec. 26, NW¼NW¼.

The areas described aggregate approximately 1,120 acres.

2. The lands are typical of grazing lands in eastern Wyoming, and are located in Campbell, Weston, and Niobrara Counties. The soils vary widely, but are for the most part shallow to moderate in depth. Vegetation consists of sagebrush and native grasses.

3. No application for the restored lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

4. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, of equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 21, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 20, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 20, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

5. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws, and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location for nonmetalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 20, 1958.

6. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

MODIFYING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 5327 OF APRIL 15, 1930

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141) and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Executive Order No. 5327 of April 15, 1930, which reserved deposits of oil shale and lands containing such deposits owned by the United States, for classification, is hereby modified to the extent necessary to permit disposal under the act of March 3, 1877 (19 Stat. 377; 43 U. S. C. 321, et. seq.) as amended, of the following-described lands, subject to the provisions of section 1 of the act of July 17, 1914 (38 Stat. 509; 30 U. S. C. 121), where applicable:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 8 S., R. 17 E.,
Sec. 17:
Sec. 20, N½NE¼, SW¼NE¼, NW¼, NE¼SW¼, NW¼SE¼ and S½SE¼;
Sec. 28, N½, and N½S½;
Sec. 29, NE¼, E½NW¼, NE¼SW¼, and N½SE¼.

The areas described aggregate approximately 1,920 acres.

2. The lands are partly below and partly above an existing irrigation canal. The soil is a deep silt loam of fair fertility. Vegetation is of the desert-shrub type.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications in accordance with the following:

a. Applications under the Desert-Land Act of March 3, 1877 (19 Stat. 377; 43 U. S. C. 321) et seq., may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 21, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 20, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

4. All valid applications other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 20, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

5. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

6. Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Salt Lake City, Utah.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 12385; FCC 58-688]

[Rules Amdt. 3-116]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS; TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Clarksburg, W. Va., Youngstown, Ohio).

1. The Commission has under consideration the proposal by Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television Station and set forth in a Notice of Proposed Rule Making (FCC 58-308) released on April 4, 1958, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 10, 1958 (23 F. R. 2355), to shift Channel 22 from Clarksburg, West Virginia, to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Pittsburgh, Pa.	2−, 11, [1]13−, 16, 47 −, 53+.	2−, 11, [1]13−, 16, 22, 47−, 53+.
Clarksburg, W. Va.	12+, 22, 69−	12+, 69−

2. The Commission also has before it an alternate proposal filed by Sanford A. Schafitz and Guy W. Gully, d/b as Community Telecasting Company, permittee of Station WXTV, Channel 73, Youngstown, Ohio, to assign Channel 22 to Youngstown by making the following changes in the Table of Assignments for television channels:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Youngstown, Ohio	21−, 27, 73−	21−, 22, 73−
Pittsburgh, Pa.	2−, 11, [1]13−, 16, 47−, 53+.	2−, 11, [1]13−, 16, 22, 47−, 53+.
Clarksburg, W. Va.	12+, 22, 69−	12+, 69−, 73−

Community further requested that Golden Triangle Television Corporation, permittee of Station WTVQ, Channel 47, Pittsburgh, be ordered to show cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify Channel 22 in lieu of Channel 47 and that Forest City Publishing Company, permittee of Station WHK-TV, Channel 19, Cleveland, be ordered to show cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify Channel 25 in lieu of Channel 19. These proposals were also contained in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the subject Docket.

3. Comments were filed by Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television Station, licensee of Station WQED, Channel 13, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, WKST, Inc., permittee of Station WKST-TV, Channel 45, New Castle, Pennsylvania, Community Telecasting Company, permittee of WXTV, Channel 73, Youngstown, Ohio, Butler Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of Standard Broadcasting Station WISR, Butler, Pennsylvania, and The Joint Council on Educational Television (JCET).

4. Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television Station states that it is the licensee of an educational television broadcast station, WQED, in Pittsburgh, which currently telecasts 81½ hours each week and has been in operation since April 1, 1954. It provides direct service to the public and parochial schools of the Pittsburgh area of two types: Direct total teaching and/or enrichment and supplementation. In the past year it has taught seven daily classes in 350 classrooms in 58 different school districts, 22 parochial schools, and 2 private schools of 7 counties. It has also conducted high school classes through which viewers have been able to earn high school diplomas, summer school classes over the air, and has provided programs in the arts, sciences, and cultural subjects for the schools and for the public. The additional channel is needed to enlarge this program both for classroom instruction and home instruction. The UHF channel would also be used for specialized educational service for the industries and professions of the Pittsburgh area. If Channel 22 is made available in Pittsburgh, Metropolitan proposes to apply for and build an educational television station, if possible, by the beginning of the fall term. The Joint Council on Educational Television verifies the contribution that Metropolitan has made to education via television and supports its request for the assignment of Channel 22 to Pittsburgh as a second educational reservation.

5. The proposal of Community Telecasting Company conflicts with the proposal of Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Television Station in that it would assign Channel 22 to Pittsburgh but would assign it to WTVQ in lieu of its present assignment of Channel 47. In its comments, Community did not deny the need for an additional educational channel in Pittsburgh and suggested that Metropolitan use Channel 73 for the second educational TV station. It supported its request for the assignment of Channel 33 to Youngstown on the premise that Channel 73 is at a competitive disadvantage because the other three stations operating in the Youngstown-New Castle area are on the lower UHF channels.

6. WKST, Inc. directed its opposition primarily toward the proposal of Community to place Channel 33 in Youngstown. It did not deny the need for a second educational channel in Pittsburgh but took the position that such a channel could be obtained by revoking the construction permit of one or the other of the present permit holders in Pittsburgh for Channels 16, 47 or 53, all of which are inactive and any one of which could be made available for the educational station. The gist of the opposition of WKST, Inc., is that the Youngstown area does not need and cannot support a fourth VHF television broadcast station. Even if Youngstown does need a fourth UHF TV station it should not be permitted to preempt a lower UHF channel such as Channel 33 because this channel might be better used in some other community in Western Pennsylvania or Eastern Ohio.

7. Butler Broadcasting Company, Inc., stated that it had considered the possibility of entering the field of television broadcasting and objects to the preemption of Channel 33 by Community in Youngstown.

8. The Commission has carefully considered the comments filed in this proceeding and is of the opinion that a compelling need has been shown for a second educational television channel in Pittsburgh. The use of Channel 13 for 81½ hours per week averages almost 12 hours daily and from the standpoint of efficient use of the channel, compares favorably with regular commercial television broadcast stations. Under these circumstances the assignment of a second educational TV channel to Pittsburgh cannot be considered prodigal. The community of Clarksburg, West Virginia is most directly affected by the deletion of Channel 22, yet no opposition was voiced from that area. Therefore, there appears to be no valid reason why Channel 22 should not be assigned to Pittsburgh. The Commission is also of the view that Channel 22 should be reserved for education.

9. We also find considerable merit in the proposal of Community Telecasting Company to assign Channel 33 to Youngstown in lieu of Channel 73. Although we do not agree that the lower UHF channels are overwhelmingly superior to the upper UHF channels from the standpoint of technical potential, we are aware that in the present state of the art there are technological differences between the upper and lower UHF channels and more important, these differences affect the attitude of the television broadcasting industry. For these reasons, the argument of Community that it will be placed in a better competitive position and will therefore be able to inaugurate a fourth UHF television service for the Youngstown area seems convincing. Because we believe that the technological differences which exist today between the lower and upper UHF channels will disappear with the development of television broadcasting in the UHF band, we are not persuaded by the arguments that Channel 33 should be held in reserve for use at some future time in some other community in Western Pennsylvania or Eastern Ohio. By encouraging the implementation of the lower UHF channels we will bring closer the day when those differences are no longer significant. One of the original complexities of the proposal to place Channel 33 in Youngstown for use by WXTV was the existence of an outstanding construction permit for Channel 19 in Cleveland, Ohio. The site specified in that construction permit was at less than the required minimum separation for Channel 33 at the site specified in the construction permit held by Community Telecasting Company. The construction permit for WHK-TV, Channel 19, Cleveland, was deleted April 24, 1958, thus removing this problem.

10. The assignment of Channel 33 to Youngstown will also require deletion of Channel 47 in Pittsburgh. Channel 73 may be substituted for Channel 47 in Pittsburgh. Golden Triangle Corporation, permittee of Station WTVQ, Channel 47, Pittsburgh, was ordered to show cause why its permit should not be modified to specify Channel 22 or Channel 73. It failed to respond to this Show Cause Order. However, on June 13, 1958, the construction permit held by Golden Triangle Corporation was deleted at the request of the permittee.

11. Finally, the Community proposal would have substituted Channel 79 for Channel 22 in Clarksburg, West Virginia. In view of the fact that no interests in the Clarksburg area have indicated a desire to construct and operate a television station on either Channel 22 or Channel 69 the substitution of Channel 79 for Channel 22 would be a mere gesture. Furthermore, the listing of these upper channels in the Table of Assignments is creating unnecessary problems in instances where small communities in the mountainous portions of the eastern states desire to operate television broadcast translators. We feel confident that if any party becomes interested in inaugurating television broadcast service on a UHF channel in the Clarksburg area, a suitable channel for such operation can be found.

12. On June 18, 1958, Pittsburgh Educational Television Station filed a counterproposal which took cognizance of the deletion of the Channel 47 construction permit and requested that WQED be assigned Channel 16 and that Telecasting, Inc., permittee of WENS, Channel 16, Pittsburgh, be assigned Channel 22 or Channel 47 in lieu of Channel 16. Telecasting, Inc., has consented to the proposed substitution of either Channel 22 or Channel 47.

13. In view of the time that has elapsed since this proceeding was instituted and the separate interests of Community Telecasting Company and Pittsburgh Educational Television Station, the Commission believes that this proceeding should be concluded without further rule making based on the Pittsburgh Educational Television Station counterproposal so that Community may proceed with its plans to inaugurate an additional UHF television service in Youngstown, and that a new rule making proceeding should be instituted to consider the Pittsburgh Educational Television Station counterproposal.

14. Accordingly, the Commission has decided to adopt the proposed amendment insofar as it assigns Channel 22 as an educational reservation to Pittsburgh, substitutes Channel 33 for Channel 73 in Youngstown, Ohio, deletes Channel 22—from Clarksburg, West Virginia, and substitutes Channel 73 for Channel 47 in Pittsburgh. Simultaneously with this action, it is adopting a Notice of Proposed Rule Making which proposes to change the educational reservation in Pittsburgh from Channel 22 to Channel 16 and orders Telecasting, Inc., permittee of WENS, Channel 16, Pittsburgh, to show cause why its permit should not be modified to specify Channel 22 in lieu of Channel 16.

15. Authority for the adoption of the amendments herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

16. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That, effective August 25, 1958, the Table of Assignments contained in § 3.606 of the Commission rules and regulations is amended, insofar as the communities listed below are concerned, as follows:

City	Channel No.
Youngstown, Ohio	21−, 27, 33
Pittsburgh, Pa.	2−, 4+, 11, *13−, 16, *22, 53+, 73−
Clarksburg, W. Va.	12+, 69−

17. It is further ordered, That effective August 25, 1958, pursuant to sections 303 (f) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the construction permit for WXTV, Channel 73, Youngstown, Ohio, is modified, to specify operation on Channel 33 in accordance with the data furnished in response to the show cause order, subject to the condition that construction looking toward a changeover to the new frequency shall not commence until a modified authorization has been issued to Community Telecasting Company.

PART 19—CITIZENS RADIO SERVICE

CONELRAD PLAN

In the matter of amendment to Part 19 of the Commission's rules and regulations to effectuate the Commission's CONELRAD Plan for the Citizens Radio Service.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission has before it for consideration its Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the above matter released April 21, 1958 (FCC 58-372) and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER April 24, 1958 (23 F. R. 2745).

No comments have been filed in this matter.

These amendments to Part 19 of the Commission's rules are promulgated under authority of sections 303 (r) and 606 (c) of the Communications Act as amended and Executive Order 10312 signed by the President December 10, 1951.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That Part 19 of the Commission's rules is amended to include the rules set forth below, effective August 18, 1958.

Released: July 18, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

SUBPART E—CONELRAD

Sec.
19.101 Scope and objective.
19.102 Alerting.
19.103 Operation during CONELRAD Radio Alert.
19.104 Special conditions.
19.105 Radio All Clear.
19.106 Tests.
19.107 Record entries.

AUTHORITY: §§ 19.101 to 19.107 issued under sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 303, 606, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended, 1104, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303, 606; E. O. 10312, 16 F. R. 12452; 3 CFR 1951 Supp.

§ 19.101 Scope and objective. (a) This subpart applies to all radio stations in the Citizens Radio Service located within the continental United States, and is for the purpose of providing for the alerting and operation of radio stations in this service during periods of enemy air attack or imminent threat thereof.

(b) The objective of these CONELRAD rules is to minimize the navigational aid that an enemy might obtain from the electromagnetic radiations from radio stations in the Citizens Radio Service while simultaneously providing for a continued radio service under controlled conditions when such operation is essential to the public welfare.

§ 19.102 Alerting. (a) Licensees of radio stations in the Citizens Radio Service are responsible for making provisions to receive the CONELRAD Radio Alert and the CONELRAD Radio All Clear.

(b) The CONELRAD Radio Alert will be initiated by the Commanding Officer of the Air Division (Defense) or higher military authority.

(c) Citizens Radio Service mobile radio systems, including stations at fixed locations associated therewith, and point-to-point systems where applicable, may, if desired, be alerted at a single point, normally the control point or the control center. The control point thus receiving the CONELRAD Radio Alert will be responsible for the dissemination of the CONELRAD Radio Alert to all stations integrated into the radio system or systems and insuring that all associated stations execute CONELRAD requirements immediately. Relaying of a CONELRAD Radio Alert is considered a transmission of extreme emergency affecting the national safety and may be carried on under the authority of § 19.103 (a) (1).

(d) The CONELRAD Radio Alert for the Citizens Radio Service may be received by one or more of the methods outlined below:

(1) By monitoring any standard, FM, or TV broadcast station by aural or automatic means, to receive the CONELRAD Radio Alert.

(2) By reception of the CONELRAD Radio Alert from a point that has received the CONELRAD Radio Alert from a standard, FM, or TV broadcast station.

(3) Radio station licensees desiring to receive the CONELRAD Radio Alert by a means not covered by subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph may request authority from the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission to receive the Alert in another manner. The request must include reason why methods described in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph are not suitable and must fully describe the proposed method for receiving the Alert.

NOTE: Every standard, FM, and TV broadcast station will be notified of the CONELRAD Radio Alert by telephone calls or by radio broadcasts. Immediately upon receipt of the Radio Alert each standard, FM, and TV broadcast station will proceed as follows on its normally assigned frequency:

(1) Discontinue the normal program.

(2) Cut the transmitter carrier for approximately five seconds. (Sound carrier only for TV stations.)

(3) Return carrier to the air for approximately 5 seconds.

(4) Cut the transmitter carrier for approximately 5 seconds.

(5) Return carrier to the air.

(7) Broadcast the CONELRAD Radio Alert message as follows: "We interrupt our normal program to cooperate in security and Civil Defense measures as requested by the United States Government. This is a CONELRAD Radio Alert. Normal broadcasting will now be discontinued for an indefinite period. Civil Defense information will be broadcast in most areas at 640 and 1240 on your regular radio receiver".

(8) The CONELRAD Radio Alert message will then be repeated.

(1) through (8) above is for the purpose of attracting the listeners' attention, or, if desired, to operate an automatic alert receiver or warning device. (Caution: (1) through (6) is a warning that a Radio Alert may follow; the actual Radio Alert signal is the spoken word in the form of the CONELRAD Radio Alert message.)

The CONELRAD Radio Alert message is set forth in (7) above, is worded in a manner suitable for reception by the public; however, the message is also the CONELRAD Radio Alert. When this CONELRAD Radio Alert message is received, all licensees must immediately comply with the CONELRAD operating procedure. The precise CONELRAD Radio Alert message, above, will be broadcast only in the event of an actual alert. In the event of a CONELRAD test or drill, broadcast stations will make an announcement that a test or drill is taking place.

(e) All radio stations in the Citizens Radio Service not directly receiving the CONELRAD Radio Alert must use caution in returning to the air after an "out of service" period, to insure that a CONELRAD Radio Alert is not in progress before making any transmissions.

§ 19.103 Operation during a CONELRAD Radio Alert. (a) Radio stations in the Citizens Radio Service, upon receipt of a CONELRAD Radio Alert, will interrupt any communications in progress, leave the air and maintain radio silence for the duration of the CONELRAD Radio Alert, except for transmissions handled in accordance with the following restrictions unless otherwise ordered by the Federal Communications Commission:

(1) No transmissions shall be made unless they are of extreme emergency nature affecting the national safety or the safety of people and property.

NOTE: Transmission affecting the safety or security of industrial plants, personnel or equipment and materials necessary to the national defense may be made. All transmissions not immediately necessary must be withheld until the CONELRAD Radio All Clear has been issued.

(2) All transmissions shall be as short as possible and the stations' carrier shall be removed from the air during periods of no message transmission.

(3) No station identification shall be given either by announcement of regularly assigned call sign or by announcement of geographical location. If identification is necessary to carry on the service, the use of special identifiers will be authorized.

§ 19.104 Special conditions. Licensees of radio stations or systems in the Citizens Radio Service, who for technical or operational reasons believe that compliance with § 19.103 cannot be met, may request a waiver of § 19.103. Such request must be made by letter to the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C., stating why § 19.103 cannot be complied with. The Commission upon investigation may modify the CONELRAD operating requirements of the station or system if it is found to be essential to the defense of the nation or the public welfare.

§ 19.105 Radio All Clear. The CONELRAD Radio All Clear will be initiated only by the Air Division (Defense) Commander or higher military authority and will be disseminated over the same channels as the CONELRAD Radio Alert. Broadcast stations will transmit the CONELRAD Radio All Clear message on normally assigned frequencies as follows:

The CONELRAD operating procedures have been ordered discontinued. All radio stations are authorized to return to normal operation on their regularly assigned frequencies:

I repeat

The CONELRAD operating procedures have been ordered discontinued. All radio stations are authorized to return to normal operation on their regularly assigned frequencies.

Radio stations and systems licensed in the Citizens Radio Service may resume normal operation when the CONELRAD Radio All Clear message is received unless otherwise restricted by order of the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 19.106 Tests. Tests of the CONELRAD alerting and operating systems may be conducted at appropriate intervals. Stations not normally in operation during the period of a test will not be required to take part. Tests of the operating system will not require the station to close down and will be conducted in a manner that will not interfere with the transmission of normal traffic. Reports of the results of such tests may be required in a form to be prescribed by the Commission.

§ 19.107 Record entries. Appropriate entries of all CONELRAD tests, drills, and operations shall be made in the station records.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 110—DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS

SUBPART F—PERSONS WHICH FURNISH CARS TO RAILROADS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of July A. D. 1958.

The matter of regulations to govern the destruction of records of persons which furnish cars to railroads being under consideration pursuant to provisions of section 20 (7) (b) of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, (34 Stat. 594, 35 Stat. 648, 54 Stat. 918; 49 U. S. C. 20); and,

It appearing that an order was entered May 2, 1952 requiring all persons which furnish cars or protective service against heat or cold to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company subject to section 20 (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and which were exempted from accounting regulations prescribed pursuant to that section, to comply with regulations to govern the destruction of carrier records as prescribed by that order; and,

It further appearing that a notice of proposed rule making was issued May 21, 1958 showing in detail the revised regulations which were receiving consideration, such notice being published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 4, 1958 (23 F. R. 3902) pursuant to provisions of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act; and consideration having been given to responses to that notice by interested persons, which were received on or before June 30, 1958 as therein provided, in the formulation of regulations hereinafter prescribed:

It is ordered, That the said order entered May 2, 1952 and the regulations therein prescribed be, and both the order and the regulations hereby are, canceled effective September 1, 1958, as of which date the title of Subpart F of Part 110 of this chapter shall be changed to conform to the above heading of this order and the regulations hereinafter prescribed substituted for the text thereof.

It is further ordered, That effective September 1, 1958 all persons which furnish cars to railroad or express companies subject to provisions of section 20 (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act, but do not provide protective service against heat or cold, shall comply with regulations which are attached hereto, and are by this reference made a part of this order, before destroying accounts, books, records, memoranda, correspondence, or other documents which pertain or relate to the cars so furnished.

And it is further ordered, That this order shall be served on each person which is subject to its provisions, and on every trustee, receiver, executor, administrator, or assignee of such persons, and that notice of the order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing the order with attached regulations with the Director, Federal Register Division.

By the Commission, Division 2.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. McCOY,
Secretary.

Regulations to govern the destruction of records of persons which furnish cars to railroads are as follows:

SUBPART F—PERSONS WHICH FURNISH CARS TO RAILROADS

Sec.
110.100 Regulations prescribed.
110.101 Statutory provisions.
110.102 Authority to destroy records.
110.103 Photographic copies.
110.104 Periods of retention.

AUTHORITY: §§ 110.100 to 110.104 issued under sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interpret or apply sec. 20, 24 Stat. 386, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 20.

§ 110.100 Regulations prescribed. All persons, including corporations and partnerships as well as individuals, which furnish cars to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company subject to provisions of section 20 (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act, but do not furnish protective service against heat or cold, shall comply with regulations in this part before destroying records or documents which pertain or relate to the cars so furnished. Compliance with the regulations in this part will not, however, exempt such a person from statutory requirements other than provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act, for retention of such records or documents for periods longer than those hereinafter prescribed. (Car line companies which also provide protective service are subject to regulations in §§ 110.1 to 110.7.)

§ 110.101 Statutory provisions. (a) Section 20 (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act includes the following requirements:

The Commission • • • shall at all times have authority to inspect and copy any and all accounts, books, records, memoranda, correspondence, and other documents of persons which furnish cars • • • to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company • • •: Provided, however, That such authority shall be limited to accounts, books, records, memoranda, correspondence, or other documents which pertain or relate to the cars • • • so furnished. • • • Persons furnishing such cars • • • shall submit their accounts, books, records, memoranda, correspondence, or other documents, to the extent above provided, for inspection and copying • • • upon demand • • •.

(b) Section 20 (7) (b) of the Interstate Commerce Act includes the following provisions:

Any person who • • • shall knowingly and willfully destroy, mutilate, alter, or by any other means or device falsify the records of • • • accounts, records, or memoranda,

• • • shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject • • • to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment: Provided, That the Commission may in its discretion issue orders specifying such operating, accounting, or financial papers, records, books, blanks, tickets, stubs, correspondence, or documents • • • as may, after a reasonable time, be destroyed, and prescribing the length of time the same shall be preserved.

§ 110.102 Authority to destroy records. Records and documents which pertain or relate to cars furnished subject to provisions of section 20 (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act may be destroyed after the same have been retained respectively for periods hereinafter prescribed.

§ 110.103 Photographic copies. Records and documents covered by the regulations in this part may be destroyed at any time after they have been suitably photographed in the normal course of business under a program instituted for the protection or storage of other company records of a similar nature or purpose: Provided, however, That microfilm copies shall be retained for the periods of time prescribed for the original records or documents, respectively; that the microfilm copies shall be no less readily accessible than the original records or documents as normally filed or preserved would be; and that suitable facilities shall be available to locate, identify, read, or reproduce such microfilm copies.

§ 110.104 Periods of retention. Records and documents listed in this section, insofar as they pertain or relate to cars furnished to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company, shall be retained for the periods of time shown for each kind of record or document, respectively. Inclusion of a record or document in the list imposes no requirement that it shall be installed if the information normally so recorded is not otherwise required by provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Item	Description of records	Period to be retained
1	Contracts, leases, and agreements.	5 years after expiration or termination.
2	Copies and files of tax returns.	3 years.
3	Insurance records, including the policies.	2 years after expiration of coverage.
4	Records of the cost of construction of cars (see note).	3 years after sale or retirement.
5	Records of rents and revenues from cars, of repairs to and maintenance of cars, and of safety appliances installed or repaired.	3 years.
6	Car location records and reports.	2 years.
7	Records and files of claims for personal injuries, and fire and other damages.	5 years after settlement or rejection.
8	Accident records and reports, if not included in Item 7.	2 years.
9	Reports to regulatory agencies, file copies of and supporting papers.	6 years.
10	Correspondence	For the period prescribed for the records to which correspondence relates.

NOTE: In addition to records that become the property of the company which acquires cars, the Commission's safety regulations require a car builder or noncarrier car repair shop to retain certain records relating to the construction or repair of tank cars. See Appendix W, A. A. R. Tank Car Specifications.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 964]

DRIED FIGS PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

APPROVAL OF BUDGET OF EXPENSES OF DRIED FIG ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE FOR 1958-59 CROP YEAR AND FIXING RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR SUCH CROP YEAR

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of a budget of expenses of the Dried Fig Administrative Committee for the 1958-59 crop year and the fixing of a rate of assessment for that year, as hereinafter set forth. The amount of the budget and rate of assessment were unanimously recommended by the aforesaid committee in accordance with the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 123, as amended, and Order No. 64, as amended (7 CFR Part 964), regulating the handling of dried figs produced in California, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed in triplicate with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., and received not later than the close of business on the eighth day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In the event that the said eighth day after publication should fall on a legal holiday, Saturday, or Sunday, such submissions must be received by the Director not later than the close of business on the next following business day.

The proposed budget of expenses and rate of assessment follows:

§ 964.303 Budget of expenses of the Dried Fig Administrative Committee and rate of assessment for the 1958-59 crop year—(a) Budget of expenses. Expenses in the amount of $26,460 are reasonable and are likely to be incurred by the Dried Fig Administrative Committee for its maintenance and functioning for the crop year which will begin on August 1, 1958, and will end on July 31, 1959.

(b) Rate of assessment. Each handler shall pay to the Dried Fig Administrative Committee, in accordance with the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. [illegible] as amended, and Order No. 64, as amended, an assessment of $1.35 for each ton of salable tonnage dried figs handled by him as the first handler thereof during the crop year which will begin on August 1, 1958, and will end on July 31, 1959, which assessment rate is hereby fixed as each handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

The term "salable tonnage dried figs" as used in § 964.303 (b), means and includes all natural condition dried figs acquired by a handler during the crop year which will begin on August 1, 1958, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement, as amended, and order, as amended.

[Docket No. AO-301]

HANDLING OF MILK IN WESTERN COLORADO MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business the 15th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and order, as hereinafter set forth, were formulated, was conducted at Grand Junction, Colorado, on December 10-13, 1957, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued November 19, 1957 (22 F. R. 9394).

The material issues of record related to:

1. Whether the handling of milk produced for sale in the proposed marketing area is in the current of interstate commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products;

2. Whether marketing conditions show the need for the issuance of a milk marketing agreement or order which will tend to effectuate the policy of the act; and

3. If an order is issued what its provisions should be with respect to:

(a) The scope of regulation;

(b) The classification and allocation of milk;

(c) The determination and level of class prices;

(d) Distribution of proceeds to producers; and

Findings and conclusions—1. Character of the commerce. All milk to be regulated by the proposed marketing agreement and order is in the current of interstate commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

The marketing area specified in the order proposed herein includes all territory within three counties located in Western Colorado. There is continuous and substantial interstate commerce in the procurement of milk and the sale of fluid milk and its products to consumers. Two handlers who would be regulated under the proposed order regularly distribute packaged fluid milk products on routes into the counties of Grand and San Juan located in Southeastern Utah. Thus, Western Colorado handlers are in competition with each other across the Colorado-Utah state line, and with handlers located in Utah as well, in the sale of milk and milk products at the wholesale and retail levels.

Substantial quantities of manufactured dairy products, such as cottage cheese, condensed milk, and nonfat dry milk solids are sold in the proposed marketing area from sources located outside of the State of Colorado. The condensed milk is used for the manufacture of ice cream which is distributed locally. The nonfat dry milk solids are used occasionally for the manufacture of cottage cheese and also to fortify fluid milk products.

Producers for the Western Colorado market supply milk primarily for fluid use. However, there is necessarily some reserve for variations in sales and production. This reserve milk is commonly manufactured into butter at local plants and shipped to the west coast for distribution.

On a supplemental basis, substantial quantities of milk produced in Utah and Idaho were imported during the period of July 1956 through February 1957. However during this same period milk was being exported to New Mexico. The total quantity of milk imported during the above period was approximately 768,000 pounds and exports amounted to approximately 384,000 pounds. Thus, milk so imported was commingled with locally produced milk and distributed in bulk and packaged form in Colorado, Utah, and New Mexico.

It will be noted that there is interstate commerce in three major respects; procurement of milk for the market, distribution by handlers, and in close relationship with national markets for manufactured dairy products.

2. Need for an order. Marketing conditions in the Western Colorado area indicate that the issuance of a marketing order, such as that set forth herein, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to milk produced for the Western Colorado market.

Stability of the marketing conditions together with a reasonable certainty of an adequate supply of pure and wholesome milk can be assured for the Western Colorado marketing area only when all milk handlers in the area have substantially equal costs of milk according to use, and only when all farmers supplying milk to each handler in the market receive the same price per hundredweight for Grade A milk.

These conditions do not exist. Most of the handlers distributing milk to consumers in the marketing area purchase their raw milk from farmers affiliated with the Western Colorado Milk Producers Association. The Association has been unable to attain a satisfactory arrangement with respect to checking of weights and tests of milk delivered to handlers by producers, the utilization of milk by the handlers, bargaining for the price to be received by producers for the milk, and the assignment of bases to producers.

Producers were unable to make satisfactory pricing arrangements for the sale of their milk. Prices paid for milk have been determined without consultation with the producers and without regard to the use of the milk. Producers were paid on a base-excess plan throughout the year. Producer bases were fixed most of the time and did not change from year to year as changes occurred in the production and sales patterns. The base prices paid by major handlers in the market had little relationship, if any, to the total Class I sales by their respective plants. Moreover, one handler paid two different base prices to his producers. A discounted base price was paid to producers for milk sold outside of the proposed marketing area.

The Western Colorado handlers have frequently found it necessary to purchase milk from outside sources in order to meet their needs. However, the quantities so purchased, the prices paid by handlers and the times when such milk was needed are not known to the producers. Handlers at times have had to pay more for such milk than the price generally paid to local producers. Moreover, there were times when the imported milk was available at prices lower than prices paid to producers. The producers' lack of knowledge about such outside milk results in mistrust and is a serious handicap to local producers in planning production to supply the market. The availability of surplus milk from other fluid milk markets purchased on an "opportunity" basis is a serious threat to market stability.

These variations in price plans and in net prices paid to producers reflect different raw material costs to various dealers who are selling milk in the marketing area. A condition of unequal costs among handlers may cause them to attempt to economize by reducing returns to producers. This in turn would tend to stimulate successive price reductions by competitors. This development is contrary to the interest of producers and over a period of time may jeopardize an adequate supply of milk. Alternatively, some handlers may attempt to achieve equality by reducing the quantity of their purchases of milk in order to obtain the highest possible proportion of the higher value uses of milk. This reaction, however, may result in intermittent shortages of supply for the market.

If producers receive widely varying prices for their milk, they tend to shift around among milk dealers and to shift in and out of the market. Such shifts may become sufficiently frequent as to jeopardize a dependable supply of pure and wholesome milk.

A marketing agreement and order program is needed to establish and maintain orderly marketing conditions throughout the marketing area. The thorough auditing of the utilization of all milk received by handlers, the checking of butterfat tests and weights of all producer milk, and the publication of complete supply and use data for the market will aid in this objective by assuring producers that they will receive a proper accounting for their milk and by providing full information on market developments.

3. Order provisions. The major provisions of an order suitable for the Western Colorado area will be described in the following portions of this decision.

(a) Marketing area. The marketing area should include all the territory within the counties of Delta, Mesa and Montrose, all in the State of Colorado. The city of Grand Junction is the largest population center in the marketing area. It is estimated that the population in January 1957 of Grand Junction was approximately 20,000 out of a total population of 82,000 in the three-county area.

The three-county area is served exclusively by a group of six handlers. Three of these handlers have bottling plants in Grand Junction at which milk is received from producers. One handler has a bottling plant in the city of Delta and another plant in Grand Junction at which ice cream is manufactured. The latter plant would not be regulated under the attached order. The two other handlers have bottling plants located in the towns of Montrose and Paonia.

Of the six handlers distributing milk in the proposed marketing area, three handlers distribute milk into each of the counties in the proposed marketing area. The sales of the other three handlers are as follows: One handler distributes milk only in the city of Grand Junction. The two handlers whose plants are located in Montrose and Paonia distribute milk only in Montrose and Delta counties, respectively.

In addition to the sales competition, the six handlers also compete actively in the purchase of milk from dairy farmers. The milkshed area is, of course, somewhat larger than the defined marketing area but the farms of most of the producers supplying each of the six handlers are intermingled. Approximately 177 producers supply these six handlers.

The three-county area requires all milk distributed for fluid purposes meet Grade A standards. The State of Colorado has a Grade A law which requires that all milk sold for fluid purposes must be Grade A milk. There are local health departments in Grand Junction and Montrose which have Grade A ordinances similar to the State of Colorado's law but there isn't any provision in these ordinances which restrict the movement of milk in the marketing area. The principal difference between the local ordinance and the State law is that the local health departments issue Grade A permits to the local dairy farmers whereas the State does not. The State inspects only the plants and issues permits to such plants.

Producers proposed that the marketing area also include the counties of Dolores, Garfield, Gunnison, Hinsdale, La Plata, Montezuma, Ouray, San Juan, and San Miguel. The cooperative association had no members delivering milk to the additional handlers who would be regulated, but they considered these counties to be an important and integral portion of the market. The six handlers who would be regulated hereunder and who are served in whole or part by the association testified that there was not any need to include any other territory than the handlers' primary market which would be the marketing area proposed herein. If the above-mentioned counties were included it would be necessary to regulate handlers whose primary market is not located in the Western Colorado area. Since no evidence was presented at the hearing as to the quantity of Class I sales the handlers had in these counties it is safe to assume that the competition was not sufficient to warrant regulation or that their major competition would only come from handlers who would be regulated under the order.

The marketing area as herein defined comprises a contiguous, generally populous territory, served by the same handlers. Such area is, in reality, a single milk market, all parts of which are regulated by health ordinances generally similar in scope and enforcement, and which constitutes a practical unit for the proposed regulation.

(b) Milk to be priced. The type of regulation provided by a milk order is essentially a matter of establishing minimum prices to be paid to dairy farmers who produce milk for the market. The scope of such regulation may be made specific by providing appropriate definitions.

The primary factor in determining which dairy farmers are producers of milk for the marketing area is the disposition of milk from the plant to which they deliver their milk. Market conditions described in the record indicate that the most practical method of order regulation would be to establish minimum prices to all farmers delivering Grade A milk to plants from which such milk is distributed in the marketing area.

In order to qualify under the definitions of the order, any dairy farmer or any milk plant should have the approval of an appropriate health authority for the production or disposition of milk for consumption as Grade A fluid milk. Since approval to produce or distribute milk in the proposed marketing area may be extended to farmers or plants under inspection of other health authorities, no requirement should be made that a dairy farm or a milk plant must hold a permit actually issued by a health authority in the marketing area.

A "fluid milk plant" should be defined as any plant from which Class I milk is disposed of on routes in the marketing area. In delineating the Western Colorado marketing area, it has been noted that all of the milk plants located within this area have a preponderance of their Class I sales within the defined marketing area. Since these milk plants are the only ones from which Class I milk is distributed in the defined marketing area, it is appropriate that the definition of a fluid milk plant should include all milk plants from which Class I milk is disposed of on routes in the marketing area. (To avoid the administrative problem of dealing with insignificant operations, plants from which less than 200 pounds per day of Class I milk may be disposed of on routes in the marketing area are specifically exempted from the pricing and payment provisions of the order.) In other words, any milk plant from which a significant volume of Class I milk is disposed of on routes in the marketing area will be subject to full regulation under the order.

At the present there are no plants serving as receiving stations or regular supply plants for fluid milk plants in this area. Such supplemental shipments as are needed by the market are in most cases of short duration and originate usually from plants located in Utah. It appears at this time that effective regulation in the marketing area may be accomplished without regulating supply plants which furnish only incidental shipments of bulk milk to fluid milk plants. If, in the future, supply plants serve as regular sources of supply for the market or supplies from such sources displace local producer milk, the question of pricing milk at such plants should be considered at another hearing.

Milk received at a regulated plant from plants not subject to the Western Colorado order should be designated as other source milk and allocated first to the lowest priced uses of the reporting handler. This procedure is necessary to assign the fluid milk sales to the regular producers who supply milk to the fluid plants and to preserve the effectiveness of the classified pricing plan.

Fluid milk plants from which a higher proportion of the Class I sales is disposed of in the marketing area under another Federal order need not be subject to this regulation provided that such plant is fully subject to regulation under the other order. It would not be feasible to extend regulation to such plants because to do so would subject them to duplicate regulation under the act. Provision should be made for the operators of such plants to report their receipts and utilization to the market administrator as may be necessary to determine their status under the order.

A "nonfluid milk plant" should be defined as any milk plant other than a fluid milk plant. The term "route" is used in the definition of a fluid milk plant to cover a number of types of distributing operations in which handlers may engage in the proposed marketing area. "Route" should be defined as any delivery to retail or wholesale outlets (including a sale from a plant or plant store) of a fluid milk product other than a delivery to any milk processing plant.

"Handler" should be defined as the operator of a fluid milk plant. The operator of any fluid milk plant is included in order to require such a person to report to the market administrator and apply other order provisions pertaining to such handlers. The handler is the person to whom the provisions of the regulation are applicable. He is the person who receives the milk from dairy farmers and who is responsible for reporting receipts and utilization of milk at each fluid milk plant. He is also responsible for paying producers minimum prices. If a handler operates both a fluid milk plant and a nonfluid milk plant, this definition is not intended to include such person as an operator of such latter plant.

"Producer" should be defined as any person who produces milk in compliance with inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority for Grade A milk for fluid consumption and whose milk is received at a fluid milk plant. This definition is intended to include the producers of milk for fluid use whose milk is supplied by a fluid milk plant to Federal installations within the marketing area. Provision should also be made to include a producer whose milk is diverted to a nonfluid milk plant by the handler for his account. The milk of producers which is diverted by a handler should continue to be pooled with the milk of his other producers so that the producers whose milk is diverted will be paid the handler's uniform price. This will facilitate the movement of milk to nonfluid milk plants for the purpose of adjusting utilization to short-term variations in supply and preserve the producer status of such dairy farmer so that his milk production will be available to supply the market's fluid milk needs at other times. For purposes of applying location differentials diverted milk should be deemed to have been received at the plant from which it was diverted.

"Producer-handler" should be defined as any person who receives receiver milk from his own dairy farms (but not from other producers) and who distributes fluid milk products in the marketing area. He may purchase supplemental milk for Class I use from fluid milk plants under the order. Producer-handlers should be subject to the order only to the extent that they must submit reports to the market administrator as required and maintain and make available to the market administrator accounts, records and facilities so that he may verify that such persons are producer-handlers.

The proponents proposed that any producer-handler who distributes more than 1,000 pounds of Class I milk per day on routes in the marketing area would lose his producer-handler status and become a fully regulated handler. The 1,000 pound limitation on a producer-handler under individual-handler pools has no value because the producer-handler would not have to make any equalization payments as he would under a marketwide pool. However, at the time of the hearing there were no producer-handlers distributing Class I milk in the marketing area. In view of the fact that the order provides for individual-handler pools and there are no producer-handlers in the market there is no need to place a quantity limitation on a producer-handler's Class I sales in the marketing area.

The classification provisions of the proposed order should provide that any milk, skim milk or cream transferred by a handler to a producer-handler will be Class I milk. Any supplemental milk which a producer-handler obtains from other handlers must, by virtue of the nature of the operation involved, be presumed to be needed for fluid use and should be classified in the supplying handler's plant as Class I milk. A producer-handler may receive milk from other handlers and still maintain his status as a producer-handler. Any milk which a handler receives from a producer-handler should be considered as other source milk and allocated to the lowest class utilization at the fluid milk plant of a handler after the allocation of shrinkage on producer milk. Milk disposed of to another handler by a producer-handler must be presumed to be surplus to the operation of the producer-handler.

"Other source milk" should be defined as all skim milk and buttterfat contained in milk and milk products utilized by the handler in his operation except milk received from producers and fluid milk products received from other fluid milk plants. It will include all fluid milk and fluid milk products from plans other than fluid milk plants and all manufactured dairy products from any source which are reprocessed or converted into another product during the month. It will include those manufactured products from a plant's own production or from other fluid milk plants which are reprocessed or converted into another product in the plant during the same or a later month.

A "fluid milk product" should be defined as any product which the duly constituted health authority in the marketing area require be made from Grade A milk. These products would be milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream (sweet or sour, including any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk), and concentrated (frozen or fresh) milk, flavored milk, or flavored milk drinks which are neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans.

(c) Classification of milk. All milk and milk products received by a handler should be classified on the basis of skim milk and butterfat according to the form in which or the purpose for which it is used or disposed of as Class I, Class II or Class III milk. The handlers proposed a single surplus class, but the reasons for the three classifications of skim milk and butterfat are discussed in detail under Class Prices.

Skim milk and butterfat are not used in most products in the same proportion as contained in the milk received from producers, and therefore, should be classified separately according to their separate uses. The skim milk and butterfat content of milk products received and disposed of by handlers can be determined through recognized testing procedures. Some of these products such as ice cream and condensed products present an accounting problem in that some of the water contained in the milk has been removed. It is necessary in the case of such products to provide an acceptable means of ascertaining the amount of skim milk and butterfat used to produce them. This may be established through the use of adequate plant records made available to the market administrator for products produced by the handler or by means of standard conversion factors for products purchased by the handler. The accounting procedure to be used in the case of any milk product should be based on the pounds of milk or skim milk required to produce such products.

Class I milk. The products which should be included in Class I milk are those generally required by health authorities having jurisdiction in the marketing area to be made from milk or milk products from approved Grade A sources. The extra cost of getting quality milk produced and delivered to a market in the condition and quantities required makes it necessary to provide a price for milk for Class I utilization above the ungraded or manufacturing milk price.

Class I milk should include all the products defined in the fluid milk products provision. All of the enumerated forms of milk contained in the fluid milk product definition are required by the health authorities having jurisdiction in the defined marketing area to be made from milk produced on farms approved to supply milk for fluid use. Buttermilk is an exception to this since it is not required to be made from Grade A milk. However, all the handlers in the Western Colorado market make buttermilk out of Grade A milk and proposed that such product be included in Class I milk.

The Class I products which contain concentrated skim milk solids such as skim milk drinks and buttermilk to which extra solids are added or concentrated whole milk disposed of in fresh or frozen form for fluid use should be included under the Class I definition. Products such as evaporated or condensed milk in bulk, or packaged in hermetically sealed cans, should not be considered as concentrated milk.

Class II milk should be all the skim milk and butterfat used to produce ice cream, imitation ice cream, frozen desserts, ice cream mix, imitation ice cream mix, frozen dessert mix, yogurt, eggnog, aerated cream, skim condensed milk, whole condensed milk, cottage cheese curd and cream used in the creaming of cottage cheese curd. Although these products are not required to be made of Grade A milk, when local Grade A milk is available these products are made from milk of approved sources. When local milk is not available such products as high quality, low temperature spray process nonfat dry milk are desired and used for these products. Most of the products contained in the definition of Class II are commonly made in local plants at little or no haul cost. Therefore, milk used to produce Class II products should be classified differently from the milk used to produce Class III products.

Class III milk should be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce all products not specified in Class I or Class II. Included in Class III are butter, cheese, evaporated and condensed milk, nonfat dry milk, and other products not designated as Class I or Class II.

Class III should include actual shrinkage on producer milk in an amount not in excess of 2 percent of receipts directly from producers and actual shrinkage on other source milk. Unaccounted for milk in excess of a reasonable allowance for plant loss should be Class I in order to require full accounting by handlers for their receipts. Two percent is considered reasonable maximum allowance for this purpose. An efficiently operated fluid milk plant should be able to keep its shrinkage within this allowance. No limit should be placed on shrinkage of other source milk. Such milk is deducted from the lowest use class under the allocation provision. Since it is not feasible to segregate shrinkage of producer milk from that of other source milk in the same plant, total shrinkage is prorated on the basis of the volume of receipts.

Class III should also include any skim milk and butterfat which is dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator or for livestock feed to the extent that verifiable records of such utilization are maintained by the handler.

Butterfat and skim milk used to produce Class II and Class III products should be considered to be disposed of when so used. Handlers will need to maintain stock records of such products, however, to permit audit of their utilization records by the market administrator. Class II and Class III products from any source which are used during the month in the production of another product should be subject to a reclassification charge if they are used in a higher price class. This will maintain priority of assignment of current receipts of producer milk to Class I utilization.

Handlers have inventories of milk and milk products at the beginning and end of each month which enter into the accounting for current receipts and utilization. Inventory is intended to include stocks on hand of bulk milk, skim milk, cream, bottled milk and other fluid milk products designated as Class I. Manufactured products (Class II and Class III) on hand are not included in the inventory account because the milk used to produce such products will already have been accounted for. However, handlers will need to keep records of such products but they will not be included in inventory for the purposes of accounting for current receipts.

It is concluded that inventory should be accounted for as Class III milk. If fluid milk products in inventory are accounted for as Class III milk at the end of a month, it will be necessary to provide a method to deal with the producer milk inventory which is used in the current month for Class I purposes but which the handler accounted for to producers as Class III milk at the end of the previous month. In plants which engage primarily in a fluid milk business, it is quite possible that a decrease in inventory in any given month may exceed their total utilization of milk in Class III. Handlers, at times, also use other source milk in their operations. Producer milk from inventory should have prior claim on Class I sales over current receipts of other source milk. This can be accomplished by considering the ending inventory in one month as a receipt in the following month and subtracting such receipt (under the allocation procedure) in series starting with Class III milk following the subtraction of other source milk. To the extent that opening inventory is allocated to Class I and Class II milk and there was an equivalent amount of producer milk classified in Class III milk in the previous month (after the allocation of other source milk) a reclassification charge should be made at the difference between the Class I or Class II price in the current month and the Class III price in the preceding month. This will promote equality in the cost of milk among handlers and returns to producers, irrespective of whether or not such producer milk is from the previous month's ending inventory or is a current receipt.

Transfers. With respect to milk utilized in any given plant, the above described classification rules apply.

However, since some Class I items may be disposed of to other milk plants for processing, separate classification procedure should be prescribed for transfers to other plants.

Milk, skim milk, cream or other products designated as Class I milk transferred by a handler to the fluid milk plant of another handler, except that of a producer-handler, should be classified as Class I milk unless both handlers indicate in their reports to the market administrator that they desire such milk to be classified as Class II or Class III milk. However, sufficient Class II or Class III utilization must be available at the transferee plant for such assignment after prior allocation of shrinkage and other source milk, as described below. On the other hand, if the transferring handler had other source milk during the month, the assignment of products transferred to another plant to the Class I utilization of such plant should be limited so that other source milk in the transferring handler's plant will not be allocated to Class I milk while at the same time producer milk is allocated to Class II and Class III milk in the transferee handler's plant.

Milk, skim milk, or cream transferred in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant located more than 350 miles distant from the City Hall in Grand Junction should be classified as Class I. There are adequate facilities for the manufacture of excess milk into manufactured products within a radius of 350 miles. Both Salt Lake City and Denver are within this radius. The automatic classification as Class I of milk, skim milk or cream moved more than 350 miles is administratively necessary in order to reduce the administrative expense which would otherwise be involved in having the market administrator verify actual utilization in nonfluid milk plants located at extreme distances from the market.

The more common form of transfer to a nonfluid milk plant by Western Colorado handlers is the movement of excess milk to nearby manufacturing plants. It is provided that transfers of milk, skim milk, or cream from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant located less than 350 miles distant be Class I unless Class II or Class III use is affirmatively established. Evidence of such use consists of a certification by the fluid milk plant operator that the transfer was intended for Class II or Class III use, and verification by the market administrator of the records made available by the nonfluid milk plant operator shows an equivalent quantity was so utilized.

Allocation. In view of the fact that the order class prices apply only to producer milk it is necessary, if a fluid milk plant has butterfat or skim milk other than that received in producer milk, to determine the quantities of milk in each class to be assigned to current receipts from producers. The milk received from producers (as defined herein) should be assigned to Class I before other milk is so assigned. The dairy farmers defined under the order as producers are the dairy farmers for whom minimum prices are established under the order and those relied upon to produce an adequate supply of milk for the market. If handlers were permitted to assign producer milk to Class II or Class III, while at the same time assigning milk received from other sources to Class I, the returns from the sale of Class I milk would not accrue to those farmers for whom minimum prices are established and who are relied upon to provide an adequate supply of milk for the market. Thus, the prior assignment of producer milk to Class I is essential to insure the effectiveness of the classified pricing program, under the order, and to effectuate the purposes of the act. The system of assigning utilization of milk to receipts from different sources which will carry out this objective is set forth in § 980.46 of the order.

Under this procedure, the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, remaining in each class is assigned to producer milk by making the following deductions from the gross utilization of each handler starting with Class III milk:

(1) Class III shrinkage of producer milk;

(2) Other source milk as defined in § 980.13;

(3) Beginning inventory;

(4) Receipts from other handlers (according to classification);

(5) Overage.

Since uniform prices paid producers by each handler are to be calculated monthly, the assignment of utilization described should be carried out with respect to all milk received during each month. To apply a shorter accounting period would place an accounting and reporting burden upon handlers and increase the cost of administering the order.

(d) Class prices. Class I prices should be established at a level which, together with appropriate Class II and Class III prices, will return to producers a uniform price sufficient to bring forth the required supply of Grade A milk throughout the year. Class I prices established too low will result in the production of insufficient milk to meet the Class I needs of the market. On the other hand, prices at too high a level will stimulate production and bring to the market more milk than is necessary to satisfy the Class I needs, including a reasonable reserve. The development of uneconomic reserves of Grade A milk will tend to depress the price paid to producers for the market.

Basic formula price. In their proposal, the producers suggested that a basic formula price and differential method of pricing be established. The purpose of the basic formula price is to reflect the national market price for milk used in manufacturing dairy products. Because the market for most manufactured products is nationwide, prices of such products reflect, to a large extent, changes in the general economic conditions affecting the supply and demand for ungraded milk. These prices, in turn, influence the local market prices for the same uses of milk. For these reasons, in most fluid milk markets it has been found appropriate to use the prices for butter and nonfat dry milk solids, or the prices paid by condenseries (with differentials over these basic manufacturing prices) to establish fluid milk prices. The differential added to the basic formula price should reflect the additional costs of getting Grade A milk produced and delivered to consumers in the quantities required meet the needs for fluid consumption in the Western Colorado marketing area. The use of alternative components as included in the attached order in the determination of the basic formula price will reflect the basic factors affecting the value of manufacturing milk at any given time.

The basic formula price should be the higher of (a) the prices paid by Wisconsin and Michigan condenseries for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat, or (b) a price calculated from a formula using the prices of butter and nonfat dry milk. This basic formula pricing plan is similar to that proposed by the proponents at the hearing except that for the sake of uniformity the same formula as is used in the Southwest Kansas and Wichita, Kansas, orders has been used.

The condensery price is the same as that proposed by producers and commonly used in Federal orders. However, a somewhat higher butter-powder formula should be used than that proposed by producers. The formula price per hundredweight of 3.5 percent milk should be comprised of a butterfat value equal to the price of 92-score butter at Chicago less a "make" allowance of 3 cents, multiplied by a yield factor of 4.2 and a skim milk value equal to the average prices of spray and roller process nonfat dry milk at Chicago area manufacturing plants less a "make" allowance of 5.5 cents multiplied by a yield factor of 8.2. The principal reason for using a higher butter-powder formula is that markets closest to the Western Colorado area. At the support prices prevailing during the April 1958–March 1959 marketing season, the Southwest Kansas and Wichita formulas would produce a price of $2.94 for 3.5 percent milk and the basic formula proposed by producers would be only $2.81. Since inter-market relationships constitute a major factor in the use of basic formulas, the formulae already used in the Wichita and Southwest Kansas orders should be adopted.

Class I differential. For the first 18 months of the operation of an order for the Western Colorado area, the minimum Class I price per hundredweight of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content should be determined during the months of March, April, May, and June by adding a differential of $1.60 to the basic formula price for the preceding month and during all other months such differential should be $2.05.

Some time after the order has been in operation a full year, a hearing can be called to consider more permanent Class I price provisions. At such time considerable marketwide data on all aspects of the marketing of milk in the area will have become available. These data can be expected to provide for a reappraisal of the Class I price structure, including the supply-demand adjustment.

The proponents proposed a Class I differential of $2.45 per hundredweight over the basic formula price. They presented testimony that such a price was needed because of the higher costs of production and transportation in the Western Colorado area than in surrounding areas. The proposed Class I price would have averaged $5.47, $5.56 and $5.59 in 1955, 1956 and 1957, respectively.

The historical prices paid for fluid milk for bottling purposes vary to a large extent in the market. At present there is no classified payment plan operating in the market. Producers are paid on a base and excess plan. The base price was reportedly tied to the amount of fluid sales each handler had in his plant and, therefore, constitutes the closest available approximation to a historical Class I price.

Although the producers were paid either on a per hundredweight or per pound of fat basis, the historical prices stated below have been converted to a Class I differential over a basic formula price. The basic formula price used is the same one provided in the proposed order applicable to the period. In 1955 the price paid to producers for base milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content by two of the three largest handlers averaged $2.19 over a basic formula price of $3.06 (for a total of $5.25 per hundredweight) f. o. b. the plant. During the same period another large handler paid two different base prices to his producers yielding Class I differentials of $1.14 (total price of $4.20 per hundredweight) and $2.19 ($5.25 per hundredweight). The Class I differential of $1.14 was paid to producers whose milk was purported to have been sold outside of the marketing area provided herein. The prices per hundredweight paid to producers for base milk did not change from January 1955 through February 1957, although manufacturing values, as measured by the basic formula, varied somewhat.

In March 1957 the handler who paid the two different base prices increased them by 17 cents per hundredweight, but at the same time another handler decreased his base paying price. For the first 10 months of 1957 the average Class I differential over the basic formula price of $3.14 paid for base milk in the Western Colorado market by all handlers, weighted by producer numbers, was $1.84 ($4.98 per hundredweight) f. o. b. the plant. During this period the range of average Class I differentials was from $1.20 ($4.34) to $2.25 ($5.39) and of the total of 177 producers delivering to the six plants which would be regulated 43 producers received a Class I differential of $1.20 ($4.34), 4 producers received $1.30 ($4.54), 66 producers received $1.98 ($5.12), 34 producers received $2.11 ($5.25) and 30 producers received $2.25 ($5.39). It is obvious that a significant number of new producers have been willing to supply milk under open bases at a Class I differential of about $1.20. However, it is unlikely that such a price would bring forth an adequate supply of milk for the market since these shippers still represent less than one quarter of the total and have not had sufficient cost experience to determine whether they can produce permanently at the low price. Therefore, it is concluded that Class I differentials of $1.60 during the months of March, April, May and June and $2.05 during all other months would be more nearly in line with the prices which have been paid to the majority of producers.

A second guide to the appropriate level of Class I prices is the cost of alternative supplies of milk. If the Class I price in the Western Colorado market were established at a price which exceeded the cost of supplies from alternative sources over any extended period of time there would be an incentive for handlers to reduce their purchases from local producers and purchase milk from outside sources.

Supplemental milk was imported during the months of July 1956 through February 1957, mostly from Salt Lake City. The prices paid for this milk varied from $1.00 per pound of fat ($3.50 per hundredweight of 3.5 milk) in the latter part of January and the first part of February to $1.50 per pound of fat ($5.25 per hundredweight) during July of 1956. The hauling cost on this milk was 70 cents per hundredweight. The f. o. b. Grand Junction price of such milk at 3.5 percent butterfat would have ranged from $4.20 to $5.95, as compared with the average Class I price of $5.25 provided herein for the same period.

The cost of supplemental milk from the usual midwestern sources of supply would be higher than the Class I price provided herein. A handler in Springfield, Missouri, said he could have delivered 3.5 percent milk to Grand Junction during the month of November 1957 for $6.28 per hundredweight. A handler in St. Paul, Minnesota, quoted a price of $6.25 per hundredweight for the same period. A handler from Minneapolis, however, quoted a price of $5.92 per hundredweight f. o. b. Grand Junction for milk delivered on a year-round basis. The prices quoted exceed the proposed average Class I price of $5.04 during the year of 1957.

The seasonality of the Class I differentials herein proposed, 45 cents less in March through June than in other months, gives greater incentive to the production of milk for the market in those months of normally short production. This seasonal variation in the Class I price differential is particularly important in view of the absence of a base-rating plan. (The base-rating plan is covered in more detail in another section of this decision.) On the basis of the prices which have been paid to producers in the past few years, the cost of supplemental supplies from other markets, and the advisability of providing an incentive for level production, it is concluded that Class I differentials of $1.60 for the flush months of March through June and $2.05 for the months of July through February will be appropriate.

Class II price. The Class II price should reflect a value for milk used to produce cottage cheese, ice cream and related products in the Western Colorado market. The price for such milk should be the basic formula price for the current month plus 60 cents.

Milk used for these purposes should command a premium over milk used in the manufacture of the major nationally marketed dairy products such as butter, nonfat dry milk, hard cheese and evaporated milk. The premium is based on the lower transportation and handling cost, the superior quality of Grade A milk in the manufacture of these products, and the cost of alternative sources of ingredients.

In this market much of the reserve supply of milk that is needed because handlers' Class I sales fluctuate on a daily basis is converted into such products as cottage cheese, ice cream and related products in handlers' plants or other nearby plants. Transportation and rehandling costs are either eliminated or minimized.

Ungraded milk for these purposes commands a higher price than milk used in the manufacture of Class III products. As an example, a local ice cream plant has paid $3.85 per hundredweight for ungraded milk of 3.5 percent butterfat for use in ice cream. The price level of Class II milk should not be below that paid for ungraded milk for the same use, since such "pay" prices represent the prevailing value for milk for such uses. It is to be expected that milk in excess of Class I uses will be used in the highest valued manufactured products.

The cost of alternative supplies of milk for Class II use are more than the prices the handler must pay for butterfat and milk solids from producers.

Cream purchased from Springfield, Missouri, would cost the handlers about 75 to 80 cents per pound of butterfat delivered to Grand Junction. Milk solids purchased in the form of nonfat dry milk or condensed milk would cost the handler approximately $1.10 to $1.435 per hundredweight of skim milk equivalent. Thus, the total price paid for butterfat and milk solids would be more than the price per hundredweight handlers would be required to pay local producers for milk used in Class II products.

Class III price. The minimum Class III price per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content should be the basic butter-powder formula price less 13 cents.

The problem of disposing of milk not needed for Class I or Class II purposes was discussed in detail at the hearing. When the local handlers have surplus milk over their Class I and Class II needs the only local outlets they have are two small butter plants which buy only cream. In most cases the skim milk would be returned to the producers for livestock feed or dumped down the sewer.

The prices paid at the local butter plants ran between 55 to 57 cents per pound of butterfat with 10-cent premium on sweet cream during the first 10 months of 1957 for a 3.5 percent value of $2.28 to $2.35 per hundredweight. The Class III price provided herein would have averaged $2.97 for 1957. The butterfat value of Class III milk would be 71.5 cents per pound of fat or $2.50 of the Class III price in 1957. Under the 1958–1959 support price level the Class III price will be $2.71 of which the butterfat value will be $2.43 or 69.3 cents per pound of butterfat. Thus, the major portion of the Class III price is contained in the value placed on the butterfat and relatively little value is placed on the skim milk.

Equivalent price. The order should include a provision that whenever a price quotation is not available, a price which is determined by the Secretary to be equivalent should be used. Price series may be unavailable through such causes as failure to report, termination of marketing quotations resulting from changes in dairy marketing, and combining or termination of other Federal orders.

Butterfat differentials. As pointed out previously herein, butterfat and skim milk should be accounted for separately for classification purposes. Since it is concluded that the class prices should be established for milk containing 3.5 percent butterfat, it will be necessary to adjust class prices in accordance with the average test of milk in each class by a butterfat differential which will reflect differences in the value of the milk due to variations in the butterfat content. The values resulting from multiplying the average price of 92-score butter of Chicago by 0.135 for Class I and by 0.120 for Class II and Class III milk will provide an appropriate basis for adjusting such prices in this market. These adjustments will reflect changes in the central market price of butterfat. The Class II and Class III butterfat differential reflects the local value of butterfat in milk or cream utilized for manufacturing purposes. The Class I butterfat differential reflects a somewhat higher value assigned to butterfat in milk, cream and other fluid milk products. However, it will be noted that the major portion of the Class I price differential over the manufacturing values is assigned to skim milk.

The use of butterfat differentials in this manner follows standard practices in most fluid milk markets for adjusting prices of milk of various butterfat contents. In order that the Class I butterfat differential may be announced early each month, it is provided that the Class I butterfat differential be based on the average price of butter for the preceding month. This will permit the announcement of the Class I butterfat differential at the same time the Class I price is announced.

The Class II and Class III prices and butterfat differentials will not be announced until the end of the month. Handlers, however, will know that the prices of such milk will follow the central market prices for butter and nonfat solids and the competitive price paid for manufacturing milk.

The butterfat differentials to producers for milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat should correspond to the weighted average values of butterfat and skim milk in producer milk utilized by handlers in each class. This follows the same principle as the payment of a uniform price to all producers. Each producer shares equally in the total value of the handler's Class I, Class II and Class III utilization, at the basic test of 3.5 percent butterfat. It is equally appropriate that each should receive the average utilization value of butterfat and skim milk components for milk testing above or below 3.5 percent. It is probable that the weighted average will be slightly below the differential for Class I milk of 0.135 times the butter price because it will be heavily weighted by the Class I uses. The net result will, therefore, be close to the differential of 0.135 times the butter price proposed by producers.

Location differentials. Class I milk products, because of their bulky, perishable nature, incur a relatively high transportation charge if moved a considerable distance. Milk delivered directly by farmers to plants in or near the urban centers in the marketing area is therefore worth more to a handler than milk which is received from farmers at a plant located many miles from the market. This is so because in the latter instance the handler must incur the additional cost of moving that milk into the central market. The producer, in turn, receives less for milk delivered to points distant from the market area in lieu of incurring the additional cost of hauling his milk into the central market. Under these conditions the value of producer milk delivered to plants located some distance from the central market is reduced in proportion to the distance (and the cost of transporting such milk) from the point of receipt to the central market.

It is conceivable that a distant plant not subject to another order, such as one located at Salt Lake City, Utah, could become regulated by this order. Such a plant would be located approximately 200 miles from Grand Junction, Colorado. Thus, the operator of this plant would incur a substantial transportation cost on the bulk or packaged milk before reaching any portion of the marketing area and should be allowed an offsetting credit in order to be fully competitive with the fluid milk plants located within the marketing area. In order to allow for the cost of moving Class I milk from distant plants that might become route distributors in the Western Colorado marketing area, it is necessary to establish the Class I price for such milk delivered to plants at a point in the market and then provide a schedule of deductions from the Class I price as location differentials. This will place all handlers on an equal competitive basis on the Class I milk distributed in the marketing area.

Grand Junction is the population center of the marketing area and represents a central point from which location differentials should be based. The distance used in determining location differentials should be measured from the Courthouse at Grand Junction, Colorado, by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator.

The location differential rates in Federal orders vary considerably. The Texas Panhandle rates are 35 cents in 100–110 mile zone plus 1.6 cents for each additional 10-mile zone. The Greater Kansas City rates are 16 cents in the 50–70 mile zone plus one-half cent for each additional 10 miles thereafter. The Oklahoma Metropolitan rates are 10 cents in the 50–150 mile zone, 2 cents per each 15 miles in the 150–240 mile zone and plus one cent for each additional 15 miles in excess of 240 miles. The Neosho Valley rates are 10 cents in the 50–60 mile zone plus 2 cents for each additional 15 miles. The Ozarks rate is 1.5 cents per 10 miles distance from the nearest point in the marketing area. The Southwest Kansas rates are 7.5 in the 100–110 mile zone plus 1.5 cents for each additional 10 miles.

The initial mileage zone should not be quite as large as the initial mileage zone in the Oklahoma Metropolitan market but large enough to encompass all the fluid milk plants presently serving the marketing area. Since all the fluid milk plants serving the marketing area are located within 100 miles of Grand Junction, there should not be any location differential applicable at plants located in the 0–100 mile zone. Accordingly, a rate of 15 cents should be established for the 100–110 mile zone plus 1.5 cents for each additional 10-mile zone. The location differential applicable to Salt Lake City and Denver plants would be 43.5 cents and 39 cents, respectively.

A method should be provided for determining the priority of milk from various plants in allocating to Class I for the purpose of computing the aggregate of location differentials to be allowed. Such differentials would be made for each handler in sequence beginning with milk received directly from producers and then milk received from those plants which have the lowest location differential.

The producer should receive less for milk delivered to points which are distant from the marketing area in lieu of incurring the additional cost of hauling his milk to the marketing area. Under these conditions the value of producer milk delivered to plants should be reduced in proportion to the distance that such plant is from Grand Junction by the same rate that applies to Class I milk.

(e) Distribution to producers of proceeds from the sale of milk—Individual-handler pooling. Returns to producers should be distributed by means of individual-handler pools rather than by a marketwide pool.

Under individual-handler pooling the producers supplying each of the regulated handlers would be paid a blend price based upon that particular handler's proportionate utilization of milk in Class I, Class II, and Class III. Handlers would pay for milk on the basis of its class use value under either type of pooling. Also under either type of pooling, uniform prices are announced for milk of a given butterfat content delivered to a given point or zone. Milk of other butterfat content or delivered to distant plants would be subject to butterfat and location differentials.

Milk marketing conditions in the Western Colorado area make individual-handler pooling feasible. This is a comparatively small market, is more nearly isolated and self-contained than most milk marketing areas, and supply and demand for Grade A milk is closely balanced at all of the handler's plants. All the distributors who would be regulated hereunder are specialized in fluid milk operations and have little manufacturing equipment other than vats for the manufacture of the cottage cheese.

Individual-handler pooling is somewhat simpler to administer than a marketwide pool. It not only avoids the pooling of funds but also involves less complicated standards for determining which plants are subject to regulation.

Producers favored a marketwide pool because of their concern with the widely varying treatment accorded them by the several handlers in the past. However, the order would provide several very substantial elements of uniformity that have not been present in the absence of regulation. It would provide a uniform system of classification and class prices supplemented by a thorough system of audit and check weighing and testing. It would also provide timely and dependable information on marketing conditions to all interested parties. It appears highly likely that under these circumstances there would be only small differences in the uniform prices payable to producers by each of the handlers. The attached order also specifically requires each handler to make payment to any duly authorized cooperative association for producer member milk delivered to such handler. The act specifies that the cooperative association which receives payment for member milk may reblend the proceeds from the sale of milk to the various handlers and distribute the returns uniformly among all producer members.

If actual operation of an order reveals that the differences in blend prices are of sufficient magnitude and persistence as to create substantial marketing difficulties, consideration could be given to the adoption of a marketwide pool.

Base and excess plan. A base and excess plan should not be used in the Western Colorado market as a method of distributing returns among producers and in order to encourage level production.

For a number of years the majority of producers supplying the Western Colorado market have been operating under a "closed" base or quota plan. Under this plan total bases were held to approximately each handlers' level of Class I sales and new or established producers were allowed to make new base only to the extent a handler might need additional milk to satisfy his requirements. The producers did not know in advance which months would be the base-forming months for use in determining their bases in the following year if the handler allowed the producers to set new bases. In some instances producers were able to obtain or increase their bases by purchasing dairy cows with earned bases and by just buying the base itself.

At the hearing both the handlers and producers favored a base-rating plan under which new bases would be established by each producer each year but with the base-forming months not known in advance. The base-forming months would be the 4 months of lowest production in relation to Class I sales, as ascertained after the end of the year. This contrasts with the practice of establishing the base-forming months in advance as is done in all the Federal orders which utilize base-rating plans to encourage level production. It was contended that with advance notice and an opportunity to set new bases each year, producers would over-respond to a base plan. Clearly, the unknown base-forming period was desired for its effect on total production rather than as a means of leveling the seasonality of production.

The base plan endorsed by producers and the handlers would supplant the function which is intended under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act to be performed by the class prices established at the level required by the act. The act requires that prices established for milk be such as to assure an adequate supply for the market, reflect supply and demand conditions, and be in the public interest. Consequently, it would be contrary to the purpose of the act, if order provisions hinder the free action of forces of supply and demand so as to prevent attainment of an adequate supply of milk for the market at price levels which are in line with supply and demand conditions and in the public interest. In view of these considerations as to the purposes of the law under which Federal orders are issued, it would not be proper to establish a base plan which would tend to restrict the volume of milk produced for the market.

It would be difficult to predict what producer responses would be under a base plan when such producer has been under a quota plan for several years. There would probably be a great incentive to producers to increase their production which would nullify the function of any "open" base plan. Therefore, it would be more effective to level out production with the pricing provisions of the order than to level out production with an open type of base-rating plan.

Payments to individual producers and to members of cooperative associations. Each handler should make final payment to each producer for milk delivered by such producer at the appropriate uniform price on or before the 15th day of the month following receipt of the milk. Provision is made for partial payments on milk received during the first 15 days of the month, such payment to be made on or before the 28th day of the month.

Payments due any producer for milk should be paid by the handler to a cooperative association if the cooperative association makes a written request for such payment and if the producer has given the cooperative association written authorization, in the form of a contract or in any other form, to collect such payments. The association's request should also provide for indemnifying the handler for any loss incurred because of any improper claim.

Provision is made for handlers to make payments to a cooperative association two days in advance of the time the handler is required to make payments to individual producers in order that all producers will receive payment on approximately the same date.

In making such payments for producer milk to a cooperative association, the handler should at the same time furnish the cooperative association with a statement showing the name of each producer for whom payment is being made, the volume and average butterfat content of milk delivered by each such producer, and the amount of and reasons for any deductions which the handler withheld from the amount payable to each producer. This statement is necessary so the cooperative association can make proper distribution of the money to producers for whom it collects payment.

Unless a cooperative association can receive payment for the milk marketed on behalf of its producer-members, it cannot reblend the sales proceeds from milk sold in various outlets. This important function is specifically provided for in the act.

(f) Other administrative provisions. In addition to those provisions heretofore determined to be appropriate, certain other provisions should be contained in the order to carry out, from an administrative viewpoint, the purposes of the regulation. Certain terms and definitions are desirable in the interest of brevity and to assure that the usage of a term always implies the same meaning. The terms that are defined in the proposed order are common to many other Federal milk orders. Provision should be made for the appointment by the Secretary of a market administrator to administer the order and to set forth the powers and duties for such agent.

Records and reports. Provisions should be included in the order for the purpose of requiring handlers to maintain adequate records of their operations and to make certain reports as may be required by the market administrator. Certain time limits must be prescribed for filing such reports and for making payments to producers. Dates must also be established for the announcement of prices by the market administrator. The following schedule will afford interested parties sufficient time to perform the functions as indicated below:

Day of Month and Function

6th—Announcement by the market administrator of Class I price and butterfat differential for current month and Class II and Class III prices and butterfat differentials for preceding month.

7th—Submission by handlers of monthly reports of receipts and utilization for preceding month.

10th—Announcement by market administrator of uniform price for each handler and notification to handlers of value for their producer milk received during the preceding month.

13th—Final payments by handlers to cooperative associations for milk received during the preceding month.

15th—Final payments by handlers to individual producers for milk received during preceding month and payments to market administrator for administrative assessment and marketing service deductions.

20th—Submission of producer payroll report by handlers for preceding month.

26th—Partial payments by handlers to cooperative associations.

28th—Partial payments by handlers to individual producers.

Handlers should maintain and make available to the market administrator all records and accounts of their operations, and such facilities as are necessary to determine the accuracy of the information, submit such reports to the market administrator as he may deem necessary and furnish to him or his representative any other information upon which the classification of producer milk depends. The market administrator must likewise be permitted to check the accuracy of weights and tests of milk and milk products received and handled and to verify all payments required under the order.

It is necessary that handlers retain records to prove the utilization of the milk received from, and that proper payments were made to, producers. Since the books of all handlers associated with the market cannot be audited immediately after the milk has been delivered to a plant, it is necessary that such records be kept for a reasonable period of time.

The order should provide for specific limitations of the time that handlers should be required to retain their books and records and the period of time in which obligations under the order should terminate. Provision made in this regard is identical in principle with the general amendment made to all milk orders in operation on July 30, 1947, following the Secretary's decision of January 26, 1949 (14 F. R. 444). That decision covering the retention of records and limitation of claims is equally applicable in this situation and is adopted as a part of this decision.

Expense of administration. Each handler should be required to pay the market administrator, as the handler's pro rata share of the cost of administering the order, not more than five cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amounts as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, on (a) receipts of producer milk (including such handler's own production) and (b) other source milk in a fluid milk plant which is classified as Class I milk.

The market administrator must have sufficient funds to enable him to administer properly the terms of the order. The act provides that such cost of administration shall be financed through an assessment on handlers. One of the duties of the market administrator is to verify the receipts and disposition of milk from all sources. The record indicates that other source milk is received by handlers to supplement local producer supplies of milk. Equity in sharing the cost of administration of the order among handlers will be achieved, therefore, by applying the administrative assessment to all producer milk (including handler's own production) and other source milk allocated to Class I milk.

In view of the anticipated volume of milk and the cost of administering orders in markets of comparable circumstances, it is concluded that an initial rate of five cents per hundredweight is necessary to meet the expenses of administration. Provision should be made to enable the Secretary to reduce the rate of assessment below the five cents per hundredweight maximum without necessitating an amendment to the order. This should be done at any time experience in the market reveals that a lesser rate will produce sufficient revenue to administer the order properly.

Marketing services. A provision should be included in the order for furnishing marketing services to producers such as verifying tests and weights of milk and furnishing market information. These should be provided by the market administrator and the cost should be borne by the producer receiving the service. If a cooperative association is performing such services for any member-producers and is approved for such activities by the Secretary, the market administrator may accept this in lieu of his own service.

There is need for a marketing service program in connection with the administration of an order in this area. Orderly marketing will be promoted by assuring individual producers that payments received for their milk are based on the pricing provisions of the order, and reflect accurate weights and tests of such milk. To accomplish this fully, it is necessary that the butterfat tests and weights of individual producer deliveries of milk as reported by the handler be verified for accuracy.

An important phase of the marketing service program is to furnish producers with correct market information. As previously discussed, detailed information regarding market conditions is not now regularly available either to producers or to cooperative associations. Efficiency in the production, utilization and marketing of milk will be promoted by the dissemination of current information on a market-wide basis to all producers.

To enable the market administrator to furnish such services, provision should be made for a maximum deduction of six cents per hundredweight with respect to receipts of milk from producers for whom he renders marketing services. If later experience indicates that marketing services can be performed at a lesser rate, provision is made for the Secretary to adjust the rate downward without the necessity of a hearing.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. In two briefs it was denied that the Western Colorado Milk Producers Association was a duly constituted cooperative association and that, in consequence, the testimony of witnesses in behalf of such association must be disregarded. However, the testimony offered by these witnesses was given under oath and after they had stated their personal qualification for giving such testimony. There is no requirement of law that the promulgation of this regulation must be supported at the hearing by a duly constituted producers' association. It is further noted that under the act and regulations producer approval, through cooperatives or otherwise, is not to be ascertained until after a final decision and proposed order is submitted for producer approval. In any event, as stated elsewhere in this decision, the record shows that the Western Colorado Milk Producers Association has in recent times actively represented a substantial number of producers in the marketing of their milk.

All of the briefs, proposed findings and conclusions, and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or to reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and order and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and order will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following order regulating the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the proposed order.

DEFINITIONS

§ 980.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 980.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 980.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as is authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 980.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

§ 980.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act".

§ 980.6 Western Colorado marketing area. "Western Colorado marketing area" hereinafter called "marketing area" means all the territory within the outer boundaries of the counties of Delta, Mesa, and Montrose, all in the State of Colorado.

§ 980.7 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means any milk processing or packaging plant from which Class I milk is disposed of under a Grade A label on route(s) in the marketing area during the month.

§ 980.8 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 980.9 Producer. "Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with the Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area and whose milk is (a) received at a fluid milk plant or (b) diverted from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant for the account of the operator of a fluid milk plant: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 980.10 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means a person who operates both a dairy farm(s) and a milk processing or bottling plant at which each of the following conditions are met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm(s) of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in the form of fluid milk products does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm(s) of such person and in the form of a fluid milk product from fluid milk plants of other handlers.

§ 980.12 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in milk produced by a producer and received at a fluid milk plant directly from producers or diverted pursuant to § 980.9.

§ 980.13 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the delivery period of fluid milk products except (1) fluid milk products received from fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products, other than fluid milk products, from any source (including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 980.14 Fluid milk products. "Fluid milk products" means milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream (sweet or sour, including any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk), and concentrated (fresh or frozen) milk, flavored milk or flavored milk drinks which are neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans.

§ 980.15 Route. "Route" means any delivery to retail or wholesale outlets (including a sale from a plant or plant store) of a fluid milk product other than a delivery to any milk processing plant.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 980.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at, the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 980.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 980.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date upon which he enters upon such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 980.84 the cost of his bond and those of his employee, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 980.83) necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for by this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends, and by such investigation as the market administrator deems necessary;

(h) Publicly announce at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 980.30 to 980.32, or (2) payments pursuant to § 980.82, § 980.82, § 980.83, or § 980.84;

(i) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 6th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 980.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.52 (a), both for the current month;

(2) On or before the 6th day of each month the minimum prices for Class II and Class III milk computed pursuant to § 980.51 (b) and (c) and the Class II and Class III butterfat differentials computed pursuant to § 980.52 (b), all for the previous month; and

(3) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month the uniform price for each handler computed pursuant to § 980.72 and the producer butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.81.

(j) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, mail to each handler at his last known address, a statement showing the amount and value of producer milk in each class and the totals thereof; and

(k) Prepare and make available for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers such general statistics and such information concerning the operations hereof as are necessary and appropriate to the proper functioning of this part and which do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 980.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, the receipts and utilization at his fluid milk plant(s) for such month, as follows:

(a) The quantities and butterfat content of producer milk received (including such handler's own farm production);

(b) The quantities of fluid milk products, with the butterfat content thereof, received from fluid milk plants of other handlers;

(c) The quantities of other source milk, with butterfat content thereof, received;

(d) The quantities and butterfat content of inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and end of the month;

(e) The utilization of all receipts of milk and milk products; and

(f) Such other information with respect to all receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 980.31 Payroll reports. On or before the 20th day of each month each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for the preceding month which shall show (a) the total pounds of milk received from each producer and the average butterfat test of milk received, (b) the number of days on which milk was received from each producer, (c) the amount of payment to each producer or cooperative association, (d) the nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments, and (e) such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may request.

§ 980.32 Other reports. Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 980.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative, during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify, or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all producer milk, milk and milk products from other handlers, and other source milk;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk and milk products handled;

(c) Payments to producers or to cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of milk and milk products, with butterfat content, on hand at the beginning and end of each month.

§ 980.34 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly, upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 980.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat at fluid milk plants which is required to be reported for the month pursuant to § 980.30, shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 980.41 to 980.46.

§ 980.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 980.43 and 980.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products except those classified pursuant to paragraph (e) (2) of this section, or (2) not specifically accounted for as Class II or Class III utilization.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all the skim milk and butterfat used to produce ice cream, imitation ice cream, frozen desserts, ice cream mix, imitation ice cream mix, frozen dessert mix, yogurt, eggnog, aerated cream, skim condensed milk, whole condensed milk or cottage cheese.

(c) Class III milk. Class III milk shall be all the skim milk and butterfat: (1) Used to produce any product other than a fluid milk product or products designated as Class II pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section; (2) in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month; (3) accounted for as livestock feed; (4) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator; (5) in shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers; and (6) in shrinkage of other source milk.

§ 980.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over receipts at fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat; and

(b) Assign the remaining amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts, respectively, in milk received directly from producers and in other source milk.

§ 980.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified as Class II or Class III milk.

(a) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 980.44 Transfers. Skim milk and butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk, if transferred in the form of a fluid milk product to a fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization in another class is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 980.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II or Class III shall be limited to the amount remaining in Class II or Class III milk in the plant of the transferee handler after subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 980.46 (a) (2) and the corresponding step of (b) and any additional amount of such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have other source milk during the month, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be assigned, in series, to next higher valued class of utilization classified at both plants so as to allocate the highest possible utilization to the producer milk of both handlers;

(b) As Class I milk, if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of a fluid milk product;

(c) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant located more than 350 miles from the City Hall in Grand Junction, Colorado, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator;

(d) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant located not more than 350 miles from the City Hall in Grand Junction, Colorado, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The transferring-handler claims Class II or Class III utilization in a product specified in § 980.41 (b) or (c);

(2) The operator of such nonfluid milk plant keeps adequate books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat received at such plant and the market administrator is permitted to examine such books and records for the purpose of verification; and

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II or Class III in such transferor's plant;

(e) If any skim milk or butterfat is transferred to a second nonfluid milk plant under paragraph (d) of this section, the same conditions of audit, classification and allocation shall apply.

§ 980.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk, Class II milk and Class III milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 980.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 980.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers at fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class III the pounds of skim milk allocated to shrinkage in skim milk received from producers pursuant to § 980.41 (c) (5);

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class III, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class III, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act;

(4) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, the pounds of skim milk received from other fluid milk plants according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 980.44 (a);

(5) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class III, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(6) Add to the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class III the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class any amount by which the pounds of skim milk remaining in all classes exceed the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers in series beginning with Class III. Such excess shall be called "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of each class of milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 980.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price for each month to be used in determining the class prices set forth in § 980.51 shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent:

(a) The average of the basic or field prices paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the Department:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) per pound of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 3.5.

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.965.

§ 980.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 980.52 and 980.53 the minimum prices per hundredweight for the first eighteen months beginning with the effective date of prices pursuant to this section to be paid by each handler for milk received at his fluid milk plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The basic formula price for the preceding month plus $1.60 during the months of March, April, May, and June and plus $2.05 during all other months.

(c) Class III milk. The price computed pursuant to § 980.50 (b) for the current month less 13 cents.

§ 980.52 Butterfat differential to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat, the class prices pursuant to § 980.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat by multiplying the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale calling price per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month by the applicable factor specified below, and rounding to the nearest one-tenth cent.

(a) Class I milk. Multiply such price for the preceding month by 0.135; and

(b) Class II and Class III milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 0.120.

§ 980.53 Location differentials to handlers. For milk which is received from producers at a fluid milk plant located more than 100 miles by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the Courthouse in Grand Junction, Colorado, and which is classified as Class I milk the price computed pursuant to § 980.51 (a) shall be reduced by 15 cents if such plant is located more than 100 miles but not more than 110 miles from such Courthouse and by an additional 1.5 cent for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 110 miles: Provided, That for the purpose of calculating such differential transfers between fluid milk plants shall be assigned to Class I milk in a volume not in excess of that by which Class I disposition at the transferee plant exceeds the receipts from producers at such plants, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants at which no differential credit is applicable and then in the sequence beginning with the plant at which the lowest location differential credit would apply.

§ 980.54 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price specified by this part for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described in this part, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is specified.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 980.60 Handler exemption. Sections 980.40 to 980.46, 980.50 to 980.53, 980.70 to 980.72 and 980.80 to 980.85 shall not apply to a producer-handler or to a handler operating a fluid milk plant from which an average of less than 200 pounds per day of Class I milk is disposed of on routes in the marketing area.

§ 980.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. Milk received at the plant of a handler at which the handling of milk is fully subject during the month to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act and from which the disposition of Class I milk in the other Federal marketing area exceeds that in the Western Colorado marketing area shall be exempted for such month from all provisions of this part except that the handler operating such plant shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 980.70 Net obligation of handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price and add together the resulting amounts;

(b) Add the amount computed by multiplying pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 980.46 (a) (7) and the corresponding step of § 980.46 (b) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add a reclassification charge equal to the difference between the Class I price value for the current month and the Class III price value for the preceding month or the Class II price value for the current month and the Class III price value for the preceding month for the skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I or Class II, respectively, pursuant to § 980.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 980.46 (b) which is not in excess of the skim milk and butterfat remaining in Class III in the previous month pursuant to § 980.46 (a) (5) and the corresponding step of § 980.46 (b); and

(d) Add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months.

§ 980.71 Computation of aggregate value used to determine uniform prices. For each month the market administrator shall compute an aggregate value for each handler from which to determine the uniform price per hundredweight for producer milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content as follows:

(a) Adjust the amount computed pursuant to § 980.70 by the total of the location differentials to be made pursuant to § 980.81 (b).

(b) Add or subtract from the amount computed pursuant to § 980.70 for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content or producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, as determined pursuant to § 980.81 (a) and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk; and

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price for such handler for the preceding month.

§ 980.72 Computation of uniform prices for handlers. The market administrator shall compute a uniform price for producer milk received by each handler as follows: Divide the aggregate value computed pursuant to § 980.71 by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler. The result, less any fraction of a cent, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, at a fluid milk plant f. o. b. marketing area.

PAYMENTS

§ 980.80 Payments to producers. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows:

(a) On or before the 28th day of each month, for milk received during the first 15 days of the month at not less than the Class II price for the preceding month;

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, for milk received during such month, an amount computed at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight pursuant to § 980.72 subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to § 980.81; plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producer; and less (1) payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, (2) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 980.83 and (3) proper deduction authorized in writing by such producer;

(c) (1) Upon receipt of a written request from a cooperative association which the market administrator determines is authorized by its members to collect payment for their milk and receipt of a written promise to reimburse the handler the amount of any actual loss incurred by him because of any improper claim on the part of the cooperative association each handler shall pay to the cooperative association on or before the 13th and 26th day of each month in lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) respectively, of this section an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers. The foregoing payment shall be made with respect to milk of each producer whom the cooperative association certifies is a member effective on and after the first day of the calendar month next following receipt of such certification through the last day of the month next preceding receipt of notice from the cooperative association of a termination of membership or until the original request is rescinded in writing by the cooperative association.

(2) A copy of each such request, promise to reimburse and certified list of members shall be filed simultaneously with the market administrator by the cooperative association and shall be subject to verification at his discretion, through audit of the records of the cooperative association pertaining thereto. Exceptions, if any, to the accuracy of such certification by a producer claimed to be a member, or by a handler, shall be made by written notice to the market administrator and shall be subject to his determination.

(d) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer or cooperative association from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

§ 980.81 Producers differentials—(a) Butterfat differential. The applicable uniform prices to be paid pursuant to § 980.80 to producers delivering milk to each handler shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 3.5 percent, respectively, by a butterfat differential equal to the average of the butterfat differentials determined pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 980.52, weighted by the pounds of butterfat in producer milk used by such handler in each class and the result rounded to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) Location differential. For milk which is received from producers at an approved plant located more than 100 miles by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the Courthouse in Grand Junction, Colorado, there shall be deducted 15 cents per hundredweight of milk if such plant is located more than 100 miles but not more than 110 miles from such Courthouse, and an additional 1.5 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 110 miles.

§ 980.82 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 980.83 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers for milk (other than milk of his own production) pursuant to § 980.80, shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 6 cents per hundredweight, as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month. Such money shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association;

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers, and on or before the 15th day after the end of each month and pay such deductions to the cooperative association of which such producers are members, furnishing a statement showing the amount of any such deductions and the amount of milk for which such deduction was computed for each producer.

§ 980.84 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk, including such handlers' own production; and (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 980.46.

§ 980.85 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed unless such handler within the applicable period of time, files pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 980.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 980.101.

§ 980.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provisions of this part whenever he finds this part or any provision of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 980.92 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 980.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 980.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 980.101 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of July 1958.

DRUGS EXEMPTED FROM PRESCRIPTION-DISPENSING REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 503 (b) (1) (C) OF THE FEDERAL FOOD, DRUG, AND COSMETIC ACT

DICYCLOMINE HYDROCHLORIDE PREPARATIONS; LABELING REQUIREMENTS

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 503 (b) (3), 505 (c), 701 (a); 65 Stat. 649, 52 Stat. 1052, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 353 (b) (3), 355 (c), 371 (a)) and the authority delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (21 CFR, 1957 Supp., 130.101 (a)) has promulgated a regulation (21 CFR, 1957 Supp., 130.102 (a) (8)) exempting from prescription-dispensing requirements certain dicyclomine hydrochloride preparations, provided they comply in all respects with the provisions of that section. One of the provisions of the regulation relates to a warning statement in the labeling against use of the preparation if dryness of the throat, blurring of vision, dizziness, or rapid pulse occurs.

It now having been determined that such a warning statement is not required for the protection of the public health, the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, on his own initiative, and under the above-referenced authority, proposes to delete this requirement.

Any interested person may, within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, submit written views and comments with reference to the proposed amendment, addressed to the Hearing Clerk Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C. All such views and comments should be submitted in quintuplicate.

Dated: July 17, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 3]

[Docket No. 12538; FCC 58-684, 60735]

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS, PITTSBURGH, PA.; TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

1. Notice is hereby given that the Commission has received a proposal for rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it for consideration a counterproposal in Docket No. 12385, filed on June 18, 1958, by Metropolitan Pittsburgh Educational Station, licensee of educational television Station WQED, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for rule making to amend § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations, so as to reserve Channel 16 in Pittsburgh for educational use in lieu of Channel 22.[1] Petitioner also requests that the Commission order Telecasting, Inc., to Show Cause why its outstanding authorization for Station WENS in Pittsburgh should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 22 or 47 in lieu of Channel 16.

3. In support of its proposal petitioner submits that WENS consents to the reservation of Channel 16 for educational use; that it will not adversely affect the interests of any party; and that it will make possible the early commencement of educational programs on this channel in view of the fact that Channel 16 was in use for a period of three years and many existing TV receivers are equipped for reception of Channel 16.

4. The Commission is of the view that rule making proceedings should be instituted in this matter in order that all interested parties may submit their views and relevant data.

5. Telecasting, Inc., holds a construction permit for Station WENS on Channel 16 in Pittsburgh. The proposal herein would reserve Channel 16 for educational use in lieu of Channel 22, and so would require WENS to shift to Channel 22. We are therefore directing Telecasting, Inc., to Show Cause why its authorization for WENS should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 22 in lieu of Channel 16 at Pittsburgh.

6. Authority for the adoption of the amendment proposed herein is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r) and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. Any interested party who is of the view that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before August 25, 1958, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. Response to the Show Cause Order issued should also be filed on or before August 25, 1958.

8. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: July 16, 1958.

Released: July 18, 1958.

[1] This counterproposal was filed late in Docket 12385. In order to expedite action on this proposal without holding up a decision on other changes requested in that proceeding we are treating this pleading as a request for rule making. We are simultaneously issuing a Report and Order in Docket 12385 which, among other things, assigns Channel 22 to Pittsburgh and reserves it for educational use and substitutes Channel 73 for 47 in that city.

AVIATION SERVICES

OPERATION OF RADIO FACILITIES IN TIME OF WAR

In the matter of amendment of Part 9, Aviation Services, to provide specific rules governing the operation of aviation radio facilities in time of war.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The proposed amendments appearing below would supplement existing CONELRAD requirements by establishing specific operating procedures to be observed by radio stations in the Aviation Services in time of war. The procedures herein proposed would, among other things, curtail the use of HF band frequencies during a state of war involving the United States.

3. The proposed wartime operating procedures, as set forth in § 9.1205 (c) below, were developed in cooperation with the U. S. Air Force and the Departments of Commerce and Defense in response to a request by the Office of Defense Mobilization.

4. The proposed amendments are issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 303 (r) and 606 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Executive Order No. 10312 signed by the President December 10, 1951.

5. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission on or before August 20, 1958, written data, views, or arguments setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Rebuttal comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing of original comments. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission or (2) good cause for the filing of such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments prior to taking final action in this matter, and if comments are submitted warranting oral argument, notice of the time and place of such oral argument will be given.

6. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: July 16, 1958.

Released: July 18, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,

Amend Part 9, Aviation Services, as indicated below:

Delete § 9.1205 and substitute a new section to read as follows:

§ 9.1205 Operation. (a) During a period of CONELRAD Radio Alert, all ground stations in the Aviation Services will maintain radio silence, unless required by the appropriate CAA Air Route Traffic Control Center (ARTCC) to remain in the air for the purpose of air traffic control. Such operations will be in accordance with the CAA CONELRAD Plan dated May 1, 1953, and instructions issued by the appropriate ARTCC under the Defense/Commerce SCATER Plan dated May 7, 1957. Licensees of ground stations in the Aviation Services should contact the CAA ARTCC within whose flight advisory area the station is located, for the details of operation applicable to a specific station. When not required by the CAA for the purposes of security control of air traffic, all ground stations in the Aviation Services will promptly leave the air and maintain radio silence for the duration of a CONELRAD Radio Alert, except as specifically authorized by the appropriate ARTCC.

(b) During a period of CONELRAD Radio Alert, all aircraft radio stations in the Aviation Services will maintain radio silence, except for transmissions involving the national safety, or the safety of life and property in the air. Such operations will be in accordance with the CAA CONELRAD Plan dated May 1, 1953, and the instructions of the appropriate ARTCC within whose flight advisory area the aircraft may be located.

(c) Upon proclamation by the President that there exists a state of war involving the United States, and for the duration of such state of war, all licensees in the Aviation Services shall observe the following supplemental restrictions on station operations:

(1) Domestic. Air/ground communications within the continental United States shall be limited to those involving safety of flight; air/ground and aeronautical fixed communications on HF band frequencies shall be discontinued except where other facilities are unavailable or inoperative and then only where appropriate security measures are employed. Security measures shall include at least the following: (i) Transmit emergency traffic only, (ii) identify by means other than clear text, and (iii) make transmissions as brief as possible.

(2) International. Air/ground communications shall be limited to those involving safety of flight and such communications in the HF band shall be discontinued, except that international air carriers arriving or departing from U. S. gateway airports may use HF band frequencies when VHF and UHF radio are inoperative, not available or will not provide the range required; international aeronautical fixed communications may be conducted on HF band frequencies only when appropriate security measures are employed. Security measures shall include at least the following: (i) Transmit emergency traffic only, (ii) identify by means other than clear text, and (iii) make transmissions as brief as possible.

(3) Weather transmission. The HF band shall not be employed for transmission of clear text weather information except in emergencies; unscheduled weather reports and forecasts (not exceeding two hours ahead) may be transmitted in clear text only on frequency bands other than the HF band, and then only when the station involved is 200 miles or more from the nearest coast line.

(4) Navigational aids. To the extent that ground based navigational aids are used for communication purposes, such facilities shall be operated in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(d) None of the provisions of this subpart shall be interpreted to preclude the operation of certain stations in the Aviation Services in connection with the activities of local, state or federal civil defense organizations, provided such operations are not in conflict with operations necessary for CAA air route traffic control, and such operations are specifically authorized by the Federal Communications Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 270]

PERMITTING INVESTMENT COMPANIES TO PURCHASE SECURITIES WHERE AFFILIATES PARTICIPATE IN UNDERWRITING

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration the adoption of § 270.10f-3 (Rule N-10F-3) under the Investment Company Act of 1940 to permit registered investment companies, under prescribed conditions, to purchase securities during the existence of an underwriting syndicate, notwithstanding an affiliation between any such investment company and one or more members of the underwriting syndicate.

Section 10 (f) of the Investment Company Act provides that no registered investment company shall purchase, during the existence of any underwriting syndicate, any security a principal underwriter of which is an officer, director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser, or employee of such registered company, or is a person of which any such officer, director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser, or employee is an affiliated person. Such section, however, authorizes the Commission, by rules and regulations, as well as by order, to exempt any such transaction from such prohibitions, if and to the extent that such exemption is consistent with the protection of investors.

The experience gained by the Commission in its consideration of requests for orders of exemption under this exemptive authority indicates that protection of investors may be adequately insured by the conditions and safeguards specified in the proposed rule. These include limitations with respect to the consideration paid, as related both to the amount of the offering and the assets of the investment company. Moreover, underwriters' commissions may not exceed stated amounts, no purchase may be made from an affiliated underwriter, and the offering must be effectively registered under the Securities Act of 1933.

The conditions are designed to permit purchases without an exemptive order where the circumstances are such as to make it unlikely that the purchase would not be consistent with the protection of investors. The conditions relating to the percent of offering and assets are standards which have been met by most of the purchases which we have heretofore permitted by order. The condition that no purchase may be made from an affiliated underwriter eliminates from the operations of the rule cases where further investigation would be necessary to be satisfied that an exemption is appropriate for the protection of investors.

The proposed limitations on underwriters' commissions were also satisfied by most of the purchases heretofore permitted by order, and it is believed that they would tend to restrict operation of the rule to investment grade offerings. It should be emphasized that purchases that do not meet the strict conditions of the rule may nevertheless be exempted by order upon application where the statutory standard is satisfied.

The text of the proposed rule follows:

§ 270.10f-3 Exemption of certain purchases of securities during the existence of an underwriting or selling syndicate. Any purchase of securities by a registered investment company prohibited by section 10 (f) of the act shall be exempt from the provisions of such section if the following conditions are met:

(a) The securities to be purchased are (1) part of an issue effectively registered under the Securities Act of 1933 which is being offered to the public; (2) purchased at the public offering price within twenty-four hours after the first date on which the registered issue is offered to the public, if not offered for subscription upon exercise of rights or, if so offered, purchased at any time within seven days after the beginning of the rights period; and (3) offered pursuant to an underwriting agreement under which the underwriters are committed to purchase all of the registered securities being offered.

(b) The gross commission, spread or profit to the principal underwriters (excluding, in the case of a rights offering, any profits or losses resulting from purchases or sales by the underwriters of rights or securities during or after the rights period) shall not exceed: (1) 7.0 percent of the public offering price if the security to be purchased is a common stock; (2) 3.25 percent of the public offering price if the security to be purchased is a preferred stock, whether or not convertible into common stock; (3) 2.25 percent of the public offering price if the security to be purchased is a subordinated debenture, or a bond or debenture convertible into common stock or having common stock purchase warrants attached; or (4) 1.25 percent of the public offering price in respect of any other security to be purchased.

(c) The issuer of the securities to be purchased shall have been in continuous operation for not less than three years, including the operations of any predecessors.

(d) The amount of securities of any class of such registered issue to be purchased by the registered investment company having the same investment adviser, shall not exceed 3 percent of the amount of the offering of such class.

(e) The consideration to be paid by the registered investment company in purchasing the securities being offered shall not exceed 3 percent of the total assets of such registered investment company, provided that if such consideration shall exceed $1,000,000, it shall not exceed 1 percent of such company's total assets.

(f) Such registered investment company does not purchase the securities being offered directly or indirectly from an officer, director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser or employee of such registered investment company or from a person of which any such officer, director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser or employee is an affiliated person.

(g) The purchase of the securities being offered shall have been authorized or approved by a resolution of the board of directors of the registered investment company, or of a previously existing executive, investment, or similar committee composed of members of such board, which resolution shall certify: (1) That all directors who are affiliated persons of a principal underwriter of the issue in question refrained from participation in consideration of the transaction; (2) that there voted in favor of such a resolution a majority of the board of directors or of the committee, none of whom were affiliated persons of any principal underwriter; and (3) that in its judgment the purchase of such securities meets all the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (f) of this section.

(h) A full statement of the transaction indicating compliance with this section shall be filed with the Commission within ten days after consummation thereof.

All interested persons are invited to submit views and comments on the proposed rule. Written statements of views and comments and any requests for oral argument in respect of the proposed rule should be submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before August 15, 1958.

By the Commission.

BOISE PROJECT, IDAHO

ORDER OF REVOCATION

JULY 1, 1958.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388; 43 U. S. C. 416), and pursuant to Departmental Order No. 2765 of July 30, 1954, I hereby revoke the departmental orders of April 15, 1919 and June 23, 1943, in so far said orders affect the following-described land; provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said orders or affect any other orders withdrawing or reserving the land hereinafter described:

BOISE MERIDIAN

T. 6 N., R. 4 W.,
Sec. 11, SW¼ and N½SE¼;
Sec. 12, N½NW¼SW¼, NE¼SW¼, and E½SE¼SW¼;
Sec. 23, NE¼NE¼, SE¼SW¼, and SW¼SE¼;
Sec. 25, W½NE¼NW¼, S½NW¼NW¼, SW¼NW¼, NW¼SE¼NW¼, S½NE¼SE¼NW¼, S½SE¼NW¼, and SE¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate approximately 595 acres.

FLOYD E. DOMINY,
Acting Commissioner.

[Idaho 09188]

JULY 17, 1958.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

1. The land is in five scattered parcels lying from 12 to 15 miles north of Caldwell, Idaho. Elevation of the land is about 2,600 feet. Vegetative cover is mainly cheatgrass with scattered sagebrush. The soil is mainly fine sand to fine sandy loam with some rock. The surface is undulating.

2. No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

(a) Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 22, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

4. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

5. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Boise, Idaho.

CHARLES P. MEAD,
Acting Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

JULY 17, 1958.

I concur.

1. The lands are in Valley County, from one-half to nine miles from Cascade, Idaho.

2. Subject to any valid existing rights, to existing withdrawals for power purposes hereinafter referred to, and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and location in accordance with the following:

(1) All applications, except any from the State of Idaho under paragraph 5, infra, presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 22, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

3. The following described lands in T. 13 N., R. 4 E., are withdrawn in Power Site Reserve No. 207:

Sec. 6, lot 13;
Sec. 8, lots 3 and 6;
Sec. 17, lot 10;
Sec. 20, lot 11;
Sec. 29, lots 5 and 10;
Sec. 30, lots 7, 9, and 11;
Sec. 31, Unsurveyed island in the NE¼ NW¼.

4. The following-described lands in T 13 N., R. 4 E., were the subject of a favorable determination of the Federal Power Commission in DA–443–Idaho issued July 8, 1954:

Sec. 17, lot 10;
Sec. 20, lot 2;
Sec. 29, lot 5;
Sec. 30, lot 7.

5. With respect to the lands described in paragraph 4, this opening is subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U. S. C. 818) as amended. The said lands shall be subject to application by the State of Idaho, until 10:00 a. m. on October 17, 1958, for rights-of-way for public highways or as a source of material for construction and maintenance of such highways, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the said section 24 of the Federal Power Act.

6. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, the lands described in paragraph 4 being so opened subject to the provisions of the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 682; 30 U. S. C. 621).

7. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Boise, Idaho.

CHARLES P. MEAD,
Acting Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

SHOSHONE PROJECT, WYOMING

ORDER OF REVOCATION

JUNE 30, 1958.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388; 43 U. S. C. 416), and pursuant to Departmental Order No. 2765 of July 30, 1954, I hereby revoke the Departmental Orders of April 21, 1903, February 16, 1909, August 2, 1913, and April 20, 1920, so far as said orders affect the following-described lands; provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said orders, or affect any other order withdrawing or reserving the lands hereinafter described:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 53 N., R. 100 W.
Sec. 6, lots 6, 7, 12, and E½SE¼;
Sec. 7, lots 1, 5, 9, E½NE¼ and SE¼;
T. 53 N., R. 102 W.
Sec. 35, lot 7.

The areas described aggregate 317.13 acres.

WILLIAM I. PALMER,
Acting Associate Commissioner.

[Wyoming 047652]

JULY 17, 1958.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

1. The lands are located along the Shoshone River, north of Cody, Wyoming. At this point the river is in a fairly deep canyon, with more or less precipitous sides.

2. No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights, the requirements of applicable law, and the provisions of paragraphs 5 and 6 of this order, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 22, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

4. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958.

5. The following-described lands are reserved for power purposes in Power Site Classification No. 253 of May 12, 1930, or Power Site Reserve No. 563 of December 20, 1916, and were the subject of a favorable determination by the Federal Power Commission in DA–124–Wyoming, issued April 21, 1953:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 53 N., R. 100 W.
Sec. 6, lot 12;
Sec. 7, lots 1, 5 and 9.
T. 53 N., R. 102 W.
Sec. 35, lot 7.

As to these lands, therefore, this opening is subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U. S. C. 818), as amended.

6. The lands described in paragraph 5 above shall be subject until 10:00 a. m. on October 17, 1958, to application by the State of Wyoming under any statute or regulation applicable thereto, for rights-of-way for public highways or as a source of material for the construction and maintenance of such highways pursuant to section 24 of the Federal Power Act, supra. Such preference right shall have precedence over the priority provisions of paragraph 3 a (2) of this order.

7. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

CHARLES P. MEAD,
Acting Director,
Bureau of Land Management.

YAKIMA PROJECT, WASHINGTON

ORDER OF REVOCATION

[Washington 03022]

JULY 17, 1958.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388; 43 U. S. C. 416), and pursuant to Departmental Order No. 2765 of July 30, 1954, I hereby revoke the Departmental orders of December 22, 1905, and September 18, 1916, insofar as said orders affect the following-described lands; provided, however, that such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said orders or affect any other order withdrawing or reserving the lands hereafter described:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 9 N., R. 26 E.,
Sec. 24, N½NW¼ and SW¼SE¼.
T. 9 N., R. 27 E.,
Sec. 12, E½;
Sec. 30, SW¼NW¼NE¼, NW¼SE¼NE¼, S½SE¼NE¼, NW¼NE¼NW¼, S½NE¼NW¼, and SE¼.
T. 8 N., R. 28 E.,
Sec. 2, W½;
Sec. 10, SW¼.
T. 9 N., R. 28 E.,
Sec. 22, SE¼NE¼SW¼, N½NE¼SW¼, E½SE¼, NW¼SE¼, and NE¼SW¼SE¼.
T. 9 N., R. 29 E.,
Sec. 30, SE¼SE¼.
T. 8 N., R. 30 E.,
Sec. 32, SE¼NE¼.

The areas described aggregate approximately 1,390 acres.

JULY 7, 1958.

FLOYD E. DOMINY,
Associate Commissioner.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management will be noted accordingly.

1. The lands are semi-arid, low-value, grazing lands in the Kennewick-Richland area. The extremely sandy soil and lack of precipitation precludes their cultivation without water for irrigation. The E½ sec. 12, T. 9 N., R. 27 E., is in an allowed homestead entry, and the NW¼SE¼ sec. 30, T. 9 N., R. 28 E., is withdrawn for power purposes.

2. No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 22, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

4. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 21, 1958, the lands in sec. 30, T. 9 N., R. 28 E., being so opened pursuant to the provisions of the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 682; 30 U. S. C. 621).

5. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Office of the Secretary

MINNESOTA

DESIGNATION OF AREA FOR PRODUCTION EMERGENCY LOANS

For the purpose of making production emergency loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U. S. C. 1148a–2 (a)), as amended, it has been determined that in Otter Tail County, Minnesota, a production disaster has caused a need for agricultural credit not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the authority set forth above, production emergency loans will not be made in the above-named county after June 30, 1959, except to applicants who previously received such assistance and who can qualify under established policies and procedures.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of July 1958.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1783]

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO AMEND ORDER

JULY 17, 1958.

Take notice that on June 30, 1958, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco), a Delaware corporation, having its principal place of business at Houston, Texas, filed a petition to amend the Commission's order issued December 15, 1955. The order of December 15, 1955 in the above entitled proceedings modified and affirmed as modified, the Presiding Examiner's decision issued October 17, 1955, which authorized Transco to sell and deliver the following volumes of natural gas to Duke Power Company on an interruptible basis for use in the company's plant at its Lee Electric generating station near Williamston, South Carolina:

Year	Maximum annual volume in Mcf
1956 (first)	11,700,000
1957 (second)	8,300,000
1958 (third)	6,930,000
1959 (fourth)	6,850,000
1960 (fifth)	6,850,000

As of June 15, 1958, Transco had delivered 4,832,617 Mcf to Duke, leaving 2,097,383 Mcf of the 1958 allocation still to be delivered.

Transco's petition recites that it will have capacity available south of its Compressor Station 15 during August and September of this year for the sale and delivery of up to 1,300,000 Mcf of interruptible gas to Duke, over and above the presently authorized 1958 delivery of 6,930,000 Mcf. This excess capacity will be available, according to the petition, because Transco cannot begin injection of cushion gas into the proposed Leidy storage pool in Pennsylvania as it had planned, since authorization of the Leidy project is currently pending in Docket No. G-13590, et al. Transco further submits that Duke is the only outlet for the increased volumes which will be available, because its customers in the south do not take their full allocations during the summer months. Because of the expected development of the Leidy pool at a later date, Applicant will be required to inject larger volumes than originally planned into that pool during the summer of 1959, but will have excess gas available during the summer of 1958. It, therefore, proposes to sell and deliver to Duke during 1958 up to 1,300,000 Mcf of natural gas, in addition to the presently authorized volume of 6,930,000 Mcf, and to reduce the 1959 allocation by the excess delivered to Duke in 1958. It appears from Transco's petition that the total volumes delivered to Duke will be unchanged from those authorized in the Commission's order of December 15, 1955, and that Duke is agreeable to the proposed changes.

Take further notice that protests or petitions to intervene with respect to the petition to amend may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 6, 1958.

[Docket No. G-15076]

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 17, 1958.

Take notice that Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Applicant) a Delaware corporation with a principal office in Shreveport, Louisiana, filed an application on May 8, 1958, and supplements thereto on June 2 and July 3, 1958, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for:

(1) Under section 7 (a) for an order of the Commission directing Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern) to establish a physical connection of its existing facilities with a natural gas transmission line proposed to be constructed and owned by the towns of Tupelo, McCrory and Patterson, Arkansas, and to sell natural gas to Applicant who will operate the pipeline and resell the gas for distribution in the above towns and in several unincorporated towns and to other customers along the route of the line.

(2) Under section 7 (c) for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate the proposed pipeline under a lease agreement with the towns with an option to purchase the system at a later date. Applicant will also operate distribution systems in all the towns, which are also to be owned and built by the towns.

Tupelo, McCrory and Patterson propose to construct the transmission line extending from a tap on Texas Eastern's line to the three towns, consisting of approximately 24 miles of 4½-inch and 2⅜-inch pipe, together with distribution systems in each of the towns and distribution or service connections along the route of the line between the towns. The unincorporated communities which will also receive service from the line include Auvergne, Schoffner, Weldon and Overcup, all in Arkansas, as well as some cotton gins and irrigation pumping units.

Applicant proposes to operate the said leased transmission line and distribution systems under a lease arrangement providing (a) for the payment of rentals by the Applicant sufficient to cover the principal and interest payments on gas revenue bonds of the municipalities, and (b) an option to purchase said leased properties from the municipalities.

The application recites that Applicant operates several distribution plants which are beyond the economic reach of its own integrated pipeline system. The town of Tupelo, City of McCrory and town of Patterson are too far removed from Applicant's system to warrant construction or extension of a line to bring gas service to these towns. Texas Eastern's Big Inch transmission line is reasonably close to the towns and can serve them from a proposed tap on that line to the towns, a distance of about 24 miles.

The estimated gas requirements of the market area, based on Applicant's experience in other similar areas, are as follows:

Vols. in Mcf @ 15.025 psia

Year	Peak day	Annual
1st	733	87,765
2d	742	91,930
3d	750	96,095
4th	759	99,980
5th	767	104,145

The application further recites that the cost of the proposed transmission line is estimated at $274,780, which cost will be shared proportionately by the three major towns. The estimated costs of the distribution systems in each town including proportionate shares of the cost of the transmission line plus overheads, contingencies and other items are as follows: Tupelo—$80,500; McCrory—$395,500; and Patterson—$99,000. The municipalities propose to issue 25-year 4-per cent revenue bonds for the above amounts to finance the cost of their respective systems, and portion of transmission line.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 14, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 1, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Project No. 2172]

COOS-CURRY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE

JULY 17, 1958.

Public notice is hereby given that application has been filed under the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a-825r) by Coos-Curry Electric Cooperative, Inc., of Coquill, Oregon, for license for proposed water-power Project No. 2172 to be located on Illinois River, a tributary to Rogue River, in Curry and Josephine Counties, Oregon, approximately 25 miles east of Gold Beach, Oregon, affecting lands of the United States within the Siskiyou National Forest. The proposed project, known as Bald Mountain Project, would be located at river mile 21.8 and would consist of a concrete gravity overflow diversion dam about 124 feet high and 600 feet along the crest; five automatic spillway gates to maintain a constant water surface at elevation 644 feet; a small reservoir with an area of 225 acres and no usable storage other than pondage; fish ladders, both for upstream and downstream migration; an intake structure; a concrete-lined tunnel, 15 feet in diameter and 3.9 miles long; underground penstocks; a powerhouse located about 12 river miles below the dam, containing three 36,300 horsepower turbines connected to 27,000 kilowatt generators and one 14,750 horsepower turbine connected to an 11,000 kilowatt generator; a step-up substation; two 115-kv transmission lines extending from the powerhouse to Gold Beach; and appurtenant mechanical and electrical facilities.

A preliminary permit for the proposed project was issued to Coos-Curry Electric Cooperative, Inc., effective May 1, 1955, and expired April 30, 1956.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last day upon which protests or petitions may be filed is September 2, 1958. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3717]

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING ISSUE AND SALE OF PROMISSORY NOTES BY SUBSIDIARIES TO BANKS AND TO PARENT COMPANY

JULY 16, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") by New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and twenty-one of its public-utility subsidiaries ("the borrowing companies"), namely, Attleboro Electric Company ("Attleboro"), Central Massachusetts Gas Company ("Central Mass."), Granite State Electric Company ("Granite"), Lawrence Gas Company ("Lawrence"), Lynn Gas and Electric Company ("Lynn"), Merrimack-Essex Electric Company ("Merrimack"), The Mystic Power Company ("Mystic"), Mystic Valley Gas Company ("Mystic Valley"), The Narragansett Electric Company ("Narragansett"), Northampton Electric Lighting Company ("Northampton"), Northampton Gas Light Company ("Northampton Gas"), North Shore Gas Company ("North Shore"), Northern Berkshire Electric Company ("Northern"), Norwood Gas Company ("Norwood"), The Pequot Gas Company ("Pequot"), Quincy Electric Company ("Quincy"), Southern Berkshire Power & Electric Company ("Southern"), Suburban Electric Company ("Suburban"), Wachusett Gas Company ("Wachusett"), Weymouth Light and Power Company ("Weymouth"), and Worcester County Electric Company ("Worcester"). NEES and the borrowing companies have designated sections 6 (a), 7, 10, and 12 (f) of the act and Rules 42 (b) (2), 43, 50 (a) (2) and 50 (a) (3) thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

The borrowing companies propose to issue from time to time through December 31, 1958, unsecured promissory notes to (a) banks in the aggregate principal amount of $34,234,000 and (b) NEES in the aggregate principal amount of $25,450,000 or a total of $59,684,000. The maximum amount of the proposed notes to be outstanding at any one time during the six months to December 31, 1958, is stated at $47,094,000. The proceeds of the proposed borrowings are to be used to pay then outstanding notes due to banks and/or to NEES (estimated at an aggregate of $33,979,000 principal amount at July 1, 1958) and to provide new money (estimated at $13,115,000 for the six months ending December 31, 1958) for construction expenditures or to reimburse the treasury therefor. The notes will bear interest at not in excess of the prime rate in effect at the time such loans are made, and will mature on or prior to March 31, 1959. Provision will be made for certain subsidiaries to pay their bank indebtedness, in whole or in part, with borrowings from NEES, or vice versa. In the case of notes issued to NEES to prepay notes to banks, the interest rate will be the prime interest rate, but not in excess of the interest rate on the notes being prepaid to the date of their maturity. In the case of notes issued to banks to prepay notes to NEES, if the interest rate exceeds that of the notes to be prepaid, NEES will file an amendment hereto to become effective only pursuant to rule or order of the Commission.

Each of the borrowing companies proposes that if any permanent financing is done prior to the maturity of the indebtedness to be issued hereunder, it will apply the proceeds therefrom in reduction of, or in total payment of, its note indebtedness then outstanding; that the balance of its note indebtedness then unissued hereunder, if any, will be reduced by the amount, if any, by which the proceeds of such permanent financing exceeds its note indebtedness at the time outstanding; and that the maximum amount of its note indebtedness proposed to be outstanding hereunder will be reduced by the amount of the proceeds obtained by it from such permanent financing.

The following table shows for each borrowing company (1) the aggregate amount of notes proposed to be issued to banks and to NEES, and (2) the maximum amount of notes issued hereunder to be outstanding with banks and with NEES at any one time.

[000's omitted]

Total	34,234	25,450	20,619	12,860	13,615

While no definite arrangements have yet been made by any of the borrowing companies, it is expected that borrowings from banks will be made from any one or more of the following:

The First National Bank of Boston, Boston, Mass.
Second Bank-State Street Trust Company, Boston, Mass.
The Chase Manhattan Bank, N. Y.
The Hanover Bank, N. Y.
Irving Trust Company, N. Y.
The New York Trust Company, N. Y.
The First National City Bank of New York.
Industrial National Bank of Providence, Providence, R. I.

Merchants-Warren National Bank, Salem, Mass.
Naumkeag Trust Company, Salem, Mass.
Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, Worcester, Mass.
The Mechanics National Bank of Worcester, Worcester, Mass.
Worcester County Trust Company, Worcester, Mass.

Incidental services in connection with the proposed note issues will be performed at cost by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, such cost being estimated at not exceeding $200 for each applicant-declarant.

No further action by any regulatory commission, other than this Commission, is necessary to carry out the proposed transactions. The Public Utilities Commission of New Hampshire has issued an order authorizing the notes proposed to be issued by Granite.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 31, 1958 at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said joint application-declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date the joint application-declaration as filed or as amended may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules 20 (a) and 100, or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

MISSILE OIL CORP.

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING EXEMPTION, STATEMENT OF REASONS THEREFOR AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 17, 1958.

I. Missile Oil Corporation ("Issuer"), a Nevada corporation with its principal office at 1435 South La Cienega Boulevard, Los Angeles, California filed with the Commission on June 26, 1958, a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to an offering of 300,000 shares of its 10-cent par value non-assessable common stock at $1.00 per share for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of sections 3 (b) and Regulation A thereunder.

II. The Commission has reason to believe that:

A. The offering circular and other material contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

1. The statement on page 2 of the offering circular that "Officers, Directors and present Stockholders will own 63 percent of the outstanding stock * * * in exchange for leases costing in excess of $207,000, services rendered and an actual cash expenditure of $37,000", in that the directors, officers, and stockholders have not paid said $207,000 for the subject leases and are not obligated to make such payments, but such amount is to be paid from the proceeds of the offering.

2. The failure to disclose in the offering circular that the public investors, if the offering is completely sold, will have invested approxamitely 88½ percent of the cash in the enterprise for their 37 percent interest, while the officers, directors, and present stockholders will have contributed approximately only 11½ percent of the cash investment for their 63 percent interest.

3. The inclusion in the financial statements as an asset the sum of $210,000, described as "Oil Leases, at Cost", when, in fact, there is only an agreement to purchase oil leases, and the only cost incurred was a $3,000 earnest money deposit.

4. The statement on page 3 of the offering circular setting forth the conclusion of the Conkling Brothers, geologists, that the leases are a "safe and profitable investment", in that said conclusion, taken from the geological report, referred to the proposed purchase price of $210,000 and not to the interests of the public in the leases which would amount to only 37 percent of the total outstanding interests.

5. The failure to disclose in the offering circular that the royalties to be paid on the Texas and California properties are materially higher than customary, and are particularly burdensome on the Texas properties.

6. The statement on page 5 of the offering circular that in connection with the California properties the Issuer plans "an extensive exploratory and drilling program there" in that there is a failure to disclose that even if the entire offering were sold and the proceeds distributed in the manner set forth in the offering circular there would be little if any funds available for such exploration and drilling.

7. The failure to include in the offering circular adequate maps showing the location of the leases and the present status and depth of all wells drilled for oil and gas on or in the immediate vicinity of such leases in both Texas and California and the geological structural contours in the area where the California leases are located.

8. The statement on page 6 of the offering circular that, in connection with the Texas properties, "oil production on two of the four wells can be increased, possibly up to the allowable (212 barrels per allowable day)" and "* * * by so recompleting these wells the oil production from this property should be doubled and have a sizable increase in the gas production", in that the productivity of the wells in the area referred to does not indicate such statements would be reasonable for any substantial period of time.

9. The failure to include in the offering circular the actual oil and gas production by months from the date of completion of each of the Texas wells to the present time; the total allowable production for each well during each month; and the net production of oil and of gas for each month which would have accrued to the Issuer's interest.

10. The statement on page 6 of the offering circular implying that the increase of gas production from the Texas wells offset the decline in oil production, in that such increase does not offset the loss from decline in oil production.

11. The statement on page 7 of the offering circular that there are estimated gross future recoverable reserves from the Texas wells in the amount of 194,971 barrels as of January 1, 1958, in that the productivity of such wells indicates such estimation is excessive and without adequate foundation.

12. The statement on page 7 relating to reserves estimated to be recoverable through secondary methods in that there is no past experience from such methods of operation on or in the general vicinity of Issuer's leases to justify the inclusion of reserves based on recovery from secondary methods.

13. The statement on page 7 that the value of the Texas property net to the working interest is $2,143,857 in that past experience, and future unknown and indeterminable factors make such an estimation of value unreasonable and without adequate basis.

14. The statement on page 8 relating to the 1957 earnings from the four wells on the Texas properties in that such figure, $201,243, apparently represents gross income.

15. The statement on page 8 of the offering circular implying that reduced allowable production accounted solely for the decline in production in that other material factors were involved which accounted for the production decline.

16. The statement on page 9 relating to the value of the California properties in the amount of $403,340 in that the assigned value of $20 per acre is of such a speculative, arbitrary and fluctuating nature as to preclude the inclusion of such amount as a representation.

17. The failure to disclose in the offering circular the use of proceeds in the event the amount sold is insufficient to purchase the Texas properties.

B. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. Copies of the underwriting agreement and signed consents of underwriters have not been filed as required by Items 11 (b) and 11 (c) of Form 1-A.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261 (a) of the rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any persons having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing within 30 days after the entry of this order; that within 20 days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; that, if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission this order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission; and that notice of the time and place for such hearing will be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

[Declaration of Disaster Area 193]

KANSAS

DECLARATION OF DISASTER AREA

Whereas, it has been reported that during the month of July, 1958, because of the effects of certain disasters, damage resulted to residences and business property located in certain areas in the State of Kansas;

Whereas, the Small Business Administration has investigated and has received other reports of investigations of conditions in the areas affected;

Whereas, after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such areas constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended;

Now, therefore, as Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that:

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 207 (b) (1) of the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended, may be received and considered by the Office below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the following County (including any areas adjacent to said County) suffered damage or other destruction as a result of the catastrophe hereinafter referred to:

County: Atchison (Flash flood occurring on or about July 11, 1958).

Office: Small Business Administration Regional Office, Home Savings Building, Fifth Floor, 1006 Grand Avenue, Kansas City 6, Missouri.

2. No special field offices will be established at this time.

3. Applications for disaster loans under the authority of this declaration will not be accepted subsequent to January 31, 1959.

Dated: July 11, 1958.

WENDELL B. BARNES,
Administrator.

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS

JULY 18, 1958.

The following applications are governed by the Interstate Commerce Commission's special rules governing notice of filing of applications by motor carriers of property or passengers and by brokers under sections 206, 209, and 211 of the Interstate Commerce Act and certain other procedural matters with respect thereto (49 CFR 1.241).

All hearings will be called at 9:30 o'clock a. m., United States standard time (or 9:30 o'clock a. m., local daylight saving time), unless otherwise specified.

APPLICATIONS ASSIGNED FOR ORAL HEARING OR PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE

MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

No. MC 1184 (Sub No. 11), filed June 26, 1958. Applicant: GEORGE F. BURNETT COMPANY, INC., P. O. Box 2538, 20450 West Ireland Road, South Bend, Ind. Applicant's attorney: James W. Wrape, 2111 Sterick Building, Memphis 3, Tenn. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Foreign automobiles, in truckaway service, from Muskegon, Mich., to South Bend, Ind. Applicant is authorized to conduct operations in Alabama, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and the District of Columbia.

HEARING: September 18, 1958, in U. S. Court Rooms, Indianapolis, Ind., before Joint Board No. 23.

No. MC 7073 (Sub No. 3), CORRECTION, filed March 31, 1958, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER June 11, 1958 on Page 4115. Applicant: EUGENE E. BOOS, doing business as BOOS APPLIANCE & HARDWARE COMPANY, Highland, Kans. Applicant's attorney: Ernest W. Rothfelder, 1012-15 Corby Building, St. Joseph, Mo. The previous publication indicated that the proposed transportation of the various commodities listed in the first part of the notice would originate from Kansas City, Mo., and points in Doniphan County, Kans. This was in error. The origin point of the proposed operation is Kansas City, Mo., only, and the commodities are destined to points in Doniphan County, Kans., and points in Brown County, Kans., on and east of Combined U. S. Highways 159 and 73, also the ice and fertilizer will originate only at St. Joseph, Mo., and are destined to Highland, Kans., and points in Kansas. Ordinary livestock will be transported on return.

HEARING: September 11, 1958, in Room 852, U. S. Custom House, 610 South Canal Street, Chicago, Ill., before Joint Board No. 149.

No. MC 71452 (Sub No. 2), filed June 13, 1958. Applicant: W. C. SMITH, doing business as INDIANA FILM TRANSIT COMPANY, 220 Osage Street, Indianapolis 4, Ind. Applicant's attorney: Ferdinand Born, 1019 Chamber of Commerce Building, Indianapolis 4, Ind. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: General commodities, except those of unusual value, Class A and B explosives, livestock, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and those requiring special equipment, between Indianapolis, Ind., and points in Carroll, Cass, Miami, Wabash, White, Tippecanoe, Clinton, Howard, Tipton, Grant, Blackford, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, Putnam, Hendricks, Marion, Hancock, Henry, Wayne, Parke, Vigo, Clay, Owen, Morgan, Johnson, Shelby, Rush, Fayette, Monroe, Martin, Lawrence, Brown, Jackson, Bartholomew, Jennings, Decatur, Greene, and Jay Counties, Ind. Applicant indicates the authority as here requested is subject to the restriction that only those shipments which have had an immediately prior or an immediately subsequent movement by aircraft will be transported. Applicant states that it is his view that the operations as proposed are exempt; that the service would be incidental to transportation by aircraft; and applicant contends that the exemption in section 203 (b) (7a) is applicable. Applicant is authorized to conduct operations in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, and Ohio.

HEARING: September 17, 1958, in the U. S. Court Rooms, Indianapolis, Ind., before Joint Board No. 72.

No. MC 75830 (Sub No. 4), filed June 11, 1958. Applicant: INTER-CITY TRANSPORT & MOTOR COMPANY, P. O. Box 88, Buckhannon, W. Va. Applicant's attorney: Herbert Baker, 50 West Broad Street, Columbus 15, Ohio. Applicant is authorized to conduct operations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois.

NOTE: Applicant states that the above service will be conducted under special and individual contracts with persons as defined in section 203 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act who operate chain retail variety stores.

HEARING: September 5, 1958, at the Fulton Building, 101–115 Sixth Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., before Examiner Alfred B. Hurley.

No. MC 92722 (Sub No. 10), filed June 14, 1956. Applicant: ROBERT R. WALKER, INC., 1818 West Sample Street, P. O. Box 206, South Bend, Ind. Applicant's attorney: Wilmer A. Hill, Transportation Building, Washington, D. C. This is a second publication, which covers a Report of the Commission, Division 1, adopted June 27, 1958. The application as filed sought authority for the transportation of certain vehicles and parts both in initial and secondary movement. The secondary authority requested was for operation between all points in the territory described in the initial movement portion of the application subject to certain restrictions. As published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 4, 1956, however, the secondary authority sought was described as from South Bend to points in the territory named. Division 1, in its Report, states: "We find that the present and future public convenience and necessity require operation by applicant as a common carrier by motor vehicle, in interstate or foreign commerce, over irregular routes, (1) of motor vehicles, except trailers, in initial movements in truckaway service, from South Bend, Ind., to points in Alabama, Georgia, New Mexico, Tennessee, and those in North Carolina east of a line commencing at the Virginia-North Carolina State line and extending along U. S. Highway 21 to Statesville, N. C., thence along U. S. Highway 70 to Salisbury, N. C., and thence along U. S. Highway 52 to the North Carolina-South Carolina State line, and (2) of the commodities described in (1) above, in secondary movements, in truckaway service, between all points in the territory described in (1) above, limited to the transportation of such shipments as have been transported by applicant or other carriers in initial movements from South Bend and restricted against the transportation of such traffic as has had an immediately prior movement by water; that applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and our rules and regulations thereunder; that an appropriate certificate should be granted after the lapse of 30 days from the date of republication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a corrected statement of the authority sought herein, provided that no petitions for further hearing are received during that period and that the application in all respects should be denied."

No. MC 94430 (Sub No. 16), filed June 11, 1958. Applicant: WEISS TRUCKING COMPANY, INC., Mongo, [illegible]. Applicant's attorney: Herbert Baker, 50 West Broad Street, Columbus 15, Ohio. Authority sought to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Cement, in bulk, in tank vehicles and in containers, from points in Lucas and Erie Counties, Ohio, to points in the following counties in Indiana: Cass, Delaware, Fulton, Hamilton, Hancock, Henry, Howard, Madison, Marion, Marshall, Randolph, St. Joseph, Tipton, and Wayne, and empty containers or other such incidental facilities used in transporting cement on return. Applicant is authorized to conduct operations in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and Illinois.

HEARING: September 23, 1958, in the New Post Office Building, Columbus, Ohio, before Joint Board No. 60.

No. MC 103654 (Sub No. 44), (REPUBLICATION) filed April 4, 1958. Applicant: SCHIRMER TRANSPORTATION COMPANY INCORPORATED, [illegible] Pelham Boulevard, St. Paul, Minn. Applicant's attorney: Donald A. Morken, 100 First National-Soo Line Building, Minneapolis 2, Minn. This is a second notice of an application which, as originally filed sought authority to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Liquid or dry packing house products, materials and supplies, rendering plant products, materials and supplies that can be poured, scooped or shoveled, in bulk, between points in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri, the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, and Kansas. Under date of April 22, 1958, prior to the original publication, applicant's attorney tendered an amendment to the application to broaden the scope and include that part of the Chicago, Ill., Commercial Zone in the State of Indiana. The amendment was accepted and applicant's attorney so advised. However, when the application was assigned for hearing the publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER failed to include the additional territory sought: "that part of the Chicago, Ill., Commercial Zone in Indiana". At a hearing held June 25, 1958 at Minneapolis, Minn., before Examiner Harold P. Boss applicant was allowed to present evidence of need as to service to that portion of the Chicago, Ill., Commercial Zone extending into Indiana. The application was also further amended in certain respects. The Examiner's Report and Recommended Order will give consideration to the need for service to that territory. However, such report will not be served until a lapse of 30 days after this publication within which time any person or persons who may have been prejudiced by the allowance of the amendment and the failure of the previous publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER to reflect such amendment may file an appropriate petition for further hearing.

No. MC 105269 (Sub No. 24), filed July 3, 1958. Applicant: GRAFF TRUCKING

HEARING: September 17, 1958, in Room 852, U. S. Custom House, 610 South Canal Street, Chicago, Ill., before Examiner Alfred B. Hurley.

No. MC 117100 (Sub No. 1), (REPUBLICATION), filed May 16, 1958, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of June 5, 1958, on page 2956. Applicant: SAM ORGEL AND JULE ORGEL doing business as ELIZABETH RUBBER WASTE, 248 First Street, Elizabeth, N. J. Applicant's representative: Bert Collins, 140 Cedar Street, New York 6, N. Y. This is a second notice of an application which as originally published incorrectly described the method of transportation of the commodities sought to be transported by reason of the omission of the phrase "and in containers". At a hearing held on July 10, 1958, before Examiner John P. McCarthy, applicant was allowed to amend the application to correct the error. The application was also further amended in certain respects. The operations proposed by applicant, and as set forth at the hearing cover the transportation of rubber (crude, natural or synthetic), except that transported in bulk, in tank vehicles, reclaim rubber, scrap rubber and hard rubber scrap-pulverized, plastic pellets or granules and powder, plastic scrap, loose and in containers, between points in Essex, Union, Hudson, Bergen, Passaic and Middlesex Counties, N. J., and New York, N. Y., on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, and that part of Pennsylvania on and east of a line beginning at the Maryland-Pennsylvania State line and extending north along U. S. Highway 111 to Harrisburg, Pa., thence along U. S. Highway 15 to the New York State line, over irregular routes. Evidence was received in support of the application as amended. The Examiner's Report and Recommended Order will not be served until a lapse of 30 days after this publication within which time any person who may have been prejudiced by the allowance of the amendment may file an appropriate petition for a further hearing.

No. MC 117100 (Sub No. 2) (REPUBLICATION), published in FEDERAL REGISTER July 9, 1958, at page 5223, filed July 19, 1958. Applicant: SAM ORGEL AND JULE ORGEL, doing business as ELIZABETH RUBBER WASTE, 248 First Street, Elizabeth, N. J. Applicant's representative: Bert Collins, 140 Cedar Street, New York 6, N. Y. Authority sought to operate as a contract carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Rubber (crude, natural or synthetic) except in bulk, in tank vehicles, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and hard scrap-pulverized, plastic pellets or granules and powder, plastic scrap, loose, in containers, and in bulk, between points in New Jersey and New York, N. Y., on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New York.

NOTE: Applicant states that the above-described operations will be limited to a transportation service to be performed under a continuing contract or contracts with A. Schulman, Inc., Akron, Ohio.

HEARING: September 9, 1958, at the Offices of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., before Examiner Leo W. Cunningham.

No. MC 117167 (REPUBLICATION), filed February 7, 1958. Applicant: EDWIN J. BARRETT, doing business as BARRETT'S AUTO SERVICE, 6902 Railroad Avenue, Omaha, Nebr. Applicant's attorney: John C. Barrett, 4825 South 24th Street, Omaha 7, Nebr. This is a second notice of an application which as originally published inadvertently omitted the State of Iowa which applicant proposed to serve in addition to the States of Nebraska, Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas, South Dakota, and Minnesota, in the transportation as a common carrier, over irregular routes, of wrecked and disabled motor vehicles and trailers, in truckaway service, requiring the use of wrecker equipment. At a hearing held July 7, 1958, before Examiner Lucian A. Jackson applicant was allowed to present evidence of need as to service to Iowa. The Examiner's Report and Order will consider the need for service to Iowa as well as the States shown above. However, such report will not be served until a lapse of 30 days after this publication within which time any person or persons who may have been prejudiced by the allowance of the evidence pertaining to the need for service to Iowa may file an appropriate petition for further hearing.

No. MC 117335, filed April 14, 1958. Applicant: COURTNEY C. McCOY, South Webster, Ohio. Applicant's attorney: Richard H. Brandon, Hartman Building, Columbus 15, Ohio. Authority sought to operate as a common or contract carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, transporting: Clay, in bulk, in dump vehicles, (1) from points in Greenup and Carter Counties, Ky., to points in Jackson, Scioto, and Lawrence Counties, Ohio; (2) from points in Lawrence County, Ohio, to points in Greenup County, Ky.

NOTE: Applicant states it is not certain whether his operations would be that of a contract or common carrier under the new definition as prescribed by the Commission in section 203 (a) (15) of the Interstate Commerce Act. Applicant has filed with this application a Motion to Dismiss on the grounds that the authority sought above is not required.

HEARING: September 19, 1958, in the New Post Office Building, Columbus, Ohio, before Joint Board No. 37.

No. MC 117336, filed April 14, 1958. Applicant: VINTON H. McCOY, Rt. 2, Oak Hill, Ohio. Applicant's attorney: Richard H. Brandon, Hartman Building, Columbus 15, Ohio. Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 1683]

COLORADO

AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 8957 OF DECEMBER 3, 1941, WHICH WITHDREW PUBLIC LANDS FOR USE OF WAR DEPARTMENT

By virtue of the authority vested in the President, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Executive Order No. 8957 of December 3, 1941, which withdrew public lands in Colorado for use of the War Department as camp sites, is hereby amended by deleting therefrom the following paragraph added thereto by Executive Order No. 9526 of February 28, 1945:

The jurisdiction granted by this order shall cease at the expiration of the six months' period following the termination of the unlimited national emergency declared by Proclamation No. 2487 of May 27, 1941 (55 Stat. 1647). Thereupon, jurisdiction over the lands hereby reserved shall be vested in the Department of the Interior, and any other department or agency of the Federal Government according to their respective interests then of record. The lands, however, shall remain withdrawn from appropriation as herein provided until otherwise ordered.

2. Executive Order No. 8957 is further amended by substituting the words "Department of the Army" for the words "War Department" wherever they appear.

3. Executive Order No. 8957 of December 3, 1941 affects the following-described public lands:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 13 S., R. 66 W.,
Sec. 22, NW¼NE¼.
T. 16 S., R. 67 W.,
Sec. 11, E½SE¼;
Sec. 14, E½NE¼NW¼;
Sec. 26, NW¼NW¼.
T. 17 S., R. 66 W.,
Sec. 5, NE¼NE¼ (lot 1);
Sec. 18, NW¼SW¼ (lot 3).

The areas described aggregate 261.85 acres.

4. The Department of the Interior retains jurisdiction over the management of the surface and subsurface resources, including mineral resources, of the lands. No disposal of such resources will be made except under applicable public land laws with the concurrence of the Department of the Army and, where necessary, only after modification of the provisions of this order.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Amdt. 81]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE ALTERATIONS

The standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 609 is amended as follows:

NOTE: Where the general classification (L/MFR, ADF, VOR, TerVOR, VOR/DME, ILS, or RADAR), location, and procedure number (if any) of any procedure in the amendments which follow, are identical with an existing procedure, that procedure is to be substituted for the existing one, as of the effective date given, to the extent that it differs from the existing procedure; where a procedure is cancelled, the existing procedure is revoked; new procedures are to be placed in appropriate alphabetical sequence within the section amended.

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100 (a) are amended to read in part:

U. S. STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF DRIED CURRANTS [1]

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance of amendments to the United States Standards for Grades of Dried Currants (7 CFR 52.981 to 52.985) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087 et seq., as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.). The amendments as hereinafter set forth provide for a change in allowance for moldy currants and moisture content.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed amendments should file the same with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed amendments are as follows:

1. In § 52.983, paragraphs (a) and (b), change the moisture limit from "18 percent" to "20 percent."

2. Change § 52.983 (a) (7) to read:

(7) Not more than 3 percent, by count, of dried currants may be moldy;

[1] Compliance with the provisions of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

3. Change § 52.983 (b) (7) to read:

(7) Not more than 4 percent, by count, of dried currants may be moldy;

4. In Table I of § 52.983, change the line for moldy currants to read:

Moldy currants	3	4

5. In § 52.985—work sheet, change the line for moldy currants to read:

Moldy currants	3	4

(Sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1624)

HANDLING OF MILK IN UPSTATE MICHIGAN MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement, and order regulating the handling of milk in the Upstate Michigan marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, were formulated, was conducted at Traverse City, Michigan, on May 20, 1958, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued April 25, 1958 (23 F. R. 2932).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. The price for Class I milk;
2. Individual-handler pools and pool plant qualification requirements of distributing plants and supply plants;
3. Producer definition;
4. Allocation of producer milk and other source milk in Class II and Class III utilization;
5. Transfers to nonpool plants; and
6. Administrative assessment.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. The price for Class I milk. The Class I price differentials for each month shoud be retained with the present seasonal variations and at the same annual level.

Under the provisions of the order Class I price provisions would have expired on June 30, 1958. On the basis of the record of this hearing the terminating provision has been suspended for July and August, 1958, pending further consideration of continuing pricing provisions and other issues of the hearing. Class I price differentials added to a basic formula price under the order are $1.05 during the months of February through June and $1.45 during the months of July through January. These seasonal changes and the level of the Class I price differentials were made effective in October 1956, following the introduction of seasonal pricing in the Detroit market, which became effective in the Detroit order, September 1956. Seasonal changes in the Class I price differentials in the Muskegon order, following the same seasonal pattern as this order, have been made as of July 1, 1958. These revisions have been made in recognition of the need for alignment of prices among the Upstate Michigan, Muskegon and Detroit federal order markets. Regular supplemental supplies of milk priced under the Detroit order are received by a handler under the Upstate Michigan order. Other supplemental supplies of milk are received from handlers under the Muskegon order. The need for alignment of prices among these markets has been established on previous records. No evidence was introduced on this record which diminishes this need for maintaining the alignment of prices now established for these markets.

The percentage of producer receipts utilized as Class I milk has increased approximately 2 percent, on a monthly average basis, from 1956 to 1957. Producer receipts classified as Class I milk during the period October 1956 through January 1957 averaged 83 percent. For a similar period beginning in October 1957 this average was 85 percent. These four of the seven months when the higher rate of Class I price differentials applies in computing the Class I price are those for which there are comparable data. Producer receipts classified as Class I milk for February, March, and April, 1956, averaged 76 percent. During the same months of 1957, the average was 77 percent. Since July 1956 premium prices have been paid in this market for every month except July and August, 1957. These prices have exceeded Class I prices under the order by amounts that have been as much as 64 cents. This balance of producer receipts and Class I milk has been maintained with these prices somewhat above order prices.

The introduction of a supply-demand adjustment factor in the Class I price formula should be delayed until the market has had further experience under the present provisions of the order. Marketwide pooling provisions have been in effect less than a year under this order. Seasonal pricing in this market is of recent origin having been effective since October 1958. It can be expected that these factors will change the balance of the supply and demand in this market. At a future date, when more experience has been gained under these provisions, consideration may be given to the inclusion of a supply-demand adjustor. In view of these factors, it is concluded that the present level of Class I price should be continued without inclusion of automatic adjustment features other than the seasonal changes in the basic formula price.

Certain handlers recommended that the Class I price differential of $1.45 over the basic formula price for the month of January be reduced to $1.05. These handlers claim to have received increasing supplies of producer milk in excess of their Class I requirements during January 1957 and 1958. The total producer milk classified as Class I milk has increased from 76 percent in January 1956 to 82 percent in January 1958. These percentages are in each case almost identical with those for the preceding December. Similarly, producer milk classified as Class I milk has increased from 72 percent in February 1956 to 81 percent in February 1958. Although individual handlers may experience surplus supplies of milk in January, the market experience at this time does not warrant reduction of the Class I price differential for January.

Therefore, it is concluded that the current order Class I price differentials of $1.05 for the months of February through June, and $1.45 for the months of July through January should be continued.

2. The present marketwide type of pool and pool plant provisions should be retained.

This order was amended, effective August 1, 1957, to provide that returns to producers be distributed on the basis of a marketwide pool. The cooperative association representing a majority of producers, under the previous individual-handler pooling arrangement, was required to handle virtually all of the surplus milk of the market. Handlers with agreements with this association received only the volumes of milk necessary for their fluid milk requirement. These handlers depended on this association to provide supplemental supplies of milk and to handle their surplus milk. This situation has continued to the present time.

Another cooperative association with a fluid milk plant regulated under the Upstate Michigan order and a supply plant regulated under the Detroit order proposed returning to an individual-handler pool basis. It was pointed out that no plant under this order provides facilities for manufacture of surplus milk from the cooperative's fluid milk plant. They contend that individual-handler pools would permit greater returns to their producers who have reduced the seasonality in their production to a greater extent than the average of the remaining producers on the market. Producer members of this cooperative have farms located in an area in which competition for supplies from Detroit and unregulated markets exceeds that of the Upstate Michigan market. A handler also joined in the proposal for individual-handler pooling.

Handlers have continued to depend on the bargaining cooperative association, which does not have a fluid milk plant, to handle practically all of the excess milk and to provide supplemental supplies of milk. It was not demonstrated that handlers had changed their methods of operations significantly during the 10 month period that this market has been on a marketwide pool basis. The cooperative association which operates a distributing plant assumes the responsibility of procuring supplies of milk for its own bottling requirements and handling any excess production of its members. However, most handlers depend on the bargaining cooperative to perform these functions. In view of these marketing conditions, the marketwide pool should be continued.

The cooperative association with a fluid milk operation proposed that if individual-handler pools were not adopted, then distributing plant requirements should be revised to exclude plants distributing less than 30 percent of producer receipts as fluid milk products during the month in the marketing area. Under this proposal this association's plant would be fully regulated during the months of July and August and only partially regulated during other months.

A distributing plant becomes regulated when distribution of either 150,000 pounds or more, or 20 percent or more of producer receipts as fluid milk products is made in the marketing area during the month. The proposed elimination of the volume standard and increase in the percentage requirement to 30 percent for pool status would provide opportunity for plants with considerable volumes of milk to enter this small market under partial regulation. The major volume of sales in the market has continued to be by numerous small handlers with plants located throughout the area. The proponent, however, disposes of approximately 12 percent of the total in-area sales of the market, in addition to more extensive out-of-area sales. This proposal to permit the shift from full regulation to partial regulation during all months except July and August could cause instability in the market and wide fluctuations in sales and producer receipts. Other nearby unregulated plants with large volumes of milk would have the same opportunity as this plant. A situation could then result whereby a major portion of the sales in the marketing area would not be included in the pool. For these reasons it is concluded that the proposed revision of distributing plant standards should be denied.

A third cooperative association proposed that the shipment to a distributing plant of 30 percent of producer receipts at a supply plant should be sufficient to qualify the supply plant for pool status. It was also proposed that continued shipment of 30 percent of producer receipts by a supply plant to a distributing plant during each of the months of July through November would qualify a supply plant regardless of shipments through the following November. This plant at times has provided supplemental supplies of milk to handlers in the market, but for an extended period of time furnished no milk to regulated handlers. On the basis of experience since adoption of marketwide pooling, the present requirements provide reasonable standards for qualification in a market of this type. There was no showing that the present shipping standards for supply plants do not reflect the degree of association with the market on which pool plant status should depend. The proposed reduction in supply plant standards is therefore denied.

3. Producer definition. The order should specify more definitely the past association with the market required of producers whose milk is to be included in the marketwide pool when diverted for the account of a handler or cooperative association.

The cooperative association representing a substantial majority of the producers whose milk is delivered to pool plants of proprietary handlers in the Upstate Michigan market accepts the responsibility for marketing producer milk in excess of the needs of many of these handlers by diversion from farms to nonpool plants. Such diversions may represent either seasonal surpluses or those resulting from daily sales fluctuations of pool plants with limited storage and manufacturing facilities.

This cooperative association requested that the order specify a standard of association with the market so that they would know the producers eligible for pooling through diversion. Prior to adoption of the marketwide pooling provisions (August 1, 1957) a limited standard of such association defined the "associated producers" eligible to share in a handler's utilization on milk which the handler neither received nor diverted. Receipt at a handler's plant during the preceding November was required.

A more realistic standard of association with the market for purposes of identifying qualified dairy farmers eligible for producer status on diverted milk would be delivery to a pool plant on half or more of the delivery days of any three of the preceding twelve months or on any three days of the current or immediately preceding month. The Upstate Michigan market has two periods in which it may be expected that milk of all producers will be needed regularly in the market, the July–August tourist season of increased sales, and the October–December period of lowest production. Delivery to a pool plant on half of the delivery days (recognizing thereby the alternate day delivery of bulk tank producers) in any three of the preceding twelve months is a reasonable minimum qualification for pooling of diverted milk. Provision should also be made for those producers currently delivering milk to a pool plant whose milk may be diverted. Accordingly delivery in the preceding month or prior delivery in the current month should also qualify diverted milk for pooling. It is concluded that these standards should be included in the order.

4. Allocation. Provision should be included to allocate producer milk to Class II use in a handler's plant in July and August in a volume commensurate with his uses in other months if other source milk thereby allocated to Class I use is priced under another order.

Class I sales in the Upstate Michigan marketing area are substantially higher during the vacation season of July and August than at other periods of the year. For 1957 daily average sales in July and August were 50 and 57 percent respectively above the averages for other months. For some handlers the increase is even greater; in some cases July and August sales are from two to three times those of other months.

It is uneconomical for the market to develop local production of milk adequate for the July and August business. To do so would require carrying substantial surpluses throughout other months of the year. July and August are months in which milk supplies are available from other markets which have seasonal surpluses at that time.

Under the present provisions of the order in July and August all producer receipts of many handlers are, except for allowable plant loss, priced as Class I milk. Handlers must import, for these months, either in finished form or as raw materials, the Class II items such as cream, cottage cheese and ice cream mix with which a number of such handlers complement their fluid milk sales. As a consequence, many handlers have discontinued manufacture of these products entirely, and Class II usage in the market represents only 2 to 3 percent of producer receipts, while a cooperative association must divert milk for manufacturing use as Class III milk at a lower return.

Handlers and producers agree that provisions which would retain in Class II a reasonable amount of producer milk in July and August for the handler who has regularly used milk for Class II use in other months would contribute to orderly marketing in the Upstate Michigan area. It is concluded that, up to the lesser of the weighted average percentage that Class II utilization was of producer receipts in the preceding 10-month period of September through June, or 8 percent, producer receipts should be allocated to Class II milk in preference to milk priced under another order. This will provide a reasonable minimum basis upon which to observe effectiveness of the provision in encouraging Class II use in other months of milk now used in Class III. Producer milk should not yield priority of allocation to unpriced other source milk, as it is normal practice for some unpriced solids in concentrated form to be used in certain of the Class II products involved.

5. Transfers to nonpool plants. The rules for classification of milk transferred to a nonpool plant should not be changed to require that such milk have prior claim on the highest class utilization at the nonpool plant. The rule should be modified, however, to provide Class I classification to the extent that such utilization at the nonpool plant exceeds receipts at such plant from inspected dairy farmers plus milk classified as Class I milk under the Detroit order.

The Upstate Michigan order presently permits classification of milk transferred to a nonpool plant to be at any classification claimed if use of an equivalent volume of milk in such class can be verified. It was proposed that milk so transferred should be allocated to the highest available use at the nonpool plant, except for April, May or June, when the milk so transferred would be allocated to the lowest available use.

The proposed provision would be identical with that of the order for the Detroit marketing area. That provision was adopted in the Detroit order to discourage the practice of nonpool handlers with Class I disposition from depending upon the Detroit pool to carry their daily and seasonal reserves. There is no evidence, however, that operators of nonpool plants have depended upon Upstate Michigan supplies for such reserves. No handler operating an Upstate Michigan pool plant operates a nonpool bottling plant. This is in contrast to the situation where a number of Detroit handlers operate distributing plants serving other areas.

This order assigns prior claim to the Class I sales of pool plants to Upstate Michigan producers. Similarly, under the circumstances prevailing in this market, transfers to nonpool plants should not claim priority over the receipts at such plants from the inspected producers regularly supplying such plant. There is the probability that both Upstate Michigan and Detroit pool milk may be transferred to the same nonpool plant. In view of the Detroit provisions, priority should also be yielded to the milk required to be classified as Class I under that order. Any higher class utilization in excess of such receipts should be allocated to the pool milk transferred to the nonpool plant. As is currently provided, the same rules should apply in determining the utilization of any milk that may be transferred from the nonpool plant to a second plant.

6. Administrative assessment. The administrative assessment of 5 cents per hundredweight of milk should continue to apply to all producer receipts, and other source milk which is allocated to Class I milk in pool plants. Such other source milk should, however, be limited to that not priced under another order.

The cooperative association representing a majority of producers proposed that the administrative assessments be revised to apply only to milk classified as Class I milk. This association handles the major portion of the diverted milk from handlers in this market and thus pays administrative assessment on such diverted milk which is used for manufacturing purposes. This group claims that this assessment increases the costs to the association's members in providing outlets for surplus milk to handlers.

Verification of receipts, utilization and payments is required of all handlers regardless of the utilization of milk by a particular handler. Equity in sharing the cost of administration of the order among handlers is achieved under the present provisions.

The cooperative association with no Class I utilization of its own may act as the handler for a substantial portion of the surplus milk of the market. This situation, however, is not unique and does not provide a basis for exception to the universal practice in all Federal orders of applying assessment for administrative expense to producer receipts used in all classes. In the event the normal operating balance of the administrative assessment fund is reached, it is possible to reduce the rate of administrative assessment as it applies to producer receipts under the provisions of the order. Therefore, the proposed limitation of the administrative assessment to Class I milk is denied. In view, however, of the increased volumes of milk priced under other orders that may be allocated to Class I utilization under the amended allocation rules discussed elsewhere in this decision, it is considered appropriate to limit the other source milk for which administrative assessment is computed to that not priced under another order.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Upstate Michigan marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

1. Amend § 916.11 to read as follows:

§ 916.11 Producer. "Producer" means any qualified dairy farmer whose milk is received directly from the farm at a pool plant. "Producer" shall also include a qualified dairy farmer with respect to milk diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of a handler or cooperative association, if milk of such qualified dairy farmer was previously received at a pool plant (a) on any three days of the current or immediately preceding month or (b) on half or more of the delivery days of any three of the immediately preceding twelve months. Milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received at the pool plant from which diverted if for the account of the operator of such pool plant, and at a pool plant at the location of the plant from which diverted, if diverted for the account of a cooperative association from the pool plant of another handler.

2. Amend § 916.43 (b) to read as follows:

(b) Skim milk and butterfat disposed of by a handler from a pool plant to a nonpool plant in the form of milk or skim milk shall be Class I utilization if so reported by the handler, or unless the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of receipts and utilization at such nonpool plant, in which case the classification of all skim milk and butterfat at such nonpool plant shall be determined and the skim milk and butterfat transferred from the pool plant shall be allocated to the highest use remaining after allocating, in series beginning with Class I, receipts from dairy farmers who are the regular source of supply of inspected milk for such plant, and receipts from plants regulated under Part 924 of this chapter for the Detroit, Michigan, marketing area. If any milk is transferred from such plant to a second nonpool plant, the same conditions of audit, classification and allocation shall apply in determining classification.

3. Amend § 916.46 to read as follows:

§ 916.46 Allocation of butterfat classified. The pounds of butterfat remaining after making the following computations shall be the pounds in each class allocated to milk received from producers:

(a) Subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in Class II utilization, the pounds of butterfat shrinkage allowed pursuant to § 916.41 (b) (3);

(b) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in each class the pounds of butterfat contained in milk or milk products received in packaged form which were classified and priced under another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the Act and disposed of in the same form as received;

(c) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in each class, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of butterfat remaining in other source milk not subject to the Class I pricing provisions of an order issued pursuant to the act;

(d) For the months of July and August only, subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in Class II the least of:

(1) Such remainder;

(2) A percentage of butterfat in receipts of producer milk equal to the weighted average percentage that Class II utilization (exclusive of shrinkage and inventory) was of producer receipts during the preceding months of September through June; or

(3) 8 percent of receipts of butterfat in producer milk.

(e) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat remaining in each class, in series beginning with the lowest priced utilization, the pounds of butterfat remaining in other source milk subject to the Class I pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act;

(f) Subtract from the remaining pounds of butterfat in Class II and Class I, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of butterfat in inventory of fluid milk products and cream on hand at the beginning of the month;

(g) Subtract from the remaining pounds of butterfat in each class, the pounds of butterfat received from other handlers in such classes pursuant to § 916.43 (a); and

(h) Add to the remaining pounds of butterfat in Class II utilization the pounds subtracted pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (d) of this section;

(i) If the remaining pounds of butterfat in all classes exceed the pounds of butterfat in milk received from producers, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of butterfat in each class, in series beginning with the lowest-priced utilization.

4. Amend § 916.51 (a) by deleting the provision as follows: "Through June 30, 1958".

5. In § 916.60 (b) delete "§ 916.46 (g)" and substitute therefor "§ 916.46 (i)".

6. In § 916.60 (c) (1) delete "§ 916.46 (d)" and substitute therefor "§ 916.46 (f)".

7. In § 916.60 (c) (2) change the parenthetical statement "(except as shrinkage)" to "(except as shrinkage and pursuant to § 916.46 (d))".

8. In § 916.74 change "§§ 916.46 and 916.47" to "§ 916.46 (c) and the corresponding step of § 916.47".

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of July 1958.

[SEAL] F. R. BURKE,
Acting Deputy Administrator.

[Docket No. 12509]

DISMISSAL OR AMENDMENT OF COMPETING BROADCAST APPLICATIONS

ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR FILING COMMENTS

In the matter of amendment of §§ 1.311, 1.312 and 1.363 of the Commission's rules, concerning dismissal or amendment of competing broadcast applications.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition filed on July 14, 1958, by the Federal Communications Bar Association requesting that the time for filing comments in the above-entitled proceeding be extended from July 28, 1958, to September 26, 1958.

2. The Association states that its members are vitally interested in the subject matter of the proceeding and that it has had the proposed rule changes under study since the release June 30, 1958, of the notice of rule making herein. It urges that the additional time required is needed to afford the Association sufficient time to determine whether it will be feasible to prepare comments expressing the views of the Association and, if this is not feasible, to afford members of the Association who desire to submit individual comments ample time to do so.

3. Upon considering the representations of the petitioner, the Commission believes that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by affording the additional time required for filing comments.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered, That the aforesaid request of the Federal Communications Bar Association is granted; that the time for filing comments in the above-entitled proceeding is extended from July 28, 1958, to September 26, 1958; and that the time for filing reply comments is extended from August 12, 1958, to October 13, 1958.

Adopted: July 17, 1958.

Released: July 21, 1958.

CONSTRUCTION, SUPPLY AND SERVICE CONTRACTS AND NEGOTIATING CONTRACTS FOR SERVICES OF ENGINEERING AND ARCHITECTURAL FIRMS

REDELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

Order 566 (19 F. R. 3971), as amended (20 F. R. 2092, 5703; 21 F. R. 2290, 7460, 8219) is revised to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Redelegation of authority and designation of Contracting Officers. (a) The authority delegated to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by the Secretary of the Interior in Order 2783 (20 F. R. 425) to negotiate, without advertising, in accordance with Title III of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (41 U. S. C. 251 et seq.) under section 302 (c) (4) of that act, contracts for services of engineering and architectural firms and Order 2509, as amended, pertaining to construction, supply and service contracts, irrespective of the amounts involved, is redelegated to each of the following officials or any one acting for them: The Deputy Commissioner; the Assistant Commissioner, Administration; the Chief, Branch of Plant Design and Construction and Area Directors. Each of those officials, or any one acting for them, is also designated as and is authorized to perform the duties of Contracting Officer.

(b) The Chief, Branch of Property and Supply, or any one acting for him, is authorized to enter into contracts for supplies, equipment and services irrespective of the amount involved, and perform the duties of Contracting Officer in regard to such contracts.

(c) The Administrative Officer, Branch of Plant Design and Construction, or any one acting for him, may enter into contracts for supplies, equipment and services and perform the duties of Contracting Officer in regard to such contracts in amounts not to exceed $10,000 for any one contract.

SEC. 2. Authorized representative of Contracting Officers. (a) The Chief, Branch of Plant Design and Construction, or any one acting for him, is designated as and may perform the duties of the authorized representative of the Contracting Officer as such term is used in such contracts for contracts entered into by the Deputy Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner, Administration, or any one acting for them.

(b) The Assistant Chief, and the Chiefs of the Architectural, Engineering, and Operations Sections, of the Branch of Plant Design and Construction, or any one acting for them, are severally designated as and may severally perform the duties of the authorized representative of the Contracting Officer as such term is used in contracts entered into by the Chief, Branch of Plant Design and Construction, or any one acting for him.

(c) The Chiefs of the following units, Administrative; Contract; Construction Supervision; Cost Estimating; Civil Engineering; Electrical Engineering; Health Facilities; Mechanical Engineering; Plans Production; Project Management; Project Planning; Sanitary Engineering; Specifications; and Structural Engineering, or any one acting for them, are severally designated as and may severally perform the duties of the authorized representative of the Contracting Officer, as such term is used in such contracts with respect to the technical functions in their respective fields of activities for contracts entered into by the Deputy Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Administration, and Chief, Branch of Plant Design and Construction, or any one acting for them.

(d) Authorized representatives of Contracting Officers are not authorized to take final action on those functions relating:

(1) To the termination of a contract;

(2) To disputes concerning questions of fact which are not disposed of by agreement.

SEC. 3. Authority to redelegate. Area Directors may redelegate the authority delegated to them by this order. Each redelegation shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SEC. 4. Appeals. An appeal from a findings of fact or decision of a Contracting Officer shall be made by notice of appeal in writing addressed to the Board of Contract Appeals, Office of the Solicitor, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., and shall be mailed to or filed with the Contracting Officer, within the time allowed by the contract. The notice of appeal shall specify the portion of the findings of fact or decision from which the appeal is taken, and the reasons why the findings or decision are deemed erroneous. Immediately upon receipt of the notice of appeal, the Contracting Officer shall inform the Board by air mail that the appeal has been received. (Regulations governing appeals are published in 19 F. R. 9389.)

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 11751; FCC 58-681]

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS, ALBANY-SCHENECTADY-TROY AND VAIL MILLS, NEW YORK, ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER ASSIGNING MATTER FOR PUBLIC HEARING

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations, Albany-Schenectady-Troy and Vail Mills, New York; and order directing Copper City Broadcasting Corporation to show cause why its authorization for Station WKTV, Utica, New York, should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 2 in lieu of Channel 13; Docket No. 11751.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration: (a) The response of Copper City Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station WKTV, Channel 13, Utica, New York (Copper City) filed on May 16, 1958, to the order to show cause included in the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order adopted April 23, 1958 (24 FCC 352); (b) opposition to requests for reconsideration contained in the response of Copper City, filed on May 26, 1958, by Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation (Van Curler) operating Station WTRI, Channel 35, Albany, New York, and holder of an instrument of authorization for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 13 in Albany; (c) a pleading filed on May 26, 1958, by Central New York Broadcasting Corporation (Central), licensee of Station WSYR-TV, Channel 3, Syracuse, with respect to the response of Copper City; and (d) a letter filed on June 13, 1953, by Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation.

2. On June 24, 1957, the Commission issued a Notice of Further Proposed Rule Making and Orders To Show Cause in the instant proceeding in which it shifted, inter alia, Channel 13 from Utica to Albany and ordered Copper City to show cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 2. In response to the show cause order, Copper City filed, on July 24, 1957, supporting comments consenting to the proposed modification and also filed engineering data with respect to operation on Channel 2, specifying a site (original site) which met all the mileage separation requirements of the rules and specifying a tower 1,373 feet above average terrain (1,081 feet above ground, 2,381 feet above mean sea level). Thus, it was that on September 9, 1957, the Commission issued a Report and Order in this proceeding (23 FCC 358, FCC 57-981), in which it modified the license of Copper City for Station WKTV in Utica to specify operation on Channel 2 in lieu of Channel 13. This order of modification was made subject to the condition that construction of Station WKTV for operation on Channel 2 was not to be commenced until a modified authorization was to be issued. Such an authorization has not yet been issued to Copper City.

3. In a response filed on January 23, 1958, to the show cause order issued September 9, 1957, Copper City asserted that it had been unable to obtain approval of the Airspace Subcommittee for its Channel 2 proposal and consequently specified an alternate site which did receive approval from the Airspace Subcommittee. The Airspace Subcommittee, however, stated that it would approve a height of 2,049 feet (above mean sea level) at the site originally specified. The alternate site proposal involved a mileage separation problem, and, as a result thereof a number of oppositions and counterproposals were submitted, all of which were set forth and discussed in the Commission's Memorandum Opinion and Order of April 23, 1958. In that order the Commission, after careful consideration of the various alternative courses, concluded that the public interest would best be served by ordering Copper City to show cause why its authorization should not be modified to specify operation on Channel 2 at the site originally proposed by Copper City, having the approximate coordinates of 43°06'09" N. latitude 74°56'27" W. longitude, but with an overall antenna height of only 2,049 feet above mean sea level, which height the Airspace Panel has advised it will approve. Additionally, the Commission rejected the contention that this proposed antenna height would result in unsatisfactory service to Utica and adjacent communities. The Commission also ordered that should Copper City desire a hearing it should so indicate in a response to be filed on or before June 2, 1958.

4. In its instant response Copper City alleges that compliance with said order "would permanently and irrevocably impair the service now being rendered by WKTV to the Utica-Rome area"; that such service "can be continued without substantial diminution or impairment" by permitting Copper City to operate from the alternate site (short to Syracuse) with an antenna height above mean sea level of 2,049 feet or at the site originally specified with an antenna height above mean sea level of 2,381 feet. Consequently, Copper City requests that the Commission either (a) reconsider its action of April 23, 1958, and modify its show cause order so as to permit operation at the alternate site, at the height indicated above; (b) reconsider and vacate the Show Cause Order directing the operation of Station WKTV on Channel 2 in lieu of Channel 13; or (c) grant Copper City a hearing pursuant to section 316 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, to show why the Commission's order of April 23, 1958 should not issue.

5. Van Curler's "Opposition" to Copper City's "Response" urges that insofar as Copper City requests that the Comisision reconsider its order to show cause with respect to the original site it has advanced no new arguments which would justify such action; that the request for reconsideration of the action deleting Channel 13 from Utica, is, in effect, an untimely petition for reconsideration of the original Report and Order of June 24, 1957, in the above proceeding; that such a procedure is not feasible in view of the changes which have taken place as a result thereof; that Copper City is estopped from urging such action; that any rights which Copper City may have had to a hearing on whether it should be shifted from Channel 13 to Channel 2 have been waived; and that the only hearing to which it could conceivably be entitled is on the question of whether WKTV should operate at the original site with an antenna height above mean sea level of 2,049 rather than 2,381 feet. Van Curler, also requests that if a hearing is deemed necessary, that it be expedited by holding it before the Commission en banc; or if before an examiner, by directing the examiner to certify the record to the Commission without preparing an initial decision as provided for in section 409 (b) of the act. Van Curler urges that any other procedure would tend to frustrate the Commission's purpose to provide three equally competitive services to Albany-Schenectady-Troy at the earliest possible date. Van Curler points out, additionally, that the only reason given by Copper City for requesting reconsideration is the unsupported allegation that operation at the original site with an antenna height of 2,049 feet above mean sea level would impair, irrevocably, the service now being rendered to the Utica-Rome area; that this contention has been rejected by the Commission; that Van Curler engineering consultants, three in all, support the conclusion that adequate service would be provided to the Utica-Rome area from the original site at the height approved; and that Van Curler is prepared to demonstrate its conviction by building a station on Channel 2 with the height, and from the site specified by the Commission, if the Commission will issue authority for such construction.

6. Central in its pleadings merely reiterates its opposition to the authorization of Copper City at the alternate site which would result in a separation of less than 60 miles to the WSYR-TV site, required by the rules with respect to adjacent channels.

7. In a letter filed on June 13, 1958, Van Curler directs the Commission's attention to an article appearing in the New York Times, on June 12, 1958, at page 63-c which is an account of NBC's announcement of its proposal to abandon its UHF station in Buffalo, New York, because of its inability to compete in that market with the two VHF stations operating in the area. Van Curler alleges that this NBC announcement further emphasizes the dilemma of Van Curler in attempting to continue operation on Channel 35 until such time as Channel 13 is vacated by Copper City.

8. For the reasons stated in its Memorandum Opinion and Order and Order To Show Cause of April 23, 1958, the Commission concluded that the public interest, convenience and necessity would best be served by directing Copper City to show cause why it should not operate on Channel 2, with an overall antenna height not to exceed 2,049 feet above mean sea level at a site having the approximate coordinates 43°06'09" N. latitude, 74°56'27" W. longitude. In reaching this conclusion, the Commission also considered the possibility of authorizing the alternate site favored by Copper City but rejected the proposal as not being in the public interest. Nothing in the response changes this conclusion. Insofar as Copper City requests that the Commission reconsider its action of April 23, 1958, and vacate the Show Cause Order directing operation of Station WKTV on Channel 2 in lieu of Channel 13, it is clear that such an action would require reconsideration of the entire rule making proceeding. However, Copper City has advanced no arguments which refute the soundness of our original judgment that the public interest would best be served by making the Albany area a three VHF market and we adhere to the reasons stated in support thereof. As contemplated in our Show Cause Order of April 23, 1958, Copper City was to be afforded a hearing if it so requested. In this connection, Van Curler has requested that a hearing, if necessary, should be expedited by holding it before the Commission en banc or as provided for in section 409 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended. The Commission is sympathetic to the desires of Van Curler for a quick disposition of the instant case. However, we are not persuaded that the circumstances require a hearing before the Commission en banc, or that such a procedure would necessarily conduce to expedition, since the press of other business and the fact that the Commission will meet only once during the month of August makes it unlikely that a hearing date could be set until sometime in the Fall. Nor, can we make the necessary finding under section 409 (b) of the act that "* * * due and timely execution of [our] functions imperatively and unavoidably require that the record be certified to [us] for initial or final decision."

In view of the above; it is ordered, That the requests for reconsideration contained in the "Response of Copper City Broadcasting Corporation to Show Cause Order dated April 25, 1958" filed on May 16, 1958, are denied; that the request of Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation in its "Opposition" for a hearing before the Commission en banc or for an expedited hearing pursuant to section 409 (b) of the act is denied.

It is further ordered, That, pursuant to sections 303 (f) and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing be held at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., at a time to be specified in a subsequent order, before an Examiner to be later designated, to determine whether the public interest, convenience and necessity would be promoted by modifying the license of Copper City Broadcasting Corporation for Station WKTV, Channel 13 in Utica, to specify operation on Channel 2, from a site having the approximate coordinates 43°06'09" N. latitude 74°56'27" W. longitude, with an overall antenna height (including obstruction lighting) not exceeding 2,049 feet above mean sea level.

It is further ordered, That the hearing in this proceeding be expedited.

It is further ordered, That the Chief of the Broadcast Bureau and Van Curler Broadcasting Corporation are made parties to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence and the burden of proof shall be upon the Commission.

CHARLES R. BRAMLETT ET AL.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING CONFERENCE

In re applications of Charles R. Bramlett, Torrance, California, Docket No. 11978, File No. BP-9833; Latin-American Broadcasting Corporation, Monterey Park, California, Docket No. 11981, File No. BP-10811; Radio Orange County, Inc., Anaheim, California, Docket No. 12218, File No. BP-11236; Anaheim-Fullerton Broadcasting Co., Inc., Anaheim-Fullerton, California, Docket No. 12219, File No. BP-11242; for construction permits.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration certain proposals for modifying the future course of this proceeding which were made at a conference held on July 18, 1958;

It appearing that a conference was held on May 12, 1958, at which time the date of September 8, 1958, was established as the date for commencement of the hearing proper; and

It further appearing that in the meantime consultations have taken place among the applicants looking toward the elimination of competing applications through the dismissal of all except the application of Radio Orange County, Inc.; and

It further appearing from representations of counsel that petitions to dismiss without prejudice have been filed or will shortly be filed by Charles R. Bramlett and Anaheim-Fullerton Broadcasting Co., Inc. but that the intentions of Latin-American Broadcasting Corporation cannot at the present time be definitely ascertained; and

It further appearing that the public interest would be served by learning at the earliest possible date whether this is to be a competitive proceeding between two or more applicants or whether it will be heard only upon noncompetitive issues;

It is ordered, This 18th day of July 1958, that a further hearing conference will be held on July 24, 1958, at 9:00 a. m. in Washington, D. C., for the purpose of reconsidering the course of hearing.

[Docket No. 12528 etc.; FCC 58-669]

DONALD W. HUFF ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Donald W. Huff, Lansdale, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 12528, File No. BP-11313; Equitable Publishing Company, Lansdale, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 12529, File No. BP-11934; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of Donald W. Huff and of the Equitable Publishing Company, each for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1440 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, directional antenna, daytime only, at Lansdale, Pennsylvania;

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, both applicants are legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate the proposed stations but that the simultaneous operation of both proposals would result in mutually destructive interference; that the proposed operations would cause objectionable interference to Stations WCOJ, Coatesville, Pennsylvania (1430 kc, 5 kw, DA-N, U) and WCDL, Carbondale, Pennsylvania (1440 kc, 1 kw, Day); and that the interference which would be received from Station WCDL and from Stations WGCB, Red Lion, Pennsylvania (1440 kc, 1 kw, Day) and WMVB, Millville, New Jersey (1440 kc, 1 kw, DA, Day) would affect more than ten percent of the population within the respective, proposed primary service areas in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applicants were advised by letter dated May 14, 1958, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that, by letter dated May 29, 1958, the licensee of Station WCDL objected to a grant of the applications; and

It further appearing that in a reply dated June 9, 1958, to the Commission's letter of May 14, 1958, counsel for the Equitable Publishing Company contended that Donald W. Huff is not financially qualified to construct and operate his proposed station and that the Equitable Publishing Company proposal will not cause interference to WCDL but that no facts or data were submitted to support said contentions; and that, moreover, a reexamination by the Commission of Donald W. Huff's financial proposal indicates that sufficient funds, assets and credits are available to meet the costs of construction and initial operation of the proposed station; and

It further appearing that, on June 13, 1958, the application of Donald W. Huff was amended to make slight changes in the proposed directional antenna pattern and to include measurement data purporting to show that the proposed operation would not cause interference to Station WCDL and that the loss in population to the proposed operation due to interference from existing stations would only be slightly in excess of ten percent; but that the measurement data submitted do not meet the requirements of the Commission's Technical Standards and; therefore, are not sufficient for the purpose for which they were submitted; and

It further appearing that both applicants have requested a waiver of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above, is of the opinion that a hearing is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operations and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the proposed operations would cause objectionable interference to Stations WCOJ, Coatesville, Pennsylvania, and WCDL, Carbondale, Pennsylvania, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether, because of the interference received, the proposed operations would comply with § 3.28 (c) of the Commission's rules; and if compliance with § 3.28 (c) is not achieved, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section of the rules.

4. To determine which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above named applicants to own and operate the proposed stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programing service proposed in each of the above-mentioned applications.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if either, of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the Chester County Broadcasting Company and the Carbondale Broadcasting Co., Inc., licensees of Stations WCOJ and WCDL, respectively, are made parties to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and parties respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

Released: July 21, 1958.

MUSICAL HEIGHTS, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Musical Heights, Inc., Braddock Heights, Maryland, Docket No. 12530, File No. BP-10918; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1370 kilocycles with a power of 500 watts, directional antenna, daytime only;

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate its proposed station, but that the proposal would involve objectionable interference with Station WAYZ, Waynesboro, Pennsylvania; may distort the directional antenna pattern of Station WFMD, Frederick, Maryland, as a result of the proximity of the towers of the two stations; and that it has not been determined whether the antenna of the instant proposal would be a hazard to air navigation; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applicant was advised by letter dated June 19, 1958, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude at this time that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that the applicant and the licensee of Station WAYZ filed timely replies in which they stated that they would appear at a hearing on the instant application; and

It further appearing that, after consideration of the foregoing, the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the instant application is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the instant proposal, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the instant proposal would involve objectionable interference with Station WAYZ, Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, or any other existing station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the instant proposal would have adverse affects on the directional antenna pattern of Station WFMD, Frederick, Maryland, because of the proximity of the towers of the two stations, and, if so, what corrective measures would be taken by the applicant.

4. To determine whether the antenna system of the instant proposal would be a hazard to air navigation.

5. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That Richard F. Lewis, Jr., Inc., of Waynesboro and The Monocacy Broadcasting Company, licensees of Stations WAYZ and WFMD, respectively, are made parties to the hearing; and

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant and respondents herein, pursuant to the provisions of § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

Released: July 21, 1958.

ROBERT A. CORLEY ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Robert A. Corley, College Park, Georgia, Docket No. 12531, File No. BP-11336; Harvey S. Hester, Smyrna, Georgia, Docket No. 12532, File No. BP-11860; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th of July 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of Robert A. Corley and Harvey S. Hester for construction permits for new standard broadcast stations to operate on 1570 kilocycles, with a power of 1 kilowatt, daytime only, at College Park and Smyrna, Georgia, respectively; and

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicants are legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to construct and operate their proposed stations, but that their proposals involved mutual interference; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applicants were notified by letter dated May 5, 1958, that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that each applicant filed a timely reply; and

It further appearing that, after consideration of the foregoing, we are of the opinion that a hearing on these applications is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the instant proposals, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine, in the light of section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service.

4. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order; and

It is further ordered, That the issues in this proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

Released: July 21, 1958.

PAUL A. BRANDT

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Paul A. Brandt, Gladwin, Michigan, Docket No. 12533, File No. BP-11361; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application of Paul A. Brandt for a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1450 kilocycles with a power of 100 watts, unlimited time, at Gladwin, Michigan;

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate the proposed station but that Stations WCEN, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, and WCBQ, St. Helen, Michigan, of which the applicant is licensee, now serve a portion of the service area of the proposed Gladwin station and that the portion of the proposed service area now receiving service from Station WCEN includes the City of Gladwin; and that, therefore, it appears that a grant of the instant application may be in contravention of the provisions of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules on multiple ownership; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applicant was advised by letter dated June 18, 1958, of the foregoing and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that, by letter dated June 25, 1958, counsel for the applicant stated that Gladwin receives no primary service at night; that the only daytime primary service received in Gladwin is from distant stations; that the applicant has no intention of programing the proposed station in conjunction with any other station of which he is licensee; that Gladwin is located in a different county and different trade area than either Mt. Pleasant or St. Helen; that a weekly newspaper is published in Gladwin; that, in view of these circumstances, the Commission should grant the application without hearing or, if it is the Commission's policy to require a hearing, it is requested that the application be designated at an early date; and

It further appearing that the Commission is unable to make a determination in this matter on the basis of the data before it and is of the opinion that an evidentiary hearing is necessary to obtain complete information relative to the above-captioned application and the grounds advanced in support of the applicant's request for a grant of the application;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the overlap which would exist between the service area of the proposed station and the service areas of Stations WCEN, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, and WCBQ, St. Helen, Michigan, of which Paul A. Brandt is the licensee, the nature and extent of the overlap, and whether such overlap is in contravention of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules on multiple ownership.

3. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That to avail himself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in persons or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

SOUTH KENTUCKY BROADCASTERS (WRUS)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Roth E. Hook and Woodrow Sosh, d/b as South Kentucky Broadcasters (WRUS), Russellville, Kentucky, Docket No. 12534, File No. BMP-7734; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned application (originally filed as a modification of permit) for a construction permit to increase the power of Station WRUS, Russellville, Kentucky (610 kc, 500 watts, Day), to 1 kilowatt; and

It appearing that, except as indicated by the issues specified below, the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate Station WRUS as proposed, but that said operation would cause objectionable interference to Stations WTVN, Columbus, Ohio, and WSGN, Birmingham, Alabama; and that interference received by the instant proposal from said stations would affect more than 10 percent of the population in its normally protected primary service area in contravention of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission rules; and

It further appearing that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applicant was advised by letter dated May 28, 1958, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that, in a timely reply, the applicant stated that it would appear at a hearing on said application; and

It further appearing that, after consideration of the foregoing, the Commission is of the opinion that a hearing on the instant application is necessary;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WRUS.

2. To determine whether the proposed operation of Station WRUS would involve objectionable interference with Stations WTVN, Columbus, Ohio, and WSGN, Birmingham, Alabama, or any other existing standard broadcast station, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the proposed operation of Station WRUS would comply with the provisions of § 3.28 (c) of the Commission rules, and, if not, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

4. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That Radio Columbus, Inc. and Winston-Salem Broadcasting Co., Inc., licensees of Stations WTVN, Columbus, Ohio, and WSGN, Birmingham, Alabama, respectively, are made parties to the hearing; and

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant and respondents herein, pursuant to the provisions of § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

ARNOLD J. STONE ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Arnold J. Stone, Alameda, California, Docket No. 12535, File No. BPH-2414; Patrick Henry and David D. Larsen, a Partnership, Alameda, California, Docket No. 12536, File No. BPH-2437; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned applications of Arnold J. Stone, and Patrick Henry and David D. Larsen, a Partnership, for construction permits for new Class A FM broadcast stations to operate on 92.7 megacycles, Channel No. 224, in Alameda, California;

It appearing that both of the applicants are legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate their proposed stations, but that the operations of both stations as proposed would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicants were advised by letter dated June 10, 1958, of the aforementioned interference and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of either application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing that both applicants replied, indicating that they would appear at a hearing on their applications; and

It further appearing that the Commission, after consideration of the above is of the opinion that a hearing on these applications is necessary; and

It further appearing that according to data submitted in the application of Arnold J. Stone, the antenna height above average terrain should be 85 feet in place of 105.9 feet; and

It further appearing that according to data submitted in the application of Patrick Henry and David D. Larsen, the antenna height above average terrain should be minus 4 feet in place of minus 2 feet; and

It further appearing that in accordance with arrangements made with Bay Radio, licensee of standard broadcast station KSAY, San Francisco, California, Patrick Henry and David D. Larsen propose to mount the FM antenna of their proposed station on the west tower of the three-tower directional antenna system of Station KSAY;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants to own and operate its proposed station.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-mentioned applications.

2. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants herein, pursuant to § 1.140 (c) of the Commission's rules, in person or by an attorney, shall within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission, in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That in the event of a grant of the application of Arnold J. Stone the construction permit shall specify an antenna height above average terrain of 85 feet.

It is further ordered, That in the event of a grant of the application of Patrick

Henry and David D. Larsen the construction permit shall specify an antenna height above average terrain of minus 4 feet.

It is further ordered, That in the event of a grant of the application of Patrick Henry and David D. Larsen the construction permit shall contain a condition requiring that Station KSAY request permission from the Commission to determine power of KSAY by the indirect method; that during the installation period of the FM antenna KSAY shall maintain the directional antenna system as closely as possible to values appearing in the license; and that upon completion of the installation KSAY shall submit sufficient data to show that the directional antenna pattern remains substantially unchanged, but if there is any change in the antenna or common point resistance, KSAY shall submit Forms 302 to report the change.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon a sufficient allegation of facts in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

Released: July 21, 1958.

PRESS WIRELESS, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of the applications of Press Wireless, Inc., Docket No. 12539, File No. 2579-C4-ML-58; Docket No. 12540, File No. 2580-C4-ML-58; for modification of its Centereach, N. Y., and Belmont, Calif., fixed public press station licenses to permit the handling of traffic specified in proposed Tariff F. C. C. No. 34 (International Telecon Service), and certain other non-press communications.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of July 1958;

The Commission, having under consideration:

(a) Applications filed on April 30, 1958, as amended by letter dated June 5, 1958, by Press Wireless, Inc. (PW) for modification of its Centereach, N. Y. (File No. 2579-C4-ML-58) and Belmont, Calif. (File No. 2580-C4-ML-58) fixed public press station licenses to permit the handling of traffic specified in proposed Tariff F. C. C. No. 34 (International Telecon Service) and certain other non-press communications;

(b) Letter dated May 6, 1958, from the Commission to PW requesting certain additional information relative to the subject applications;

(c) Letters dated May 8, 1958, and May 15, 1958, from RCA Communications, Inc. (RCAC) and American Cable and Radio Corporation (AC&R), respectively, opposing a grant of the subject applications;

(d) Letter dated May 23, 1958, from PW in reply to foregoing letter of May 6, 1958, from the Commission;

(e) Letter dated May 26, 1958, from PW in reply to foregoing letters of AC&R and RCAC opposing a grant of the subject applications;

(f) Letter dated May 29, 1958, from the Commission to PW pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, advising as to the reasons it appeared the subject PW applications could not be granted without a hearing and the proposed issues the Commission would consider in any such hearing, copies of which letter were sent to AC&R, RCAC, Globe Wireless, Ltd. (Globe), The French Telegraph Cable Company, The Western Union Telegraph Company (WU) and Tropical Radio Telegraph Company;

(g) Letter dated June 5, 1958, from PW amending its foregoing subject applications to include specific language it desires in authorizations requested;

(h) Letter dated June 9, 1958, from PW in reply to Commission's letter of May 29, 1958, raising certain questions with respect to the Commission's letter of May 29, 1958;

(i) Letter dated June 10, 1958, from Globe in reply to Commission's letter of May 29, 1958, objecting to a grant of the subject applications;

(j) Letters dated June 13, 1958, from AC&R and RCAC in reply to Commission's letter of May 29, 1958, reiterating their previous objections to a grant of the subject applications;

(k) Telegram dated June 17, 1958, from WU objecting to a grant of the subject applications;

(l) Letter dated June 17, 1958, from Globe, objecting to the PW amendment of June 5, 1958;

(m) Letter dated June 19, 1958, from the Commission to PW pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, clarifying questions raised by PW in its reply of June 9, 1958, to the Commission's letter of May 29, 1958, copies of which were sent to AC&R, Globe, RCAC and WU;

It appearing that PW is licensed only in the fixed public press service;

It further appearing that PW's subject applications and proposed tariff request authority for the applicant to handle certain non-press communications of its press customers, including communications in the fixed public service classification, for which the applicant is not licensed;

It further appearing that the Commission, upon examination of the subject PW applications, and upon consideration of all of the foregoing, is unable to determine that the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant of the subject applications;

It further appearing that the two issues suggested for inclusion in any hearing herein by PW in its foregoing letter of June 9, 1958, and the issue suggested by RCAC in its foregoing letter of June 13, 1958, are not necessary as they are covered in essence by issues "(11)" and "(13)" herein;

It further appearing that PW in its "Further Petition for Relief" for (a) an immediate grant of the subject applications or (b) that such applications and proposed tariff be set for hearing either before the Commission en banc or before an Examiner with instructions to expedite the proceedings and to certify the record to the Commission for final decision, has not shown that due and timely execution of the Commission's functions imperatively and unavoidably require the Commission to preside at the hearings herein or further that they require the omission of a Recommended or Initial Decision herein;

It is ordered, That pursuant to the provisions of section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C. at a time to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

(1) The nature, capacity and adequacy of existing communication facilities furnishing service similar to that proposed by the applicant;

(2) The extent of public need, if any, for the proposed service, including:

(a) The extent to which the applicant's press customers now use international teletypewriter exchange (TELEX) service to transmit press traffic only, as presently defined in the respective effective applicable tariffs and the extent to which such customers will use the proposed service for such purpose;

(b) The extent to which the applicant's press customers now use TELEX service to transmit only traffic which does not come within the definition of press traffic as defined in the respective effective applicable tariffs and the extent to which such customers would use the proposed service for such purpose;

(c) The extent to which the applicant's press customers now use TELEX service to transmit both press and non-press traffic in the same call and in the connection the relative percentage of press and non-press matter transmitted in the average TELEX call of this type and the extent to which such customers would use the proposed service for such purposes; and

(d) The expected volume of telegraph traffic and the revenues therefrom to be derived from the proposed service;

(3) The extent to which, if any, the applicant will be required, in order to provide adequate service, to use frequencies and facilities in addition to those now in use by it;

(4) The capacity, transmission quality, and scheduled hours of operation of the circuits related to the subject applications;

(5) The nature of any contracts, agreements, understandings and routing practices between the applicant and any other carrier or operating agency in connection with the type of service and the charges therefor proposed in the subject applications.

(6) The nature of the service to be rendered by the applicant, including points, areas or countries to be served;

(7) The charges to be made, and the division of such charges, including a justification for its basic charge and the per minute charges for service in excess of three minutes;

(8) Competition in communciations service with the points, areas or countries involved in the proposed applications and the rates proposed;

(9) The effects, if any, that a grant of the subject applications would have upon the communication services presently being furnished by other carriers and the revenues derived therefrom by such other carriers;

(10) The effects, if any, the handling of the proposed traffic would have upon the applicant's present quality of its press services, including the extent to which the proposed service would require the use of personnel and facilities which would otherwise be devoted exclusively to the handling of press traffic;

(11) Whether a grant of the subject applications would be consistent with the purpose for which the applicant was and still is licensed, namely, "a specialized press carrier licensed in the fixed public press service";

(12) The specific terms of the authorization sought, if the applications herein were to be granted;

(13) Whether, in the light of the evidence adduced on the foregoing issues, the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by authorizing the applicant to furnish the service provided for in proposed Tariff F. C. C. No. 34 (International Telecon Service), and certain other non-press communications services requested in its letter of June 5, 1958, amending the subject applications.

It is further ordered, That the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau, American Cable and Radio Corporation and its operating subsidiaries All America Cables and Radio, Inc., The Commercial Cable Company and Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., and RCA Communications, Inc., are made parties to the proceeding herein;

It is further ordered, That any United States carrier engaged in furnishing overseas or foreign telegraph communication service which can show it is a party in interest may intervene and participate fully herein pursuant to the provisions of § 1.104 of the Commission's rules;

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served upon each respondent carrier;

It is further ordered, That PW's Petition for Further Relief is denied, except that its request for certification of the record to the Commission for final decision is denied without prejudice to the renewal of such request at the close of the hearings herein.

Released: July 21, 1958.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-12360]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 18, 1958.

Take notice that El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at El Paso, Texas, filed an application on April 8, 1957 (supplemented on April 17, 1957), for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing construction and operation of certain taps and appurtenant facilities and to render additional gas service to two of its present gas utility companies customers, Lea County Gas Company (Lea Gas) and Southern Union Gas Company (Southern) as hereinafter described subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully represented in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The proposed taps and appurtenant facilities are for the purpose of enabling Applicant to make delivery of additional volumes of natural gas under present rates for the kind of services rendered to new domestic and commercial consumer customers of the two gas utility companies above named, and are described as follows:

(1) A main line tap with appurtenances, to be known as the Red Mountain Tap, located on Applicant's main 12-inch system in Luna County, New Mexico, to serve Lea Gas with 40,100 Mcf per year, 1,600 Mcf of which is for service by Lea Gas to its residential customers and the balance of 38,500 Mcf for irrigation pumping engine fuel to farmers.

(2) Three taps with appurtenances hereto, to be known as the Ayers, Doran and Price taps, located along Applicant's main Permian-San Juan pipeline in Lea County, New Mexico, to serve Southern to enable it to resell gas to farmers for operation of irrigation pumping facilities in Luna and Lea Counties, New Mexico. The volumes of gas to be sold and delivered to Southern through each of the taps above named are as follows:

Ayers 8,000 Mcf per annum with peak day requirements of 72 Mcf.
Doran 16,600 Mcf per annum with peak day requirements of 150 Mcf.
Price 42,800 Mcf per annum with peak day requirements of 385 Mcf.

The estimated total cost of all the proposed facilities to be constructed by Applicant is $1100, which will be supplied from funds on hand.

The Applicant states that Lea Gas and Southern will construct and operate the facilities necessary for them to take delivery of gas from Applicant's facilities and for making distribution of the same to their respective customers.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 26, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 4, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket Nos. G-13169 etc.]

SEABOARD OIL CO. ET AL.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

JULY 17, 1958.

In the matters of Seaboard Oil Company et al., Docket Nos. G-13169 et al.; and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation et al., Docket Nos. G-13143 et al.

Numerous exceptions have been filed to the initial decision issued June 17, 1958, by the Presiding Examiner in the matters of Seaboard Oil Company et al., Docket Nos. G-13169 et al., and requests for oral argument thereon have been submitted in connection with the exceptions.

On July 9, 1958, an initial decision was issued by the Presiding Examiner in the matters of Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation et al, Docket Nos. G-13143 et al. The filing date for exceptions in relation to said decision is July 21, 1958.

It is recognized that the above-entitled proceedings are not consolidated but are inter-related. Due to the inter-relationship, it is desirable in the circumstances and consistent with the proper administration of the Natural Gas Act that oral argument be had upon the decisions referred to and the exceptions thereto, at an early date. Expeditious disposition of these matters is necessary in the public interest.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is appropriate in the public interest that oral argument be held on the Examiner's decisions above referred to and the exceptions thereto as hereinafter ordered.

(2) Orderly procedure requires that such oral arguments be held in close sequence as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(1) Oral argument before the Commission in the matters of Seaboard Oil Company et al., Docket Nos. G-13169 et al., be held commencing August 1, 1958, at 10 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C.

(2) Upon completion of the oral argument set forth in paragraph (1) above, oral argument shall be held in the matters of Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation et al., Docket Nos. G-13143 et al.

(3) Parties permitted to participate in the oral argument shall be limited to those parties who have participated in the several proceedings and the oral argument of any party or participant shall be limited to the proceeding or proceedings in which such party shall have participated. The parties desiring oral argument shall advise the Secretary on or before July 25, 1958, and shall specify the amount of time requested for presentation of argument.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-14802]

MANUFACTURERS LIGHT AND HEAT CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND DATE OF HEARING

JULY 18, 1958.

Take notice that on March 31, 1958, the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company (Applicant), filed in Docket No. G-14802 an application, as amended on June 6, 1958, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities on Applicant's transmission pipeline system between York, Pennsylvania, and its Waynesburg Compressor Station in Greene County, Pennsylvania, in order to serve the increasing requirements of its eastern Pennsylvania markets during the winter of 1958-59 and thereafter, all as more fully set forth in the application and supplement which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate the following facilities:

(1) Approximately 15.95 miles of 24-inch transmission pipeline looping its existing 12-inch Line No. 143 from the Waynesburg Compressor Station in Greene County, Pennsylvania, to a point near Masontown, Pennsylvania;

(2) Approximately 18 miles of 24-inch transmission pipeline from Abbottstown to York, Pennsylvania, paralleling a portion of Applicant's old "oil line system" now used for natural gas service, and

(3) A regulator station at East York in Adams County, Pennsylvania, where the proposed 18-mile line will connect with the old oil line system.

The proposed construction will be combined with contemplated future construction in 1959 and 1960 to form a new pipeline extending from Applicant's sources of supply in western Pennsylvania and northern West Virginia to a part of its eastern markets which are presently supplied through Applicant's "oil line system" and its Port Jervis line. Due to size, age and condition of the "oil line system", operation thereof is restricted to a maximum pressure limitation of 250 psia which limits the volume of gas that can be transported through it.

The estimated requirements of Applicant's eastern market are as follows:

	1958	1959	1960	1961	1962
Annual	49,736,456	52,303,300	55,395,100	57,168,700	59,179,500
Peak day	237,583	247,971	261,990	275,220	288,450

With the facilities proposed in this application, Applicant shows that it can eliminate prospective deficiencies on its "oil line system" through 1958-59, with normal industrial curtailment.

The estimated total capital cost of the proposed facilities is $3,047,000 which will be financed as part of Applicant's overall 1958 construction program through issuance and sale of securities and promissory notes to Applicant's parent, The Columbia Gas System, Inc.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 19, 1958, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 8, 1958. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

On June 3, 1958, Applicant filed a statement invoking the provisions of § 157.28 for temporary authorization.

[2] Pan American Petroleum Corporation, nonoperator, is filing for its 35 percent working interest in the Craft Brothers Lease and is the only signatory seller party to the gas sales contract dated February 17, 1958.

[3] The gas sales contract limits production to depths from surface of ground down to bases of the Trahan and Florence Sands in the north and south segments of the subject field, respectively.

[4] Gulf Interstate will transport the subject gas for the account of United Fuel commingled with its other gas supplies for redelivery into United Fuel's facilities at points in Kentucky. Gulf Interstate received authorization in Docket No. G-2058 to construct and operate the facilities necessary to enable it to take gas from the subject area.

[5] Phillips Petroleum Company, nonoperator, is filing for its 25 percent working interest in production from the Southwestern-Collins Unit and is the only signatory seller party to the gas sales contract dated February 1, 1958. Application states that deliveries of Applicant's gas are presently being made by Southwestern Exploration Company, Operator, pursuant to the latter's gas sales contract with Panhandle Eastern dated October 1, 1957, to which contract Phillips is not a signatory party. Phillips has negotiated the subject contract to dispose of its share of the production. Southwestern has applied for authorization to sell gas produced from the subject unit in pending Docket No. G-14147. Temporary authorization was issued to Southwestern pursuant to § 157.28 by airmail letter dated January 15, 1958.

[7] Fairman Drilling Company, a partnership consisting of Hermes H. Fairman, Harry H. Fairman, Ernest E. Fairman, Roy R. Fairman, Milo M. Fairman, Earl F. Fairman, Frank F. Fairman and Hubert S. Griffiths, is filing for itself and on behalf of the co-owner, William C. Hurtt. All above-named partners and W. C. Hurtt are signatory seller parties to the gas sales contract dated February 17, 1958.

[8] Production is limited to horizons down to and including depth of 3,236 feet below surface.

[9] Gas will be delivered into the facilities of Wilcox for redelivery to Texas Eastern at Provident City, Texas. Wilcox has received authorization in Docket No. G-10840 to construct and operate facilities to enable it to take gas from the subject area. Texas Eastern transports such gas in interstate commerce for resale.

[Docket No. G-15451]

REPUBLIC NATURAL GAS CO. ET AL.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND SUSPENDING PROPOSED CHANGES IN RATES

JULY 18, 1958.

Republic Natural Gas Company et al. (Republic) on June 19, 1958, tendered for filing proposed changes in the presently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed changes, which constitute increased rates and charges, are contained in the following designated filings:

Description: Notices of Change, dated June 18, 1958.

Purchaser: Northern Natural Gas Company.

Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 5 to Republic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8; Supplement No. 7 to Republic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9.

Effective date: July 20, 1958 (effective date is the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice).

In support of the two proposed redetermined rate increases, Republic submits copies of the arbitration award and avers that such is consistent with the covenants of the gas sales contract and that such provision is necessary to insure a just and reasonable price for the gas and a fair return for the seller.

The increased rates and charges so proposed have not been shown to be justified, and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed changes, and that Supplement No. 5 to Republic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8 and Supplement No. 7 to Republic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rates and charges contained in Supplement No. 5 to Republic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 8 and Supplement No. 7 to Republic's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 9.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplements be and they are each hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until December 20, 1958, and until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

By the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 32255 (Sub-No. 1)]

MONTANA INTRASTATE FREIGHT RATES AND CHARGES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of July A. D. 1958.

It appearing that in Ex Parte No. 212, Increased Freight Rates, 1958, decided February 11, 1958, the Commission authorized carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, parties thereto, to make certain increases in their freight rates and charges for interstate application throughout the United States, and that increases under such authorization have been made, subject to investigation of the lawfulness of such rates and charges and the remedial provisions of the Interstate Commerce Act;

It further appearing that on April 14, 1958, the Commission, by division 2, entered an order instituting an investigation under section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act of the Montana intrastate freight rates and charges, docketed as No. 32255, as a result of a petition filed on August 19, 1957, prior to the Commission's decision in Ex Parte No. 212, by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company and other common carriers by railroad operating to, from and between points in the State of Montana, alleging that the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana has failed to authorize or permit petitioners to establish for interstate traffic on their railroads in Montana increases in freight rates and charges corresponding to those authorized by this Commission in Ex Parte No. 196, Increased Freight Rates, 1956, 298 I. C. C. 279, and Ex Parte No. 206, Increased Freight Rates and Charges, Eastern, Western and Southern Territories, 1956–1957, 299 I. C. C. 429, 299 I. C. C. 557, and 300 I. C. C. 633.

It further appearing that a petition was filed on June 2, 1958, with this Commission in which petitioners aver that in addition to the increases authorized in Ex Parte No. 196 and Ex Parte No. 206, supra, the rates and charges which petitioners are required by the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana to maintain for the interstate transportation of property upon their railroads in Montana do not include increases authorized by this Commission in No. 212, supra, and made by petitioners on interstate traffic, and they request the Commission to institute an investigation under section 13 and combine the investigation in this matter with the investigation in Docket No. 32255 and that a hearing be held at the same time and place upon a joint record, reserving jurisdiction, however, in its order affecting Ex Parte No. 212 increases as applied to Montana intrastate rates and charges for the purpose of altering the same in accordance with any final order which may be entered by the Commission in Ex Parte No. 212, supra;

And it further appearing that there has been brought in issue by the said petition rates and charges made or imposed by authority of the State of Montana, and that the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana on June 20, 1958, filed an answer to the petition:

It is ordered, That in response to the said petition, an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted and docketed as No. 32255 (Sub-No. 1), and that a hearing be held therein for the purpose of receiving evidence from the respondents hereinafter designated and any other interested parties to determine whether the rates and charges of the common carriers by railroad, or any of them, operating in the State of Montana, for the intrastate transportation of property, made or imposed by authority of the State of Montana, cause or will cause, by reason of the failure of such rates and charges to include increases corresponding to those permitted by this Commission for interstate traffic in Ex Parte No. 212, supra, any undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice, as between persons or localities in intrastate commerce, on the one hand, and interstate or foreign commerce, on the other hand, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate or foreign commerce in violation of section 13 of the Interstate Commerce Act, and to determine what rates and charges, if any, or what maximum or minimum, or maximum and minimum, rates and charges shall be prescribed to remove the unlawful advantage, preference, prejudice, or discrimination, if any, that may be found to exist;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad operating within the State of Montana, which are subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission, be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of the said respondents, and that the State of Montana be notified of the proceeding by sending copies of this order and of said petition by registered mail to the Governor of the said State, and to the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Montana at Helena, Mont.;

It is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., for public inspection, and by filing a copy with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.;

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing with Docket No. 32255 at such time and place as the Commission may hereafter designate.

By the Commission, division 2.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 2-7950]

SPRECKELS COMPANIES

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

JULY 17, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that Spreckels Companies, a California corporation ("applicant") has filed an application pursuant to Rule 15d-20 of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("act") (17 CFR 240.15d-20) for an order exempting the issuer from the operation of section 15 (d) of the act with respect to the duty to file any reports required by that section and the rules and regulations thereunder.

Rule 15d-20 permits the Commission, upon application and subject to appropriate terms and conditions, to exempt an issuer from the duty to file annual and other periodic reports if the Commission finds that all of the outstanding securities of the issuer are held of record, as therein defined, that the number of such record holders does not exceed 99 persons and that the filing of such reports is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

The application states with respect to the request for exemption from the reporting requirements of section 15 (d) of the act, as follows:

(1) All of applicant's outstanding securities are held of record and consist only of 369,461 shares of capital stock, all of which are held of record by 13 persons and there are believed to be not more than 19 beneficial owners.

(2) Applicant's stock is closely held with three persons owning 90 percent, and is not actively traded.

(3) All of the applicant's stockholders are furnished annual reports containing financial statements certified by independent public accountants.

(4) Information contained in financial statements and schedules now filed by applicant will to a large extent continue to be filed by its parent, The American Sugar Refining Company.

(5) The filing by applicant of the reports required by section 15 (d) of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application upon such terms and conditions as the Commission may deem necessary or appropriate may be issued by the Commission at any time on or after August 8, 1958, unless prior thereto a hearing is ordered by the Commission. Any interested persons, may, not later than August 6, 1958 at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., submit to the Commission in writing his views or any additional facts bearing upon the application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 958.327 Limitation of shipments, Area No. 3—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR Part 958), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the area committee for Area No. 3, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon the basis of other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, then would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, during the period from July 28, 1958, through June 30, 1959, inclusive, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety grown in Area No. 3 unless such potatoes grade at least U. S. No. 2 and, in addition,

(i) If such potatoes are of the long varieties, they are of a size not smaller than 2 inches in diameter or 4 ounces in weight; or

(ii) If such potatoes are of the round varieties (including, but not being limited to, Irish Cobbler, Katahdin, Kennebec, Bliss Triumph, and Pontiac), they are of a size not smaller than 2 inches in diameter, and are fairly well shaped, free from damage caused by second growth, growth cracks, sunburn, and cuts, free from surface scab which covers an area or more than 25 percent of the surface of the potato in the aggregate, and free from pitted scab which affects the appearance of the potato to a greater extent than the amount of the surface scab permitted: Provided, That an additional tolerance of five percent shall be allowed for potatoes which do not meet the specified requirements relating to shape, damage caused by second growth, growth cracks, sunburn, and cuts, and freedom from scab.

(2) During the period July 28 through November 1, 1958, no handler shall ship any lot of any variety of potatoes grown in Area No. 3, if the potatoes in such lot are more than "slightly skinned": Provided, That not to exceed a total of 100 hundredweight of such potatoes may be handled for any producer without regard to the aforesaid skinning requirements if the handler thereof reports to the area committee for Area No. 3, prior to such handling, the name and address of the producer of such potatoes, and each shipment hereunder is handled as an identifiable entity.

(3) For the purpose of determining who shall be entitled to the exception set forth in the proviso in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph: (i) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, landlord-tenant relationship, community property ownership, or any other business unit engaged in the production of potatoes for market; and (ii) it is intended that such exception shall apply separately to each farm of

PART 4b—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS; TRANSPORT CATEGORIES

PART 40—SCHEDULED INTERSTATE AIR CARRIER CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES

SPECIAL CIVIL AIR REGULATION; PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION OF MULTIENGINE TURBINE-POWERED TRANSPORT AIRPLANES FOR WHICH TYPE CERTIFICATES HAVE NOT BEEN ISSUED

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 22d day of July 1958.

Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR-425, adopted by the Board on June 2, 1958, authorizes air carriers holding Part 40, 41, or 42 air carrier operating certificates to conduct crew training, service testing, and simulated air carrier operations in provisionally certificated turbine-powered transport category airplanes. The Board's objective in adopting SR–425 was to provide a means whereby air carriers could conduct crew training and obtain as much experience as possible in ground handling, maintenance, and flight of these transports prior to their introduction into commercial service.

The Board did not specifically extend these operating privileges to the manufacturers under SR–425 as it assumed that training of the personnel of air carriers who were purchasing new transports would be conducted in experimentally certificated aircraft as had been the custom in the past. However, recent administrative and regulatory interpretations have cast doubt on the legality of such operations under existing authority.

To clarify the Board's intent on this point, section III of SR–425A has been worded so as to make it clear that the manufacturer may provide training to air carrier personnel in provisionally

...ated airplanes which are under the operational control of the air carrier or in such airplanes which are under the operational control of the manufacturer.

The other provisions of SR–425A are identical to SR–425 and require no further discussion at this time.

In view of the foregoing, SR–425A is being promulgated to continue the authority to permit the provisional certification and operation of multiengine turbine-powered airplanes and specifically permits manufacturers who hold a provisional type certificate for a multiengine turbine-powered airplane to conduct crew training, service testing, and related operations in airplanes so certificated.

Since this special regulation merely clarifies SR–425 and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary, and this regulation may be made effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates the following Special Civil Air Regulation, effective July 22, 1958:

Contrary provisions of the Civil Air Regulations notwithstanding, a turbine-powered transport airplane for which the issuance of a transport category type certificate is pending shall be eligible for provisional certification and operation in accordance with the provisions of this special regulation.

SECTION I. Provisional type certificate—(a) Applicant. (1) Any U. S. manufacturer of a turbine-powered airplane may apply for the issuance of a provisional type certificate provided that he has applied to the Administrator for the issuance of a transport category type certificate for such airplane. The application for a provisional type certificate shall be made in a manner prescribed by the Administrator.

(2) The applicant shall be a manufacturer who has previously received a type certificate for at least one airplane in the transport category and has a currently effective production certificate for that type.

(b) Requirements for issuance. The Administrator shall issue a provisional type certificate for an airplane for which application is made in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section when the conditions of subparagraphs (1) through (8) of this paragraph are met.

(1) The applicant shall submit the report of flight tests required by § 4b.16 of Part 4b of the Civil Air Regulations and the Civil Aeronautics Administration's official flight test program with respect to the issuance of the type certificate shall be in progress.

(2) The applicant shall certify that, to the best of his knowledge, the airplane for which provisional type certification is sought has been designed and constructed in accordance with those airworthiness requirements applicable to the issuance of the type certificate for that airplane.

(3) An airplane conforming with the type for which a type certificate has been applied shall have been flown at least 100 hours by the applicant under the provisions of an experimental certificate issued in accordance with the provisions of Part I of the Civil Air Regulations.

(4) The applicant shall have flown the airplane in all maneuvers necessary to show compliance with those flight requirements applicable to the issuance of the type certificate.

(5) The applicant shall have prepared a provisional airplane flight manual containing all the limitations, information, and procedures as are required for the issuance of the type certificate for that airplane: Provided, That where all limitations, information, and procedures have not been established, the applicant shall establish appropriate restrictions on the operation of the airplane.

(6) The applicant shall state that the airplane is considered safe for operation for the purposes set forth herein when conducted in accordance with the provisional airplane flight manual prescribed in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph.

(7) The applicant shall establish special inspections and maintenance instructions which are considered necessary to insure continued airworthiness of the airplane.

(8) The Administrator shall find, on the basis of the provisions contained in this special regulation, that the airplane has no feature, characteristic, or condition which renders it unsafe when operated in accordance with the provisional airplane flight manual prescribed in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph and maintained in accordance with the inspections and maintenance instructions prescribed in subparagraph (7) of this paragraph.

(c) Transferability. A provisional type certificate issued under this special regulation shall not be transferable.

(d) Duration. A provisional type certificate shall remain in effect for 6 months or until the airplane is issued a transport category type certificate, whichever occurs first, unless sooner superseded, revoked, or otherwise terminated by the Administrator or the Board: Provided, That a provisional type certificate which would terminate prior to 6 months after issuance due to the issuance of a transport category type certificate may remain in effect for an additional 60 days.

SEC. II. Provisional airworthiness certificate—(a) Applicant. The holder of a provisional type certificate or a certificated U. S. air carrier authorized to conduct operations by section III of this regulation may apply for the issuance of a provisional airworthiness certificate for an airplane for which a provisional type certificate has been issued in accordance with the provisions of section I of this special regulation. The application for a provisional airworthiness certificate shall be made in a manner prescribed by the Administrator.

(b) Requirements for issuance. (1) An applicant for a provisional airworthiness certificate for an airplane for which a provisional type certificate has been issued shall be issued such provisional airworthiness certificate upon presentation of a statement of conformity by the manufacturer that such airplane conforms to the provisional type certificate.

(2) The airplane shall have been manufactured under a quality control system established in anticipation of, and intended to be used as a basis for, the production certificate to be issued to cover that airplane.

(3) The airplane shall have been flown at least 5 hours by the manufacturer and found by him to be in safe operating condition.

(4) The airplane shall be furnished with a provisional airplane flight manual as required by subparagraph (b) (5) of section I of this special regulation.

(5) The Administrator shall find, on the basis of the provisions contained in this special regulation, that the airplane has no feature, characteristic, or condition which renders it unsafe when operated in accordance with the provisional airplane flight manual prescribed in subparagraph (b) (5) of section I of this special regulation and maintained in accordance with the inspections and maintenance instruction prescribed in subparagraph (b) (7) of section I of this special regulation.

(6) The words "provisional airworthiness" shall be displayed on the exterior of the airplane near each entrance to the cabin or cockpit of the airplane with letters not less than 2 inches in height.

(c) Transferability. A provisional airworthiness certificate issued under this special regulation shall be transferable only to an air carrier authorized to conduct operations by section III of this regulation.

(d) Duration. A provisional airworthiness certificate shall remain in effect for 6 months, or until the airplane is issued a transport category type certificate, whichever occurs first, unless sooner superseded, revoked, or otherwise terminated by the Administrator or the Board: Provided, That provisional airworthiness certificates which would terminate prior to 6 months after issuance due to the issuance of a transport category type certificate may remain in effect for an additional 60 days.

SEC. III. Operation rules. A manufacturer holding a provisional type certificate, or an air carrier holding an air carrier operating certificate issued by the Administrator in accordance with Part 40, 41, or 42 of the Civil Air Regulations, may operate turbine-powered transport category airplanes certificated in accordance with sections I and II of this special regulation in accordance with the following operating rules:

(a) General. (1) An air carrier or manufacturer may conduct flights for the purpose of crew training, service testing, and simulated air carrier operations not in air transportation, or as otherwise specifically authorized by the Board.

(2) Operations which are conducted for the purposes delineated in the definition of "flight test" in § 60.60 of Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations shall be conducted in accordance with § 60.24.

(3) The airplane shall be operated in accordance with the limitations, information, and procedures prescribed in the provisional airplane flight manual prepared in accordance with subparagraph (b) (5) of section I of this special regulation.

(4) An air carrier or manufacturer shall establish procedures for the use and guidance of flight and ground operations personnel in the conduct of its operations. Specific procedures shall be established for operations from airports where the runways may require a take-off or approach over populated areas. These procedures shall be approved by the Administrator.

(5) In addition to crew members, only those persons listed in § 40.356 (c) of Part 40 shall be carried in operations conducted under this special regulation.

(6) Each air carrier or manufacturer shall insure that each flight crew member possesses adequate knowledge of, and familiarity with, the airplane and the procedures to be used by him.

(7) Airplanes operated under this special regulation shall be maintained in accordance with applicable Civil Air Regulations, including any special inspections and maintenance instructions prescribed by the manufacturer or the Administrator.

(8) No airplane issued a provisional airworthiness certificate under this special regulation shall be operated if the manufacturer or the Administrator determines that a change in design, construction, or operation is necessary to insure safe operation until such change is made. (See also § 1.24 of Part 1 of the Civil Air Regulations.)

(9) The provisional airworthiness certificate shall be prominently displayed in the airplane at all times.

(10) Operations under this special regulation shall be restricted to the United States, its territories, and possessions, unless otherwise authorized by the Board.

(b) Additional air carrier rules. (1) Each air carrier shall maintain current records for each flight crew member. These records shall contain such information as is necessary to show that the crew member is properly trained and qualified to perform his assigned duties.

(2) The appropriate instructor, supervisor, or check airman shall certify as to the proficiency of each flight crew member and such certification shall become a part of the flight crew member's record.

(3) A log of flights conducted under this special regulation, and accurate and complete records of the inspections made, shall be kept by each air carrier and made available to the manufacturer and the Administrator.

This special regulation supersedes Special Civil Air Regulation No. SR–425 and shall terminate on June 20, 1961, unless sooner superseded or rescinded by the Board.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 605, 608, 609, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009, 1010, 1011, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553, 555, 558, 559)

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

Subchapter B—Trade Practice Conference Rules

[File No. 21–163]

PART 50—CUT AND WIRE TACK INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

Due proceedings having been held under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission:

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules as hereinafter set forth, which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of July 25, 1958.

Statement by the Commission. Trade practice rules for the Cut and Wire Tack Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under the trade practice conference procedure. Such rules constitute a revision of, and will supersede, the trade practice rules for the Cut and Wire Tack, Small Cut Nail, and Staple Industry as promulgated by the Commission on August 31, 1931, and which appeared in the Code of Federal Regulations (16 CFR Part 50) under the title "Cut Tack, Cut Nail, and Staple Industry."

The industry for which these rules are established is composed of persons, firms, corporations, and organizations engaged in the manufacture, importation, [illegible] offering for sale, or distribution of cut tacks and wire tacks. (Thumb tacks are not included.)

The rules are directed to the prevention and elimination of various unfair trade practices deemed to be violative of laws administered by the Commission. They are to be applied to such end and to the exclusion of any acts or practices which suppress competition or otherwise restrain trade.

Proceedings leading to the establishment of these rules were instituted upon application of the American Institute of Tack Manufacturers. During the course thereof proposed rules for the industry were published by the Commission and made available to all industry members and other interested or affected parties upon public notice whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions, or amendments respecting the rules as they desired to offer, and to be heard in the premises. Pursuant to such notice, a public hearing was held in Washington, D. C., on June 2, 1958, and all matters there presented, or otherwise received in the proceeding, were duly considered by the Commission.

Following such hearing, and upon full consideration of the entire matter, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved the rules as hereinafter set forth.

Such rules become operative thirty (30) days from the date of promulgation.

The rules. These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote the maintenance of fair competitive conditions in the interest of protecting industry, trade, and the public. It is to this end, and to the exclusion of any act or practice which fixes or controls prices through combination or agreement, or which unreasonably restrains trade or suppresses competition, or otherwise unlawfully injures, destroys or prevents competition, that the rules are to be applied.

AUTHORITY: §§ 50.0 to 50.20 issued under sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45.

§ 50.0 The industry and its products. (a) Products of the industry as covered by the rules herein consist of cut tacks and wire tacks. (Thumb tacks are not included.)

(b) Members of the industry are persons, firms, corporations, and organizations engaged in the manufacture, importation, sale, offering for sale, or distribution of such products.

§ 50.1 Misrepresentation (general). It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to make or publish, or cause to be made or published, by way of advertising, labeling, or otherwise, any statement or representation which, directly or by implication, has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the manufacture or distribution of any industry product, or as to the grade, quality, quantity, weight, count per pound, composition, condition, use, size, material, finish, holding power, strength, origin, design, durability, performance, or immunity from or resistance to rust, of any such product, or which has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any other material respect. [Rule 1]

§ 50.2 Misrepresentation as to character of business. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, in the course of or in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of industry products, to misrepresent the character, extent, volume, or type of his business. [Rule 2]

§ 50.3 Misrepresenting products as conforming to standard. In connection with the sale or offering for sale of industry products, it is an unfair trade practice to represent, through advertising or otherwise, that such products conform to any standards recognized in or applicable to the industry when such is not the fact. [Rule 3]

§ 50.4 Deception as to origin. (a) It is an unfair trade practice to sell or offer for sale industry products under any representation which has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the place of manufacture thereof.

(b) It is an unfair trade practice to sell or offer for sale industry products of foreign manufacture without adequate and nondeceptive disclosure of the fact that such products were manufactured in an identified foreign country, when the failure to make such disclosure has the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers of such products. Such disclosure of foreign origin, as when required under this section, shall be in the form of a legible marking, stamping, or labeling on the outside of the containers in which the products are sold or offered for sale, and shall be of such size, conspicuousness, and degree of permanency, as to be and remain noticeable and readable upon casual inspection during the marketing of the products and until consummation of their sale for use. [Rule 4]

§ 50.5 Guarantees, warranties, etc. (a) In the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of industry products, it is an unfair trade practice for any industry member:

(1) To represent that any industry product is guaranteed unless, in close conjunction with such representation, the identity of the guarantor, the extent and nature of the guarantee, and any material conditions or limitations relating to the liability of the guarantor under the guarantee, are adequately and nondeceptively disclosed; or

(2) To offer or use any guarantee respecting an industry product under which the guarantor fails to observe his obligations; or

(3) To offer or use any guarantee which is otherwise deceptive or unfair.

(b) This section shall be applicable not only to guarantees but also to warranties, to purported guarantees and warranties, and to any promise or representation in the nature of a guarantee or warranty. [Rule 5]

§ 50.6 Substitution of products. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry to make an unauthorized substitution of products, where such substitution has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, by:

(a) Shipping or delivering industry products which do not conform to samples submitted, to specifications (in bids or otherwise) upon which the sale is consummated, or to representations made prior to securing the order, without advising the purchaser of the substitution and obtaining his consent thereto prior to making shipment or delivery; or

(b) Falsely representing the reason for making a substitution. [Rule 6]

§ 50.7 Deceptive use or imitation or simulation of trade or corporate names, trade-marks, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry:

(a) To imitate or simulate the trade-marks, trade names, brands, or labels of competitors, with the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers; or

(b) To use any trade name, corporate name, trade-mark, or other trade designation, which has the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the name, nature, or origin of any product of the industry, or of any material used therein, or which is false, deceptive, or misleading in any other material respect. [Rule 7]

§ 50.8 Deceptive invoicing, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to issue invoices, billings, or sales slips which by reason of misstatements therein or omisions therefrom have the capacity and tendency or effect of deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any material respect. [Rule 8]

§ 50.9 Defamation of competitors or false disparagement of their products. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the products of competitors in any respect, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 9]

§ 50.10 Inducing breach of contract. (a) Knowingly inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services, under any circumstance having the capacity and tendency or effect of substantially injuring or lessening present or potential competition, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) Nothing in this section is intended to imply that it is improper for an industry member to solicit the business of a customer of a competing industry member; nor is the section to be construed as in anywise authorizing any agreement, understanding, or planned common course of action by two or more industry members not to solicit business from the customers of either of them, or from customers of any other industry member. [Rule 10]

§ 50.11 Enticing away employees of competitors. It is an unfair trade practice wilfully to entice away employees or sales representatives of competitors with the intent and effect of thereby unduly hampering or injuring competitors in their business and destroying or substantially lessening competition: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting employees from seeking more favorable employment, or as prohibiting employers from hiring or offering employment to employees of competitors in good faith and not for the purpose of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition. [Rule 11]

§ 50.12 Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry, directly or indirectly, to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors. [Rule 12]

§ 50.13 Procurement of competitors' confidential information. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to obtain information concerning the business of a competitor by bribery of an employee or agent of such competitor, by false or misleading statements or representations, by the impersonation of one in authority, or by any other unfair means, and to use the information so obtained so as to injure said competitor in his business or to suppress competition or unreasonably restrain trade. [Rule 13]

§ 50.14 Coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products. The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably to restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 14]

§ 50.15 Exclusive deals. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to contract to sell or sell any industry product, or to fix a price charged therefor, or discount from, or rebate upon, such price, on the condition, agreement, or understanding that the purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in the products of a competitor or competitors of such industry member, where the effect of such sale or contract for sale, or such condition, agreement, or understanding, may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce. [Rule 15]

§ 50.16 Consignment distribution. (a) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping industry products on consignment without the express request or prior consent of the purchasers.

(b) It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping industry products on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging or closing trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their products to purchasers through regular channels of distribution, thereby injuring, destroying, or preventing competition or tending to create a monopoly or unreasonably to restrain trade.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize any understanding or agreement, combination or conspiracy, or planned common course of action, by and between industry members, mutually to conform or restrict their practice of shipping goods on consignment with the intent or effect of lessening competition. [Rule 16]

§ 50.17 Prohibited sales below cost. (a) The practice of selling products of the industry at a price less than the cost thereof to the seller, with the purpose or intent, and where the effect is, or where there is a reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or tend to create a monopoly, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) This section is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued with the wrongful intent or purpose referred to and where the effect is, or where there is reasonable probability that the effect will be, to substantially injure, suppress, or stifle competition or to create a monopoly. Among the situations in which the requisite purpose or intent would ordinarily be lacking are cases in which such sales were: (1) Made under judicial process; or (2) made in bona fide discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(c) As used in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section the term "cost" means the respective seller's cost and not an average cost in the industry whether such average cost be determined by an industry cost survey or some other method. It consists of the total outlay or expenditure by the seller in the acquisition, production, and distribution of the products involved, and comprises all elements of cost such as labor, material, depreciation, taxes (except taxes on net income and such other taxes as are not properly applicable to cost), and general overhead expenses, incurred by the seller in the acquisition, manufacture, processing, preparation for marketing, sale, and delivery of the products. Not to be included are dividends or interest on borrowed or invested capital, or nonoperating losses, such as fire losses and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Operating cost should not be reduced by items of nonoperating income, such as income from investments, and gain on the sale of capital assets.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving an industry member from compliance with any of the requirements of the Robinson-Patman Act. [Rule 17]

§ 50.18 Prohibited forms of trade restraints (unlawful price fixing, etc.)[1] It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, either directly or indirectly, to engage in any planned common course of action, or to enter into or take part in any understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy, with one or more members of the industry, or with any other person or persons, to fix or maintain the price of any goods or otherwise unlawfully to restrain trade; or to use any form of threat, intimidation, coercion to induce any member of the industry or other person or persons to engage in any such planned common course of action, or to become a party to any such understanding, agreement, combination, or conspiracy. [Rule

§ 50.19 Prohibited discrimination.[2] (a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc., which effect unlawful price discrimination: It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce, and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them: Provided, however:

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use;

(2) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

NOTE: Cost justification under paragraph (a) of this section depends upon net savings in cost based on all facts relevant to the transactions under the terms of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. For example, if a seller regularly grants a discount based upon the purchase of a specified quantity by a single order for a single delivery, and this discount is justified by cost differences, it does not follow that the same discount can be cost justified if granted to a purchaser of the same quantity by multiple orders or for multiple deliveries.

(3) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned, such as but not limited to distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned;

(5) That nothing contained in this section shall prevent the meeting in good faith of an equally low price of a competitor.

NOTE: See subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended, which is set forth in the note following paragraph (f) of this section.

(b) The following are examples of price differential practices to be considered as subject to the prohibitions of paragraph (a) of this section when involving goods of like grade and quality which are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, and which are not purchased by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit, as supplies for their own use, and when:

(1) The commerce requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section are present; and

(2) The price differential has a reasonable probability of substantially lessening competition or tending to create a monopoly in any line of commerce, or of injuring, destroying, or preventing competition with the industry member or with the customer receiving the benefit of the price differential, or with customers of either of them; and

(3) The price differential is not justified by cost savings (see subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of this section); and

(4) The price differential is not made in response to changing conditions affecting the market for or the marketability of the goods concerned (see subparagraph (4) of paragraph (a) of this section); and

(5) The lower price was not made to meet in good faith an equally low price of a competitor (see subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section).

Example No. 1. At the end of a given period an industry member grants a discount to a customer equivalent to a fixed percentage of the total of the customer's purchases during such period and fails to grant such discount to other customers under like conditions.

Example No. 2. An industry member sells goods to one or more of his customers at a higher price than he charges other customers for like merchandise. It is immaterial whether or not such discrimination is accomplished by misrepresentation as to the grade and quality of the products sold.

Example No. 3. An industry member invoices goods to all his customers at the same price but supplies additional quantities of such goods at no extra charge to one or more, but not to all, such customers; or supplies other goods or premiums to one or more, but not to all, such customers for which he makes no extra charge and which effects an actual price difference in favor of certain of his customers.

Example No. 4. Terms of 2/10th prox. are granted by an industry member to some customers on goods purchased by them from the industry member. Another customer or customers are, nevertheless, allowed to take a 5 percent instead of a 2 percent discount when making payment to the industry member within the time prescribed.

NOTE: As previously indicated, the foregoing are examples of practices to be considered violative of the prohibitions of paragraph (a) of this section when involving goods of like grade and quality and when not subject to the other exemptions, exclusions, or defenses set forth in this paragraph.

(c) Prohibited brokerage and commissions: It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(d) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc: It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

NOTE 1: Industry members giving advertising allowances to competing customers must exercise precaution and diligence in seeing that all of such allowances are used in accordance with the terms of their offers.

NOTE 2: When an industry member gives allowances to competing customers for advertising in a newspaper or periodical, the fact that a lower advertising rate for equivalent space is available to one or more, but not all, such customers, is not to be regarded by the industry member as warranting the retention by such customer or customers of any portion of the allowance for his or their personal use or benefit.

(e) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities: It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all competing purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

NOTE: See subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended, which is set forth in the note following paragraph (f) of this section.

(f) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price: It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce, in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this section.

NOTE: Paragraph (f) of this section is a restatement of section 2 (f) of the Clayton Act as amended. In a complaint proceeding under this section in order to make out a prima facie violation, the Commission must show that the favored buyer induced or received the lower price knowing, or knowing facts from which he should have known, that such price was violative of section 2 (a) of said act and not justified under subparagraph (2), (4), or (5) of paragraph (a) of this section. When, in any such proceedings, the issue is limited to the question of whether the price differential involved made only due allowance for differences in cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the goods were sold and delivered, the Commission may establish a prima facie case in a number of ways, including:

(1) By showing that the buyer paying the lower price knew that the methods by, and quantities in, which the goods were sold and delivered to him by the seller were the same as in the case of the competing buyer or buyers paying the higher price or prices; or

(2) By showing, when there is a difference in the methods or quantities in which the goods were sold and delivered by the seller to the buyer than in the case of the competing buyer or buyers paying the higher price or prices, that the buyer paying the lower price or prices knew the nature and extent of such differences and knew or should have known that they could not have resulted in sufficient cost savings of the kind and character specified as to justify the price differential.

NOTE: Section 50.19 is based on the provisions of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act.

Subsection (b) of section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended, which reads as follows, is in amplification of the note to subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section and of the note to paragraph (e) of this section:

"Upon proof being made, at any hearing on a complaint under this section, that there has been discrimination in price or services of facilities furnished, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification shall be upon the person charged with a violation of this section, and unless justification shall be affirmatively shown, the Commission is authorized to issue an order terminating the discrimination: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall prevent a seller rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing that his lower price or the furnishing of services or facilities to any purchaser or purchasers was made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor, or the services or facilities furnished by a competitor."

[Rule 19]

§ 50.20 Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices. It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm, or corporation to aid, abet, coerce, or induce another, directly or indirectly, to use or

[1] The inhibitions of this section are subject to Public Law 542, approved July 14, 1952, 66 Stat. 632 (the McGuire Act) which provides that with respect to a commodity which bears, or the label or container of which bears, the trademark, brand, or name of the producer or distributor of such commodity and which is in free and open competition with commodities of the same general class produced or distributed by others, a seller of such a commodity may enter into a contract or agreement with a buyer thereof which establishes a minimum or stipulated price at which such commodity may be resold by such buyer when such contract or agreement is lawful as applied to intrastate transactions under the laws of the State, Territory, or territorial jurisdiction in which the resale is to be made or to which the commodity is to be transported for such resale, and when such contract or agreement is not between manufacturers, or between wholesalers, or between brokers, or between factors, or between retailers, or between persons, firms, or corporations in competition with each other.

[2] As used in this section, the word "commerce" means "trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or, the District of Columbia or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States."

promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in this part. [Rule 20]

Office of the Secretary

[1958 Dept. Circular 1012]

1⅝ PERCENT TREASURY CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS OF SERIES C–1959

OFFERING OF CERTIFICATES

JULY 21, 1958.

I. Offering of certificates. 1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions from the people of the United States for certificates of indebtedness of the United States, designated 1⅝ percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series C–1959, in exchange for which any of the following listed securities, singly or in combinations aggregating $1,000 or multiples thereof, may be tendered:

4 percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series C–1958, maturing August 1, 1958
2¼ percent Treasury Bonds of 1956–59, called for redemption on September 15, 1958
2⅜ percent Treasury Bonds of 1957–59, called for redemption on September 15, 1958

Exchanges will be made par for par in the case of the maturing certificates and in the case of the called bonds, at par with interest allowed to September 15 on the bonds and interest charged from August 1 to September 15 on the new certificates. The amount of the offering will be limited to the amount of the eligible securities of the three issues enumerated above tendered in exchange and accepted. The books will be open only on July 21 through July 23 for the receipt of subscriptions for this issue.

II. Description of certificates. 1. The certificates will be dated August 1, 1958, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1⅝ percent per annum, payable semiannually on February 1 and August 1, 1959. They will mature August 1, 1959. They will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the certificates is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The certificates are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The certificates will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer certificates with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000, $1,000,000, $100,000,000 and $1,000,000,000. The certificates will not be issued in registered form.

5. The certificates will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States certificates.

III. Subscription and allotment. 1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject or reduce any subscription, and to allot less than the amount of certificates applied for; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. Payment. 1. Payment at par for certificates allotted hereunder must be made on or before August 1, 1958, or on later allotment, and may be made only in Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series C–1958, maturing August 1, 1958, Treasury Bonds of 1956–59, called for redemption on September 15, 1958, or Treasury Bonds of 1957–59, called for redemption on September 15, 1958, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription. Coupons dated August 1, 1958 should be detached from the maturing certificates and cashed when due. Coupons dated September 15, 1958 should be detached from both series of bonds and cashed when due. All subsequent coupons should be attached to coupon bonds when surrendered. Payment of accrued interest on the new certificates from August 1 to September 15, 1958 ($1.98709 per $1,000) should be made by all subscribers tendering coupon bonds in exchange when the subscription is tendered. In the case of registered bonds, the accrued interest will be deducted from the amount of the check which will be issued in payment of final interest on the bonds surrendered.

V. Assignment of registered bonds. 1. Treasury bonds of the two eligible issues in registered form tendered in payment for certificates offered hereunder should be assigned by the registered payees or assignees thereof to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for 1⅝ percent Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness of Series C–1959 to be delivered to ----------", in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments for transfer or exchange, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or to the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holders.

VI. General provisions. 1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective Districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for certificates allotted, to make delivery of certificates on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive certificates.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

The areas described total 101,547.21 acres of public land.

Further information as to mineral rights, reservations for rights of way etc., in these lands is of record in the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 809 NE. Sixth Avenue, Portland 12, Oregon.

The lands are for the most part in widely scattered parcels distributed throughout southeastern Oregon. They are generally arid or semiarid in char-

...der, and are not suitable for farming. The lands identified by serial numbers Oregon 01600 and Oregon 02744 are located in southwestern Oregon. They are in an area of high rainfall with yearly precipitation up to 60 inches, and support a growth of young Douglas fir and other associated minor species, and are not suitable for farming.

No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small-tract, or any other non-mineral public-land law, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable, or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands above-described are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284 as amended), presented prior to 10 a. m. on August 20, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10 a. m. on November 19, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications, and selections under the nonmineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, presented prior to 10 a. m. on November 19, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands in which the minerals were conveyed to the United States will be open to location under the United States mining laws, beginning 10 a. m., on November 19, 1958.

Persons claiming veteran's preference rights under Paragraph a (2) above must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, 809 NE. Sixth Avenue, Portland 12, Oregon.

VIRGIL T. HEATH,
State Supervisor.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Federal Maritime Board and Maritime Administration

[Docket No. S-78]

AMERICAN PRESIDENT LINES, LTD.

NOTICE OF HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing has been authorized and directed to be held to determine to what extent written permission should be granted to American President Lines, Ltd., under section 805 (a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, to operate its proposed new passenger vessel between California and Hawaii in its Trans-Pacific, Trade Route No. 29, Line A-1 Service.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive evidence relevant to what extent American President Lines, Ltd., or a predecessor in interest was in bona fide operation as a common carrier by water in the domestic trade described above in 1935 and has so operated since that time, except as to interruptions to service over which said Operator or its predecessor in interest had no control, and if not whether granting such written permission (1) will result in unfair competition to any person, firm or corporation operating exclusively in the coastwise or intercoastal services, or (2) would be prejudicial to the objects and policy of the act.

The hearing will be before an Examiner, at a time and place to be announced, in accordance with the Federal Maritime Board's rules of practice and procedure and a recommended decision will be issued.

All persons (including individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships, and public bodies), having any interest in the foregoing and desiring to intervene in this proceeding are requested to notify the Secretary, Federal Maritime Board/Maritime Administration, Washington 25, D. C., in writing in triplicate, by close of business on August 8, 1958, and should promptly file petition for leave to intervene in accordance with said rules of practice and procedure.

Dated: July 21, 1958.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board and Maritime Administrator.

GEO. A. VIEHMANN,
Assistant Secretary.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-37]

GENERAL DYNAMICS CORP.

NOTICE OF ISSUANCE OF AMENDMENT TO UTILIZATION FACILITY LICENSE

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission has issued the following amendment to License CX-3, as amended. The amendment authorizes General Dynamics Corporation, to (1) erect a graphite thermal column on one side of the existing CIRGA facility reflector and measure the effects of various reflecting and shielding materials placed around the thermal column and (2) modify the CIRGA facility and perform certain experiments with the modified facility to simulate and provide test data for a new reactor, planned for construction and designated the REGA research reactor, at the Corporation's critical experiments facility located at Torrey Pines Mesa, San Diego, California.

The Commission has found that prior public notice of proposed issuance of this amendment is not necessary in the public interest since the conduct of the proposed additional experiments does not present any substantial changes in the hazards to the health and safety of the public from those presented by the previously authorized operation of the facility.

In accordance with the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2), the Commision will direct the holding of a formal hearing on the matter of the issuance of the amendment upon receipt of a request therefor from the licensee or an intervener within 30 days after the issuance of the amendment. Further details may be obtained from (1) the application submitted by General Dynamics Corporation, and amendments thereto, and (2) a hazards analysis of the proposed experiments prepared by the Division of Licensing and Regulation, both on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C. A copy of item (2) above may be obtained at the Commission's Public Document Room or upon request addressed to the Atomic Energy Commisison, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 18th day of July 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

H. L. PRICE,
Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

GENERAL DYNAMICS CORP.

[Docket No. 50-37]

[License No. CX-3, as Amended]

AMENDMENT OF UTILIZATION FACILITY LICENSE

General Dynamics Corporation, by two amendments dated May 28, 1958, to its application for license, requested AEC authorization to (1) erect a graphite thermal column on one side of the existing CIRGA facility reflector and measure the effects of various reflecting and shielding materials placed around the thermal column and (2) modify the CIRGA facility and perform certain experiments with the modified facility to simulate and provide test data for a new reactor to be designated the REGA research reactor, at the Corporation's critical experiments facility located at Torrey Pines Mesa, San Diego, California.

Paragraph 3 of License No. CX-3, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

This license applies to the facility which is owned by General Dynamics Corporation and located at Torrey Pines Mesa, in San Diego, California, and described in General Dynamics Corporation's application dated October 20, 1956, and amendments thereto dated December 5, 1956, December 7, 1956, January 25, 1957, February 15, 1957, March 26, 1957, May 9, 1957, August 21, 1957, November 27, 1957, January 15, 1958, March 3, 1958, May 5, 1958, May 6, 1958, and two amendments dated May 28, 1958 (herein collectively referred to as "the application").

The Atomic Energy Commission has found that operation of the facility in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license as amended will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public.

Date of issuance:

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-1165]

AMERICAN RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CORP. AND KALVAR CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER EXEMPTING TRANSACTION BETWEEN AFFILIATES

JULY 18, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that American Research and Development Corporation ("Research"), a registered closed-end non-diversified management investment company, and Kalvar Corporation ("Kalvar"), whose primary business is the research, development and commercialization of a new type of photocopy film and paper, have filed an application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act"), requesting an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act the transaction between Research and Kalvar described below.

Kalvar, organized in 1956 under the laws of Louisiana and having outstanding at the present time 75,000 shares of common stock, 2¢ par value, of which Research owns 8,750 shares (or 11 percent), is currently operating at a loss and additional working capital is essential for continued operation of the company. (Losses since inception to the fiscal year ended March 31, 1958 have amounted to $304,170, and it is estimated that losses for the period April 1 through May 31, 1958 approximated $25,000.) Kalvar is planning to raise $300,000 through the sale of 15,000 shares of common stock pursuant to an offering exempt from registration under Regulation A of the Securities Act of 1933 and from which it is estimated that Kalvar will net $270,000. However, pending completion of this offering under Regulation A, the application states that it is imperative that interim financing be provided. Kalvar recently borrowed $115,000 from a bank, of which $35,000

...been repaid, and Research proposes to loan $15,000 to Kalvar, such loan to be evidenced by Kalvar's note in the principal amount of $15,000 bearing interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum and maturing 60 days from the date thereof. Such note would be subordinate to Kalvar's present bank indebtedness aggregating $80,000 and secured by receivables and/or the personal signatures of certain stockholders.

Generally speaking, section 17 (a) of the act prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company from borrowing money from such registered investment company unless the Commission, upon application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the act, grants an exemption from section 17 (a) of the act, after finding that the proposed transaction is reasonable and fair, does not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned and is consistent with the policy of such registered investment company as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the act.

Since Research owns more than 5 percent of the outstanding common stock of Kalvar, these companies are affiliated persons of each other as defined in section 2 (a) (3) of the act; hence, the proposed transaction is prohibited under section 17 (a) of the act unless the Commission grants the application herein and issues an order of exemption pursuant to section 17 (b) of the act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 30, 1958, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

[Rev. S. O. 562, Taylor's I. C. C. Order 93]

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CO.

REROUTING OR DIVERSION OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, because of work stoppage on the Lake Erie car ferries, is unable to transport traffic routed over its lines across Lake Erie between Ashtabula, Ohio, and Port Burwell, Ontario: It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic: The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, being unable to transport traffic to points reached via Lake Erie car ferries, because of work stoppage on such ferries operating between Ashtabula, Ohio, and Port Burwell, Ontario, is hereby authorized to divert or reroute such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroads desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carriers rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective 4:00 p. m., July 17, 1958.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., August 16, 1958, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Federal Register Division.

MISSOURI-KANSAS-TEXAS RAILROAD CO.

REROUTING OR DIVERSION OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Company, because of flood conditions, at Schell City, Missouri, is unable to transport traffic routed over its line: It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic: The Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Company, and its connections, are hereby authorized to divert or reroute such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroad desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carriers rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipments on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with the pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 8:00 a. m., July 21, 1958.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., August 4, 1958, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Federal Register Division.

FEES FOR COPYING, CERTIFICATION AND SERVICES IN CONNECTION THEREWITH

JULY 15, 1958.

Pursuant to the provisions of Title V of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1952 (5 U. S. C. section 140), as implemented by Bureau of the Budget Circular No. A-28 dated January 21, 1954, addressed to Heads of Executive Departments and Establishments, the Interstate Commerce Commission has revised its schedule of fees for copying, certification and services in connection therewith, effective September 1, 1958.

Certifications and copies of such tariffs, reports and other public records and documents on file with the Interstate Commerce Commission, as may be practicable to furnish, will be made on the following basis:

1. Certificate of the Secretary 50 cents.

2. Services involved in examination of tariffs or schedules for preparation of photostat copies or certified copies of tariffs or schedules or extracts therefrom, at the rate of $3.50 per hour.

3. Services involved in checking records to be certified to determine authenticity, the clerical work, etc., incidental thereto, at the rate of $2.50 per hour.

4. Photostat copies of tariffs, reports and other documents at the rate of 25 cents per exposure. Copy of one or more pages may be made with one exposure, depending on size of page.

5. Minimum charge of $1.00 will be made for service and/or photostats.

6. Payment must be made in cash or by postal money order or check payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States and sent to the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Remittances should not be drawn to the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission or its Secretary.

7. Transcripts of testimony and of oral argument, or extracts therefrom, may be purchased by the public from the Commission's official reporter. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959, the official reporter is General Reporting Corporation, 939 D Street NW., Washington, D. C., and the rates per page of approximately 200 words are as follows:

35 cents per page for hearings or arguments held at Washington, D. C., and 30 cents per page for hearings or arguments held at points in the United States other than Washington, D. C.

PART 24—FORMAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT TO CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC, TECHNICAL, AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGIST

Section 24.140 is added to read as follows:

§ 24.140 Medical Technologist, GS-644-0 (all grades)—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants must meet the requirements specified under one of the following:

(1) The successful completion of a full 4-year course in medical technology leading to a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.

(2) The successful completion of at least 3 academic years at an accredited college or university and the successful completion of a full course of at least 12 months in a school of medical technology approved by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association.

(3) The successful completion of at least 90 semester hours of course-work in an accredited college or university which includes a total of 24 semester hours distributed as follows: At least 6 semester hours in inorganic chemistry, 3 semester hours in either quantitative analysis, organic chemistry or biochemistry, and 3 semester hours in each of five of the following biological sciences: General biology, bacteriology, parasitology, anatomy, histology, embryology, physiology, and zoology; and enough additional experience and/or training covering several fields of medical laboratory work of an appropriate nature to total four years of experience and education. The scope and quality of this additional experience and/or training must have been such that when combined with the required semester hours outlined above it gives the applicant a technical knowledge comparable to that normally acquired through the successful completion of the 4-year course described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(4) The successful completion of a full 4-year course in chemistry or in one of the biological sciences in an approved college or university leading to a bachelor's degree and at least 1 year of practical experience and/or training covering several fields of medical laboratory work.

(b) Duties. Medical technologists perform a variety of responsible professional duties in medical laboratory work. They perform various examinations and tests in the different parts of the laboratory and are responsible for accurate observations, accurate and valid results, and accurate presentation of findings. They calibrate instruments and equipment and standardize solutions. They must recognize irregularities and deviations from the norm. Technologists in the higher grades, depending upon the grade level of the position and the type of laboratory, perform the newer and more complex tests and procedures, assist in or direct training programs for medical technicians and medical technologists, serve as medical technologist in charge, and perform other related duties as assigned.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for the performance of duties. In order that medical technologists may engage successfully in the diverse phases of medical technology represented in the professional medical technologist positions of the Federal Government, it is necessary that they be thoroughly and broadly trained. They must have basic knowledges of (1) inorganic chemistry; (2) quantitative analysis, organic chemistry, or biochemistry; (3) and several of the biological sciences such as general biology, bacteriology, parasitology, anatomy, histology, embryology, physiology, and zoology. These knowledges can be gained only through a directed course of study in an accredited college or university which has scientific libraries, well-equipped laboratories, and thoroughly trained instructors, gives expert guidance, and evaluates progress competently.

AUTHORITY: §§ 464.1001 to 464.1010 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 2, 59 Stat. 506, sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 101, 401, 403, 63 Stat. 1051, as amended, 1054; secs. 125, 211, 70 Stat. 198, 202; 15 U. S. C. 714c, 7 U. S. C. 1441, 1421, 1423, 1312 note, 1813, 1860.

§ 464.1001 Administration. (a) This program will be administered by the Tobacco Division, CSS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC. The program will be carried out in the field by producer associations or other responsible organizations (hereinafter referred to as "associations") acting for groups of producers. To obtain a loan, an association must enter into a loan agreement with CCC, which agreement will set forth terms and conditions prescribed by CCC. CCC reserves the right to restrict the number of associations with which it will contract, and in so doing will select such associations as it deems necessary or desirable to effectuate the purposes of this program with a maximum of efficiency and economy of operation. The names of such associations may be obtained from the Tobacco Division, CSS, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

(b) Each year CCC will make loans to associations upon the security of eligible tobacco, and the associations in turn will make price support advances to eligible producers either directly or through auction warehouses. Loans made to associations will include not only the initial loan value of the tobacco, but also advances for services performed in receiving, packing, storing, and marketing of tobacco pledged as security for the loan. Associations will be authorized to enter into contracts for these services through the usual trade channels.

§ 464.1002 Availability of price support. (a) Price support will be available for any crop of each of the following kinds of tobacco, if producers have not disapproved marketing quotas for such crop:

Flue-cured tobacco, types 11, 12, 13, and 14.
Kentucky-Tennessee fire-cured tobacco, types 22 and 23.
Virginia fire-cured tobacco, type 21.
Virginia sun-cured tobacco, type 37.
Dark air-cured tobacco, types 35 and 36.
Burley tobacco, type 31.
Maryland tobacco, type 32.
Cigar filler, tobacco, type 41.
Cigar filler and binder tobacco, types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, and 55.
Puerto Rican tobacco, type 46.
Cigar binder tobacco, types 51 and 52.

(b) No price support will be available with respect to any kind of tobacco for any year for which marketing quotas have been disapproved by growers.

(c) Price support to eligible producers will be made available on eligible tobacco in the following manner:

(1) Auction market area. (i) In the areas where tobacco is marketed through auction markets, price support will be extended through auction warehouses which have contracted with the association, on a form of agreement approved by CCC, to make price support advances to producers on behalf of the association. Producers will deliver their tobacco to auction warehouses to be displayed and offered for sale at auction. The association contract with auction warehouses will require the auction warehouses to see that producers are informed that price support advances are available and to make price support advances to eligible producers on eligible tobacco. Producers will generally receive the price support advances from the warehouseman for any tobacco to be consigned to the association at the time the warehouseman settles with the producer for the entire quantity of the producer's tobacco that has been displayed for inspection and offered for sale on any one day's auction market. The warehouseman will, in turn, be reimbursed by the association with funds borrowed from CCC.

(ii) Price support will be available only at warehouses where tobacco inspection service is provided by the Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. D. A. Inspection and price support services may be extended to new markets or to additional sales on established markets under 7 CFR Part 29 and this part issued pursuant to the Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.), the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act (15 U. S. C. 714 et seq.), and the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1421 et seq.). These regulations provide that such additional services may be extended only after a formal public hearing establishes the need for the services and the adequacy of the buying power that will participate.

(iii) Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right to direct the association to withhold a contract under the price support program from any auction warehouse for one or more years if, based on previous performance of similar contracts, there is substantial reason to expect that such warehouse will not fulfill the contract obligations.

(2) Non-auction market area. Eligible producers in non-auction market areas will deliver eligible tobacco to central receiving points designated by the appropriate association. After the tobacco has been graded by U. S. D. A. inspectors, the producer will receive the advance directly from the association for any tobacco to be pledged as security for loans.

(3) Period of price support. Price support will be available to eligible producers on eligible tobacco only during each year's normal marketing season for each kind of tobacco for which support is provided.

§ 464.1003 Level of price support. (a) As required by statute, the level of price support to eligible producers will be 90 percent of the respective parity prices as of the beginning of the marketing year for those kinds of tobacco for which marketing quotas are in effect, except that fire-cured and dark air-cured (including Virginia sun-cured) tobacco will be supported at 75 percent and 66⅔ percent, respectively, of the level for Burley tobacco, but not to exceed the higher of (1) the level applicable to the 1957 crop or (2) 90 percent of the parity price therefor. Generally, a minimum price support level will be announced prior to the normal planting time for each kind of tobacco. The price support level will be again computed as of the beginning of the marketing year, which is July 1 for flue-cured and October 1 for the other kinds of tobacco. Price support will be made available on each kind of tobacco at the higher of (i) the minimum level announced prior to planting time or (ii) the level computed as of the beginning of the marketing year. Schedules of loan rates, by types and grades, for each kind of tobacco will be announced as supplements to this statement after the parity price as of the beginning of each marketing year is known. Flue-cured tobacco of varieties Coker 139, Coker 140, and Dixie Bright 244 will be supported at one-half the support rates for comparable grades of other varieties.

(b) The loan level for Puerto Rican tobacco, type 46, will be determined as of October 1, the beginning of each marketing year, at the minimum level provided under section 101 (a) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended.

§ 464.1004 Deductions from advances. (a) The associations will be required to bear a portion of the overhead costs in connection with the loan operation. For this purpose, the associations in the auction marketing areas may charge the producer a fee of 12 cents per hundred pounds and may make such other charges as may be authorized or approved by CCC. Such charges may be collected by a deduction from the advance made to the producer on his tobacco or by arrangements with the auction warehousemen under which he will collect such charges and remit to the association. In the non-auction market areas, the fee will be established at a rate commensurate with the services performed by the association.

(b) If any producer on a farm is indebted to the United States and such indebtedness is listed on the county debt register, the Government will effect collection of the amount of the indebtedness by set-off from the amount of price support advance due the producer in the following manner: Any within-quota marketing card issued for such farm in accordance with the applicable regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to marketing quotas will bear the notation "Indebted to U. S." on the front cover thereof and on the county office copy of each memorandum of sale, and the name of the debtor and the amount of the indebtedness will be shown on the inside back cover of the marketing card. The acceptance and use of a within-quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States by the producer named as debtor on such card will constitute an authorization by such producer to any tobacco warehouseman or association to pay to the United States the price support advance due the producer to the extent of his indebtedness set forth on such card but not to exceed that portion of the price support advance remaining after deduction of usual warehouse and authorized price support charges and amounts due prior lienholders. The acceptance and use of a within-quota marketing card bearing a notation and information of indebtedness to the United States will not constitute a waiver of any right of the producer to contest the validity of such indebtedness by appropriate administrative, appeal or legal action. Under the marketing quota regulations issued by the Secretary, if the producer named as debtor on the card objects to the issuance, or after issuance to the use, of a within-quota marketing card bearing the notation and information of indebtedness to the United States thereon, he may elect to receive an excess marketing card showing "zero percent" penalty, in which event the producer will be ineligible for price support advances.

§ 464.1005 Interest rate and general provisions. The loans made to the associations will bear interest at the rate announced by CCC for each crop year and be non-recourse both as to principal and interest except in the case of misrepresentation, fraud, or failure to carry out the terms of the loan contract. Tobacco loses its identity as to original ownership through commingling in the packing process, and individual producers may not redeem their tobacco once it has been pledged for loan. All proceeds of sales of the loan collateral of each crop year will be applied to the loan account for such crop year until the loan is repaid in full.

§ 464.1006 Adjustment of interest and disposition of overplus. The contract between CCC and any association may include provisions under which CCC will adjust the interest rate as outlined in paragraph (c) of this section and the association will apply, as directed by CCC, one-half of the "overplus" from any crop year loan to the indebtedness on other crop year loans. This arrangement will be available only to those associations which include under the arrangement all CCC loans outstanding at the time the arrangement is made.

(a) Definition of overplus. "Overplus" is the balance remaining from the sales proceeds of the loan tobacco, after deducting the amount of the loan indebtedness, plus all additional charges accrued with respect to the loan tobacco, including handling charges, operating costs, and interest.

(b) Disposition of overplus. For those associations which agree to apply one-half of the overplus to other crop year loans, the remaining one-half of the overplus shall constitute "net gains", and for those associations which do not agree to apply one-half of the overplus to other crop year loans, the entire overplus shall constitute "net gains". Net gains shall be distributed in cash by the associations to the producers who placed the tobacco under loan unless other disposition is approved by CCC.

(c) Adjustment of interest rate. In consideration of any association's agreement to apply one-half of the overplus from any crop year to the CCC loan indebtedness of other crop years, the interest rate for such crop year shall be adjusted annually, as of the beginning of each subsequent marketing year (July 1 for flue-cured tobacco loans and October 1 for loans on other kinds of tobacco) to the rate established by CCC as applicable to price support loans on the current crops, minus one percent per annum: Provided, That if such adjusted interest rate is determined by CCC to be less than the average rate of interest applicable to CCC's borrowings from the Treasury, the amount of interest accrued at such adjusted interest rate shall be increased at the end of the marketing year or at the time of final repayment of the loan to the amount which would have accrued at the average interest rate applicable to CCC's borrowings from the Treasury during such period.

§ 464.1008 Eligible producer. (a) An eligible producer is one for whom a within-quota marketing card has been issued under the applicable regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to tobacco marketing quotas for the applicable marketing year. In general, the marketing quota regulations provide for the issuance of a within-quota marketing card where the tobacco acreage harvested for each kind of tobacco produced on the farm is not in excess of the applicable acreage allotment established under the marketing quota program for such farm, except that a within-quota marketing card is not issued where the planted acreage of any kind of tobacco exceeds the farm acreage allotment established therefor unless a request for disposition of the excess acreage is filed promptly. In the case of flue-cured tobacco, two types of within-quota marketing cards will be used: a "white" within-quota marketing card will signify that the tobacco produced on the farm for which such marketing card was issued is eligible for full price support, and a "blue" within-quota Limited Support marketing card will signify that the tobacco produced on the farm for which such card was issued is eligible for price support on a grade basis at one-half of the regular price support rate. The regulations further provide that, if any producer on a farm is indebted to the United States, any within-quota marketing card issued for such farm shall bear the notation "Indebted to U. S." and information with respect to such indebtedness, provided that, if the producer objects to the issuance, or after issuance to the use, of the within-quota marketing card bearing such notation and information, an excess marketing card showing "zero percent" penalty shall be issued for such farm. Also, an excess marketing card (ineligible for price support loans) shall be issued in any case where tobacco is produced on newly irrigated or drained land which was not used for the production of tobacco prior to May 28, 1956, and which is within any Federal irrigation or drainage project (as defined in section 211 of the Agricultural Act of 1956) authorized on or after May 28, 1956; or where tobacco is produced on land reclaimed by a flood-control project authorized on or after May 28, 1956; or where tobacco is produced on land owned by the Federal Government in violation of the provisions of a lease restricting the production of tobacco.) Marketing quota cards issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, when utilized for the purpose of obtaining price support under the regulations in this subpart are submitted, and the data in support thereof is reported, under the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, and the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act, as amended, and may be utilized as Commodity Credit Corporation deems necessary or desirable for the conduct of the price support program.

(b) As Puerto Rican tobacco is not under U. S. marketing quotas, all producers of this type of tobacco are considered eligible producers for the purpose of this program.

§ 464.1009 Eligible tobacco. Eligible tobacco shall be U. S. and Puerto Rican tobacco (as defined in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended) which (a) has been properly identified in accordance with applicable tobacco Marketing Quota Regulations on a valid memorandum of sale issued from a "Within-Quota" Marketing Card or a Within-Quota Limited Support Marketing Card, where marketing quotas are in effect; (b) has been delivered to the association by the producer prior to sale to any other person; (c) is in sound and merchantable condition; (d) is of a type and crop year for which price support is available; (e) is free and clear of any and all liens and encumbrances; (f) was not produced on newly irrigated or drained land which is within any Federal irrigation or drainage project (as defined in section 211 of the Agricultural Act of 1956) authorized on or after May 28, 1956; (g) was not produced on land reclaimed by a flood-control project authorized on or after May 28, 1956; and (h) was not produced on land owned by the Federal Government in violation of the provisions of a lease restricting the production of tobacco.

§ 464.1010 Auction warehouse certification of flue-cured tobacco. Auction warehouses through which price support is made available to producers of flue-cured tobacco shall identify, through the use of "certified" basket tickets, all tobacco (including resale and "excess" tobacco) offered for sale at auction which is determined to be of varieties eligible for full price support. A distinguishably different type of basket ticket shall be used for all other tobacco offered for sale at auction. The basis for determining whether tobacco is of varieties eligible for full price support shall be (a) for producer tobacco, the marketing card issued pursuant to marketing quota regulations for the farm on which the tobacco was produced, and (b) for resale tobacco (tobacco which has been previously sold by the producer), a certification by the seller to U. S. D. A. and the warehouse on Form MQ 79–1 Dealer's Certification—Resale Tobacco, a form provided for under the marketing quota regulations (1958 Tobacco Marketing Bulletin No. 1), except where another basis is authorized by the Director, Tobacco Division, CSS. In the case of producer tobacco, the warehouse shall examine the marketing card prior to the time the tobacco is offered for sale, record the marketing card serial number on the warehouse floor sheet, and shall use certified basket tickets on the tobacco only if the marketing card presented is a Within-Quota (white) Marketing Card or an Excess (red) Marketing Card stamped "Acceptable Varieties". A dealer by execution of the Form MQ 79–1 Dealer's Certification—Resale Tobacco shall certify that the tobacco offered for sale and all other resale tobacco in which the dealer has an interest was purchased directly from the producer and was identified by a valid bill of non-warehouse sale issued from a Within-Quota (white) Marketing Card or an Excess (red) Marketing Card stamped "Acceptable Varieties", or was purchased by him at auction sale through a warehouse having price support available to producers and was identified by a certified basket ticket. Properly executed Dealer's Certification—Resale Tobacco shall be furnished to the U. S. D. A. representative stationed at the warehouse prior to the sale of the tobacco, with a copy to the warehouse. Where the Director, Tobacco Division, notifies the warehouse that the certifications of any dealer are not acceptable for this purpose, the Dealer's Certification shall not be used by the warehouse as a basis for a "certified" basket ticket. Such notice will be given to all warehouses having price support available to producers if a dealer is found to have made a false certification, or if a dealer fails to file reports required by applicable marketing quota regulations. In the latter case, the notice will be rescinded when the dealer files the reports if they show that he has not made false certifications with respect to identification of full support variety tobacco. Dealers making false certifications, or producers using marketing cards other than the one issued for the farm on which the tobacco was produced, to obtain use of certified basket tickets for tobacco not entitled to such identification, shall be subject to applicable provisions of law relating to conspiracy, fraud, or other offenses, and to penalties imposed by applicable marketing quota regulations. A dealer who has full support variety resale tobacco for which the Dealer's Certification cannot properly be executed because such tobacco or other tobacco in which he has an interest was acquired other than as the certification form provides, or a dealer whose certifications have been determined to be unacceptable, may have full support variety tobacco identified on a "certified" basket ticket through application to the Director, Tobacco Division. In such instances, if by examination of the marketing quota records and other evidence, the Director determines that the tobacco is of a full support variety, a special authorization will be given for the warhouses to identify the tobacco on a "certified" basket ticket.

Issued this 23d day of July 1958.

[SEAL] CLARENCE L. MILLER,
Acting Executive Vice President,
Commodity Credit Corporation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 475.51 to 475.63 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 407, 63 Stat. 1055, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1427.

§ 475.51 General statement. Section 407 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, provides that the Commodity Credit Corporation, on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem in the public interest, shall make available any farm commodity or product thereof owned or controlled by it for use in relieving distress in connection with any major disaster determined by the President to warrant assistance by the Federal Government under Public Law 875, 81st Congress, as amended. The basic objective of this program is to assist eligible farmers, ranchers and stockmen to acquire the feed required to maintain their foundation herds of livestock during periods of emergency. The program shall be in effect in areas determined by the President as areas of major disaster and also designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as areas eligible to receive assistance of the nature provided in this program. Bequests for designation of areas by the President under Public Law 875, 81st Congress, and information in support thereof must originate with the Governor of the State. When such a request is approved by the President, the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to designate the specific counties within the State in which assistance may be made available. In making the designation of specific counties within the State, the Secretary of Agriculture will take into consideration the information and recommendation submitted by the State Disaster Committee, based on information and recommendations supplied by the county disaster committees concerned.

§ 475.52 Administration. The program provided for in this subpart will be administered by the Commodity Stabilization Service (hereinafter referred to as CSS) and Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter called CCC) under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC, and in the field will be carried out by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committees and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committees (hereinafter called State and county committees) and CSS commodity offices. State and county committees and CSS commodity offices and representatives and employees of any of such committees or offices do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments or supplements hereto.

§ 475.53 Definitions. The following terms shall have the following meanings in this subpart and in all forms and documents used in connection herewith (except where the context or subject matter otherwise requires or where otherwise defined in the Feed Dealer's Agreement—Emergency Feed Program).

(a) "Designated disaster area" means an area designated by the President under Public Law 875, 81st Congress, as an area of major disaster and also by the Secretary of Agriculture as an area in which assistance is to be made available as provided under this program.

(b) "Eligible farmer" means a farmer, rancher or stockman who meets the requirements of eligibility and whose application for assistance under the Emergency Feed Program has been approved.

(c) "Foundation herd" means the breeding stock of cattle, sheep and goats namely: cows, bulls, and heifers or calves retained for replacement; ewes, rams and ewe lambs for replacement; and nannies, billies, and kids for replacement.

(d) "Animal unit" means 1 cow or 1 bull; 2 heifers; 3 calves; 5 sheep; 5 goats; 7 lambs, or 7 kids.

(e) "Prescribed period" means a period which begins on the date the application for assistance under this program is filed in the county office and which ends on the date set by the county committee in accordance with instructions from the State Committee. Such period shall not begin earlier than the date the program was authorized in the county or end later than the expiration date of the program in the county, as specified by the Administrator, CSS, Washington, D. C. Such beginning and ending date shall be specified in section I of the purchase order issued to the farmer.

(f) "Designated surplus feed grains" (hereinafter called feed grains) means barley, corn, grain sorghums and oats as such terms are defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States. The term "corn" includes ear corn. The conversion factor to be used for converting ear corn to shelled corn will be shown on the purchase order when issued.

(g) "Approved mixed feed" means Mixed Feed A which must contain at least 75 percent by weight of feed grain(s) or Mixed Feed B which must contain at least 60 percent by weight of feed grain(s). The feed grain(s) used in the approved mixed feed may be whole, crushed, cracked, ground or otherwise similarly processed, provided all of the ingredients of the whole grain are included. Prior to delivery to farmers, bags containing approved mixed feed must be appropriately labeled substantially as follows, depending on the type of approved mixed feed involved:

(1) "Mixed Feed A—containing at least 75 percent by weight of designated surplus feed grain(s)", or

(2) "Mixed Feed B—containing at least 60 percent by weight of designated surplus feed grain(s)."

(h) "Designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains" means barley, corn, grain sorghums and oats owned by CCC.

(i) "Dealer" means any person engaged in selling feed grains or approved mixed feed.

(j) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, cooperative or other business entity.

(k) "CCC storage sites" means CCC-owned structures, CCC-leased facilities, and those facilities operated by CCC under right of entry. (Such structures and facilities are commonly called CCC binsites).

§ 475.54 Availability of assistance—(a) Area. This program shall be in effect only with respect to foundation herds located in designated disaster areas as defined in § 475.53 (a).

(b) Eligibility requirements. Subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter prescribed in this subpart, any person whose principal occupation is farming or ranching and whose financial condition is such that he requires assistance under this program in order to maintain his foundation herd of livestock and continue his livestock operations, is eligible for assistance as herein provided and may file an application for assistance. The principal occupation of a person who is an individual may be considered to be either the occupation from which he received at least one-half of his net income (gross income less expenses) during the last full year prior to the year in which the county in which his farm is located was included in a designated disaster area eligible to participate in drought emergency, disaster relief, and other emergency feed programs, or the occupation to which he devoted at least one-half of his gainfully employed time during such year. The principal occupation of persons other than individuals (i. e., partnerships, corporations, etc.) will be deemed to be farming or ranching only if at least one-half of their net income for such preceding year was derived from farming or ranching. Any feed received under this program must be used only for feeding the foundation herd. Dairymen who normally purchase all of their feed are not eligible for assistance. Dairymen who normally produce their hay or grain may qualify for assistance, but the amount of such assistance shall not in any event exceed the amount of feed normally grown on their farms and fed to the foundation herd.

§ 475.55 Operating provisions—(a) Where to apply. Applications for assistance must be made at the office of the county committee of the county which keeps the farm program records for the farm or ranch, provided the foundation herd involved has not been removed permanently from such county. If the foundation herd has been removed permanently from such county, or if the county office has no farm program records for the farm or ranch, the application must be made in the office of the county committee of the county in which the principal part of the herd is located. Applications for assistance shall not be filed in more than one county for the same foundation herd for the same period of time or any portion thereof.

(b) Filing of applications. Before an applicant may be considered for assistance, an application, Form DF-1, "Application and Certification," must be filed in the appropriate county office as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. The date of filing shall be the date the application is received in the county office. The applicant must furnish all of the information required on the application. Whenever the information furnished is incomplete or not clear or there is doubt as to the applicant's eligibility, the county committee will request such additional information of the applicant as may be necessary. The applicant must certify that the feed received under the program will be fed only to his foundation herd.

(c) Committee action on applications. (1) The county committee will review each application and, except for those applications submitted by State and county committeemen and those involving 1,000 or more animal units, will determine whether the applicant is eligible for assistance and the amount of assistance which may be provided. Applications submitted by State and county committeemen and those involving 1,000 or more animal units will be handled as outlined in subparagraph (7) of this paragraph.

(2) The maximum amount an eligible applicant may be approved to receive under this program shall not exceed the quantity of feed grain obtained by multiplying 4 pounds of feed grain per animal unit per day, or whatever lesser amount is established by the State Committee, by the number of animal units in the foundation herd and by the number of days in the prescribed period. The assistance to be made available to an eligible applicant under this program shall be determined by computing the maximum amount of feed grain that the applicant may be approved to receive and deducting from such maximum amount the total amount of feed grains available to the applicant during the prescribed period. The assistance to be made available to a dairyman who normally produces his hay or grain shall not exceed the amount of feed normally grown on his farm and fed to the foundation herd. No assistance shall be provided any applicant if the total amount of feed available to him during the prescribed period is determined to be equal to or more than the maximum amount of feed grain such applicant may be approved to receive.

(3) The total amount of feed grains available to the applicant during the prescribed period shall be determined by taking into consideration the feed already on hand, the estimated feed to be produced, the feed which has not yet been delivered under previous emergency feed programs, the feed the applicant otherwise will acquire and the feed which he is able to acquire. In determining the feed available to the applicant, the county committee shall take into account available hay and forage, including pasture, in terms of grain feed value equivalents. The county committee shall use its judgment in determining the amount of feed the applicant is able to acquire during the prescribed period, taking into account:

(i) The total cash loans and credit that can be obtained for use during the prescribed period from all sources including the following:

(a) Liquid assets (i. e., cash, stocks, bonds, accounts receivable, etc.) calculated as of the date of filing of his application.

(b) Estimated value of his other property (i. e., chattels, personalty and realty) calculated as of the date of filing of his application, and

(c) Estimated net income for the prescribed period from all sources; less

(ii) (a) Outstanding indebtedness (secured and otherwise), calculated as of the date of filing of his application;

(b) Estimated future operating expenses and estimated normal living expenses (excluding taxes), calculated for the prescribed period, and

(c) Estimated cash or credit needed by the applicant to pay his share of the purchase price of the feed grains that he may be approved to receive.

(4) The county committee shall take reasonable precautions to see that feed is not furnished under the program to applicants who are able to maintain their foundation herd without assistance; however, an applicant shall not be required to exhaust all of his resources before assistance is made available under the program. If the applicant is a partnership the above described information shall be provided as to each of the partners and the partnership. If the applicant is a corporation and the corporation is wholly or substantially (i. e., 75 percent or more) owned by an individual and those related to him by blood or marriage, the county committee shall disregard the corporate entity for the purpose of determining the feed grains the applicant is able to acquire and treat the applicant as a partnership comprised of the individual and those related to him by blood or marriage and require the above described information from the individual and related stockholders. The fact that the purchase of needed feed at prevailing prices may not be profitable to the applicant is not sufficient to qualify him for assistance.

(5) Each county committee shall exercise judgment in a fair and impartial manner in making determinations with respect to applicants under subparagraphs (1) to (4) of this paragraph. The county committee shall base its determinations primarily upon the information supplied by the applicant, but shall take into consideration other information available to it, including knowledge of the committeemen concerning the applicant's normal operations.

(6) Each application must be considered by at least two members of the county committee. The action taken with respect to each application, except applications submitted by State or county committeemen and those involving 1,000 or more animal units, will be indicated thereon in the appropriate space. If the application is approved, the amount of designated feed grains which the applicant is approved to receive shall be indicated thereon. If the application is rejected, a brief statement of the reasons for such action will be given in the space provided for that purpose. At least one member of the county committee will sign the original and copy of the application in behalf of the county committee. The original shall be retained in the county office and the copy of the application delivered to the applicant, showing the action taken.

(7) In connection with applications submitted by State and county committeemen and those involving 1,000 or more animal units, the county committee will make recommendations with respect to the eligibility of the applicant and the amount of assistance which such applicant is entitled to receive in accordance with the standards prescribed in this subpart. Such recommendations, together with the applications, shall be referred to such officials in CSS as may be designated by the Executive Vice President, CCC, to make final determinations with respect to such applications on the basis of the same standards and subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the county committee.

(d) Appeals and review of county committee action. An applicant may appeal to the State Committee determinations made by the county committee as to his eligibility or the amount of feed grains which he is approved to receive. An appeal shall be accompanied by a written statement of the applicant's justification together with supporting evidence. The State Committee either on its own motion or on appeal is authorized to review actions taken by the county committee with respect to the eligibility of an applicant and the amount of feed he is approved to receive. If the facts warrant such action the State Committee may reverse the determination made by the county committee as to the eligibility of an applicant, and either revise upward or downward the amount of feed an applicant has been approved to receive. The State Committee shall make its determination on the basis of the same standards and subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the county committee. Adjustment downward will be made by the State Committee only after affording the applicant an opportunity to present reasons, together with evidence in support of his position. If revised upward, an additional purchase order shall be issued to the applicant by the county committee in the amount of the increase in the total assistance allowed. If revised downward and the applicant had been issued a purchase order, the applicant on demand shall return to the county committee a purchase order representing the amount of the decrease in the total assistance allowed, or he shall refund such amount in cash to the county committee. If revised downward and no purchase order had been issued, the county committee will issue a purchase order in the amount approved by the State Committee. No appeal may be had from determinations of the State Committee.

(e) Farmer's purchase order—(1) Issuance. For each approved application the county committee will issue a purchase order, Form DF-2 (hereinafter referred to as purchase order) to the farmer named in the application which will show the number of hundredweight of feed grains as approved in the application. At the farmer's request, the county committee may issue two or more purchase orders based on one application. If more than one purchase order is issued with respect to an application, the total number of hundredweight of feed grains shown on such purchase orders shall not exceed the number of hundredweight for which the application was approved. If a purchase order has been issued and the farmer requests two or more purchase orders in lieu thereof, the purchase order previously issued must be returned to the county committee for voiding prior to the issuance of the new purchase orders. The replacement purchase orders shall bear the same expiration date as the original purchase order which was voided by the county committee. It shall be solely the responsibility of the farmer to request the issuance of additional purchase orders with respect to an application in sufficient time to permit transfer by him to the dealer of such purchase orders within the period of time specified in the original purchase order.

(2) Use. The farmer to whom a purchase order is issued may use it only as part payment on the purchase price of feed grains or approved mixed feed purchased during the prescribed period from a dealer or his authorized representative or from another farmer as provided in paragraph (f) (2) of this section. Such purchase order may not be used by the farmer for any other purpose. A dealer who accepts a purchase order from the farmer to whom it was issued must have allowed such farmer credit for the value thereof as specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph in part payment of feed grains and approved mixed feed shown thereon in order to obtain a Dealer's Certificate.

(3) Value. The total value of any purchase order shall be the smaller of the following amounts: (i) The number of hundredweight shown in section I of the purchase order multiplied by $1.00, or (ii) the number of hundredweight of feed grains or approved mixed feed listed in the table set forth in section III of the purchase order multiplied by the applicable value per hundredweight shown below:

(a) Feed grains (excluding ear corn and approved mixed feed): $1.00 per hundredweight.

(b) Ear corn $1.00 per hundredweight multiplied by the ear corn conversion factor.

(c) Mixed Feed A: $0.75 per hundredweight.

(d) Mixed Feed B: $0.60 per hundredweight.

A purchase order shall have no value whatsoever for the purchase of mixed feed containing less than sixty percent (60%) by weight of feed grains. In the event a dealer accepts a purchase order as part payment on the purchase price of mixed feed containing less than sixty percent (60%) by weight of feed grains and exchanges the purchase order for a Dealer's Certificate he shall, upon demand, refund to CCC the amount of credit allowed on such purchase order. Approved mixed feed may contain more than the minimum percentage of feed grains, but a purchase order used in part payment for the purchase of such mixed feed will in no event be valued at other than the amount stated in (c) and (d) of this subdivision.

(4) Transfer, date, and delivery. A purchase order may be transferred by the farmer to a dealer in partial payment of feed grains or approved mixed feed, shown in section III of the purchase order, which have been actually sold and physically delivered by the dealer to the farmer within the prescribed period. The date of transfer of the purchase order shall be the date the certification in section IV is signed by the farmer, which shall be not later than the expiration date of the purchase order.

(i) An actual sale shall be deemed to have been made when the dealer and farmer have agreed on the kinds, quantities and prices of feed grains and approved mixed feed and the total purchase price has been paid by the farmer to the dealer or charged by the dealer against the farmer.

(ii) Physical delivery shall be deemed to have been completed when the farmer has permanently removed or caused to be removed from the dealer's premises and control the total quantity of feed grains and approved mixed feed included in an actual sale.

(f) Feed on hand and not used—(1) At the expiration of the program in the county. The farmer shall not use, feed, sell or otherwise dispose of eligible feed acquired on a purchase order which he has on hand on the expiration date of the program in the county unless he pays to the county committee the amount of credit he received on the purchase order(s) for such feed. The expiration date of the program in the county for the purpose of this section shall be the last day of the prescribed period as specified in the purchase order, unless the period of assistance to farmers in the county under this program extends beyond the date in the purchase order and the farmer has received notification in writing from the county committee of such later date. The farmer shall promptly report the quantity and kind of eligible feed acquired on purchase order(s) on hand on the expiration date of the program.

(2) Reduced or liquidated herds or herds removed from the designated disaster area. Where feed acquired under the program has not been fed and the herd is substantially reduced or entirely liquidated, or the herd is partially or entirely removed permanently from the designated disaster area, the farmer must report promptly the quantity and kind of such feed on hand to the county office from which the purchase order was obtained. The farmer may then either pay the county committee the value he received on the purchase order for the quantity of feed on hand beyond his requirement for the remainder of the herd in the designated disaster area as determined by the county committee and dispose of the feed as he chooses, or if there is a current Emergency Feed Program in the area he may sell the feed to another farmer who has a current purchase order. If the other farmer who intends to purchase such feed has a purchase order in excess of the quantity of feed being purchased, he shall return the original purchase order to the county office that issued it and obtain in lieu thereof two or more purchase orders, one equalling the amount to be allowed for the emergency feed purchased and another for the balance of the unused portion of the purchase order surrendered. Both farmers, the purchaser and the seller, shall complete and execute such purchase order and submit it to the county office, which shall issue no Dealer's Certificate in connection with such purchase.

§ 475.56 Eligible dealer. Any person (individual, partnership, corporation, cooperative or other business entity, including agencies of State and local governments) who is engaged in the handling of feed grains or approved mixed feed, who enters into a Feed Dealer's agreement—Emergency Feed Program with CCC, and who posts a performance bond as required by CCC may qualify as an eligible dealer except as follows: (a) A dealer who has deliberately violated the terms and conditions of a previous Emergency Feed Program or has been billed by CCC for an amount due under a previous Emergency Feed Program which he has not paid; (b) any Member of or Delegate to Congress, or Resident Commissioner, and (c) any partnership of which a Member of or Delegate to Congress, or a Resident Commissioner is a partner. A dealer must enter into a separate Feed Dealer's Agreement—Emergency Feed Program with CCC for each county in which he presents purchase orders.

§ 475.57 Dealer's Certificates—(a) Basis of issuance. (1) An eligible dealer or his authorized representative may present a purchase order, which has been transferred to him by a farmer, to the county committee which issued it and obtain a Dealer's Certificate based thereon except as follows:

(i) Purchase orders issued in the dealer's name.

(ii) Purchase orders issued in the name of a partnership in which the dealer is a partner.

(iii) Purchase orders issued in the name of a person who is a partner of the same partnership as the dealer.

(iv) Purchase orders issued to a partnership or individual engaged in farming or livestock enterprise in which the dealer has a financial interest.

(v) Purchase orders presented by a dealer who is not otherwise entitled to present a purchase order under the terms and conditions of the Feed Dealer's Agreement.

(2) A dealer who accepts the transfer of a purchase order prior to the time that he enters into an applicable Feed Dealer's Agreement—Emergency Feed Program does so at his own risk and CCC shall not be liable to the dealer in any way for refusal to enter into such an agreement with the dealer. There must be compliance with the following conditions with respect to each purchase order presented:

(i) A purchase order must be received at the office of the county committee which issued it within 30 calendar days after the date of transfer of the purchase order from the farmer to the dealer.

(ii) The dealer must have actually sold and the farmer must have actually purchased and received physical delivery of the quantity of feed grains or approved mixed feed listed in the table set forth in section III of the purchase order. In the event that any feed grains were delivered trackside to the farmer named in the purchase order, the sales price to the farmer must have been no more than the cost of such feed grains to the dealer plus a handling margin no larger than that which has been determined by the State Committee to be reasonable. (Information as to the handling margins determined by the State Committee to be reasonable will be available at the county office and should be obtained from such office.)

(iii) The dealer must have accepted the transfer of the purchase order in part payment for the quantity of feed grains or approved mixed feed listed in the table set forth in section III of the purchase order to the full extent of the value as specified in § 475.55 (e) (3) for each hundredweight so listed up to the maximum value of the purchase order.

(iv) The dealer must submit to the county office with each purchase order copies of sales tickets, sales slips, invoices, or other appropriate documents, and scale tickets, when available, for the feed grains or approved mixed feed purchased by the farmer, showing the kinds and quantities of feed grains or approved mixed feed purchased, the date of such purchases, the price per hundredweight charged the farmer, and the credit allowed on the purchase price for the purchase order.

(v) Sections III and IV of the purchase order must have been duly executed.

(b) Face value. The face value of a Dealer's Certificate shall be an amount equal to the total value of the purchase order or purchase orders submitted in exchange for the Dealer's Certificate. The total value of each purchase order shall be determined in accordance with § 475.55 (e) (3).

(c) Transfer. Dealer's Certificates may be transferred by the dealer to any supplier, broker, agent or other person, and may subsequently be transferred from person to person. The transfer of Dealer's Certificates shall be made by endorsement on the reverse side thereof, giving the address of the endorser, and the date of the endorsement.

§ 475.58 Presentation of Dealer's Certificates to CCC. Subject to all of the provisions of this subpart, valid Dealer's Certificates, if presented to CCC by the holder within 120 calendar days after the date of issuance, will be accepted at face value for the purchase of designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains which CCC makes available for sale to holders of Dealer's Certificates under this program. CCC reserves the right to limit sales made in redemption of Dealer's Certificates to such grades of the designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains and to such locations of such feed grains, as CCC may from time to time determine.

(a) Where to purchase. Holders of valid Dealer's Certificates may purchase designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains from:

(1) CSS commodity offices provided CCC has determined that such surplus feed grains are available through such commodity offices for sale under this program. Information as to CSS commodity offices having such surplus feed grains available for sale may be obtained from the following CSS commodity offices: Evanston CSS Commodity Office, 2201 Howard Street, Evanston, Ill.; Dallas CSS Commodity Office, 500 South Ervay Street, Dallas 1, Tex.; Kansas City CSS Commodity Office, 560 Westport Road, Kansas City 41, Mo.; Minneapolis CSS Commodity Office, 1006 West Lake Street, Minneapolis 8, Minn.; and Portland CSS Commodity Office, 1218 Southwest Washington Street, Portland 5, Oreg.; or

(2) County committees of counties which are located in a designated disaster area as defined in § 475.53 (a), or which were in a designated disaster area during this program even though the counties are no longer in such an area if CCC has designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains stored in CCC storage sites located in such counties and CCC has determined that such surplus feed grains are available for sale under this program. The sale will be made by the county committee in charge of the storage site. Information as to the location of CCC storage sites within the State which are now or were formerly under this program in the designated disaster area may be obtained from the State Committee. Information as to the availability of designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains in CCC storage sites may be obtained from the county committee of the county in which the CCC storage site is located.

(b) Amount of purchase—(1) From commodity offices. Purchases from CSS commodity offices shall be in carload lots, except as provided in § 475.63 (b).

(2) From county committees. Purchases from applicable county committees may be in carload lots or less.

(c) Purchase from CSS Commodity Office—(1) Offer to purchase. In making an offer to purchase, the holder of Dealer's Certificate(s) must specify the class, grade, quality and quantity of the designated CCC-owned surplus feed grain which he desires to purchase, together with the destination and the consignee to whom such feed grain is to be shipped.

(2) Confirmation of sale. The CSS commodity office will accept, or reject the offer within 72 hours from the time the offer is received (such acceptance or rejection will be by collect wire if requested): Provided, That any acceptance shall be conditioned on the signing and return by the purchaser to the CSS commodity office of a confirmation of sale issued by such office containing terms and conditions applicable to the sale. Such confirmation of sale, together with the provisions contained in this section shall constitute the sales contract.

(3) Price. Sales will be made by the CSS commodity office at the prevailing market price, as determined by CCC, "in store" or f. o. b. car at point determined by CCC.

(4) Payment. (i) The purchaser must submit valid Dealer's Certificates of face value sufficient to cover the sales value of the feed grain purchased. Such Dealer's Certificates must be submitted in advance of delivery of the feed grains but no later than 10 calendar days after the date of issuance of the confirmation of sale. CCC shall have the election to cancel the sales contract if the purchaser fails to comply with this requirement.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing requirement, the Executive Vice President, CCC, pursuant to notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, may authorize Directors of CSS commodity offices to accept in payment from a holder of valid Dealer's Certificates having a total value insufficient to buy a carload lot, the valid Dealer's Certificates held by him plus an amount of cash to cover the remainder of the purchase price of a carload lot of feed grains provided (a) the period for which assistance under this program was authorized by the Administrator, CSS, in the counties where the Dealer's Certificates were issued expired at least 120 days prior to the date of filing the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and (b) the Executive Vice President, CCC, determines that there is only a minor volume of feed grain represented by unredeemed Dealer's Certificates which were issued in such counties and Dealer's Certificates which were issued in other counties are not readily available, and that such sales of feed grain for cash will not impair the price support program. The notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER shall identify the counties in which the Dealer's Certificates were issued and the period of assistance authorized by the Administrator, CSS, under this program in such counties, to which the notice applies.

(5) Delivery. (i) Delivery of designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains will be made "in store" or f. o. b. cars at point determined by CCC. CCC does not guarantee delivery within any specified period of time following receipt of the Dealer's Certificate(s) but will utilize all practicable means to secure prompt delivery. The purchaser, if he so requests, will be advised by collect wire of cars being shipped.

(ii) The basis for determination of the quality and quantity of feed grains delivered shall be stated in the confirmation of sale issued by the CSS commodity office.

(6) Basis of settlement at end of each sale. (i) In the event that the Dealer's Certificates submitted to CCC have a total face value which is less than the value of the feed grains delivered, because of over-delivery or other cause approved by CCC, the purchases shall pay to CCC, in cash, the difference between the total face value of the certificates submitted and the value of the feed grain delivered, calculated on the basis of the specified sales price.

(ii) In the event the purchaser submits Dealer's Certificates having a total face value in excess of the sales value of the feed grain delivered, the purchaser will be issued a new Dealer's Certificate for the excess value.

(iii) To avoid administrative costs of issuing Dealer's Certificates in small denominations, Dealer's Certificates for excess value of $3 or less will be issued only upon request. Deficiencies of $3 or less owed to CCC may be disregarded unless demand for payment is made by CCC.

(d) Purchase from county committee—(1) Price. All sales from CCC storage sites will be made at the prevailing market price as determined by the county committee on the date of sale.

(2) Payment. Payment shall be made by presentation to the county committee, prior to delivery of the feed grains, of valid Dealer's Certificates of an aggregate face value equal to the total price of the feed grains purchased. The provisions of paragraph (c) (6) of this section shall be applicable to sales from CCC storage sites.

§ 475.59 Limitation on rights of transferees. The right of a transferee in due course of a Dealer's Certificate to present the Dealer's Certificate and obtain designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains shall not be limited except as follows:

(a) A Dealer's Certificate will not be accepted if presented later than 120 calendar days after the date of issuance.

(b) In the event that, after issuance of a Dealer's Certificate, there has been any alteration increasing its face value, such certificate will be accepted only for its face value at the time of issuance.[1]

(c) Any transferee who acquires the Dealer's Certificate knowing or having good cause to know that the dealer who originally obtained such certificate from the county committee did so on the basis of false or fraudulent certifications or representations shall not be entitled to present the Dealer's Certificate. A transferee of a Dealer's Certificate who acquires such certificate without knowing or having good cause to know of any such false or fraudulent certifications or representations shall be entitled to present the certificate and obtain designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains.

§ 475.60 Suspension of Feed Dealer's Agreement. CCC may suspend the right of an eligible dealer who has entered into Feed Dealer's Agreement or Agreements to participate in this program by notification in writing to the dealer if it has good reason to believe that the dealer has failed to comply with the provisions of such Agreement(s) with respect to any purchase order presented by him to the county committee, or if the dealer has failed to comply with the provisions of a previous Emergency Feed Program or Feed Dealer's Agreement and the failure was not known to the county committee when the Feed Dealer's Agreement—Emergency Feed Program was executed. Any such suspension shall be effective as to all Feed Dealer's Agreements entered into by the dealer under this program. In the event of suspension, the dealer shall not be entitled to present any purchase order to any county committee except to the extent that CCC may thereafter agree to accept such purchase order.

[1] Any false certification or representation, willful alteration, or other fraudulent act may be subject to prosecution under Federal Criminal statutes and to action under Federal Civil frauds statutes.

§ 475.61 Maintenance of books and records. The dealer shall maintain and preserve books and records which will permit verification of all transactions with regard to Farmer's Purchase Orders and Dealer's Certificates for at least three full years following exchange of the purchase order for Dealer's Certificates and for such additional period as CCC may request in writing. An examination of such books and records by a duly authorized representative of the United States shall be permitted at any time during business hours.

§ 475.62 Extension of time—(a) Expired purchase orders. If the farmer actually purchases and accepts physical delivery of feed grains or approved mixed feed within the prescribed period but does not execute the certificate in section IV of the purchase order within such prescribed period, or if the dealer does not present the purchase order to the county committee within 30 calendar days after the timely transfer of the purchase order to him from the farmer, the farmer or the dealer, as the case may be, may make a request in writing to the county committee which issued the purchase order for an extension of time, giving the facts and circumstances. The county committee may grant an extension of time if it determines that such extension will not adversely affect the program.

(b) Expired Dealer's Certificates. Dealers and transferees holding expired Dealer's Certificates may file an application in writing for an extension of time to present such certificates with the county office which issued the certificates or with the CSS commodity office serving the State in which the expired Dealer's Certificates were issued. Such application shall contain a full statement of facts justifying the petitioner's request and the reason why the certificates were allowed to expire. Requests for extension of time of Dealer's Certificates totaling $1,000 or less will be acted on by the appropriate county office or the CSS commodity office. Requests for extension of time on Dealer's Certificates totaling in excess of $1,000 will be transmitted by such offices to the Administrator, CSS, Washington 25, D. C., for final action. Such extensions will be granted where it is determined that they will not adversely affect the program.

§ 475.63 Termination. (a) The program provided for in this subpart may be terminated at any time upon issuance of public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such termination shall not apply with respect to any purchase order or Dealer's Certificate issued prior to the effective date of such termination.

(b) Upon termination of this program holders of valid Dealer's Certificates having a total face value insufficient to purchase a carload lot of any of the available designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains (1) may purchase from a CSS commodity office a carload lot of such feed grains and submit to the CSS commodity office the Dealer's Certificates held by him, plus an amount of cash sufficient to cover the remainder of the price of the carload of feed grain purchased, or (2) may purchase from a CSS commodity office for delivery "in store" a quantity of available designated CCC-owned surplus feed grains equal in price to the face value of such Dealer's Certificates and submit such Dealer's Certificates to the CSS commodity office in payment therefor. The provisions of § 475.58 shall be applicable to such purchases, except to the extent that such provisions are inconsistent with this paragraph.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 23d day of July 1958.

Acting Executive Vice President,
Commodity Credit Corporation.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 146]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 922.446 Valencia Orange Regulation 146—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by tending to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for such oranges as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices, and is not for the purpose of maintaining prices to farmers above the level which it is declared to be the policy of Congress to establish under the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 24, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 27, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., August 3, 1958, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 554,400 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

[Peach Order 1]

PART 940—PEACHES GROWN IN MESA COUNTY, COLORADO

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 940.310 Peach Order 1.—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 40, as amended (7 CFR Part 940), regulating the handling of peaches grown in the County of Mesa in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of such peaches, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 27, 1958. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such peaches must await the development of the crop and adequate information thereon was not available to the Administrative Committee until July 10, 1958; recommendations as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such peaches were made by said committee on July 10, 1958, after consideration of all information then available relative to the supply and demand conditions for such peaches, at which time the recommendations and supporting information were submitted to the Department, and made available to growers and handlers; necessary supplemental information was not available to the Department until July 22, 1958; shipments of some of the early varieties of the current crop of peaches have begun in light volume, and shipments in heavy volume are expected to begin shortly, and this regulation should be applicable, insofar as practicable, to all shipments of such peaches in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with this regulation will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., M. s. t., July 27, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., M. s. t., October 12, 1958, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any peaches of any variety which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1;

(ii) Any peaches of the Early Elberta, Gleason Elberta, Sullivan Elberta, or Golden Jubilee varieties which are of a size smaller than 2 inches in diameter: Provided, That any lot of peaches shall be deemed to be of a size not smaller than 2 inches in diameter (a) if not more than 10 percent, by count, of the peaches in such lot are smaller than 2 inches in diameter; and (b) if not more than 15 percent, by count, of the peaches contained in any individual container in such lot are smaller than 2 inches in diameter; or

(iii) Any varieties of peaches other than the Early Elberta, Gleason Elberta, Sullivan Elberta, and Golden Jubilee varieties which are of a size smaller than 2⅛ inches in diameter: Provided, That any lot of peaches shall be deemed to be of a size not smaller than 2⅛ inches in diameter (a) if not more than 10 percent, by count, of the peaches in such lot are smaller than 2⅛ inches in diameter; and (b) if not more than 15 percent, by count, of the peaches contained in any individual container in such lot are smaller than 2⅛ inches in diameter.

(3) Definitions. As used herein, "peaches," "handler," "ship," and "varieties" shall have the same meaning as when used in the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order; "U. S. No. 1," "diameter," and "count" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Peaches (§§ 51.1210 to 51.1223 of this title).

[Lemon Reg. 749]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 953.856 Lemon Regulation 749—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based becomes available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The Committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 23, 1958.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 27, 1958, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., August 3, 1958, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;
(ii) District 2: 279,000 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

AUTHORITY: §§ 987.0 to 987.111 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 987.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1958.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 29, 1958 and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued July 9, 1958. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1958, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c (9) of the act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period (April 1958), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Central Mississippi marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 987.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 987.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 987.3 Department of Agriculture. "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of Agriculture or any other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 987.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit.

§ 987.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 987.6 Central Mississippi marketing area. "Central Mississippi marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all the territory within the following counties: Adams, Claiborne, Clarke, Copiah, Covington, Forrest, Franklin, Hinds, Jasper, Jefferson, Jefferson Davis, Jones, Lamar (except Beat 2 thereof), Lauderdale, Lawrence, Lincoln, Madison, Marion, Neshoba, Newton, Perry, Rankin, Scott, Simpson, Smith, Walthall, Warren and Wayne, all in the State of Mississippi.

§ 987.7 Distributing plant. "Distributing plant" means an approved plant from which Class I milk equal to not less than 50 percent of its receipts of producer milk and fluid milk products from other pool plants is disposed of during the month, on routes or through plant stores, to wholesale or retail outlets (except pool plants) and from which not less than 20 percent of such Class I milk is disposed of during the month on routes or through plant stores, to wholesale or retail outlets (except pool plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 987.8 Supply plant. "Supply plant" means an approved plant from which during the month an amount equal to 50 percent or more of receipts of its producer milk is shipped to and received at distributing plants. Any supply plant that was a pool plant during each of the months of August through January immediately preceding shall be a pool plant each of the months of February through July unless written notice to the market administrator is received before the first day of the month of its intention to withdraw, in which case such plant shall thereafter be a nonpool plant, unless it again qualifies as a supply plant by shipping 50 percent or more of its receipts from dairy farmers to a plant described in § 987.7.

§ 987.9 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means either a distributing plant or a supply plant, except a plant operated by a producer-handler.

§ 987.10 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any milk manufacturing or processing plant other than a pool plant.

§ 987.11 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means all of the buildings, premises and facilities of a plant(s) in which milk or skim milk is processed or packaged and from which any fluid milk product is disposed of during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors and sales through plant stores) to wholesale or retail outlets (except milk distributing or processing plants) located in the marketing area, or (b) from which milk or skim milk eligible for distribution in the marketing area under a Grade A label is shipped during the month to a distributing plant.

§ 987.12 Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) A cooperative association with respect to milk of producers diverted for the account of such association from a pool plant to a nonpool plant in accordance with the provisions of § 987.13; or

(b) Any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more approved plants.

§ 987.13 Producer. "Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority, which milk is received during the month at a pool plant or is diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant, except plants under another order, for the account of a handler operating a pool plant or a cooperative association but for not more than 10 days production during the months of September, October, and November. Milk diverted for the account of the operator of a pool plant shall be deemed to have been received at the plant from which diverted, and milk diverted for the account of a cooperative association shall be deemed to have been received by the cooperative association at the location of the pool plant from which it was diverted.

§ 987.14 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means only the skim milk or butterfat contained in milk (a) received at a pool plant(s) directly from producers, or (b) diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant (except a nonpool plant which is fully subject to the pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act) in accordance with the provisions of § 987.13.

§ 987.15 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in: (a) Receipts during the month of fluid milk products except (1) fluid milk products received from pool plants, and (2) producer milk; and (b) products, other than fluid milk products, from any source (including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 987.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who operates a dairy farm and a distributing plant which, during the month, received no other source milk (except own production), producer milk, or milk from a pool plant.

§ 987.17 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average, as computed by the market administrator of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department of Agriculture.

§ 987.18 Fluid milk product. "Fluid milk product" means all skim milk (including concentrated and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks (including eggnog), yogurt, cream (other than frozen storage cream), cultured sour cream, and any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk (other than ice cream, ice cream mixes, frozen ice milk, ice milk mixes, frozen desserts and mixes, and sterilized products contained in hermetically sealed containers).

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 987.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 987.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary, complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 987.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon, satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 987.95, the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses, except those incurred under § 987.94, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Audit all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 987.30 and 987.31, or payments pursuant to § 987.90, and §§ 987.93 to 987.98;

(i) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, and notify each handler in writing:

(1) On or before the 6th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 987.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.52 (a), both for the current month, and the minimum price for Class II milk computed pursuant to § 987.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.52 (b), both for the previous month;

(2) On or before the 10th day after the end of each of the months of August through February, the uniform price computed pursuant to § 987.71, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91; and

(3) On or before the 10th day after the end of each of the months of March through July, the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk computed pursuant to § 987.72, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91;

(j) On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, report to each cooperative association which so requests, the percentage of producer milk delivered by members of such association, which was used in each class by each handler receiving such milk. For the purpose of this report, the milk so received shall be prorated to each class in accordance with the total utilization of producer milk by each handler; and

(k) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and such information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 987.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 6th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his approved plants for such month as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in receipts of producer milk; and for the months of March through July, the total quantity of base milk received;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in fluid milk products received from other pool plants;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk;

(d) Inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and end of the month; and

(e) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section, including a separate statement of the disposition of Class I milk outside the marketing area.

§ 987.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the month for each of his fluid milk plants, his producer payroll for such month, which shall show for each producer: (i) His name and address, (ii) the total pounds of milk received from such producer, including for the months of March through July, the total pounds of base and excess milk, (iii) the number of days on which milk was received from such producer if less than a full calendar month, (iv) the average butterfat content of such milk, and (v) the net amount of such handler's payment, together with the price paid and the amount and nature of any deductions;

(2) On or before the first day other source milk is received in the form of milk, fluid skim milk, or cream at his pool plant(s), his intention to receive such product, and on or before the last day such product is received, his intention to discontinue receipt of such milk;

(3) On or before the day prior to diverting producer milk pursuant to § 987.13, his intention to divert such milk, the date(s) of such diversion and the nonpool plant to which such milk is to be diverted; and

(4) Such other information with respect to the utilization of butterfat and skim milk as the market administrator may prescribe.

(c) Each handler who receives producer milk for which payment is to be made to a cooperative association pursuant to § 987.90 (e) shall report to such cooperative association with respect to each such producer, as follows:

(1) On or before the 20th day of each month, the total pounds of milk received during the first 15 days of the month,

(2) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month:

(i) The daily and total pounds of milk received during the month with separate totals for base and excess milk for the months of March through July, and the average butterfat test thereof; and

(ii) The amount or rate and nature of any deductions.

§ 987.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations, together with such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data for each month with respect to:

(a) The receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat handled in any form;

(b) The weights and butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream, and other milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers, including any deductions authorized by producers, and disbursement of money so deducted.

§ 987.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator, shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the calendar month, to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 987.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat received within the month at pool plants and which is required to be reported pursuant to § 987.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 987.41 to 987.46.

§ 987.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 987.43 and 987.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including concentrated and reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat:

(1) Disposed of in fluid milk products;

(2) Contained in inventory of milk and milk products designated as Class I milk pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph on hand at the end of the month; and

(3) Not accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce any product other than those designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) Disposed of and used for livestock feed;

(3) Contained in skim milk dumped, provided the market administrator is notified in advance and given opportunity to verify such dumping; and

(4) In shrinkage, but in an amount not to exceed one-half percent of the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers plus 1½ percent of the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat in bulk milk, skim milk, and cream in fluid form received at a pool plant from all sources less that disposed of in bulk to a pool plant of another handler.

§ 987.42 Assignment of shrinkage. The market administrator shall assign shrinkage at the pool plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat classified as Class II milk; and

(b) Assign the resulting amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in (1) producer milk and milk received from other pool plants, and (2) other source milk.

§ 987.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise;

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 987.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of each month from a pool plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of fluid milk products to the pool plant of another handler unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 987.30, subject in any event to the conditions set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph:

(1) (i) In no event shall the skim milk or butterfat assigned to Class II milk exceed the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant(s) of the transferee handlers after subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 987.46, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk; and

(ii) If either or both handlers have other source milk during the month, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I milk utilization to producer milk of both handlers; and

(b) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of bulk milk, skim milk or cream to a nonpool plant unless:

(1) The transferring handler claims Class II use on his report for the month;

(2) The operator of the nonpool plant maintains books and records which are made available for examination upon request by the market administrator and which are adequate for verification of such Class II use; and

(3) The skim milk and butterfat, respectively, received at the nonpool plant during the month from a pool plant(s) and from a plant(s) at which milk is priced pursuant to another order issued pursuant to the act does not exceed the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, resulting from the following computation:

(i) Determine the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, used to produce any items of Class II milk (as defined pursuant to § 987.41 (b)) at such nonpool plant during the month;

(ii) Add the skim milk and butterfat respectively, in fluid bulk cream transferred from such nonpool plant to a plant at which milk is priced pursuant to this or another order issued pursuant to the act and such cream is allocated to other than Class I milk (under the applicable order definitions at the transferee plant).

(iii) Add the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in fluid bulk cream transferred from such nonpool plant to a second nonpool plant which is not in excess of the items of Class II milk processed in such second nonpool plant plus the bulk fluid cream shipped from such second nonpool plant to other nonpool plants which do not dispose of milk or cream for consumption in fluid form: Provided, That the second nonpool plant meets the conditions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph; and

(iv) Subtract the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, received at such nonpool plant from any source(s) other than that which has been approved by a governmental agency as a source(s) of fluid Grade A milk products.

In the event that the remaining skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph is less than the skim milk and butterfat, respectively, received at such nonpool plant from a pool plant(s) and from a plant(s) at which milk is priced pursuant to another order issued pursuant to act, the difference shall be assigned pro rata, to each pool plant (in accordance with receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, from all plants regulated pursuant to the act), and shall be classified as Class I milk.

§ 987.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the pool plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat dry milk contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 987.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. (a) The pounds of skim milk remaining in each class after making the following computations each month, with respect to the pool plant(s) of each handler, shall be the pounds of skim milk in such class allocated to the producer milk of such handler for such month:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 987.42 (b);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in other source milk, except that to be subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk in other source milk exceed the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk in fluid milk products received from plants regulated pursuant to other orders issued pursuant to the act, less any equivalent amounts of skim milk in other source milk allocated to Class I milk at each of such plants, respectively: Provided, That if the pounds of skim milk to be subtracted exceed the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, the balance shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class I milk, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(5) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk contained in fluid milk products received from the pool plants of other handlers, according to the classification of such skim milk as determined pursuant to § 987.44 (a);

(6) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 987.50 Basic formula price. The highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section, rounded to the nearest whole cent, shall be known as the basic formula price:

(a) Divide the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture, by 3.5 and multiply by 4.0.

(b) The price computed by adding together any plus values computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) Multiply the Chicago butter price by 4.8; and

(2) Deduct five cents from the simple average as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month, by the Department of Agriculture, and multiply by 7.5; and

(c) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department of Agriculture:

§ 987.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 987.52 and 987.53, the minimum prices per hundredweight for the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. Through February 29, 1960, the minimum price per hundredweight shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month, plus $1.85 during the months of March through July and plus $2.30 during all other months;

(b) Class II milk price. The price per hundredweight for Class II milk shall be the price determined pursuant to § 987.50 (c) plus 10 cents during each of the months of March through June and plus 20 cents during all other months.

§ 987.52 Butterfat differential to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices calculated pursuant to § 987.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent butterfat at the appropriate rate determined as follows:

(a) Class I price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the preceding month by 0.12; and

(b) Class II price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the month by 0.11.

§ 987.53 Location differentials to handlers. For that milk which is received from producers at a pool plant located 50 miles or more from the city limits of Hattiesburg, Jackson, Meadville or Meridian, Mississippi, whichever is closest by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance as determined by the market administrator, and which is transferred in the form of fluid milk products to another pool plant and assigned to Class I pursuant to the proviso of this section, or otherwise classified as Class I milk, the price specified in § 987.51 (a) shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule:

Distance from the city limits of Hattiesburg, Jackson, Meadville or Meridian, Miss. (miles):	Rates per hundredweight (cents)
50 but not more than 60	10.0
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof, an additional	1.5

Provided, That, for the purposes of calculating such location differential, products so designated as Class I milk which are transferred between pool plants shall be assigned to any remainder of Class II milk in the transferee-plant after making the calculations prescribed in § 987.46 (a) (1), (2), and (3), and the comparable steps in § 987.46 (b) for such plant, and after deducting from such remainder an amount equal to 0.05 times the skim milk and butterfat contained in the producer milk received at the transferee-plant, such assignment to transferor-plants to be made first to plants which the location differential is applicable.

§ 987.54 Rate of compensatory payments. In any month in which total deliveries of producer milk exceed 110 percent of the total amount classified as Class I (excluding duplications) at all pool plants, the rate of compensatory payment per hundredweight shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Subtract the Class II price, adjusted by the Class II butterfat differential, from the Class I price adjusted by the Class I butterfat differential and adjust such difference by the location differential rate set forth in § 987.52 for the location of the plant at which the milk was received from farmers.

§ 987.55 Use of equivalent prices. If, for any reason, a price specified in this part for use in computing class prices or for other purposes is not reported or published in the manner described in this part, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 987.60 Producer-handlers. Sections 987.40 to 987.46, 987.50 to 987.54, 987.61, 987.62, and 987.70 to 987.72, 987.80 to 987.83, and 987.90 to 987.98 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 987.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. The provisions of this part shall not apply to a plant specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section except as follows: The operator of such plant shall, with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(a) Any distributing plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless a greater volume of Class I milk is disposed of during the month from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets (except pool plants) in the Central Mississippi marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order: Provided, That, if such distributing plant disposed of Class I milk during the month in the marketing areas of more than one other Federal order, the marketing area in which the most Class I milk is disposed shall determine the Federal order under the provisions of which such plant shall be regulated; and

(b) Any supply plant which would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the act unless such plant qualified as a pool plant pursuant to § 987.8.

§ 987.62 Obligations of a handler operating a nonpool distributing plant. Each handler who operates during the month a nonpool distributing plant shall pay to the market administrator for deposit in the producer settlement fund and the administrative assessment fund, as the case may be, as follows:

(a) If such handler so elects in writing at the time of reporting pursuant to § 987.30, the amounts computed as follows:

(1) On or before the 15th day after the end of the month, for the producer settlement fund, an amount equal to the difference between the value of the Class I milk disposed of during the month on routes in the marketing area at the applicable Class I price for the month and the value of such milk at the Class II price; and

(2) On or before the 15th day after the end of the month, as his pro rata share of expense of administration, the rate specified in § 987.95 with respect to Class I milk disposed of on routes in the marketing area; and

(b) Except as the handler's obligation may be computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, he shall pay the amounts as follows:

(1) On or before the 25th day after the end of the month, for the producer settlement fund, the amount specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section, or any plus amount resulting from the following computation, whichever is less:

(i) Determine the value for milk received from dairy farmers at such plant for such month pursuant to § 987.70 as if such plant has been a pool plant; and

(ii) Deduct the gross payments made by the handler to dairy farmers for milk received at such plant for such month. Such gross payments shall be limited to cash payments made to the dairy farmer or his assignee on or before the date for filing reports required pursuant to § 987.31 (b), plus the value of any supplies or services furnished by the handler on prior written authorization or as evidenced by a delivery ticket signed by the dairy farmer; and

(2) On or before the 15th day after the end of the month, as his pro rata share of the expense of administration, an amount equal to that which would have been computed pursuant to § 987.95 had such plant been a pool plant.

§ 987.70 Computation of value of producer milk. The value of producer milk received during the month by each handler at his pool plant(s) shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price;

(b) Add together the resulting amounts;

(c) Add the amounts computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class by the applicable class price;

(d) Add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months;

(e) In the case of a handler operating a pool plant which was not a pool plant under this order during each of the preceding five months, add an amount calculated by multiplying the difference between the Class I and the Class II prices adjusted by the appropriate butterfat differentials by any figure determined as follows: Any amount by which the hundredweight of skim milk or butterfat in inventory for such month, pursuant to § 987.41 (a) (2), is less than the least hundredweight of skim milk or butterfat, respectively, deducted pursuant to § 987.46 (a) (4) and (b) for such handler for any month since such plant was not a pool plant;

(f) Add for each month of August an amount calculated by multiplying by 40 cents the hundredweight by which the inventory classified pursuant to § 987.41 (a) (2) for the preceding month exceeds any inventory so classified for the preceding February; and

(g) Add an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I milk, pursuant to § 987.46 (a) (2) and (b), by the rate of compensatory payment as determined pursuant to § 987.54, for the nearest plant(s) from which an equivalent amount of other source milk was received in the form of fluid milk products.

§ 987.71 Computation of the uniform price. For each of the months of August through February, the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of producer milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, for plants within the marketing area as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 987.70 for the producer milk of all handlers who submit reports prescribed in § 987.30 and who have made payments for the previous month pursuant to § 987.90 or § 987.97;

(b) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of the producer milk included under paragraph (a) of this section is greater than 4.0 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4.0 percent, an amount computed as follows: Multiply the variation in the average butterfat content of such milk from 4.0 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91, and multiply the result by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(c) Add an amount equal to the sum of the deductions to be made from producer payments for location differentials pursuant to § 987.90 (c) (1);

(d) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance on hand in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of producer milk included under paragraph (a) of this section; and

(f) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents.

§ 987.72 Computation of uniform prices for base milk and excess milk. For each of the months of March through July, the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and for excess milk, each of 4.0 percent butterfat content, for plants within the marketing area, as follows:

(a) Compute the aggregate value of excess milk for all handlers who submit reports pursuant to § 987.30, and who have made payments for the previous month pursuant to § 987.90 or § 987.97, as follows: (1) Multiply the hundredweight of such milk not in excess of the total quantity of producer milk assigned to Class II milk in the pool plants of such handlers by the Class II milk price; (2) multiply any additional hundredweight of such milk by the Class I milk price; and (3) add together the resulting amounts;

(b) Divide the aggregate value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (a) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk, adjust to the nearest cent and subtract 4 cents. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from producers;

(c) Subtract an amount determined by multiplying the uniform price obtained in paragraph (b) of this section, plus 4 cents, times the hundredweight of excess milk from the total value of producer milk for the month as determined according to the calculations set forth in § 987.71 (a) to (d);

(d) Divide the result obtained pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section by the total hundredweight of base milk of handlers included in these computations; and

(e) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents from the price computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section. The resulting figure shall be the uniform price for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content for plants within the marketing area.

BASE RATING

§ 987.80 Determination of daily base. The daily base of each producer shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: Divide the total pounds of milk received by all handlers from such producer during the months of September through January by the number of days from the first day milk is received from such producer during said months to the last day of January, inclusive, but not less than 120 days.

§ 987.81 Computation of base. The base of each producer to be applied during the months of March through July shall be a quantity of milk calculated by the market administrator in the following manner: Multiply the daily base of such producer by the number of days production delivered by such producer to handlers during the month.

§ 987.82 Base rules. The following rules shall apply in connection with the establishment of bases:

(a) A base shall be assigned to the producer for whose account milk is received at a pool plant during the months of September through January and to each person for whose account milk was delivered to a plant that did not qualify as a pool plant during each month of the base forming period, but which qualifies as a pool plant during any of the months of March through July, bases shall be assigned on deliveries at such plant in the same manner as if such plant had been a pool plant during each month of the base forming period; and

(b) An entire base shall be transferred by the market administrator to another person upon receipt of an application form, approved by the market administrator, and signed by the base-holder(s), or his heirs, and by the person to whom such base is transferred subject to the following condition:

(1) If a base is transferred to a producer already holding a base, a new base shall be computed by adding together the producer milk deliveries of the transferee and transferor during the base forming period and dividing the total by the number of days from the first day of delivery by either the transferee or transferor during the base forming period to the last day of January inclusive but not less than 120 days.

§ 987.83 Announcement of established bases. On or before March 1 of each year, the market administrator shall notify each producer and the handler receiving milk from such producer of the daily base established by such producer.

PAYMENTS

§ 987.90 Payments to producers. Except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer from whom milk is received during the month as follows:

(a) On or before the last day of each month, for milk received during the first 15 days of the month, at not less than the price per hundredweight for Class II milk for the preceding month;

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the months of August through February for milk received during such month at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight, computed for such handler pursuant to § 987.71, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92, less proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer and less payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, and deductions made pursuant to § 987.94;

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the months of March through July, after allowance for the amount of payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for deductions made pursuant to § 987.94, and for other proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer, as follows:

(1) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for base milk computed pursuant to § 987.72 for the quantity of base milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92; and

(2) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for excess milk computed pursuant to § 987.72 for the quantity of excess milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92;

(d) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The daily and total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

(e) In lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section, each handler shall make payment to a cooperative association which has filed a written request for such payment with such handler and with respect to producers for whose milk the market administrator determines that such cooperative association is authorized to collect payment, as follows:

(1) On or before the 26th day of each month, an amount equal to not less than the Class II price for the preceding month, multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received during the first 15 days of the month from such producers, and

(2) On or before the 13th day after the end of each month an amount equal to not less than the applicable uniform price(s) pursuant to §§ 987.71 and 987.72, multiplied by the hundredweight of milk received from such producers to which each such price is applicable, subject to the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 987.91 and the location differential computed pursuant to § 987.92, less payment made such cooperative association pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and proper deductions authorized in writing by such producers or such cooperative associations; and

(f) On or before the 13th day after the end of the month, each handler shall pay to each cooperative association which is also a handler, for milk received from it not less than the value of such milk as classified pursuant to § 987.44 (a) at the applicable respective class prices, including differentials prescribed by the order.

§ 987.91 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform prices to be paid each producer pursuant to § 987.90 shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in producer milk allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 987.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest half cent.

§ 987.92 Location differentials to producers. In making payment to producers pursuant to § 987.90, the applicable uniform prices to be paid for producer milk received at a pool plant located 50 miles or more from the city limits of Hattiesburg, Jackson, Meadville, or Meridian, Mississippi, whichever is closest by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, shall be reduced at the rate set forth in the following schedule:

Distance from the city limits of Hattiesburg, Jackson, Meadville or Meridian, Miss. (miles):	Rates per hundredweight (cents)
50 but not more than 60	10.0
For each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof, an additional	1.5

§ 987.93 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors resulting in money due (a) the market administrator from a handler, (b) a handler from the market administrator, or (c) any producer or cooperative association from a handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments set forth under which such error occured.

§ 987.94 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers for milk (other than milk of his own production) pursuant to § 987.90, shall deduct 7 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 7 cents per hundredweight, as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association; and

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers on or before the 15th day after the end of each month, and pay such deductions to the cooperative association of which such producers are members, furnishing a statement showing the amount of any such deductions and the amount and average butterfat test of milk received from each such producer. In lieu of such statement, a handler may authorize the market administrator to furnish such cooperative association the information reported for such producers pursuant to § 987.90, (d).

§ 987.95 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, for such month, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk, including such handler's own production; (b) other source milk allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 987.56 (a) (2) and (b); and (c) Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area (except to a pool plant) from a nonpool plant not subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the Act.

§ 987.96 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to §§ 987.62, 987.93 and 987.97, and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to §§ 987.93 and 987.98: Provided, That any payments due to any handler shall be offset by any payments due from such handler.

§ 987.97 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, each handler shall pay, except as provided in § 987.62, to the market administrator any amount by which the value of his producer milk as computed pursuant to § 987.70 for such month, is greater than the amount owed by him for such milk at the appropriate uniform price(s) adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials.

§ 987.98 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 13th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler any amount by which the total value of his producer milk, computed pursuant to § 987.70, for such month is less than the amount owed by him for such milk at the appropriate uniform price(s) adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials. If, at such time, the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this section, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the appropriate funds are available.

§ 987.99 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay any handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 987.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 987.101.

§ 987.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provision of this part whenever he finds this part or any provision of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 987.102 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 987.103 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignment or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 987.110 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his Agent or Representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 987.111 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of July 1958, to be effective on and after the 1st day of August 1958.

[SEAL] DON PAARLBERG,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 1017—ONIONS GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREG.

APPROVAL OF EXPENSES AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice of rule making regarding proposed expenses and rate of assessment, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 130 and Order No. 117 (7 CFR Part 1017), regulating the handling of onions grown in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oregon, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 1, 1958 (23 F. R. 5018). This regulatory program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, which proposals were adopted and submitted for approval by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Onion Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 1017.202 Expenses and rate of assessment. (a) The reasonable expenses that are likely to be incurred by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Onion Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 130 and this part, to enable such committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions of aforesaid marketing agreement and order, during the fiscal period beginning July 1, 1958 and ending June 30, 1959, will amount to $2,930.00.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler, pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 130 and this part, shall be three-tenths of one cent ($0.003) per hundredweight of onions handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal period.

(c) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 130 and this part.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Dated: July 22, 1958, to become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] S. R. SMITH,
Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 54645]

PART 79—IMPORTATION OF ARTICLES IN CONNECTION WITH THE KENTUCKY STATE FAIR AT LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

The following regulations under Public Law No. 85-405, 85th Congress,[1] approved May 16, 1958, relate to the entry of articles in connection with the Kentucky State Fair to be held at Louisville, Kentucky, September 4 to September 13, 1958, inclusive.

[1] • • • That any article which is imported from a foreign country for the purpose of exhibition at the Kentucky State Fair (hereinafter in this Act referred to as the "fair") to be held at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center, Louisville, Kentucky, from September 4, 1958, to September 13, 1958, inclusive, by the Kentucky State Fair, a corporation, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign exhibits at the fair, upon which article there is a tariff or customs duty, shall be admitted without payment of such tariff or customs duty or any fees or charges under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful at any time during or within three months after the close of the fair to sell within the area of the fair articles provided for in this Act, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. All such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure, the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry under this Act for consumption or entry under the general tariff law.

SEC. 3. Imported articles provided for in this Act shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except

Sec.
79.1 Invoices; marking; bond.
79.2 Entry, appraisement; procedure.
79.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.
79.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses.
79.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment.

AUTHORITY: §§ 79.1 to 79.5 issued under Pub. Law 85-405.

§ 79.1 Invoices; marking; bond. (a) Articles intended for exhibition under the provisions of Public Law No. 85-405, 85th Congress, and valued at over $500, are subject to the usual special customs invoice requirements if of a class for which such invoices are required under the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder. The invoices shall be on either customs Form 5515 or on foreign service Form 138 and shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930. (19 U. S. C. 1481)

(b) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under the regulations in this part except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but no additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States.

SEC. 4. At any time during or within three months after the close of the fair, any article entered under this Act may be abandoned to the United States or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such articles shall be remitted.

SEC. 5. Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty or exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at the fair, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

SEC. 6. The Kentucky State Fair shall be deemed, for customs purposes only, to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under this Act. The actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for, articles imported under this Act, shall be reimbursed by the Kentucky State Fair to the United States under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Receipts from such reimbursement shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. (19 U. S. C., sec. 1524).

(c) The Kentucky State Fair shall give to the collector of customs at Louisville, Kentucky, a bond in an amount to be determined by the collector and containing such conditions for compliance with Public Law No. 85-405, 85th Congress, and the regulations in this part, as shall be approved by the Bureau of Customs.

§ 79.2 Entry; appraisement; procedure. (a) All entries under the regulations in this part shall be made at the port of Louisville, Kentucky, in the name of the Kentucky State Fair, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under the regulations in this part, an entry under the general tariff law in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the Kentucky State Fair to make such entry may be accepted by the collector.

(b) Articles to be entered under the regulations in this part which arrive at ports other than Louisville shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner prescribed by the general customs regulations.

(c) Upon the arrival at the port of Louisville of articles to be entered under the regulations in this part, they shall be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

(d) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. The articles shall be tentatively appraised prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits entered under these regulations shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with § 79.5 (a).

(e) If for any reason articles imported for entry under the regulations in this part are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided for, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period, they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(f) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any customs law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the exposition in the manner prescribed in § 10.49 (c) of this chapter, except that in each case an entry under paragraph (c) of this section shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in § 79.1 (c) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the exposition in the manner prescribed in § 8.33 of this chapter.

§ 79.3 Compliance, provisions of Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, and Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 151-164a, 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Plant Quarantine Branch of the Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations. The entry of food products shall conform to the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 301 et seq.), and regulations issued thereunder.

§ 79.4 Detail of customs officers to protect revenue; expenses. (a) The collector of customs at Louisville, Kentucky, shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the exposition and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary to properly protect the revenue.

(b) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the exposition or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the Kentucky State Fair to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, Louisville, Kentucky, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Salaries and Expenses, Bureau of Customs."

§ 79.5 Withdrawal of articles from exhibition for exportation, abandonment, destruction, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law; involuntary abandonment. (a) Any article entered under the regulations of this part may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the exposition or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U. S. C. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Law No. 85-405, 85th Congress.

(b) At any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in § 15.4 of this chapter.

(c) Any articles entered under the regulations in this part which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 229]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

ALTERATIONS

The restricted area alteration appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Division, and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

A temporary restricted area is established, to be known as "North Central", described as follows:

Name and location (chart)	Description by Geographical coordinates	Designated altitudes	Time of designation	Controlling agency
North Central Temporary Restricted Area (Chicago) (RF-32).	"Beginning at latitude 45°20'37" longitude 82°31'25"; to latitude 43°33'00", longitude 84°30'00"; to latitude 40°-00'00", longitude 84°30'00"; to latitude 40°00'00", longitude 90°00'00"; to latitude 42°00'00", longitude 90°40'00"; to latitude 44°00'00", longitude 90°50'00"; to latitude 46°00'00", longitude 91°-00'00"; to latitude 46°30'00", longitude 90°00'00"; to latitude 48°03'36", longitude 90°00'00"; thence along the U. S.-Canadian boundary to the point of beginning, excluding that portion overlying the Moline Control Zone."	Surface to 40,000 feet MSL.	0100-0400 (c. d. s. t.).	Nonspecified.

NOTE: This affects §§ 608.21, 608.22, 608.23, 608.30, 608.31, 608.43, 608.57.

This amendment shall become effective August 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, 29, September 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19, 30, and October 1, 2, 3, 14, 15, 16, 17, 1958.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor

PART 520—EMPLOYMENT OF STUDENT LEARNERS

APPLICATION FOR SPECIAL STUDENT-LEARNER CERTIFICATE

Pursuant to authority under section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214), Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (64 Stat. 1263; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp., p. 165), and General Order No. 45-A of the Secretary of Labor (15 F. R. 3290), and in accordance with the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), I hereby amend paragraph (a) of § 520.3 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, after the introductory clause by deleting therefrom the words "an original and duplicate copy of every application" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "an application".

(Sec. 14, 52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214)

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Notice and public procedure thereon are omitted for good cause since it is hereby found that such action is unnecessary. The requirement of filing a duplicate copy hereby eliminated, was solely for the convenience of the agency. No delay in the effective date of the amendment is provided, because it relieves applicants of the restriction of having their applications considered only if they file a duplicate copy.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of July 1958.

CLARENCE T. LUNDQUIST,
Administrator.

PART 522—EMPLOYMENT OF LEARNERS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 10, 1958 (23 F. R. 4035), that the Acting Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, proposed to amend the regulations heretofore issued pursuant to section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 214), which provide for the employment of learners in the knitted wear industry at wages lower than the wage applicable under section 6 of the act (29 CFR 522.30 to 522.35). Interested persons were invited to submit in writing any data, views, or arguments pertaining to the proposals within fifteen days of the publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

All relevant matter submitted has been considered, together with all other available information, and it appears that the adoption of the proposed amendments is appropriate. The purposes of the proposals are to increase the special minimum wage presently authorized for the learner occupations in the knitted wear industry from 85 cents an hour to 90 cents an hour and to provide that no worker may be employed as a learner at hourly wage rates below the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the act for the learning periods permitted by the regulations involved in more than two of the learner occupations authorized in this industry.

Accordingly, in accordance with the requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238, 5 U. S. C. 1003) and pursuant to authority contained in section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C.

214), Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (64 Stat. 1263; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp., p. 165), and General Order No. 45–A (15 F. R. 3290) of the Secretary of Labor, I hereby adopt the amendments of Part 522 of Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, as proposed and as indicated below:

1. Section 522.34 is amended by inserting the following new paragraph (d):

(d) No worker shall be employed as a learner at subminimum rates in more than two of the learner occupations authorized in § 522.33.

2. Paragraph (a) of § 522.35 is amended to read as follows:

(a) The subminimum rate which may be authorized in special certificates issued in the knitted wear industry shall be not less than 90 cents per hour.

These amendments shall take effect August 25, 1958.

(Sec. 14, 52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 219)

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of July 1958.

CLARENCE T. LUNDQUIST,
Administrator.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITLES

TOLERANCE FOR RESIDUE OF SODIUM 2,4-DICHLOROPHENOXYACETATE

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration by The Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Michigan, requesting the establishment of a tolerance for residues of sodium 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetate, expressed as 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetic acid, in or on asparagus.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which a tolerance is being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerance established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d) (2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U. S. C. 346a (d) (2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR 120.7 (g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR Part 120) are amended as follows:

1. Section 120.3 (e) (4) is amended by inserting therein, after the item "Sesone * * *" the item "Sodium 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetate."

2. Part 120 is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 120.165 Tolerance for residues of sodium 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetate. A tolerance of 5 parts per million is established for residues of sodium 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetate, calculated as 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetic acid, in or on asparagus.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may, at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the effective date thereof, file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D. C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by this order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and reasonable grounds for the objections, and request a public hearing upon the objections. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

R. 1045), the regulations for tests and methods of assay for antibiotics and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Part 141e) and certification of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR Parts 146a, 146b, 146c, 146d, 146e) are amended as indicated below:

1. Section 141e.401 Bacitracin is amended by adding thereto the following new paragraphs:

(g) Ash content. Place approximately 1 gram of the sample, accurately weighed, in a tared porcelain crucible and carefully ignite at a low temperature until thoroughly charred. The crucible may be loosely covered with a porcelain lid during the charring. Add to the contents of the crucible 2 milliliters of nitric acid and 5 drops of sulfuric acid, and cautiously heat until white fumes are involved, then ignite, preferably in a muffle furnace, at 500° C. to 600° C. until the carbon is all burned off. Cool the crucible in a desiccator and weigh. From the weight of residue obtained, calculate the sulfated ash content.

(h) Heavy metals content. Using the sulfated ash obtained in paragraph (g) of this paragraph, proceed as directed in the U. S. P. Heavy Metals Test, Method II, starting with the words "Cool, add 2 ml. of hydrochloric acid * * *."

2. Section 146a.22 Penicillin-streptomycin-neomycin-polymyxin ointment * * * is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended by changing the words "and (3)" in the second sentence to read ", (3), and (4)".

b. Paragraph (b) is amended by adding to the second sentence the words ", except the standard for toxicity."

c. Paragraph (d) is amended by inserting a period after the word "potency" in the first sentence and deleting the words "and toxicity."

3. In § 146a.23 Penicillin-streptomycin-erythromycin ointment * * *, paragraph (c) is amended by deleting from the first sentence the word "toxicity,".

4. Section 146a.26 Penicillin ointment is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * * is amended by changing the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth sentences to read as follows: "The calcium penicillin or crystalline penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.24 (a), except the limitation on penicillin K content, and except § 146a.24 (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4), but its potency is not less than 300 units per milligram. The procaine penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.44 (a), except § 146a.44 (a) (2), (3), and (4). The l-ephenamine penicillin G used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.64 (a), except § 146a.64 (a) (2), (3), and (4). Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

5. Section 146a.36 Penicillin vaginal suppositories is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * * is amended by changing the third, fourth, and fifth sentences to read as follows: "The sodium penicillin, calcium penicillin, and potassium penicillin used conform to the requirements of § 146a.24 (a), except § 146a.24 (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4), but its potency is not less than 300 units per milligram. The procaine penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.44 (a), except if the batch of procaine penicillin in oil is packaged and labeled solely for udder instillations of cattle, the penicillin used is exempt from the requirements of paragraph (a) (2), (3), and (4) of that section, or if the batch of procaine penicillin in oil is packaged and labeled solely for subcutaneous injection in fowl, the penicillin used is exempt from the requirements of paragraph (a) (2) and (3) of that section."

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification; samples subparagraph (2) (ii) is amended by inserting after the word "toxicity" the following parenthetical expression: "(unless it is intended for udder instillations of cattle),".

6. Section 146a.40 Penicillin bougies * * * is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * * is amended by changing the fourth, fifth, and sixth sentences to read as follows: "The sodium penicillin, calcium penicillin, or potassium penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.24 (a), except the limitation on penicillin K content and except § 146a.24 (a) (1), (2), (3), and (4), but its potency is not less than 300 units per milligram. The procaine penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.44 (a), except the limitation on penicillin K content and except § 146a.44 (a) (2), (3), and (4). Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium."

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification; samples, subparagraph (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

7. Section 146a.45 Procaine penicillin in oil is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity * * * is amended by changing the sixth sentence to read as follows: "The procaine penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.44 (a), except if the batch of procaine penicillin in oil is packaged and labeled solely for udder instillations of cattle, the penicillin used is exempt from the requirements of paragraph (a) (2), (3), and (4) of that section, or if the batch of procaine penicillin in oil is packaged and labeled solely for subcutaneous injection in fowl, the penicillin used is exempt from the requirements of paragraph (a) (2) and (3) of that section."

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification; samples subparagraph (2) (ii) is amended by inserting after the word "toxicity" the following parenthetical expression: "(unless it is intended for udder instillations of cattle),".

8. In § 146a.52 Procaine penicillin and crystalline penicillin in oil, paragraph (a) (1) is changed to read as follows:

(1) It contains not less than 50,000 units of crystalline penicillin for each 300,000 units of procaine penicillin, except if it is packaged and labeled solely for veterinary use. The crystalline penicillin used conforms to the requirements prescribed therefor by § 146a.24 (a), except if the batch of procaine penicillin and crystalline penicillin in oil is intended solely for udder instillations of cattle, the crystalline penicillin used is exempt from the requirements of paragraph (a) (2), (3), and (4) of that section.

b. Paragraph (a) (3) is amended by inserting in the first sentence, after the word "toxicity", the following parenthetical expression: "(unless it is intended for udder instillations of cattle),".

9. Section 146a.54 Penicillin-streptomycin ointment * * * is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (2) is changed to read as follows:

(2) It contains not less than 10 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin per gram, unless it is intended solely for veterinary use and is conspicuously so labeled. If the ointment is intended for human use, the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) or § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, and histamine. If the ointment is intended solely for veterinary use, the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used may conform to the standards prescribed by § 146b.114 (a) of this chapter.

b. Paragraph (c) is changed to read as follows:

(c) In addition to complying with the requirements of § 146a.26 (d), a person who requests certification of a batch shall submit with his request a statement showing the batch mark and (unless it was previously submitted) the results and date of the latest tests and assays of the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used in making the batch for potency, moisture, pH, streptomycin content if it is dihydrostreptomycin, and crystallinity if it is crystalline dihydrostreptomycin sulfate. He shall also submit in connection with his request a sample consisting of not less than six packages, or if it contains two or more kinds of penicillin salt, seven packages, of such ointment and (unless it was previously submitted) a sample consisting of six packages containing approximately equal portions of not less than 0.5 gram each of the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used in making the batch, packaged in accordance with the requirements of § 146b.101 (b) of this chapter.

10. In § 146a.55 Penicillin-streptomycin bougies * * *, paragraph (a) (3) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

11. In § 146a.56 Penicillin-bacitracin ointment, paragraph (a) is amended as follows:

a. Subparagraph (2) is amended by adding thereto the following clause: "the bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a) of this chapter, except paragraph (a) (2), (3), (4), and (8) of that section;".

b. Subparagraph (4) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity," from the first sentence and changing the words "and pH" to read "pH, and ash content."

12. Section 146a.57 Procaine penicillin and streptomycin in oil * * * is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (1) is changed to read:

(1) It contains not less than 2.0 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin per milliliter. The streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) or § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine, or by § 146b.114 (a) of this chapter, except that if it is intended for udder instillations of cattle the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) or § 146b.106 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, and histamine, or by § 146b.114 (a) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity.

b. Paragraph (a) (4) is amended by inserting in the first sentence after the word "toxicity" the following parenthetical clause: "(if it is intended for subcutaneous injection in fowl),".

13. In § 146a.60 Penicillin-bacitracin troches * * *, paragraph (a) is amended as follows:

a. Subparagraph (1) is amended by changing the second sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146e.401 (a) of this chapter, except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. Subparagraph (3) is amended by inserting in the first sentence, after the word "pH", the words "ash content, if it is bacitracin,".

14a. In § 146a.62 Penicillin-neomycin ointment, paragraph (a) is amended by adding to the second sentence the following clause: ", except the standard for toxicity."

b. Section 146a.62 (d) is amended by deleting from the first sentence the word "toxicity,".

15. In § 146a.63 Crystalline penicillin and bacitracin, paragraph (d) Request for certification * * * is amended as follows:

a. Subparagraph (2) (iii) is changed to read as follows:

(iii) The bacitracin used in making the batch; potency, toxicity, ash content, and heavy metals content.

b. Subparagraph (3) (iii) is amended by changing the figure "3" to "4".

16. In § 146a.70 Penicillin-streptomycin-bacitracin ointment * * *, paragraph (a) is amended as follows:

a. Subparagraph (1) is amended by changing the second sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a) of this chapter except paragraph (a) (2), (3), (4), and (8) of that section."

b. Subparagraph (3) is changed to read as follows:

(3) In addition to complying with requirements of § 146a.54 (c), a person who requests certification of a batch shall submit with his request a statement showing the batch mark and (unless previously submitted) the results and the date of the latest tests and assays of the bacitracin or bacitracin methylene disalicylate used in making the batch for potency, moisture, pH, and ash content. He shall also submit in connection with his request a sample consisting of not less than 7 packages of such ointment and (unless it was previously submitted) a sample consisting of 6 packages containing approximately equal portions of not less than 0.5 gram each of the bacitracin or bacitracin methylene disalicylate used in making the batch, packaged in accordance with the requirements of § 146e.401 (b) of this chapter.

17. Section 146a.76 Penicillin-streptomycin implantation pellets • • • is amended as follows:

a. In paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • •, the sixth and seventh sentences are changed to read as follows: "The streptomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.101 (a) of this chapter, except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine content."

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification; samples, subparagraph (2) (iii) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

c. Paragraph (e) Fees, is amended by changing subparagraph (1) to read as follows:

(1) $1.00 for each pellet in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section; $4.00 for each package in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this section.

18. Section 146a.81 Penicillin-streptomycin vaginal suppositories • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (1) is changed to read as follows:

(1) Each suppository shall contain not less than 200 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) of this chapter, except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, and histamine.

b. Paragraph (a) (3) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

19. Section 146a.82 Penicillin-streptomycin-bacitracin dental paste • • • is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the last sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a) of this chapter, except § 146e.401 (a) (4) and (8)."

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification • • •, subparagraph (2) (iv) is amended to read as follows:

(iv) The bacitracin used in making the batch; potency, toxicity, sterility, moisture, pH, and ash content.

20. In § 146a.83 Procaine penicillin-streptomycin-neomycin-erythromycin in oil • • •, paragraph (c) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

21. Section 146a.87 Penicillin-bacitracin-neomycin ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended by changing the second sentence to read as follows: "The neomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146e.410 (a) (2) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity."

b. Paragraph (c) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity," from the second sentence.

22. Section 146a.88 Penicillin-streptomycin tablets • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (1) is changed to read:

(1) Each tablet contains not less than 20 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin. If the tablets are intended for human use, the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) or § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine content. If the tablets are intended solely for veterinary use, the streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin used may conform to the standards prescribed by § 146b.114 (a) of this chapter.

b. Paragraph (a) (3) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content," from the first sentence.

c. Paragraph (b) (2) is amended by changing "$10.00" to read "$4.00".

23. Section 146a.89 Penicillin-streptomycin-neomycin in oil • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) (1) Unless it is intended solely for veterinary use and is conspicuously so labeled, it contains not less than 2.0 milligrams of neomycin per milliliter. The neomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed for neomycin by § 146e.410 (a) (2) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity (unless it is intended for use by subcutaneous injection in fowl).

(2) If it is intended solely for veterinary use and is conspicuously so labeled, it may contain polyvinylpyrrolidone.

b. Paragraph (b) is amended by designating the context thereof as subparagraph (1) and adding thereto the following new sentence: "If it contains polyvinylpyrrolidone, the name and quantity of such ingredient."

c. Paragraph (b) is further amended by adding thereto subparagraph (2), reading as follows:

(2) On the label and labeling, if it contains polyvinylpyrrolidone, after the name "penicillin-streptomycin-neomycin in oil," "penicillin-dihydrostreptomycin-neomycin in oil," "penicillin-streptomycin-neomycin ointment," or "penicillin-dihydrostreptomycin-neomycin ointment," wherever such name appears, the words "with polyvinylpyrrolidone," in juxtaposition with such name.

d. Paragraph (c) is amended by inserting after the word "toxicity," the following parenthetical expression: "(if it is intended for subcutaneous injection in fowl),".

24. Section 146a.96 Dibenzylamine penicillin and streptomycin in oil • • • is amended by changing the last sentence thereof to read as follows: "The dibenzylamine penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.94 (a), except § 146a.94 (a) (2), (3) (unless it is intended for subcutaneous injection in fowl), and (4)."

25. In § 146a.108 Procaine penicillin-streptomycin-polymyxin in oil • • •, paragraph (a) is amended by changing the period at the end thereof to a comma and adding the following clause: ", except the standard prescribed for toxicity (unless it is intended for subcutaneous injection in fowl)."

26. Section 146a.111 Procaine penicillin-neomycin-polymyxin in oil • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • •, the sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth sentences are changed to read as follows: "The procaine penicillin used conforms to the requirements of § 146a.44 (a), except § 146a.44 (a) (2), (3), and (4). The neomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146e.410 (a) (2) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity. The polymyxin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.107 (a) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity. Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (b) Packaging • • • is amended by changing subparagraph (2) to read as follows:

(2) In addition to complying with the requirements of § 146a.26 (d), a person who requests certification of a batch shall submit with his request a statement showing the batch mark and (unless they were previously submitted) the results and the dates of the latest tests and assays of the neomycin (for potency, moisture, and pH) and polymyxin (for potency) used in making the batch; the number of units of penicillin; the number of milligrams of neomycin, and the number of units of polymyxin per milliliter or per gram. He shall also submit in connection with his requests a sample consisting of not less than seven immediate containers of the batch and (unless they were previously submitted) samples consisting of five packages each of the neomycin and polymyxin used in making the batch, each package containing approximately equal portions of not less than 0.5 gram.

27. Section 146a.112 Crystalline penicillin - streptomycin - polymyxin - oxytetracycline-carbomycin powder veterinary • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing sentences four to twelve, inclusive, to read as follows: "The crystalline penicillin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146a.24, except § 146a.24 (a) (2), (3), and (4). The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.101 (a) of this chapter, except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, and histamine. The polymyxin B used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.107 (a) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity. The oxytetracycline used is produced by the growth of Streptomyces Rimosus. The crystalline oxytetracycline base has a potency of not less than 900 micrograms per milliliter on the anhydrous basis, has a moisture content of not more than 7.5 percent, and a pH of from 5.5 to 7.5. The crystalline oxytetracycline hydrochloride has a potency of not less than 835 micrograms per milligram, a moisture content of not more than 1.5 percent, and a pH of from 2.3 to 2.9. The crystalline carbomycin used is produced by the growth of Streptomyces halstedii, has a potency of not less than 750 μg. per milligram, and has a moisture content of not more than 5.0 percent and a pH of from 5.0 to 8.0. Each other ingredient used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification; samples, subparagraph (2) (ii), (iii), (v), and (vi) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

c. Paragraph (d) (2) (iv) is amended by inserting a period after "Toxicity" and deleting the remainder of the sentence.

28. Section 146b.102 Streptomycin ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Streptomycin ointment and dihydrostreptomycin ointment are streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin in a suitable and harmless ointment base, with or without suitable and harmless dispersing and suspending agents and preservatives. Their potency is not less than 5,000 μg per gram of ointment. The streptomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.103, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, histamine, and moisture. Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

29. Section 146b.104 Streptomycin tablets • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the words "and pyrogens" in the sixth sentence to read: ", pyrogens, and histamine content."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

c. Paragraph (e) (1) is changed to read as follows:

(e) • • •

(1) $0.75 for each tablet in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section; $4.00 for each package in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (ii) and (iii) of this section.

30. Section 146b.107 Streptomycin-polymyxin-bacitracin tablets is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Streptomycin-polymyxin-bacitracin tablets are tablets composed of streptomycin, polymyxin B, and bacitracin, with or without the addition of one or more suitable and harmless buffer substances, diluents, binders, lubricants, colorings, and flavorings. The potency of each tablet is not less than 250 milligrams of streptomycin, 200,000 units of polymyxin B, and 5,000 units of bacitracin. Its moisture content is not more than 3 percent. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The polymyxin used is produced by the growth of Bacillus polymyxa, has a potency of not less than 3,800 units per milligram, and is nontoxic. The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a) of this chapter, except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8). Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "histamine,".

c. Paragraph (e) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(e) • • •

(1) $1.00 for each tablet in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section; $4.00 for each immediate container in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (ii), (iii), (iv), and (v) of this section.

31. Section 146b.108 Streptomycin syrup • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing "(2), (4), and (6)" to read "(2), (4), (5), and (6)".

b. Paragraph (a) is further amended by changing the words "and moisture" to read "moisture, and histamine content".

c. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

d. Paragraph (e) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Fees. • • •

(1) $4.00 for each package in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i), (ii), and (iii) of this section; and

32. Section 146b.109 Streptomycin-bacitracin-polymyxin gauze pads is amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • •, the sixth sentence is changed to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (iii) is amended by changing the words "and pH" to read "pH, and ash content."

33. Section 146b.110 Streptomycin otic with antifungal agent • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the fourth sentence to read as follows: "The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6)," and by inserting in the fifth sentence, after the word "pyrogens," the word "toxicity,".

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

34. Section 146b.111 Streptomycin-kaolin-pectin-aluminum hydroxide gel powder veterinary • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is changed to read:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Streptomycin-kaolin-pectin-aluminum hydroxide gel powder veterinary and dihydrostreptomycin-kaolin-pectin aluminum hydroxide gel powder veterinary are streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin, kaolin, pectin, and dried aluminum hydroxide gel, with or without the addition of one or more suitable and harmless diluents, colorings, and flavorings. Its content of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin is not less than 37.5 milligrams per gram of powder. Its moisture content is not more than 10 percent. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.103, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine content. Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

c. Paragraph (e) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Fees. • • •

(1) $1.00 for each immediate container in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section; $4.00 for each package in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (ii) and (iii) of this section.

35. Section 146b.118 Streptomycin-penicillin-sulfonamide with kaolin and pectin • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Streptomycin-penicillin-sulfonamide with kaolin and pectin and dihydrostreptomycin-penicillin-sulfonamide with kaolin and pectin are dry mixtures of streptomycin sulfate or dihydrostreptomycin sulfate, crystalline penicillin G (sodium or potassium), one or more suitable sulfonamides, kaolin, and pectin, with or without bismuth subcarbonate and with or without one or more suitable and harmless preservatives, colorings, and flavorings. Its moisture content is not more than 2 percent. The pH of a suspension prepared as directed in its labeling is not less than 5.5 and not more than 7.5. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.103, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine content. The crystalline penicillin G used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146a.24 (a) of this chapter, except § 146a.24 (a) (2) and (4). Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

c. Paragraph (e) (1) is changed to read:

(e) Fees. • • •

(1) $4.00 for each immediate container in the samples submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this section; $5.00 for each immediate container in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section.

36. Section 146b.121 Streptomycin-erythromycin ointment is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing "(2), (4), and (5)" in the fourth sentence to read "(2), (3), (4), and (5)" and by deleting the words "is nontoxic," from the fifth sentence.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

37. Section 146b.124 Streptomycin-polymyxin-neomycin ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Streptomycin-polymyxin-neomycin ointment and dihydrostreptomycin-polymyxin-neomycin ointment are streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin, polymyxin, and neomycin in a suitable and harmless ointment base, with or without one or more suitable sulfonamides, and with or without suitable and harmless dispersing and suspending agents. Their moisture content is not more than 1 percent. Their potency is such that when used as directed in their labeling each dose shall contain not less than 250 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin, 100,000 units of polymyxin B, and 150 milligrams of neomycin. The streptomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the requirements of § 146b.103, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, and histamine. The polymyxin B used conforms to the requirements prescribed for polymyxin B by § 146b.107 (a), except the standard for toxicity. The neomycin used conforms to the requirements prescribed for neomycin by § 146e.410 (a) (2) of this chapter, except the standard for toxicity. Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (d) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity," from subparagraph (2) (ii); by inserting a period after "Potency" and deleting the words "and toxicity" from subparagraph (2) (iii); and by deleting the word "toxicity," from subparagraph (2) (iv).

38. Section 146b.126 Streptomycin-neomycin powder • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the fourth and fifth sentences to read: "The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.101 (a), except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.103, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine content."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

c. Paragraph (e) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Fees. • • •

(1) $4.00 for each immediate container submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (ii), (iii), and (iv) of this section; $5.00 for each immediate container submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) (i) of this section.

39. Section 146c.202 Chlortetracycline hydrochloride ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Chlortetracycline hydrochloride ointment, tetracycline hydrochloride ointment, and tetracycline ointment are crystalline chlortetracycline hydrochloride, chlortetracycline calcium, tetracycline hydrochloride, or tetracycline, in a suitable and harmless ointment base. It may contain a suitable local anesthetic, cortisone, hydrocortisone, or a suitable ester of cortisone or hydrocortisone, and one or more suitable and harmless preservatives and stabilizing agents. Its moisture content is not more than 1 percent if it is chlortetracycline hydrochloride or tetracycline hydrochloride ointment. Its potency is not less than 1 milligram per gram. The chlortetracycline hydrochloride used in making the chlortetracycline hydrochloride ointment and in preparing the chlortetracycline calcium used in making the chlortetracycline calcium ointment conforms to the requirements of § 146c.201 (a), except § 146c.201 (a) (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5), but its potency is not less than 750 µg. per milligram. The tetracycline hydrochloride used conforms to the requirements of § 146c.218 (a), except § 146c.218 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5). The tetracycline used conforms to the requirements of § 146c.220 (a). Each other ingredient used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or N. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. In paragraph (c) Labeling, subparagraph (1) (iv) is amended by changing "36 months" to read "36 months or 48 months".

c. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

40. In § 146c.205 Chlortetracycline powder, • • •, subparagraph (1) (iii) of paragraph (c) Labeling is amended by changing the words "36 months" to read "36 months or 48 months".

41. Section 146c.208 Chlortetracycline otic • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the third and fourth sentences to read as follows: "The chlortetracycline used conforms to the requirements of § 146c.201 (a), except § 146c.201 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5). The tetracycline hydrochloride used conforms to the requirements of § 146c.218 (a), except § 146c.218 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (iii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

42. Section 146c.212 Chlortetracycline suppositories • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the reference "§ 146c.201 (a) (1), (2), (4), and (5)" in the fourth sentence to read "§ 146c.201 (a) (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5)," and the reference "§ 146c.218 (a) (2), (4), and (5)" in the fifth sentence to read "§ 146c.218 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

43. Section 146c.223 Chlortetracycline-neomycin-streptomycin - penicillin ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (2) is amended by changing the period at the end of the second sentence to a comma and adding the following clause: ", except the standard for toxicity."

b. Paragraph (a) (3) and (4) is amended to read as follows:

(3) They contain not less than 14 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin per gram. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) of this chapter, except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, toxicity, pyrogens, and histamine.

(4) They contain not less than 28,000 units of procaine penicillin G per gram, except that if it is intended for use by udder instillation, each single dose as recommended in its labeling contains not more than 100,000 units of procaine penicillin G. The procaine penicillin used conforms to the requirements prescribed by § 146a.44 (a) of this chapter, except § 146a.44 (a) (2), (3), and (4).

44. Section 146c.230 Chlortetracycline hydrochloride powder topical is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the reference "§ 146c.201 (a) (2), (4), and (5)" in the third sentence to read: "§ 146c.201 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5)" and by changing the reference "§ 146c.218 (a) (2), (4), and (5)" in the fourth sentence to read "§ 146c.218 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (5)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

45. Section 146c.237 Chlortetracycline-neomycin - streptomycin ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (2) is amended by changing the period at the end of the second sentence to a comma and adding the following clause: "except the standard for toxicity."

b. Paragraph (a) (3) is amended by inserting the number "(3)" between "(2)" and "(4)" in the second sentence and inserting the word "toxicity," after the word sterility,".

c. Paragraph (c) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity," from the first sentence.

46. Section 146d.303 Chloramphenicol ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by inserting the number "(3)," between the numbers "(2)" and "(4)" in the fifth sentence.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

47. Section 146d.308 Chloramphenicol otic • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by inserting "(3)," following "subparagraphs (2)" in the fifth sentence.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity,".

48. Section 146d.309 Chloramphenicol-streptomycin capsules • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Each capsule contains not less than 125 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.101 (a) of this chapter, except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), and (5). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, and histamine content.

b. Paragraph (a) (5) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content,".

c. Paragraph (b) (2) is amended by changing "$10.00" to read "$4.00".

49. Section 146d.311 Chloramphenicol palmitatestreptomycin oral suspension • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended to read:

(a) It contains not less than 30 milligrams of streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin per milliliter. The streptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed by § 146b.101 (a) of this chapter, except § 146b.101 (a) (2), (4), (5), and (6). The dihydrostreptomycin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146b.103 of this chapter, except the standards for sterility, pyrogens, moisture, and histamine content.

b. Paragraph (c) is amended by deleting the words "histamine content," from the first sentence.

c. Paragraph (d) (2) is amended by changing "$10.00" to "$4.00".

50. Section 146d.312 Chloramphenicol-neomycin ointment is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended by changing the period at the end of the second sentence to a comma and adding the following clause: ", except the standard for toxicity."

b. Paragraph (d) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity" from the first sentence.

51. Section 146e.401 Bacitracin is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by adding thereto the following subparagraphs:

(7) Its ash content is not more than 3.0 percent.

(8) If it is intended for systemic medication, its heavy metals content is not more than 30 parts per million.

b. In paragraph (d) Request for certification: samples, subparagraph (1) is amended by changing the words "and pH" in the second sentence to read "pH, ash content, and heavy metals."

c. Paragraph (d) is further amended by changing subparagraph (2) (i) to read:

(i) For all tests except sterility, one immediate container for each 5,000 immediate containers in such batch, but in no case less than six or more than 13 immediate containers. If a sample of such batch has not been previously submitted in accordance with subparagraph (3) or (4) of this paragraph, such person shall also submit one additional package containing 1.0 gram of the batch.

52. Section 146e.402 Bacitracin ointment • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) is amended to read:

(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Bacitracin ointment and zinc bacitracin ointment are composed of bacitracin or zinc bacitracin in a suitable and harmless ointment base, or they are a powder composed of bacitracin or zinc bacitracin and one or more suitable and harmless diluents, dispersing agents, and preservatives which upon the addition of the quantity of water recommended in its labeling, produces an ointment. It may contain a suitable local anesthetic, cortisone, or a suitable derivative of cortisone, one or more suitable sulfonamides, one or more suitable proteolytic enzymes, and, if it is intended solely for veterinary use and is conspicuously so labeled, one or more suitable antifungal agents or rotenone. Its potency is not less than 500 units per gram. Its moisture content is not more than 1 percent, except if it is a powder its moisture content is not more than 5 percent. The zinc bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.418 (a), except § 146e.418 (a) (2). The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (3), (4), and (8). Each other substance used, if its name is recognized in the U. S. P. or B. F., conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by such official compendium.

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended to read:

(ii) The bacitracin or zinc bacitracin used in making the batch: potency, moisture, pH, ash content if it is bacitracin, and zinc content if it is zinc bacitracin.

53. Section 146e.403 Bacitracin tablets • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the fourth and fifth sentences to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by inserting the words "ash content if it is bacitracin," after "pH,".

54. Section 146e.404 Bacitracin troches • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the fourth sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. In paragraph (c) Labeling, subparagraph (1) (iii) is amended by changing the words "24 months" to read "24 months or 36 months or 48 months".

c. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Request for certification; samples. • • • (2) • • •

(ii) The bacitracin or zinc bacitracin used in making the batch; potency, moisture, toxicity, pH, ash content if it is bacitracin, and zinc content if it is zinc bacitracin.

55. Section 146e.405 Bacitracin with vasoconstrictor • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing "(2), and (4)" in the fifth sentence to read: "(2), (4), and (8)".

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (i) is amended by changing the words "and pH" to read "pH, and ash content."

56. Section 146e.408 Bacitracin ophthalmic is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the sixth sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the requirements of § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by changing the words "and pH" to read "pH, and ash content."

57. In § 146e.409 Bacitracin-polymyxin ointment • • •, paragraph (a) is amended in the following respects:

a. Subparagraph (2) is amended by changing the period at the end of the second sentence to a comma and adding the following clause: ", except the standard for toxicity."

b. Subparagraph (7) is amended by deleting the words "and toxicity" from the first sentence.

58. In § 146e.411 Bacitracin-neomycin ointment • • •, paragraph (a) is amended in the following respects:

a. Subparagraph (1) is amended by changing the period at the end of the second sentence to a comma and adding the following clause: ", except the standard for toxicity."

b. Subparagraph (3) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity," from the first sentence.

59. Section 146e.419 Bacitracin-neomycin-polymyxin troches • • • is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the fourth sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by changing the words "and pH" to read "pH, and ash content."

60. In § 146e.422 Bacitracin-polymyxin-neomycin ointment, paragraph (a) is amended in the following respects:

a. Subparagraph (1) is amended by changing the period at the end of the second sentence to a comma and adding the following clause: ", except the standard for toxicity."

b. Subparagraph (4) is amended by deleting the word "toxicity," from the first sentence.

61. Section 146e.425 Bacitracin powder is amended in the following respects:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by changing the fourth sentence to read: "The bacitracin used conforms to the standards prescribed therefor by § 146e.401 (a), except § 146e.401 (a) (2), (4), and (8)."

b. Paragraph (d) (2) (ii) is amended by changing the words "and pH" to read "pH, and ash content."

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for the aforesaid amendments.

Effective date. The amendments numbered 23a (to paragraph (a) (2)), 23b, 23c, 39b, 40, and 54b shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All other amendments encompassed in this order shall become effective 90 days from the date of publication.

[Idaho 09491]

IDAHO

PARTIALLY REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER OF AUGUST 15, 1919, WHICH CREATED PUBLIC WATER RESERVE NO. 66

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141) as amended, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Executive order of August 15, 1919, creating Public Water Reserve No. 66, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands in Idaho:

BOISE MERIDIAN

T. 10 N., R. 21 E.,
Sec. 34, SE¼NE¼ and NE¼SE¼;
Sec. 35, S½N½, W½SW¼, SE¼.

The areas described aggregate 480 acres, of which the S½N½ and E½SE¼ (240 acres) in sec. 35 have been patented.

2. The land is about 24 miles northwest of Mackay, Idaho. The soil is heavy muck with clay loam with both seeped and open water areas. The vegetative cover is varied. The seeped areas support sedgegrasses, swamp grass, and reeds. Higher areas have some greasewood and sagebrush with intermingled weeds. Elevation is about 6,350 feet.

3. No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small tract, or any other nonmineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon the consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

4. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Small Tract Laws by qualified veterans of World War II or of the Korean Conflict, and by others entitled to preference rights under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279-284 as amended), presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on August 26, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such preference right applications filed after that hour and before 10:00 a. m. on November 25, 1958, will be governed by the time of filing.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the non-mineral public-land laws, other than those coming under paragraphs (1) and (2) above, presented prior to 10:00 a. m. on November 25, 1958, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

5. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws, and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location for non-metalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a. m. on November 25, 1958.

6. Persons claiming veterans preference rights must enclose with their applications proper evidence of military or naval service, preferably a complete photostatic copy of the certificate of honorable discharge. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must properly corroborate statements in support of their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Boise, Idaho.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

OREGON

REVOKING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 4700 OF AUGUST 5, 1927, WHICH WITHDREW LANDS FOR USE OF FOREST SERVICE AS A LOOKOUT STATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U. S. C. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Executive Order No. 4700 of August 5, 1927, temporarily withdrawing the following-described lands in Oregon for use of the Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, as a lookout station, is hereby revoked:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 4 S., R. 7 W.,
Sec. 11, NE¼SW¼ and NW¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate 80 acres.

2. The lands are revested Oregon and California Railroad grant lands and have been classified for retention in Federal ownership for permanent forest production in conformity with the sustained yield timber management requirements established by the act of August 28, 1937 (50 Stat. 874; 43 U. S. C. 1181a–1181f).

3. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will be open to location under the United States mining laws for non-metalliferous minerals at 10:00 a. m. on August 27, 1958, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 of this order.

4. Portions of the lands contain improvements represented by wooden structures erected by the Forest Service, and a triangulation station and certain reference points erected by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey. Any entry upon or location of such lands or use or disposal thereof, shall be subject to the right of the United States, its officers, agents or employees to maintain, repair, operate, improve, or remove such improvements and to enter upon the lands at any time or times for such purposes, and the United States shall retain all right, title and interest in and to such improvements until they have been removed or officially abandoned in place.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

[36 CFR Part 13]

ADMISSION, GUIDE, ELEVATOR, AND AUTOMOBILE FEES

COMMERCIAL PASSENGER-CARRYING VEHICLES, GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 3 of the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U. S. C. 3), it is proposed to amend 36 CFR Part 13 by adding § 13.18 as set forth below. The purpose of this amendment is to establish sightseeing vehicle fees in Great Smoky Mountains National Park, North Carolina and Tennessee. This amendment shall not be construed so as to interfere with the free public use of State Highways numbered 71 and 73.

This proposed amendment relates to matters which are exempt from the rule making requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003); however, it is the policy of the Department of the Interior that, wherever practicable, the rule making requirements be observed voluntarily. Accordingly, interested persons may submit in triplicate written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendment to the National Park Service, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

JULY 21, 1958.

A new section is added to Part 13, to read as follows:

§ 13.18 Commercial passenger-carrying vehicles, Great Smoky Mountains National Park. (a) Permits issued by the Superintendent, and compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, shall be required for the operation of commercial passenger-carrying vehicles, including taxicabs, carrying passengers for hire within the park. The fee for such permits shall be as follows:

(1) Annual permit for calendar year: $1.00 for each passenger-carrying seat in the vehicle to be operated.

(2) Quarterly permit for a period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1: 25¢ for each passenger-carrying seat in the vehicle to be operated.

(b) In addition to the permit required in paragraph (a) of this section, a guide permit issued by the Superintendent shall be required for each driver of a commercial passenger-carrying vehicle, including taxicabs, carrying passengers for hire within the park. Such a permit will be issued by the Superintendent upon a showing to his satisfaction that the applicant possesses adequate knowledge of the park's road system and points of interest, and has complied with all applicable state and federal regulations. The fee for a guide permit shall be $5.00 for the calendar year, or any part thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Social Security Administration

FINDINGS REGARDING FOREIGN SOCIAL INSURANCE AND PENSION SYSTEMS

Section 202 (t) of the Social Security Act (42 U. S. C. 402 (t) (2)) authorizes and requires the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to find whether a foreign country has in effect a social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country and under which periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, are paid on account of old age, retirement, or death, and individuals who are citizens of the United States but not citizens of such foreign country and who qualify for such benefits are permitted to receive such benefits or the actuarial equivalent thereof while outside such foreign country without regard to the duration of the absence.

Pursuant to authority duly vested in him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Commissioner of Social Security has considered evidence presented by 36 countries, named below, with respect to the social insurance or pension systems, if any, of such countries, from which evidence it appears that such countries either have no social insurance or pension systems of general application in such countries which pay periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, on account of old age, retirement, or death, or have social insurance or pension systems under which citizens of the United States, not citizens of the country involved, who leave that country, are not permitted to receive such benefits or equivalent while outside that country.

Accordingly it is hereby determined and found by the Commissioner of Social Security that each of the following 36 countries does not meet the requirements of section 202 (t) (2) of the Social Security Act (42 U. S. C. 402 (t) (2)) because such country either has no social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country under which periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, are paid on account of old age, retirement, or death, or has such a system but individuals who are citizens of the United States but not citizens of such foreign country and who qualify for such benefits are not permitted to receive such benefits or the actuarial equivalent thereof while outside such foreign country without regard to the duration of the absence:

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-30]

NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

NOTICE OF ISSUANCE OF CONSTRUCTION PERMIT

Pursuant to an order handed down on June 24, 1958, by the Hearing Examiner in the matter of National Advisory Commitee for Aeronautics, Docket 50-30, the Atomic Energy Commission has issued the following Construction Permit No. CPTR-3 to the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics authorizing the construction of a 60 megawatt light water-cooled and -moderated research and testing reactor at the Plum Brook Ordnance Works near Sandusky, Ohio, as described in the application for license filed under Docket No. 50-30.

For further details see the application for license on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D. C.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 21st day of July 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

E. R. PRICE,
Acting Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

[Construction Permit No. CPTR-3]

The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics (hereinafter referred to as "NACA") on August 20, 1956, filed its application for Class 104 license to construct and operate a nuclear reactor (hereinafter referred to as "the reactor"). Amendatory and supplementary material was incorporated in the application by filings on August 28, 1956, November 14, 1956, December 3, 1956, March 27, 1957, June 14, 1957, and July 23, 1957. Reference to "the application" herein will be to the original application as amended and supplemented.

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and Title 10 CFR, Chapter I, Part 50, "Licensing of Production and Utilization Facilities," the Atomic Energy Commission (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission") hereby issues a construction permit to NACA to construct a utilization facility in accordance with the application and amendments thereto. This permit shall be deemed to contain and be subject to the conditions specified in §§ 50.54 and 50.55 of said regulations is subject to all applicable provisions of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and rules, regulations and orders of the Atomic Energy Commission now or hereafter in effect; and is subject to the additional conditions specified or incorporated below:

A. The earliest date for the completion of the facility is January 1, 1959. The latest date for the completion of the facility is January 1, 1960. The term "completion date" as used herein means the date on which construction of the facility is completed except for the introduction of the fuel material.

B. The site proposed for the location of the reactor is the location on the grounds of the Plum Brook Ordnance Works approximately 3 miles south-southeast of Sandusky, Ohio, as specified in the Facility Hazards Summary report dated April 17, 1956, submitted by NACA.

C. The general type of facility authorized for construction is a 60 megawatt light water-cooled and -moderated research and testing reactor having a core contained in a reactor pressure tank shielded by a concrete shield and a circular pool of water and further contained in a cylindrical steel tank, all as further described in NACA's application.

D. The applicant may proceed to design and construct a facility of the general design concept set forth in the application and amendments thereto without further authorization. However, this does not constitute final approval of any technical specification of the facility as distinguished from the general design concept proposed. Before the license is issued to operate the facility, the Commission must finally approve all technical specifications. If the applicant desires final approval of any particular technical specification prior to the issuance of the license to operate, the applicant may request that the Commission grant specific approval of any technical specification by appropriate amendment to this permit.

This permit is provisional to the extent that a license authorizing operation of the facility will not be issued by the Commission unless the NACA has submitted to the Commission (by proposed amendment to the application) the complete, final Hazards Summary Report (portions of which may be submitted and evaluated from time to time) and the Commission has found that the final design provides reasonable assurance that the health and safety of the public will not be endangered by operation of the facility in accordance with the specified procedures.

Upon completion (as defined in Paragraph A above) of the construction of the reactor in accordance with the terms and conditions of this permit, upon the filing of any additional information needed to bring the original application up to date, and upon a finding that the reactor authorized has been constructed in conformity with the application as amended, and in conformity with the provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations of the Commission and in the absence of any good cause being shown to the Commission why the granting of a license would not be in accordance with the Act, the Commission will issue a Class 104 license to NACA pursuant to section 104 (c) of the act, which license shall expire ten (10) years after the date of this construction permit.

Pursuant to § 50.60 of the regulations in Title 10, Chapter I, CFR, Part 50, the Commission has allocated to NACA for use in connection with the reactor, 224 kilograms of uranium 235 contained in uranium of the isotopic ratios specified in NACA's application. Estimated schedules of special nuclear material transfers to NACA and returns to the Commission are contained in Appendix "A" attached hereto. Shipments by the Commission to NACA in accordance with column 2 in Appendix "A" will be conditioned on NACA's return to the Commission of material substantially in accordance with column 3 of Appendix "A".

Date of issuance: July 21, 1958.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

E. R. PRICE,
Acting Director,
Division of Licensing and Regulation.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-1167]

ATOMIC DEVELOPMENT MUTUAL FUND, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING FOR ORDER PERMITTING REDUCED PUBLIC OFFERING PRICES ON PURCHASES OF COMPANY SHARES BY TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

JULY 21, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that Atomic Development Mutual Fund, Inc. ("Fund"), a registered open-end diversified investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22 (d) of the act the offering of shares of the Fund to certain tax-exempt organizations at a reduced sales load.

The regular public offering price of the shares of the Fund is equal to their net asset value plus a sales charge, payable to Atomic Development Securities Co., Inc., its distributor, of approximately the following percentages of the offering prices:

Amount	Sales commission (percent)
Up to $9,999	8¼
$10,000 to $24,999	7½
$25,000 to $49,999	6
$50,000 to $99,999	4½
$100,000 to $199,999	3
$200,000 to $499,999	1½
$500,000 or more	1

The Fund desires to accept subscriptions at a reduced sales load from charitable, religious, educational and similar organizations exempt from taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and employees' trusts exempt from taxation under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, by computing the sales charge upon each additional purchase by such groups based on the quantity discount applicable to the amount then being purchased plus the amount paid for shares previously purchased less the net asset value of shares redeemed.

Section 22 (d) of the act, with certain exceptions not pertinent here, prohibits registered investment companies from selling their redeemable securities to any person, other than a dealer or principal underwriter, at a price less than the current public offering price described in the prospectus. The offering of shares of the company to purchasers exempt from section 501 (c) (3) and 401 of the Internal Revenue Code on the basis herein proposed, may involve an offering of its shares below the normal offering price, in contravention of the provisions of section 22 (d) of the act. Accordingly, the Fund has filed the instant application for an order of the Commission exempting the offering of Fund shares to the above-mentioned organizations from said provisions of the act.

Section 6 (c) of the act authorizes the Commission, by order upon application, to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provisions of the act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the act.

The Fund states that such an exemption would not affect the net asset value received by the Fund for its shares, and would appear appropriate in that charitable, religious, educational and other non-profit organizations are in common acceptance favored in their relations and transactions with others and thus enjoy tax exemptions and usually receive special treatment in their trade transactions. The Fund also states that such an exemption would also appear appropriate in view of the purposes and objectives of employees' trusts, which also receive tax exemptions.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all interested persons are referred to said application which is on file at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 4, 1958, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest and the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

E. I. DU PONT DE NEMOURS AND CO. AND ATLANTIC AVIATION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION REGARDING TRANSACTION BETWEEN AFFILIATED PERSONS

JULY 21, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company ("Applicant") of Wilmington, Delaware, an affiliated person of and presumptively controlled by Christiana Securities Company ("Christiana"), a registered closed-end diversified management company, which is an affiliated person of and presumptively controlled by Delaware Realty and Investment Company ("Realty"), also a registered closed-end non-diversified management investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act the purchase by Applicant of approximately 116 acres of improved land from Atlantic Aviation Corporation ("Vendor"). The purchase price of the property is to be $4,000 per acre, or a total of approximately $464,000. Vendor is wholly-owned by Henry B. du Pont, a Director and Vice President of Applicant and also a Director of Realty and a Director and President of Christiana.

The property proposed to be purchased, referred to in the application as the "Du Pont Flying Field", is located about one mile from the City limits of Wilmington, northeast of the intersection of the Lancaster Turnpike and Centre (Ferris) Road. Improvements thereon consist of landing lights, drains and roads. Sewer facilities cross certain parts of the land and can readily be extended. Gas, water, telephone and electric power facilities are also available to the property. Prior to its purchase by Vendor, the land was owned by Henry B. du Pont, who acquired it between 1927 and 1938 as part of a tract of approximately 132 acres at a cost of slightly more than $3,000 an acre. After adding improvements at a cost of $60,663, Mr. du Pont's total investments in the 116 acres amounted to $412,143, or approximately $3,550 an acre.

Vendor purchased the 132-acre tract from Mr. du Pont in 1955 at cost. In 1956 Vendor sold approximately 5 unimproved acres of the tract to All American Engineering Company ("Engineering"), an unaffiliated person, for $26,500, or about $5,700 an acre. In 1958, Vendor sold 10 improved acres of the tract to Engineering, on which were located Vendor's operating facilities, hangars, shops and offices, for $350,000, which included $4,000 an acre for the land. Vendor has agreed to sell a strip of land along the Lancaster Turnpike of approximately one acre to the State of Delaware for $5,000 and, in view of the adjacency of applicant's facilities, has offered the remaining 116 acres to Applicant. Two separate appraisals were obtained on the property in April and in June 1957. One appraiser set a value of slightly more than $3,400 an acre and the other approximately $3,500 an acre. The application states, among other things, that the price of $4,000 per acre agreed to by Applicant and Vendor is in keeping with the conditions of the local real estate market under which sales are often made at figures in excess of appraisals.

The application further states that the acquisition will, among other things, provide a tract of desirable land close to Wilmington for possible future expansion and will offer security to Applicant's adjacent laboratories and proposed office building by reducing the hazard to their facilities that could arise from the manner in which it might be used or developed by others. Vendor desires to dispose of the property since it has decided to locate its business elsewhere.

Section 17 (a) of the act prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such a person, from selling to or purchasing from such registered investment company or any company controlled by such registered investment company, any security or other property, subject to certain exceptions, unless the Commission upon application pursuant to section 17 (b) grants an exemption from the provisions of section 17 (a), after finding that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned. It must also find that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the act. Since, by definition under the Act, Vendor is an affiliated person of an affiliated person of registered investment companies, and Applicant is a controlled company of such investment companies, the proposed sale by Vendor is subject to the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 31, 1958, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

EBASCO SERVICES, INC., AND EBASCO OVERSEAS CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING ISSUANCE OF SECURITIES BY NEW SUBSIDIARY AND ACQUISITION THEREOF BY PARENT

JULY 21, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that Ebasco Services Incorporated ("Ebasco"), a subsidiary company of Electric Bond and Share Company, a registered holding company, and Ebasco Overseas Corporation ("Ebasco Overseas"), a subsidiary of Ebasco, have filed an application-declaration and amendments thereto with the Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and have designated sections 6 (b), 9, and 10 of said Act and Rule 43 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

Ebasco recently organized Ebasco Overseas, a Delaware corporation with an authorized capital consisting of 1,000 shares of common stock of a par value of $1.00 per share. Ebasco Overseas proposes to issue and sell and Ebasco proposes to purchase 100 shares of such stock at $10.00 per share.

Ebasco's purpose in forming Ebasco Overseas is to afford a vehicle through which to undertake contracts to perform engineering, general construction, construction supervision, and related services in countries of the Middle and Far East. The funds to be derived by Ebasco Overseas from the proposed issuance of common stock will provide it with the minimum capital required for it to commence doing business.

It is stated that no special fees or commissions are expected to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions and that such fees and expenses as are paid will be nominal. Legal matters are handled by regularly retained counsel of Ebasco and the portion of retainer applicable to services rendered in connection with the proposed transactions is not expected to exceed $1,000 with expenses not in excess of $50.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 5, 1958 at 5:30 p. m., request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by said application-declaration, as amended, which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, said application-declaration, as proposed or as further amended, may be granted or permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules as provided in Rules 20 (a) and 100 under the act or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10774

PROVIDING FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE CIVIL-SERVICE RIGHTS OF FEDERAL PERSONNEL WHO TRANSFER TO THE INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY AGENCY

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1753 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (5 U. S. C. 631), the Civil Service Act (22 Stat. 403; 5 U. S. C. 632 et seq.), section 301 of title 3 of the United States Code, and section 6 (c) of the International Atomic Energy Agency Participation Act of 1957 (71 Stat. 455), and as President of the United States, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. Subject to the restrictions and conditions set forth herein, the United States Civil Service Commission is designated and empowered to exercise the authority vested in the President by section 6 (c) of the International Atomic Energy Agency Participation Act of 1957 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of section 6 of the Act and to protect the retirement, insurance, and other civil-service rights and privileges of any Federal employee, Presidential appointee, or elected officer who enters the employ of the International Atomic Energy Agency (hereinafter referred to as the Agency) pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of the Act.

SEC. 2. Consistent with the provisions of section 6 of the Act and this order, and to the extent provided in regulations prescribed pursuant to section 1 of this order, a Federal employee, a Presidential appointee, or an elected officer who enters the employ of the Agency pursuant to section 6 of the Act, after August 27, 1957, shall be entitled to the protection and benefit of the rights and privileges specified in the Act and of such other civil-service rights and privileges to which he would have been entitled had he continued his employment in his position in the Federal service.

SEC. 3. The regulations prescribed pursuant to section 1 of this order shall provide for the following protections and benefits:

(a) The retention by a Federal employee of coverage and all rights and benefits under the Civil Service Retirement Act, as amended, and the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Act of 1954, as amended, during the re-employment period in which the employee is properly exercising or could exercise the re-employment right provided by section 6 (a) of the Act. During such re-employment period, the employee shall be considered as on leave without pay for retirement and insurance purposes: Provided, that nothing in this subsection shall preclude the vesting of retirement or insurance coverage for a Federal employee, a Presidential appointee, or an elected officer in the event of his death during the first three consecutive years of his employment with the Agency or, in the case of a Federal employee, during the re-employment period referred to in this subsection.

(b) The entitlement of a Federal employee to the rate of basic compensation to which he would have been entitled had he remained in the Federal service when he is re-employed pursuant to section 6 (a) of the Act, and the entitlement of a Presidential appointee or an elected officer to such rate of basic compensation when he is re-employed in the Federal position which he left or one of like seniority, status, and pay within ninety days from the date of his separation from the Agency following a term of employment not extending beyond the first three consecutive years from the date of his entering the employ of the Agency.

(c) The entitlement of a Federal employee upon re-employment as prescribed in subsection (b) of this section, or of a Presidential appointee or an elected officer who is re-employed within ninety days from the date of his separation from the Agency following a term of employment not extending beyond the first three consecutive years from the date of his entering the employ of the Agency, to service credit for all appropriate civil-service purposes for the period commencing with his separation from his Federal position and ending with the termination of his service with the Agency, and, in the case of a Federal employee, for the additional period between the termination of his service with the Agency and his re-employment.

(d) The restoration of the sick-leave account of a Federal employee, a Presidential appointee, or an elected officer

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10775

AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 10633, ESTABLISHING AN AIRSPACE RESERVATION OVER THE LAS VEGAS PROJECT, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 4 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 570), it is ordered as follows:

That part of Executive Order No. 10633 of August 19, 1955, which describes the area of the Las Vegas Project, Las Vegas, Nevada, above which an airspace reservation has been established by the order, is hereby amended to read as follows:

LAS VEGAS PROJECT, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

Beginning at Lat. 37°17'00", Long. 115°45'00"; thence due south to Lat. 37°12'00", Long. 115°45'00"; thence due west to Lat. 37°12'00", Long. 115°56'00"; thence due south to Lat. 36°41'00", Long. 115°56'00"; thence due west to Lat. 36°41'00", Long. 116°26'30"; thence due north to Lat. 36°51'00", Long. 116°26'30"; thence due west to Lat. 36°51'00", Long. 116°33'30"; thence due north to Lat. 37°16'00", Long 116°33'30"; thence due east to Lat. 37°16'00", Long. 115°56'00"; thence due north to Lat. 37°17'00", Long. 115°56'00"; thence due east to Lat. 37°17'00", Long. 115°45'00", the point of beginning.

The effect of the amendment made by this order is to enlarge the said airspace reservation by including therein the air space above an area of approximately fifteen by forty miles at the western boundary of the reservation, so that the reservation will include all the air space above the Atomic Energy Commission's test-site area. The air space above the additional area was formerly a part of the restricted air space over the Las Vegas Bombing and Gunnery Range of the Department of the Air Force.

This order shall become effective thirty days after the date thereof.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10776

DELEGATING TO THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE CERTAIN AUTHORITY OF THE PRESIDENT RELATING TO THE MODIFICATION OF STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS WITH RESPECT TO THE INDUCTION OF PERSONS INTO THE ARMED FORCES, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in me by title 3 of the United States Code, and as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces, there is hereby delegated to the Secretary of Defense the authority (relating to the prescribing of rules and regulations modifying the standards and requirements with respect to induction of persons into the armed forces) vested in the President by the last proviso of section 4 (a) of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, added by the act of July 28, 1958. The Secretary of Defense is hereby authorized to re-delegate that authority to any official of the Department of Defense who is required to be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. No person shall be inducted into the armed forces for training and service who does not meet the standards and requirements specified in the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his designee pursuant to this order.

PART 482—COTTON PRODUCTS EXPORT PROGRAM

DETERMINATION OF BASE EQUALIZATION PAYMENT RATE

In order to also take the rate of payment under the Cotton Export Program—Payment-in-Kind (Announcement CN-EX-6) into consideration in the determination of the base equalization payment rate, § 482.6 of the Cotton Products Export Program dated November 15, 1956 (21 F. R. 9048), as amended April 24, 1957 (22 F. R. 3039), and April 9, 1958 (23 F. R. 2399), is hereby further amended so as to read as follows:

§ 482.6 Determination of base equalization payment rate. The base equalization payment rate in connection with sales for export made during each calendar month will be determined and announced by CCC prior to the beginning of such month and will be based on the weighted average export differential (the export payment rate announced under the payment-in-kind cotton export program, and the difference between domestic market prices for cotton and the prices at which Commodity Credit Corporation sells cotton for export), as determined by CCC, under its cotton export programs: Provided, however, That if the computation of such differential for any month indicates a change in the base equalization payment rate of 0.10 cent or less from the preceding month, the base equalization payment rate shall be the same as for the preceding month.

(Sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072; 15 U. S. C. 714c)

SUBPART—ACREAGE RESERVE PROGRAM

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations governing the 1957 acreage reserve program, 21 F. R. 10449, as amended and supplemented, are hereby further amended as follows:

1. Section 485.212 (b) is amended by adding subparagraph (6) to read as follows:

(6) The Administrator may, in order to prevent undue hardship, authorize the county committee to accept an agreement after the applicable final date specified above in this paragraph if, because of misinformation or misunderstanding, the producer was under the impression that he had filed an agreement or did not realize that he had to file an agreement by such applicable final date.

2. Section 485.240 is amended by changing the heading to read "Termination and correction of agreements" and changing paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) The Administrator, in order to prevent undue hardship, may, upon recommendation of the State committee, consent to the termination by the producer of any agreement entered into hereunder if, in his judgment, such action is in the best interests of the program.

AUTHORITY: §§ 502.200 to 502.218 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, 15 U. S. C. 714b. Interpret or apply 72 Stat. 276.

§ 502.200 General purpose and scope. This part announces the policies and prescribes the general regulations with respect to the operation of the Special Milk Program for Children, under Public Law 85–478 and sets forth the general requirements for participation in the Program. The act reads as follows:

> For each of the three fiscal years in the period beginning July 1, 1958, and ending June 30, 1961, not to exceed $75,000,000 of the funds of the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be used to increase the consumption of fluid milk by children (1) in nonprofit schools of high-school grade and under; and (2) in nonprofit nursery schools, child-care centers, settlement houses, summer camps, and similar nonprofit institutions devoted to the care and training of children. Amounts expended hereunder and under the authority contained in the last sentence of section 201 (c) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, shall not be considered as amounts expended for the purpose of carrying out the price-support program.

§ 502.201 Administration. (a) Within the United States Department of Agriculture, the Agricultural Marketing Service (hereinafter referred to as AMS) shall act for and on behalf of the Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as CCC) in connection with the operation of this Program. Within AMS, and under the general supervision of the Administrator of AMS, the Food Distribution Division (hereinafter referred to as FDD–AMS) shall be responsible for Program administration.

(b) To the extent practicable and permissible under State law, responsibility for the administration of this Program in schools and child-care institutions within a State shall be in the educational agency of the State: Provided, however, That another State Agency, upon request by an appropriate State official, may be approved by FDD–AMS to administer the Program in child-care institutions.

(c) FDD–AMS shall administer the Program in any class of schools (hereinafter referred to as private schools) and in child-care institutions in which the Program is not administered by the State.

§ 502.202 Advance of funds to State Agencies. (a) For the Federal fiscal year beginning July 1, 1958 and ending June 30, 1959, FDD–AMS shall reserve for advance to State Agencies entering into agreements with CCC an amount equal to 105 percent of the total amount of reimbursement payments made during the preceding Federal fiscal year to the classes of schools and institutions in which State Agencies will administer the Program during the Federal fiscal year beginning July 1, 1958. Reimbursement payments in that year shall be determined by FDD–AMS on the basis of the latest information available to FDD–AMS at the time the reserve for each State Agency is established.

(b) The funds reserved for any State Agency shall be made available in not less than nine monthly payments. The first payment shall be scheduled to arrive in the State on or about September 1, and shall include payments for July, August and September. Payments for succeeding months shall be scheduled to arrive on or about the first of each month: Provided, however, That the payment for May shall cover operations for May and June.

(c) FDD–AMS reserves the right to request any State Agency to justify its need for the full amount of any scheduled payment prior to its advancement. In the event that a State Agency does not justify the need for the full amount of this payment, FDD–AMS shall withhold from such payment the amount determined to be in excess of Program needs.

(d) In the event that a State Agency justifies the need for funds in excess of the amount of its reserve, additional funds will be provided to such State Agency to the extent funds are available for such purpose.

(e) The State Agency shall return to AMS any Federal funds paid to it under the Program which are unobligated at the end of each fiscal year. Such return shall be made as soon as practicable but in any event not later than 30 days following demand made by FDD–AMS. The State Agency shall also pay to AMS any interest paid or credited to it with respect to Federal funds paid to it under the Program.

§ 502.203 Accounting for program funds by State Agencies. Each State Agency entering into an agreement with CCC shall maintain a separate account of all Federal funds advanced to it under the Program and shall maintain a current record of payments made to schools and child-care institutions and of the unexpended balance remaining on hand. All payments made from such funds shall be made only upon properly certified vouchers.

§ 502.204 Use of funds. Funds made available under this Program shall be used to increase the consumption of milk through reimbursement payments to schools and child-care institutions in connection with the purchase of milk for service to children.

§ 502.205 Agreements between CCC and State Agencies. CCC shall enter into written agreements with State Agencies for the administration of the Program within the States. The agreement shall show the class or classes of schools and child-care institutions for which the State Agency is assuming responsibility.

§ 502.206 Agreements between State Agencies and schools and child-care institutions. State Agencies shall enter into written agreements with schools and child-care institutions setting forth the terms and conditions under which the State Agencies will reimburse the schools and child-care institutions in connection with the purchase of milk for service to children. Such agreements shall contain, as a minimum, the requirements of § 502.209.

§ 502.207 Agreements between CCC and private schools and child-care institutions. In those States in which FDD–AMS will administer the Program in private schools and child-care institutions, CCC shall enter into written agreements with such private schools and child-care institutions setting forth the terms and conditions under which AMS will reimburse the schools and child-care institutions in connection with the purchase of milk for service to children.

§ 502.208 Reimbursement. (a) Reimbursement payments shall be made for milk purchased for service to children by participating schools and child-care institutions, except that reimbursement shall not be made for the first half pint of milk served as part of a Type A lunch by schools participating in the National School Lunch Program.

(b) For schools that offer milk to children as a separately priced item, the maximum rate of reimbursement shall be four cents per half pint for schools that serve Type A lunches under the National School Lunch Program. For other schools and for child-care institutions that offer milk to children as a separately priced item, the maximum rate of reimbursement shall be three cents per half pint. Less-than-maximum rates of reimbursement shall be assigned, or assigned rates shall be adjusted, if circumstances indicate such action is advisable.

(c) Schools or child-care institutions that do not offer milk to children as a separately priced item, shall, at the time they apply for participation, submit for approval the methods and practices under which they plan to increase consumption of milk by children. The rate of reimbursement for such schools and child-care institutions shall be two cents per half pint.

(d) Schools operating the Program in more than one school attendance unit may be regarded by the State Agency or FDD–AMS as a single school or as individual schools for reimbursement purposes. If regarded as a single school, reimbursement shall not be made at a rate in excess of three cents per half pint unless all units are serving Type A lunches under the National School Lunch Program.

(e) Schools and child-care institutions offering milk as a separately priced item shall make maximum use of the reimbursement payments received under the Program to reduce the price of milk to children. The full amount of such payments shall be reflected in reduced prices to children, except that such payments may be used by schools or child-care institutions to defray distribution costs. Distribution costs shall not exceed one cent per half pint. Exceptions to this provision may be granted by the State Agency or FDD–AMS in instances where the situation in a school or child-care institution justifies a distribution cost margin fractionally above one cent, and such exceptions shall be subject to periodic reviews.

§ 502.209 Requirements for participation. (a) Schools and child-care institutions shall make written application for participation to the State Agency except that, in those States in which FDD–AMS administers the Program in private schools or child-care institutions, application shall be made to FDD–AMS. In approving the application, the State Agency or FDD–AMS shall determine that the applicant is a school or child-care institution as defined in § 502.215 and shall designate the effective date on which the school or child-care institution may begin operations. Schools and child-care institutions whose applications are approved shall execute agreements with the State Agency or CCC.

(b) A child-care institution which operates its food service under a contract with a food service management company may be approved for participation subject to review and approval of the institution's food service contract by FDD–AMS. A school operating under a similar arrangement is not eligible for participation.

(c) Schools and child-care institutions participating in the Program shall meet the following minimum requirements, which requirements shall be included in the agreements entered into between the schools and child-care institutions and State Agencies and between the private schools and child-care institutions and CCC:

(1) Conduct a nonprofit food service or, in the event no other food service is maintained, conduct a nonprofit milk service;

(2) Claim reimbursement only for milk as defined in this part and in accordance with the provisions of § 502.208;

(3) Submit claims for reimbursement in accordance with procedural requirements established by FDD–AMS; and

(4) Maintain such records and furnish such reports and documents as are prescribed by the State Agency or by FDD–AMS. All invoices, receipts and records pertaining to the Program shall be maintained for a period of three years after the end of each Federal fiscal year's operations. Records shall be made available for review or audit purposes to the State Agency and AMS, or to AMS in the case of a private school or child-care institution which contracts directly with CCC.

§ 502.210 Effective dates for reimbursement. A State Agency or AMS may grant written approval to begin operations under this Program prior to the processing of the application from a school or child-care institution. Such approval shall be attached to the subsequently filed application and the agreement executed by the school or child-care institution. Reimbursement shall be made for any milk served in accordance with the requirements of this Part from the date upon which the school or child-care institution was authorized to begin operations: Provided, however, That no reimbursement shall be made for milk that was served more than 30 days prior to the receipt of the application by the State Agency or AMS: Provided, further, That in no event shall reimbursement be made by any State Agency for milk served prior to the beginning of the effective period stated in the State Agency's agreement with CCC.

§ 502.211 Administrative analyses and audits. The State Agency shall provide AMS with full opportunity to conduct administrative analyses and audits of all operations of the State Agency under this Program. The State Agency shall make available its records, including records of the receipt and expenditure of funds under the Program, upon reasonable request by AMS. AMS shall also have the right to make audits of the records and operations of any participating school or child-care institution.

§ 502.212 State Agency reports and records. Within 30 days after the end of each calendar month, the State Agency shall make a report to FDD–AMS concerning the operation of the Program for that month, on a form provided by FDD–AMS. The State Agency shall maintain for a period of three years after the end of each Federal fiscal year's operations, all records pertaining to the Program.

§ 502.213 Investigations. Each State Agency shall promptly investigate complaints received or irregularities noted in connection with the operation of the Program, and shall take appropriate action to correct any irregularities. State Agencies shall maintain on file evidence of such investigations and actions. AMS shall make investigations at the request of the State Agency or where AMS determines investigations by AMS are appropriate.

§ 502.214 Claims against schools or child-care institutions. (a) If a State Agency receives information or has reason to believe that a claim or a portion of a claim for reimbursement submitted by a school or child-care institution is not properly payable under this part, it shall not pay the claim or such portion of the claim and shall advise the school or child-care institution of the reasons for nonpayment or disallowance. The school or child-care institution may submit to the State Agency evidence and information to justify the total amount claimed, or may submit a reclaim for the portion disallowed, with appropriate justification therefor. The State Agency may make reimbursement in the amount it believes is warranted by the evidence, subject, however, to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(b) If a State Agency receives information or has reason to believe that a payment already made to a school or child-care institution was not proper under this part, it shall advise the school or child-care institution of the amount and basis of the alleged overpayments and may request a refund or advise the school or child-care institution that the amount overpaid is being deducted from subsequent claims. The school or child-care institution shall have full opportunity to present evidence and information to the State Agency to justify the amount of reimbursement paid. If the evidence is not sufficient, the State Agency shall collect the amount of the overpayment from the school or child-care institution, by refund or by deduction from subsequent claims for reimbursement made by the school or child-care institution. If new evidence becomes available to the school or child-care institution it may, within a reasonable time after the collection, make a reclaim for all or a portion of the amount so collected, and the State may pay the amount of any reclaim it believes is warranted by the evidence, subject, however, to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(c) The State Agency may refer any matter in connection with this section to FDD–AMS for determination of the action to be taken.

(d) The State Agency shall retain for AMS audit and review all records pertaining to action taken under this section.

(e) If FDD–AMS does not concur with the State Agency action in paying a claim or a reclaim, or in failing to collect an overpayment, FDD–AMS shall assert a claim against the State Agency for the amount of such claim, reclaim or overpayment. In all such cases the State Agency shall have full opportunity to submit to FDD–AMS evidence or information concerning the action taken. If, in the determination of FDD–AMS, the State Agency's action was unwarranted, the State Agency shall promptly pay to AMS the amount of the claim, reclaim or overpayment.

(f) The amounts recovered by the State Agency from schools or child-care institutions shall be available to make reimbursement payments during the fiscal year for which the funds were initially available.

(g) With respect to schools or child-care institutions in which FDD–AMS administers the Program, when FDD–AMS disallows a claim or a portion of a claim, or makes a demand for refund of an alleged overpayment, it shall notify the schools or child-care institutions of the reasons for such disallowance or demand and the schools or child-care institutions shall have full opportunity to submit evidence or to file reclaim for any amount disallowed or demanded in the same manner afforded in this section to schools or child-care institutions administered by State Agencies.

§ 502.215 Definitions—(a) State. The 48 States, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and such other Territories as may be designated by the Secretary from time to time.

(b) School. (1) Any school which is a public school of high school grade and under within the definition of the statutes of the State, and

(2) Any private school of high school grade and under exempt from income tax under the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. The term "school" as used in this part includes, where applicable, the authorized sponsoring agency which has entered into an agreement under this Program for the school.

(c) Child-care institution. Any nonprofit nursery school (other than nursery schools falling within the definition of school in this section), child-care center, settlement house, summer camp, or similar nonprofit institution, devoted to the care and training of children of high school grade and under, including children of pre-school age.

(d) Nonprofit food or milk service. Food or milk service maintained by or on behalf of the school or child-care institution for the benefit of the children, all of the income from which is used solely for the operation or improvement of such food or milk service.

(e) Milk. Unflavored milk which meets State and local butterfat and sanitation standards for fluid whole milk, and flavored milk made from fluid whole milk which meets such standards.

(f) Cost of milk. The purchase price paid by the school or child-care institution to the milk distributor for milk delivered to the school. This does not include any amount paid to the milk distributor for the rental of or installment purchase of milk service equipment.

(g) Distribution costs. Direct expenses incurred by the school or child-care institution in connection with the sale, handling and service of milk. This may include expenses incident to acquisition or rental of necessary milk service equipment.

§ 502.216 Miscellaneous provisions—(a) Disqualifications and compliance clause. Any State Agency or any school or child-care institution may be disqualified from future participation if it fails to comply with the provisions of this part and its agreement with CCC or the State Agency. This does not preclude the possibility of other action being taken through other means where necessary, including prosecution for fraud under applicable Federal statutes. If any part of the money disbursed by CCC in connection with the Program, by any improper or negligent action is diminished, lost, misapplied, or diverted from the Program by the State Agency, or by any school or child-care institution, FDD-AMS may order such money to be replaced. Until the money is replaced, no subsequent payment shall be made to the State Agency or to the school or child-care institution causing the loss. The State Agency or the school or child-care institution shall have full opportunity to submit evidence, explanation or information concerning instances of noncompliance or diversion of funds, before a final determination is made in such cases.

(b) Savings clause. Any or all of the provisions of this part may be withdrawn, or amended, at any time by AMS: Provided, however, That such action shall not be taken without prior notice to State Agencies having agreements with CCC.

§ 502.217 Program information. Schools and child-care institutions desiring information concerning the Program should write to their State Educational Agency or to the appropriate Area Office of FDD–AMS as indicated below:

(a) In the States of Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and West Virginia:

Food Distribution Division, AMS, United States Department of Agriculture, 139 Centre Street, Room 501, New York 13, N. Y.

(b) In the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia:

Food Distribution Division, AMS, United States Department of Agriculutre, 50 Seventh Street NE., Room 252, Atlanta 23, Ga.

(c) In the States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin:

Food Distribution Division, AMS, United States Department of Agriculture, 431 South Dearborn Street, Room 926, Chicago 5, Ill.

(d) In the States of Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas:

Food Distribution Division, AMS, United States Department of Agriculture, 500 South Ervay Street, Room 3–127, Dallas 1, Tex.

(e) In the States of Alaska, Arizona, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming:

Food Distribution Division, AMS, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 344, Appraisers Building, 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco 11, Calif.

§ 502.218 Operations pending issuance of regulations. In order that programs for the service of milk to children begun under prior legislation and regulations (effective through June 30, 1958) might not be disrupted, approval was given upon enactment of Public Law 85–478, on July 1, 1958, to States, schools and institutions to begin operations under the new legislation pending issuance of new regulations. Accordingly, in instances in which approval was so given, agreements with CCC will have an effective period beginning with July 1, 1958, or the date of approval, whichever is later, and reimbursement shall be made by State Agencies or AMS for any milk served on or after the date on which schools or institutions were approved to begin operations (on or after July 1, 1958), although prior to publication of this part, if the State Agency or AMS determines that the requirements of this part were met.

NOTE: The recordkeeping and reporting requirements herein specified have been approved by, and any further such requirements that may be established will be subject to the approval of, the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[SEAL] MARVIN L. MCLAIN,
Acting Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 967.0 to 967.101 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 967.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of Order No. 67 and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (Part 900 of this chapter), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte, Indiana, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof; it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not to exceed 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to skim milk and butterfat received within the month in producer milk (including such handler's own production), and in other source milk either allocated to Class I milk or disposed of within the marketing area as Class I milk on routes, which is not priced under another Federal marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act.

(b) Additional findings. (1) It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1958.

(2) The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued June 6, 1958, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued July 11, 1958. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1958, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c) Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c (9) of the act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum and who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the South Bend-La Porte-Elkhart, Indiana, marketing area, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 967.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 967.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 967.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal Agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture specified in this part.

§ 967.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 967.5 Market administrator. "Market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to § 967.20 as the agency for the administration of this part.

§ 967.6 South Bend-La Porte-Elkhart, Indiana, marketing area. "South Bend-La Porte-Elkhart, Indiana, marketing area", hereinafter called the "marketing area", means all the territory geographically located within the perimeter boundaries of La Porte, St. Joseph and Elkhart Counties, including all incorporated and unincorporated cities, towns, and villages, Federal military reservations, facilities and installations, and State institutions lying wholly or partially within such counties; all in the State of Indiana.

§ 967.7 Route. "Route" means any delivery either inside or outside the marketing area (including disposition by a vendor or from a plant store or from vending machines) of any item of Class I milk to a wholesale or retail stop other than a plant (§ 967.8), but excluding any disposition of skim milk or butterfat in the marketing area from a nonpool plant to any other plant or to a commercial processor of foods.

§ 967.8 Plant. "Plant" means the entire land, buildings, surroundings, facilities and equipment, whether owned or operated by one or more persons, maintained and operated at the same location primarily for the receiving, processing or other handling of milk or milk products. This definition shall not include any building, premises, facilities, or equipment used primarily to hold or store bottled milk or milk products in finished form in transit for wholesale or retail distribution on a route(s).

§ 967.9 Reload point. "Reload point" means any location at which milk moved from the farm in a tank truck is commingled with other milk before entering a plant, except that reloading operations on the premises of a plant shall be considered a part of the plant's operations.

§ 967.10 Pool plant. "Pool plant" means any plant meeting the conditions of paragraph (a) of this section, or any plant or reload point meeting the conditions of paragraph (b) of this section, but not any plant exempt pursuant to § 967.60, or the plant of a person defined in § 967.16:

(a) A plant in which milk is processed or packaged and from which not less than 10 percent of its total disposition of Class I milk during the month either by the operator of such plant or by another person is made within the marketing area on a route(s): Provided, That the total quantity of Class I milk disposed of from such plant during the month either inside or outside the marketing area is not less than 50 percent of such plant's total receipts of milk eligible for sale in fluid form as Grade A milk within the marketing area; or

(b) Any plant or reload point from which during any month 50 percent or more of its total receipts for such month from farms of skim milk or butterfat eligible for sale in fluid form as Grade A milk within the marketing area is delivered to a plant(s) which has qualified pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That if during each of any five consecutive months during the period August through March, inclusive, a plant meets the delivery requirements set forth in this paragraph, such plant shall be a pool plant for the immediately following months of April, May, June and July, unless the plant is withdrawn from such status upon request of the handler, which withdrawal would become effective on the first day of the month following in which the market administrator is notified of the request for withdrawal. Any plant so withdrawn from pool plant status may not regain status prior to the following August.

§ 967.12 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a person as defined in § 967.16, who produces milk eligible for sale in fluid form as Grade A milk within the marketing area which is either (a) received from the farm at a pool plant(s), or (b) caused to be temporarily diverted by handler for his account from a pool plant to a nonpool plant: Provided, That such diverted milk shall be deemed to be received by such handler at the location of the pool plant from which it was diverted.

§ 967.13 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines, after application by the association, to be qualified pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing of milk or its products for the producers thereof.

§ 967.14 Producer milk. Except as provided in § 967.60, "producer milk" or "milk received from producers" means milk produced by one or more dairy farmers who are producers (as defined in § 967.12).

§ 967.15 Handler. "Handler" means (a) any person in his capacity as the operator of a pool plant(s), (b) any cooperative association with respect to producer milk caused to be delivered for the account of such association from the farms of producers to the pool plant(s) of another handler(s) and milk customarily received as producer milk at a pool plant which is diverted by such association for its account to a nonpool plant; or (c) any person in his capacity as the operator of any nonpool plant from which milk is disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area on a route(s).

§ 967.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any handler who produces milk eligible for sale in fluid form as Grade A milk within the marketing area but receives no milk directly from other dairy farmers: Provided, That the maintenance, care and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce such milk and the processing, or distribution of such milk are his personal enterprise and at his personal risk.

§ 967.17 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received in any form, except in a nonfluid milk product disposed of in the same form as received, from sources other than producer milk and a pool plant(s).

§ 967.18 Base, base milk and excess milk. (a) "Base" means a quantity of milk expressed in pounds per day computed pursuant to § 967.62.

(b) "Base milk" means a quantity of producer milk received by a handler during each of the months of April, May, June, and July which is not in excess of such producer's base multiplied by the number of days on which such milk was produced.

(c) "Excess milk" means producer milk received by a handler during each of the months of April, May, June, and July which is in excess of the base milk received from such producer.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 967.20 Designation. The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

§ 967.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 967.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary a bond covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 967.85:

(1) The cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees;

(2) His own compensation; and

(3) All other expenses, except those incurred under § 967.86, necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Publicly announce, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 967.30 and 967.31 or (2) payments pursuant to §§ 967.80 to 967.87;

(g) Submit his books and records for examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(h) Verify all reports and payments of each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(i) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 7th day after the end of such month, the minimum class prices for milk (rounded to the nearest cent) and the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to §§ 967.53, 967.54, 967.55, and 967.57;

(2) On or before the 14th day after the end of such month, the uniform price computed pursuant to § 967.71 and the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to § 967.81;

(j) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information; and

(k) On or before April 1 each year notify each producer of the amount of his base, and notify each handler of the amount of the base of each producer delivering milk to any of the handler's plants.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 967.30 Monthly reports of receipts and utilization. (a) On or before the 8th day of each month and in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, each person who is a handler pursuant to § 967.15 (a) or (b) shall report to the market administrator for the preceding month with respect to all milk and milk products, except any milk product defined as Class III milk which is disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging by the handler, received at each pool plant, the following:

(1) The quantities of skim milk and the quantities of butterfat contained in milk received from producers (including such handler's own production) producer-handlers, and other handlers.

(2) The quantities of skim milk and quantities of butterfat contained in other source milk, with the sources thereof;

(3) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this paragraph, including the quantities of skim milk and butterfat on hand at the beginning and end of each month as milk and milk products;

(4) The aggregate quantities of base milk and excess milk received (for April through July); and

(5) Such other information with respect to all receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Except as provided in § 967.31 (a), each handler who operates a nonpool plant as referred to in § 967.15 (c) shall report to the market administrator, on or before the 9th day after the end of each month, his total receipts, his total utilization of milk and milk products, his total disposition of Class I milk, including as a separate figure the quantity of Class I milk disposed of within the marketing area on routes, and such other information with respect to all receipts and utilization for such month as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 967.31 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler who handles during the month only milk of his own production shall make reports to the market administrator at such times and in such manner as the market administrator shall prescribe.

(b) On or before the 25th day of each month, each handler shall submit to the market administrator such handler's producer payroll for the preceding month which shall show for each producer and cooperative association (1) the total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof, (2) the net amount of the payment to each producer and to each cooperative association, together with the prices, deductions and charges involved, (3) for the months of September through December, the number of days on which milk was received from each producer, and (4) for the months of April through July, the number of days on which milk was received from each producer and the amount of his base and excess milk.

§ 967.32 Records and facilities. Each handler shall permit the market administrator to make such examination of his operations, equipment and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary and shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of operations and such facilities as the market administrator deems necessary to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to (a) the receipts and utilization in whatever form of all skim milk and butterfat received, including nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging; (b) the weights, and tests for butterfat and for other content, of all other skim milk or butterfat handled; (c) payments to producers and cooperative associations; and (d) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each month.

§ 967.33 Retention of records. All books and records required under this order to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if within such three-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records or specified books and records until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 967.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat, in any form, received within the month by a handler, in producer milk, in other source milk and from another handler shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 967.41 to 967.46, inclusive.

§ 967.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 967.43 and 967.44, the skim milk and butterfat described in § 967.40 shall be classified by the market administrator on the basis of the following classes:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of (except as provided in paragraph (c) (1) of this section) in the form of milk, skim milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink, and buttermilk; (2) disposed of as cream (sweet or sour) and any fluid mixture of cream and milk (or skim milk) containing not less than 6 percent butterfat (but not including ice cream or other frozen dessert mixes disposed of to a commercial processor, or any mixture disposed of in containers or dispensers under pressure for the purpose of dispensing a whipped or aerated product); (3) disposed of in fluid or frozen form as concentrated milk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink not sterilized and not otherwise specified under paragraph (c) of this section, and as eggnog; (4) in shrinkage of receipts of producer milk computed pursuant to § 967.42 which is in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and (5) not specifically accounted for as any item named in this paragraph or as Class II milk or Class III milk.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cottage cheese.

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in bulk in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, and cream to any manufacturer of candy, soup or bakery products and used in such products; (2) in condensed milk or skim milk (sweetened or unsweetened) disposed of to commercial food processors; (3) disposed of (or used to produce, in the case of ice cream and frozen desserts and mixes (liquid or powdered) for such products, and aerated cream products) as sweetened condensed milk in hermetically sealed cans, evaporated milk, ice cream, ice cream mix, other frozen desserts and mixes, storage cream, butter, cheese and nonfat dry milk; (4) dumped or disposed of for livestock feed as skim milk (including that in whole milk dumped), flavored milk, flavored milk drink and buttermilk; (5) disposed of as a milk product other than any of those specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2) and (3) in paragraph (b), and in paragraphs (c) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section; (6) contained in monthly inventory variations; (7) in actual shrinkage of receipts of producer milk computed pursuant to § 967.42 but not in excess of 2 percent of such receipts; and (8) in actual shrinkage of other source milk computed pursuant to § 967.42.

§ 967.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk in the following manner:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section between that in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 967.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk, unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat proves to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified otherwise.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat classified (except that transferred to a producer-handler) in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by such handler or by another handler in another class.

§ 967.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler in the form of any item named in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2), or (3) shall be classified;

(a) As Class I milk if transferred from the pool plant of a handler to the pool plant of another handler (except a producer-handler), unless utilization in another class is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 9th day after the end of the month within which such transaction occurred: Provided, That skim milk or butterfat so assigned to a particular class shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in such class at the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 967.46, and any excess of such skim milk or butterfat, respectively, shall be assigned to Class I milk;

(b) On the basis of ratable apportionment to each class according to the use of skim milk and butterfat in the pool plant of the transferee-handler if caused to be delivered to such plant by a cooperative association in the manner described in § 967.15 (b);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to the plant of a producer-handler;

(d) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted to a nonpool plant, unless (1) the transferor-handler claims use in another class on the basis of utilization in the nonpool plant in his report submitted to the market administrator pursuant to § 967.30 for the month within which such transaction occurred, (2) the receiver maintains books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at his plant which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification, and (3) in such receiver's plant there actually had been used during such month in the use indicated in such report, not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat derived by him from milk or cream: Provided, That if upon inspection of such receiver's records of such plant, there had not been used in such indicated use an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat so derived, the remaining pounds shall be classified as Class I milk.

§ 967.45 Computation of skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the monthly report submitted by each handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively in each class for such handler.

§ 967.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. The pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, remaining in each class after the following computations shall be the pounds in each class allocated to producer milk;

(a) Subtract, respectively, from the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk (to the extent Class I milk is available) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk which is (1) received in consumer packages as any item specified in § 967.41 (a) (1), (2) or (3) from a plant where milk is subject to the class price provisions of a Federal marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act for another fluid milk marketing area, and (2) disposed of without repackaging;

(b) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class (other than the pounds in inventory variations and plant shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat pursuant to § 967.41 (c) (7)), in series beginning with Class III milk, the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk excluding that subtracted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class the pounds of skim milk and butterfat received from other handlers and assigned to such class pursuant to § 967.44; and

(d) Subtract, respectively, from the remaining pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class in series beginning with Class III milk, the pounds by which such pounds of skim milk and butterfat in all classes exceed, respectively, the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat received in milk from producers.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 967.50 Class prices. Each handler shall pay, at the time and in the manner set forth in §§ 967.80 to 967.84, not less than the prices per hundredweight computed pursuant to §§ 967.51 to 967.59 for all milk received during each month from producers and cooperatives associations: Provided, That with respect to skim milk and butterfat transferred from the pool plant of, or caused to be delivered as producer milk by, a cooperative association which is a handler to the pool plant of another handler, the applicable class price shall be that for the location of the latter plant.

§ 967.51 Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in determining the prices of Class I milk and Class II milk shall be the higher of the prices computed by the market administrator for the month immediately preceding from the formulas set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) The arithmetical average of the basic (or field) prices reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the month at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator by the listed companies or by the Department:

Companies and Locations

Borden Company, Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Borden Company, Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Company, New London, Wis.
Carnation Company, Sparta, Mich.
Carnation Company, Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Company, Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, Coopersville, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) Compute a price per hundredweight by adding together the amounts resulting pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph;

(1) Multiply by 8.2 the weighted average of carlot prices per pound for spray process nonfat dry milk, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department and from the result thus obtained deduct 64.2 cents;

(2) Multiply by 4.24 the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month: Provided, That if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the Grade A (92-score) butter prices for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter, and from the result thus obtained deduct 11 cents.

§ 967.52 Supply and demand adjustment. On or before the 7th working day of each month the market administrator shall make the following computations based upon information obtained from handlers' reports of receipts and utilization:

(a) Determine the sum of the receipts of milk from all producers (including receipts from own farm production) during the second and third preceding months;

(b) Determine the sum of the pounds of milk and milk products disposed of from pool plants as Class I (excluding shrinkage and unaccounted for milk) during the same preceding months, and

(c) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (b) of this section by the amount obtained in paragraph (a) of this section and adjust to the nearest full percentage point. The resulting percentage shall be known as the "current supply-demand ratio."

§ 967.53 Class I price. Except as provided in § 967.56, the price for Class I milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content shall be the basic formula price computed pursuant to § 967.51, plus $1.50 for the months of August through November; plus $1.10 for December, January, February and July; and plus $0.80 for all other months: Provided, That whenever the current supply-demand ratio varies from that set forth in the table below for the applicable month, the Class I price shall be increased or decreased to a maximum amount of 20 cents at the rate of 2.0 cents for each full percentage point that the current supply-demand ratio is above or below that set forth in the table for such month, but such price, after adjustment, shall not be less than the minimum price per hundredweight for Class I milk for the same month as computed for the 201-210 mile zone under Order No. 41 for the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area.

Month to which applicable	Standard percentages	Months used in computing current supply-demand ratio
January	80	October–November.
February	79	November–December.
March	77	December–January.
April	76	January–February.
May	75	February–March.
June	73	March–April.
July	69	April–May.
August	67	May–June.
September	70	June–July.
October	74	July–August.
November	75	August–September.
December	76	September–October.

§ 967.54 Class II price. The price for Class II milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content shall be the basic formula price plus $0.70 for the months of August through February; and plus $0.45 for all other months.

§ 967.55 Class III price. The price for Class III milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content shall be that computed under § 967.51 (a).

§ 967.56 Location differential credits to handlers on Class I milk. In computing the value of each handler's milk pursuant to § 967.70, the following location differentials shall be credited with respect to each hundredweight of producer milk received at a pool plant or reload point located more than 55 miles from the St. Joseph County Courthouse, South Bend, Indiana, and classified as Class I milk: 10 cents for distances at least 55 miles but not more than 60 miles, and an additional 1.6 cents for each 10 miles, or major fraction thereof, in excess of 60 miles, in all instances by the shortest hard-surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from such pool plant or reload point to the St. Joseph County Courthouse, South Bend, Indiana: Provided, That for the purpose of computing the credits applicable pursuant to this section, the amount of milk transferred in bulk form from a pool plant(s) pursuant to § 967.10 (b) to a pool plant(s) pursuant to § 967.10 (a) and classified as Class I milk, shall not exceed the total amount of Class I milk disposed of from the latter plant less the total amount of any producer milk received at such plant from producers' farms and shall be assigned to pool plants under § 967.10 (b) in sequence beginning with the plant having the smallest allowable credit.

§ 967.57 Class butterfat differentials—(a) Class I milk. Multiply by 0.13 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago, as reported by the Department for the month, and round to the nearest one-tenth of a cent: Provided, That if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the prices reported for Grade A (92-score) butter for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter.

(b) Class II milk. Multiply by .125 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago, as reported by the Department for the month, and round to the nearest tenth of a cent: Provided, That if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter for the month, the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter.

(c) Class III milk. Multiply by .12 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago, as reported by the Department for the month, and round to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 967.58 Computation of prices of skim milk and butterfat. The prices per hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat to be paid by each handler for milk in each class shall be computed as follows: For each class, respectively, the price per hundredweight of skim milk shall be the applicable class price for the month (§§ 967.53, 967.54 and 967.55) less the result of multiplying the applicable class butterfat differential for the month (§ 967.57) by 35. For each class, respectively, the price per hundredweight of butterfat shall be the applicable class price for the month plus the result of multiplying the applicable class butterfat differential for the month by 965.

§ 967.59 Use of equivalent prices. If for any reason a price quotation required by this order for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is required.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 967.60 Exempt milk. (a) Milk received at a plant qualified as a pool plant under § 967.10 (a) shall be exempt from the provisions of this part if the conditions of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this section are met: Provided, That the handler of such milk shall make reports to the market administrator with respect to his total receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat at such times and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator in accordance with § 967.32:

(1) The Secretary determines that a greater quantity of milk is disposed of in fluid form from such plant to another regulated area as defined in another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act either on a route(s) or through a plant(s) regulated by such other marketing agreement or order than is disposed of from such plant in the South Bend-La Porte-Elkhart marketing area either on a route(s) or through another pool plant(s); and

(2) Such milk would be subject to the class price and producer payment provisions of the other marketing agreement or order upon being made exempt from this part.

(b) Milk received at a plant qualified as a pool plant under § 967.10 (b) shall be exempt from the provisions of this part as producer milk if such milk is subject to class prices at a plant regulated under another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act: Provided, That the proviso set forth in paragraph (a) of this section shall apply.

(c) In the case of producer milk received directly from a farm at a pool plant which milk (1) has been diverted (without being physically received therein) from a plant at which farm receipts of milk are subject to the class price provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, (2) is reflected on the producer-payroll of the plant from which diverted, and (3) is not specifically exempt from class pricing by the terms of such other marketing agreement or order, the Secretary shall make a determination as to the extent to which the terms of this part shall apply to such milk.

§ 967.61 Producer-handlers. Sections 967.40 to 967.46, 967.50 to 967.58, 967.70 to 967.72, 967.80 to 967.84 and 967.86 to 967.88 shall not apply to a producer-handler.

§ 967.62 Computation of base. Subject to the conditions set forth in § 967.63, the market administrator shall compute for each of the months of April, May, June and July a base for each producer, as follows:

(a) Divide the total pounds of milk received by a handler from each producer during the months of September, October, November and December immediately preceding, by the number of days such milk was produced (not to be less than 90 days): Provided, That any producer for whom a base has been computed may, upon written notice to the market administrator postmarked not later than February 15 preceding, relinquish his base and be allotted a base computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Any producer who has not established a base or who elects to relinquish his base pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall be assigned a base for each of the months of April, May, June and July computed as follows:

(1) From the total quantity of producer milk received by handlers during the same month of the previous year, subtract the total receipts from producers who did not establish bases or who had relinquished their bases.

(2) Determine the percentage that base milk was of the remaining pounds, and subtract 10.

(3) Multiply the resulting percentage by the total pounds of milk received by a handler from the producer during the applicable month and divide the result by the number of days such milk was produced.

§ 967.63 Base rules. Any base computed pursuant to § 967.62 (a) shall be subject to the following rules:

(a) A base shall be held in the name of the producer and may be transferred only at his option.

(b) The milk to which the transferred base shall apply must be produced on the same farm on which such base was earned, and the transferor must notify the market administrator in writing on or before the last day of the month that such base is to be transferred indicating the name of the transferee, the amount of base transferred, and the effective date of the transfer; and in the event of a producer's death his base may be so transferred upon written notice to the market administrator from any member of the producer's immediate family.

(c) If a producer operates more than one farm he must establish a base with respect to the milk from each farm, and in the event such producer chooses to relinquish the base earned for one farm he must do so for all farms.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICES TO PRODUCERS

§ 967.70 Computation of the value of milk. (a) For each month the total value of milk received by each handler from producers or associations of producers (including any such milk caused to be delivered to such handler from the farms of producers for the account of a cooperative association) during such month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class by the applicable class prices pursuant to § 967.58, adding together the resulting amounts, adding any amounts computed for such handler pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, and subtracting the total amount of any location differential credits computed pursuant to § 967.56.

(1) Add, with respect to other source milk (except other source milk classified and priced under the class price provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act) received in fluid form as milk, skim milk or cream at each pool plant of such handler in excess of the total volume of his Class II milk and Class III milk at such plant, an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat in such other source milk by the difference between the Class I milk and Class III prices for skim milk and butterfat, respectively, pursuant to § 967.58: Provided, That if the plant supplying such milk is located outside the marketing area and more than 55 miles from the St. Joseph County Courthouse, South Bend, Indiana, the payment per hundredweight of milk otherwise required by this subparagraph shall be reduced by the applicable location adjustment provided in § 967.56 for the distance such plant is located from the St. Joseph County Courthouse, but not to exceed an amount equal to the difference between the Class I and Class III prices.

(2) Multiply the pounds of skim milk and butterfat subtracted pursuant to § 967.46 (d) by the respective applicable class prices.

(b) For each month the total obligation to the producer-settlement fund for each handler who, during such month, disposed of Class I milk (except other source milk classified and priced under the class price provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act) within the marketing area on routes from a nonpool plant shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the hundredweight of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk so disposed of by the difference between the Class I and Class III prices for skim milk and butterfat, respectively, adjusted for the location of the plant at the rates applicable for pool plants pursuant to § 967.56: Provided, That a producer-handler shall not be obligated for payments under this paragraph with respect to that portion of other source milk represented by his own farm production.

§ 967.71 Computation of uniform price. For each of the months of August through March the market administrator shall compute a uniform price per hundredweight of producer milk as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 967.70 for all handlers who filed reports pursuant to § 967.30 and were not in violation of § 967.83 for the preceding month;

(b) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of milk included in these computations is greater than 3.5 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 967.81 (a), and multiplying the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations;

(c) Add an amount equal to the total value of the location differentials computed pursuant to § 967.81 (b);

(d) Add not less than one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Divide the resulting sum by the total hundredweight of milk included in these computations; and

(f) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight, for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports or payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers. The result shall be known as the "uniform price" per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content.

§ 967.72 Computation of uniform prices for base milk and excess milk. For each of the months of April through July the market administrator shall compute separate prices per hundredweight for base milk and excess milk of producers as follows:

(a) Make the same computations as required pursuant to § 967.71 (a), (b), (c), and (d);

(b) Compute the total value, on a 3.5 percent butterfat basis, of that portion of milk, included in the computations pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, which is excess milk by: multiplying the quantity of such excess milk (but not more than an amount equal to the total quantity of Class III milk included in these computations) by the price for Class III milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, and multiplying any quantity of such excess milk greater than such Class III milk, in series, by the prices for Class II milk and Class I milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, respectively, and adding together the resulting amounts;

(c) Divide the total value of excess milk obtained in paragraph (b) of this section by the total hundredweight of such milk, and adjust to the nearest cent (the result shall be known as the "uniform price for excess milk" of 3.5 percent butterfat content);

(d) Subtract the value computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section from the total value of milk included in these computations, and divide the result by the total hundredweight of base milk represented; and

(e) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight, for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports of payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers. The result shall be known as the "uniform price for base milk" of 3.5 percent butterfat content.

PAYMENTS

§ 967.80 Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payments as follows:

(a) On or before the 18th day after the end of each month, to each producer, except producers for whom payment is made to a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, at not less than the uniform price for the months of August through March and the uniform prices for base milk and excess milk for the months of April through July, adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials pursuant to § 967.81, for all milk received from such producer during such month and less payment to such producer made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such month pursuant to § 967.84, he may reduce such payments uniformly per hundredweight for all producers by an amount not in excess of the per hundredweight reduction in payment from the market administrator: And provided further, That such handler shall make such balance of payment to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, to a cooperative association with respect to milk caused to be delivered from producers' farms to such handler by such association for its account during such month, not less than the value of skim milk and butterfat in such milk computed at the minimum class prices, less payments to such association made pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section. For the purpose of determining the classification of skim milk and butterfat in such milk, such skim milk and butterfat shall be ratably apportioned among the quantities of skim milk and butterfat in such handler's Class I milk, Class II milk and Class III milk allocated to producer milk pursuant to § 967.46.

(c) On or before the 4th day after the end of such month each handler shall pay to each producer, or to a cooperative association authorized to collect payment, not less than the amount per hundredweight provided in the schedule set forth in this paragraph, for milk received from such producer or caused to be delivered to such handler by such cooperative association during the first 15 days of such month: Provided, That in the event any producer or cooperative association discontinues shipping to such handler during any month, such partial payments shall not be made and full payment for all milk received from such producer or cooperative association during such month shall be made on or before the 18th day after the end of such month pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

When the uniform price or base price for the preceding month is—	The amount of the partial payment shall be—
Under $1.00	$0.00
$1.00 to $1.99	1.00
$2.00 to $2.99	2.00
$3.00 to $3.99	3.00
$4.00 to $4.99	4.00
$5.00 to $5.99	5.00
$6.00 to $6.99	6.00
$7.00 and over	7.00

§ 967.81 Producer butterfat and location differentials. (a) In making payments pursuant to § 967.80 (a) there shall be added to, or subtracted from, the uniform price, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat content in such producer milk above or below 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the average of the daily wholesale prices per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago during the month, as reported by the Department, by 0.12 and rounding to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) In making payments to producers pursuant to § 967.80 for milk received at a pool plant at which a location adjustment is applicable pursuant to § 967.56, the uniform price per hundredweight for the months of August through March, and the uniform price per hundredweight for base milk for the months of April through July, shall be reduced by the zone rate per hundredweight for such plant prior to the proviso in § 967.56.

§ 967.82 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit payments made by handlers pursuant to § 967.83 and payments related thereto pursuant to § 967.87 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to § 967.84 and payments related thereto pursuant to § 967.87.

§ 967.83 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. (a) On or before the 16th day after the end of each month, each handler whose obligation is computed pursuant to § 967.70 (a) shall pay to the market administrator the amount by which the value of such handler's milk as determined pursuant to § 967.70 (a), minus the amount to be paid to a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b) is greater than the amount to be paid producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a): Provided, That with respect to milk for which a cooperative association receives payment from a handler pursuant to § 967.80 (b), such cooperative association shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each month, the amount by which the utilization value of such milk is greater than the value computed at the uniform price pursuant to § 967.71 adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials pursuant to § 967.81.

(b) On or before the 16th day after the end of each month, each handler (including any handler who may also have an obligation pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section) who, during such month, disposed of milk as described in § 967.70 (b) shall pay the amount computed for him pursuant to such paragraph.

§ 967.84 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 17th day after the end of each month, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the amount by which the value of producer milk received by such handler during such month pursuant to § 967.70 minus the amount to be paid to a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b) is less than the amount to be paid producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a), less any unpaid obligation of such handler to the market administrator pursuant to §§ 967.83, 967.85, 967.86, and 967.87: Provided, That with respect to milk for which a cooperative association receives payment from a handler pursuant to § 967.80 (b) the market administrator shall pay to such cooperative association, on or before the 17th day after the end of such month, the amount by which the utilization value of such milk is less than the value computed at the uniform price pursuant to § 967.71 adjusted by the producer butterfat and location differentials pursuant to § 967.81: And provided further, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this section, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly per hundredweight such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

§ 967.85 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense incurred pursuant to § 967.22 (d), each handler (except a producer-handler) as defined in § 967.15 (a) or (b) shall pay the market administrator, on or before the 16th day after the end of each month, 4 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to skim milk and butterfat received within the month in producer milk (including such handler's own production) and in other source milk allocated to Class I milk; and each handler as defined in § 967.15 (c), including a producer-handler, shall make payment at the same rate per hundredweight with respect to other source milk disposed of as Class I milk within the marketing area on routes: Provided, That milk which is subject to administrative expense assessment under another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act shall be exempt from payment under this section.

§ 967.86 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers pursuant to § 967.80 (a) shall make a deduction of 4 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to the following:

(1) All milk received from producers (except milk of such handler's own production) at a plant not operated by a cooperative association; and

(2) All milk received at a plant operated by a cooperative association from producers who are not members of such association. Such deductions shall be paid by the handler to the market administrator on or before the 16th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for verification of weights, samples and tests of milk received from such producers and in providing market information to such producers, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of each producer, except a producer for whom payments are collected by a cooperative association pursuant to § 967.80 (b), (1) who is a member of, or who has given written authorization for the rendering of marketing services and the taking of deduction therefor, to a cooperative association, (2) whose milk is received at a plant not operated by such association, and (3) for whom the Secretary determines that such association is performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall deduct, in lieu of the deduction specified under paragraph (a) of this section, from the payments made pursuant to § 967.80 (a) the amount per hundredweight on milk authorized by such producer and shall pay over, on or before the 16th day after the end of such month, such deduction to the association entitled to receive it under this paragraph.

§ 967.87 Adjustments of accounts. (a) Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts discloses errors resulting in moneys due (1) the market administrator from such handler, (2) such handler from the market administrator, or (3) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any such amount due; and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payment set forth in the provision under which such error occurred following the 5th day after such notice.

(b) An unpaid obligation of a handler or of the market administrator shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one percent per month, such interest to accrue on the 1st day of the month next following the due date of such obligation and on the first day of each month thereafter until such obligation is paid.

§ 967.88 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money irrespective of when such obligation arose.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 967.90 Effective time. The provisions of this part or of any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated.

§ 967.91 Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall, whenever he finds that this part or any provision thereof, obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, terminate or suspend the operation of this part or any such provision thereof.

§ 967.92 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 967.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so desired by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 967.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 967.101 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of July 1958, to be effective on and after the 1st day of August 1958: It is ordered, That the complete text of the order, as hereby amended, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] MARVIN L. McLAIN,
Acting Secretary.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

1. The centerhead immediately following § 1.455 is amended to read "Release of Information from Veterans Administration Records".

2. Section 1.501 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1.501 Release of information by Veterans Administration officials and employees—(a) Release of information by the Administrator. The Administrator of Veterans Affairs or his designee may release information, statistics, or reports to individuals or organizations when in his judgment such release would serve a useful purpose.

(b) Release of information concerning policy and administration. Correspondence, reports, records and other papers concerning matters of policy and administration, the disclosure of which may either (1) violate the provisions of personnel procedures on conduct of Veterans Administration employees, (2) adversely reflect upon a special group of veterans, (3) have a detrimental effect upon business or private interest, or (4) involve the Veterans Administration in a controversy, will not be disclosed by any officer or employee of the Veterans Administration to any person or persons outside the Veterans Administration without the consent of the Administrator, Deputy Administrator, a department head, top staff official or Manager having jurisdiction over the particular subject matter. Disclosure of all investigative information or reports may be made only as provided by § 1.454.

3. Section 1.507 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1.507 Disclosures to Members of Congress. Members of Congress shall be furnished in their official capacity in any case such information contained in the Veterans Administration files as may be requested for official use. However, in any unusual case, the request will be presented to the Administrator, Deputy Administrator, Assistant Administrator or department head for personal action. When the requested information is of a type which may not be furnished a claimant, the Member of Congress shall be advised that the information is furnished to him confidentially in his official capacity and should be so treated by him. (See sec. 1201, Pub. Law 85-56.) Information concerning the beneficiary designation of a United States Government life insurance or National Service life insurance policy is deemed confidential and privileged and during the insured's lifetime shall not be disclosed to anyone other than the insured or his duly appointed fiduciary unless the insured or the fiduciary authorizes the release of such information.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Rules Amdt. 16-30]

[Docket No. 12295]

PART 16—LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 10, 11, and 16 of the Commission's rules to change the effective date of narrow-band technical standards in the 25–50 and 152–162 Mc bands.

The Commission having under consideration the Report and Order in the above-entitled matter (FCC 58–620) adopted June 26, 1958; and

It appearing that under the terms of the subject Report and Order, Parts 10, 11 and 16 of the Commission's rules were amended as set forth therein, the formal codification of such changes to be accomplished by subsequent orders of the Commission; and

It further appearing that the formal codification of the changes herein ordered in Part 16 of the Commission's rules conforms without any substantive change to the effective date of narrow-band technical standards in the 25–50 and 152–162 Mc bands and the availability of "split-channel" frequencies in these bands already ordered in the text of the Report and Order above-described, and are, therefore, editorial in nature, requiring no further public notice of rule making thereon; and

It further appearing that the effective date for the amendment ordered herein to Part 16 has already been set by the above-described Report and Order; and

It further appearing that authority for the amendments herein ordered is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341 of the Commission's Statement of Delegation of Authority;

It is ordered, This 23d day of July 1958, that, effective August 1, 1958, Part 16 of the Commission's rules, Land Transportation Radio Services, is amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Released: July 23, 1958.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] GORDON J. KENT,
Acting Secretary.

1. Amend paragraph (f) of § 16.8 by the addition of the following new subparagraph (3):

(3) In the case of stations of radiocommunications systems authorized prior to August 1, 1958, for operation on frequencies not currently available for assignment to such stations, the provisions of this paragraph regarding immediate compliance with the technical standards which are generally effective on November 1, 1963, shall not be applicable to the assignment of secondary or tertiary frequencies to such stations; provided, that in lieu thereof the frequency deviation of all frequency modulated transmitters of such stations shall not exceed ±5 kc.

2. Amend paragraph (a) of § 16.9 to read as follows:

(a) A statement, including an engineering survey if necessary, which sets forth the technical and other considerations in support of the selection of the particular frequency requested. The Commission expects that the applicant will notify the licensees of all known stations in the same or other services located within the local interference range of the proposed station location and operating on any frequency within 30 kc of the frequency proposed to be used by the applicant, of the applicant's intention to request that frequency.

3. Amend § 16.102 to read as follows:

§ 16.102 Frequency stability. (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, a permittee or licensee in these services shall maintain the carrier frequency of each authorized transmitter within the following percentage of the assigned frequency:

Frequency range	All fixed and base stations	All mobile stations
		Over 3 watts	3 watts or less
	Percent	Percent	Percent
Below 25 Mc	0.01	0.01	0.02
25 to 50 Mc	.002	.002	.005
50 to 1000 Mc	.005	.005	.005

(b) In lieu of meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section for the frequency ranges shown below, transmitters authorized prior to November 1, 1958, and transmitters which are operationally integrated with existing radiocommunication systems authorized prior to November 1, 1958, may conform to the following tolerances until not later than October 31, 1963:

Frequency range	Transmitter power
	Over 3 watts	3 watts or less
	Percent	Percent
50 to 150.8 Mc	.005	.01
162 to 220 Mc	.005	.01
220 to 1000 Mc	(1)	(1)

[1] To be specified in the station authorization.

(c) In lieu of meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section for the frequency bands shown below, transmitters authorized prior to November 1, 1963, for operation wholly within the limits of one or more of the territories or possessions of the United States, and transmitters operationally integrated with existing radiocommunication systems authorized prior to August 1, 1958, for operation in other areas, may conform to the following frequency tolerances until not later than October 31, 1963, provided either (1) that the authorized operation be conducted only on frequencies specifically assigned to stations of the respective systems prior to the foregoing respective dates or (2) that the authorized operation be conducted on frequencies which are directly substituted for specific frequencies in the same frequency range which were assigned to stations of the respective systems prior to August 1, 1958, and which are no longer available for assignment to the station or stations involved:

Frequency range	Transmitter power
	Over 3 watts	3 watts or less
	Percent	Percent
25 to 50 Mc	0.01	0.02
152 to 162 Mc	.005	.01

(d) For the purpose of determining the frequency tolerance applicable to a particular transmitter in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section, the power of a transmitter shall be the maximum rated plate power input to its final radio frequency stage, as specified by the manufacturer.

4. Amend subparagraphs (3) and (4) of § 16.104 (b) to read as follows:

(3) In lieu of meeting the requirements of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, transmitters authorized prior to November 1, 1963, to utilize type F3 emission for operation wholly within the limits of one or more of the territories or possessions of the United States on frequencies within the ranges 25–50 Mc and 152–162 Mc may be operated on frequencies within those ranges with a maximum authorized bandwidth of 40 kc and a maximum frequency deviation of 15 kc, until not later than October 31, 1963.

(4) In lieu of meeting the requirements of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, transmitters which are operationally integrated with existing radiocommunication systems authorized prior to August 1, 1958, to utilize type F3 emission and to operate on frequencies within the range 25–50 Mc or 152–162 Mc (i) may be operated with a maximum authorized bandwidth of 40 kc and a maximum frequency deviation of 15 kc until not later than January 31, 1959, provided that the authorized operation continues only on frequencies authorized stations of the respective systems prior to August 1, 1958, and (ii) may be operated with a maximum frequency deviation of 5 kc until not later than October 31, 1963, provided that the operation takes place either on frequencies authorized stations of the respective systems prior to August 1, 1958, or on frequencies which are directly substituted for specific frequencies in the same frequency range which were assigned to stations of the respective systems prior to August 1, 1958, and which are no longer available for assignment to the station or stations involved.

5. Amend paragraph (d) of § 16.105 to read as follows:

(d) Each transmitter which is operated on a frequency in the range 25 to 50 Mc, or 152 to 162 Mc, and which is provided with a modulation limiter in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section shall also be equipped with an audio low-pass filter in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (g) of this section: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply until November 1, 1963, to transmitters of stations operated wholly within the limits of one or more of the territories or possessions of the United States; and this requirement shall not apply until November 1, 1963, to transmitters which are operationally integrated with existing radiocommunication systems which were authorized prior to August 1, 1958, in those cases where either (1) the authorized operation is conducted only on frequencies specifically assigned to stations of the respective systems prior to August 1, 1958, or (2) the authorized operation is conducted only on frequencies which are directly substituted for specific frequencies in the same frequency range which were assigned to stations of the respective systems prior to August 1, 1958, and which are no longer available for assignment to the station or stations involved.

6. Amend paragraph (e) of § 16.105 to read as follows:

(e) Each transmitter which is operated on a frequency in the range 150.8 to 152 Mc and which is provided with a modulation limiter in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section shall also be equipped with an audio low-pass filter, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (g) of this section.

7. Amend § 16.105 by the addition of the following new paragraphs (f) and (g):

(f) Each transmitter which is operated on a frequency in the range 450 to 470 Mc and which is provided with a modulation limiter in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section shall also be equipped with an audio low-pass filter, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (g) of this section: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply until November 1, 1963, to transmitters first authorized or installed prior to November 1, 1958, or to transmitters which are operationally integrated with existing radiocommunications systems which were authorized prior to November 1, 1958.

(g) The audio low-pass filter required by the provisions of the preceding paragraphs of this section shall be installed between the modulation limiter and the modulated stage and, at audio frequencies between 3 kc and 15 kc, shall have an attenuation greater than the attenuation at 1 kc by at least:

$40 \log_{10}(f/3)$ decibels

where "f" is the audio frequency in kilocycles. At audio frequencies above 15 kc the attenuation shall be at least 28 decibels greater than the attenuation at 1 kc.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter F—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 115—SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA AREA

FISHING FOR HERRING PERMITTED

JULY 25, 1958.

Basis and purpose. Because of the relative abundance of herring and in order to provide for scientific sampling, it has been determined that a limited catch of herring can be permitted in certain closed areas in Southeastern Alaska.

Section 115.57 is amended in paragraph (a) by changing the period at the end of the text to a colon and adding the following proviso: "Provided, That not more than 2,000 short tons may be taken after July 27, 1958, in the combined areas of Icy Strait, except Port Frederick; Lynn Canal north of 58°34'10" N. lat.; and Chatham Strait between the latitudes of Point Augusta and South Passage Point."

Immediate action on this amendment is necessary if the limited quota provided is to be obtained. Therefore, notice and public procedure are impracticable and it shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[49 CFR Part 132]

[No. 32406]

RULES, STANDARDS AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR INSTALLATION, INSPECTION, MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF POWER OR TRAIN BRAKES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING AND HEARING

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of July A. D. 1958.

It appearing that pursuant to the provisions of the Power or Train Brakes Safety Appliance Act of 1958, the Commission, complying with the directive of the Congress of the United States, entered an order on May 1, 1958, effective August 9, 1958, adopting the rules, standards and instructions for the installation, inspection, maintenance and repair of air brake equipment adopted by the Association of American Railroads in 1925, as amended;

It further appearing that a petition has been filed by the Association of American Railroads for modification of § 132.12 of the said rules, standards and instructions, and that petitions for exception from the 500 mile requirement of § 132.12 of said rules, standards and instructions, have been filed by The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company; the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Company; the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Company; and the Great Northern Railway Company;

And it further appearing that in order to determine whether a need exists for modification of § 132.12 to permit the granting of relief from those provisions in instances where compliance therewith is impractical or for other reasons;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1003) notice is hereby given of a proposal to modify § 132.12 of 49 CFR Part 132, Power Brakes and Drawbars (Railroad), by adding a note following the introductory paragraph. The note will read as follows:

NOTE. Relief from the requirements of this section will be granted upon an adequate showing by an individual carrier.

It is further ordered, That the said petitions of the Association of American Railroads; The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway; the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Company; the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Company; and the Great Northern Railway Company, be assigned for hearing at the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington, D. C., beginning at 10:00 a. m., September 3, 1958, before Commissioner Kenneth H. Tuggle and Examiner Henry J. Vinskey.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this proposal shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Federal Register Division.

(Sec. 2, 32 Stat. 943, as amended; 45 U. S. C. 9)

By the Commission, Division 3.

[Docket No. 32464]

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CARRIERS BY INLAND AND COASTAL WATERWAYS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

JULY 18, 1958.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to provisions of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act that the Commission has under consideration the matter of modifying the provisions of the Uniform System of Accounts for Carriers by Inland and Coastal Waterways as they relate to the classification of certain assets, liabilities, and income, as shown hereunder and as more particularly explained below.

(1) Provide for inclusion under current assets of the following items:

Spare parts, except major parts used as standby equipment, which are to be included in property account 141, Line Equipment.
Inventory of fuel oil aboard vessels.
Prepayments.
Working advances.

(2) Provide for inclusion under current liabilities of the portion of long-term debt due within one year.

(3) Change the titles of accounts for unearned surplus to read capital surplus; also the titles of accounts for earned surplus to read retained income.

(4) Amend the rules to provide specifically that the proceeds realized from sale of property or from insurance in excess of book cost of property shall be included directly in retained income (surplus).

(5) Provide that Federal income tax consequences, when material in amount, attributable to items of taxable income or deductions from taxable income, recorded directly in retained income accounts, shall be included in accounts 283, Miscellaneous credits, or 285, Miscellaneous debits, as appropriate.

(6) Provide for transferring amortization reserve for defense projects to the depreciation reserve.

(7) Provide that delayed items and adjustments, other than ordinary adjustments of a recurring nature, shall be included directly in retained income (surplus).

(8) Provide that water-line tax accruals (other than income taxes) shall be classified under operating expenses.

(9) Provide for including in insurance accounts in operating expenses the deductible average losses, assumed by carrier, where self-carried insurance reserves are maintained to equalize such losses in connection with hull and disbursement insurance, cargo insurance, and protection and indemnity insurance.

(10) Provide for inclusion in charter rent account rental payable for charter of vessels from all sources and not only from "other carriers."

Any interested person may on or before August 31, 1958, file with the Commission's Secretary written views or suggestions to be considered in this connection, and may request oral argument thereon. After consideration of responses so received and giving effect to such further changes as may be found necessary because of them, the modifications will be ordered pursuant to provisions of Part III of the Interstate Commerce Act (54 Stat. 933 as amended; 49 U. S. C. 904; to interpret or apply 54 Stat. 944 as amended; 49 U. S. C. 913).

[SEAL] HAROLD D. McCOY,
Secretary.

1. Current and other assets:

In § 324.1–113 Material and supplies change the account number to read § 324.1–115 without changing the title and cancel paragraph (a) of the text, substituting the following provisions in lieu thereof:

(a) This account shall include the cost, less cash and other discounts, of all unissued and unapplied material and supplies, articles in process of manufacture by the carrier fuel, tools, stationery, commissary and other supplies including fuel stores in the inventories on board vessels. This account also shall include the cost of unapplied spare parts, except major parts used as standby equipment. (See account 141, "Line Equipment.")

In § 324.1–114 Other current assets change the section number to read § 324.1–116 without change in the title or text.

In § 324.1–157 Spare parts cancel the number, title, and text of the account.

In § 324.1–172 Prepayments change the section number to read § 324.1–114 without change in title or text.

In § 324.1–173 Working advances change the section number to read § 324.1–113 without change in title or text.

In § 324.2–141 Line equipment insert the following new provision as the final sentence in the first paragraph of the text: "This account shall include major parts used as standby equipment, such as engines, propellers, pumps, etc., for replacing parts being repaired or overhauled."

2. Long-term debt due within one year:

In § 324.1–207 Matured long-term obligations cancel the title and text of this account, substituting the following title and text and retaining the note:

§ 324.1–207 Current maturity of long-term debt. This account shall include the total amount of all funded obligations (except amounts due affiliated companies) which are past due or which will mature within one year from the close of the accounting period and for which arrangements have not been entered into for an extension of time as to payment. This includes the portion of long-term debt maturing serially or payable in installments within one year.

In § 324.1–211 Funded debt unmatured paragraph (b) (1), Equipment obligations eliminate from the text the comma and the clause reading "including those maturing serially or payable in installments."

3. Retained income and capital surplus:

In § 324.1–250 Unearned surplus change the title of this account to read, "Capital surplus."

In § 324.1–250–2 Other unearned surplus change the title of this subaccount to read, "Other capital surplus."

In § 324.1–260 Earned surplus; appropriated change the title of this account to read, "Retained income; appropriated."

In § 324.1–280 Earned surplus; unappropriated change the title of this account to read, "Retained income; unappropriated."

4. Sale of property or insurance recovered:

In § 324.3–282 Credits from transportation property retired cancel the text of the account and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 324.3–282 Credits from transportation on property retired. This account shall include profits realized from sale of carrier property; also insurance recoverable from lost or damaged property. The amount includible in this account is the proceeds realized from the sale of the property or from insurance in excess of the book cost after deducting any expense in connection with sale or disposition of the property.

5. Income taxes attributable to amounts recorded in retained income:

In § 324.3–283 Miscellaneous credits add the following new item to the list of items in the text:

10. Federal income tax credit, when material in amount, attributable to items of deductions from taxable income, recorded directly in retained income accounts.

In § 324.3–285 Miscellaneous debits add the following new item to the list of items in the text:

12. Federal income taxes, when material in amount, attributable to items of taxable income, recorded directly in retained income accounts.

In § 324.5–532 Income taxes cancel the text of the account and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 324.5–532 Income taxes. This account shall include accruals for Federal and State income taxes, when not in lieu of a property tax, payable on amounts includible in the carrier's income accounts.

NOTE: Federal income tax charges or credits, when material in amount, attributable to items of taxable income or deductions from taxable income, recorded directly in retained income accounts, shall be included in accounts 285, "Miscellaneous debits," or 283, "Miscellaneous credits", as appropriate.

6. Amortization reserve; defense projects:

In § 324.1–149 Depreciation reserve; transportation property add the following new sentence in paragraph (a) of the text: "This account shall be subdivided so as to show separately:

(1) Depreciation reserve—transportation property.

(2) Past provision for amortization of defense projects."

In § 324.1–150 Amortization reserve; defense projects cancel the number, title, and text of the account.

7. Delayed items:

In § 324.4 Delayed items and adjustments eliminate the second sentence and substitute the following sentence in lieu thereof: "When the amount of a delayed item, which is not an ordinary adjustment of a recurring nature, is relatively so large that its inclusion in income for the current year would seriously distort such income, the amount of the item shall be included in account 283, 'Miscellaneous credits,' or 285, 'Miscellaneous debits,' as appropriate."

In § 324.3–283 Miscellaneous credits add the following new item to the list of items in the text:

11. Delayed items and credit adjustments, other than ordinary adjustments of a recurring nature, including material adjustments of Federal income taxes. (See § 324.4 Delayed items.)

In § 324.3–285 Miscellaneous debits add the following new item to the list of items in the text:

13. Delayed items and debit adjustments, other than ordinary adjustments of a recurring nature, including material adjustments of Federal income taxes. (See § 324.4 Delayed items.)

In § 324.4–508 Delayed income credits and § 324.5–534 Delayed income debits cancel the numbers, titles, texts, and notes of the two accounts.

8. Water-line tax accruals:

In § 324.5–521 Water-line tax accruals cancel the number only and retain the section, title, and notes without change, substituting § 324.7–486 in lieu of § 324.5–521.

9. Insurance and deductible losses:

In § 324.7–471 Hull and disbursement insurance, § 324.7–472, Cargo insurance, and § 324.7–473 Protection and indemnity insurance add the following sentence to the text of each of the three accounts (471, 472 and 473): "This account also shall include provisions for deductible average losses, assumed by the carrier, where self-carried insurance reserves are maintained to equalize such losses. (See account 221, 'Insurance reserves'.)"

10. Charter Rental for Transportation Property:

In § 324.7–481 Charter rents cancel the title and text of this account and substitute the following in lieu thereof:

§ 324.7–481 Charter rents; transportation property. (a) This account shall include the rent payable by the carrier under contract for the charter of vessels (when the amount payable as charter rent is not dependent upon the commodities and volume of freight transported), such as bare boat or time charters.

(b) The carrier shall include the rent payable under the contract in this account, and shall include in other appropriate operating expense accounts additional expenses incurred by it in operating vessels chartered from others.

11. Other changes:

Before an order is entered pursuant to this notice of proposed rule making, all references and instructions elsewhere in this system of accounts will be modified or corrected in conformity with the foregoing, and such modifications or corrections will be detailed in the order.

[Classification 49]

NEW MEXICO

SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION

JULY 21, 1958.

1. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by Bureau Order No. 541, dated April 21, 1954 (19 F. R. 2473), I hereby classify the following described public lands totalling 80 acres in Dona Ana County,

New Mexico, as suitable for public sale under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended:

NEW MEXICO PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 23 S., R. 1 E.,
Sec. 20, N½NW¼.

2. Classification of the above described lands by this order segregates them from all forms of appropriations, including locations under the mining laws, except application under the mineral leasing laws.

3. The lands are located four and one-half miles west of Las Cruces, and lie about one-eighth mile north of U. S. Highway No. 70. The lands are moderately undulating to rough and rolling. The soils are sandy loam in texture and the vegetation consists chiefly of mesquite, cacti, and some grasses. The climate is mild and semiarid, the average annual temperature being 60° F. and the average annual rainfall is 9". The elevation is 4100'. Utilities may be provided from the City of Las Cruces, or if not, the purchasers will have to provide utilities for themselves. Business, educational, religious and recreational facilities are available in Las Cruces, New Mexico.

4. Each of the tracts, numbered from 1 through 30 for reference purposes only, contain from 2.5 acres to 5 acres. The fair market value of the tracts, the reference number, and legal description are shown below. The tracts will be subject to all existing rights-of-way and rights-of-way 33' in width will be reserved from each tract as described below for roads, utility lines, etc. All minerals will be reserved by the United States.

5. Persons who have previously acquired a tract under the Small Tract Act are not qualified to secure a tract at the sale unless they can make a showing satisfactory to the Bureau of Land Management that the acquisition of another tract is warranted in the circumstances.

6. The above-described tracts will be sold at public auction at a public sale to be held at Las Cruces, New Mexico at 10:30 a. m., October 29, 1958. Bids may be made personally by the applicant or his agent at the sale or may be mailed. Bids sent by mail will be considered only if received at the Santa Fe Land Office prior to 10:00 a. m. October 27, 1958. No bid will be accepted if it is less than the appraised value of the tract. See paragraph 4 for appraised values.

7. Each bid sent by mail must clearly show (a) the name and post office address of the bidder, (b) Classification No. 49, (c) the land description of the tract for which the bid is made, described in accordance with Paragraph 4 of this order, (d) whether the bidder is entitled to veteran's preference in accordance with paragraph 8 of this order. Each bid must be accompanied by the full amount bid in the form of a certified or cashier's check, post office money order, or bank draft made payable to the Bureau of Land Management. Each bid must be enclosed in a separate envelope but payment need only accompany the highest bid, provided all other bids designate the envelope containing the payment. Each envelope must carry on its reverse the following information and nothing else: (a) Classification No. 49, (b) Veteran's Preference, if the bidder is entitled to veteran's preference in accordance with paragraph 8, and (c) the description of the tract for which the bid is made, described in accordance with paragraph 4 of this order.

8. All valid applications filed prior to March 29, 1955 will be granted the preference rights provided for by 43 CFR 257.5 (a). In accordance with 43 CFR 257.14 (e), each tract will be awarded to the highest bidder, either written or oral, among persons entitled to veteran's preference, and if there be none, to the highest bidder among nonpreference bidders. No person will be awarded more than one tract. Persons entitled to veteran's preference, in brief, are (a) honorably discharged veterans who served at least 90 days after September 15, 1940, (b) surviving spouse or minor orphan children of such veterans, and (c) with the consent of the veteran, the spouse of living veterans. The 90-day requirement does not apply to veterans who were discharged on account of wounds or disability incurred in the line of duty or to the surviving spouse or minor children of veterans killed in the line of duty. Successful bidders among preference claimants will be called upon for proof of the military service upon which their claim is based.

9. All inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, P. O. Box 1251, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

W. J. ANDERSON,
Acting State Supervisor.

ALASKA

RENTALS AND ROYALTIES; OIL AND GAS LEASES

Notice is hereby given that, in accordance with the provisions of Public Law 85-505 enacted on July 3, 1958 (72 Stat. 322), the annual lease rentals for lands in Alaska not within any known geologic structure of a producing oil or gas field and the royalty payments on production shall be identical with those prescribed for such leases covering similar lands in the States of the United States, except that leases which may be issued pursuant to applications or offers to lease filed prior to and which were pending on May 3, 1958, shall require the payment of 25 cents per acre as lease rental for the first year of such lease.

Anyone filing a lease offer from July 3, 1958, to August 4, 1958, inclusive, which was not accompanied by the proper amount of the first year's lease rental, shall be given an opportunity to submit the required rental without loss of priority of his lease offer.

Pending formal promulgation of departmental regulations implementing the provisions of Public Law 85-505, this notice constitutes authority to the Bureau of Land Management, U. S. Department of the Interior, to resume issuance of leases covering lands in Alaska in accordance with the provisions of that act.

FRED A. SEATON,
Secretary of the Interior.

ALASKA

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF LANDS FOR NON-COMPETITIVE OIL AND GAS LEASING

JULY 24, 1958.

Notice is hereby given that there have been filed in the Land Offices, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska, and in the Office of the Director, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., approved maps describing by leasing blocks approximately 4,000,000 acres of land in specified townships within the area described in section 1 of Public Land Order 1621, which are now available for noncompetitive oil and gas leasing. Such maps may be examined at those offices during the regular business hours. A portfolio containing an index map and leasing maps may be purchased from such offices for $1.50. This portfolio also contains a leasing map of the lands in the Gubik gas field which will be subject to competitive leasing only.

1. Approximately 4,000,000 acres of land will become subject to noncompetitive oil and gas leasing on the date of publication hereof. These lands are designated on said maps as separately numbered leasing blocks, in the specified townships, not exceeding 2,560 acres each.

2. All leasing will be subject to the provisions of the Mineral Leasing Act of 1920, as amended (41 Stat. 437); Public Land Order 1621, dated April 18, 1958; the regulations in 43 CFR, Part 192, and the provisions hereof.

3. All offers to lease must be submitted on Form 4-1158 and in accordance with the regulations 43 CFR 192.42. Each offeror may file only one offer for each separate leasing block.

4. The lands applied for must be described according to the leasing blocks in the specified townships shown on the approved maps, notwithstanding the provisions of 43 CFR 71.2 and 43 CFR 192.42 (d). Each entire leasing block is deemed and declared to be a legal subdivision subject to the restrictions on assignment of a part thereof as provided for in the regulation 43 CFR 192.140.

5. Each offer must be filed in a separately sealed envelope which sealed envelope must contain a $10 filing fee and the first year's advance rental at the rate of 50 cents per acre in accordance with the provisions of Public Law 85-505 enacted July 3, 1958, and have endorsed on its face the name and address of the offeror, and the description of the land applied for by leasing block number and township. Each offer must include the rental payment for the full acreage of the leasing block including any water area shown on the leasing map. Any offers not so submitted will be rejected and returned to the offeror.

6. All offers must be filed in the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management (P. O. Box 1050), Fairbanks, Alaska. All offers received in the above-noted Land Office from the date of publication hereof and until 10 a. m. of the 60th day thereafter, will be considered as having been simultaneously filed. The priorities of all conflicting offers will be determined in accordance with the procedure outlined in the regulation 43 CFR 295.8 and the sealed envelopes referred to in the preceding paragraph will be returned unopened to the unsuccessful offerors.

EARL J. THOMAS,
Acting Director.

Maritime Administration

MOORE-McCORMACK LINES, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

Notice is hereby given of the application of Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc., for written permission of the Maritime Administrator, under section 805 (a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 1223, to permit the operation of its owned subsidized vessel, SS. "Mormacsun," by the charterer of said vessel, States Marine Lines, to load military cargo on or about August 6, 1958, at Hawaii for discharge on the United States Pacific Coast.

Any person, firm, or corporation having an interest in such application and desiring a hearing on issues pertinent to section 805 (a) should, by the close of business on August 1, 1958, notify the Secretary, Maritime Administration, in writing in triplicate, and file petition for leave to intervene in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Maritime Administration.

If no request for hearing and petition for leave to intervene is received within the specified time, or if the Maritime Administrator determines that petitions to intervene, filed within the specified time, do not demonstrate sufficient interest to warrant a hearing, the application will be processed without a hearing.

Dated: July 25, 1958.

By order of the Maritime Administrator.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-3119]

SAN MAURICIO MINING CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 23, 1958.

In the matter of San Mauricio Mining Company, Capital Stock; File No. 1-3119.

Pacific Coast Stock Exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

The Company terminated its mining operations in 1956. The Exchange suspended the stock from dealings on July 25, 1957. The Company's financial statements show current liabilities in excess of current and total assets.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before August 8, 1958, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official file of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

ATOK-BIG WEDGE MINING CO., INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 23, 1958.

In the matter of Atok-Big Wedge Mining Co., Inc., Capital Stock; File No. 1-3503.

Pacific Coast Stock Exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

The Company discontinued mining operations in 1953. The Exchange suspended the stock from dealings on July 25, 1957. The Company has omitted the filing of annual reports with the Exchange.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before August 8, 1958, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. TRABELLA URANIUM MINES, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION, AND OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

JULY 22, 1958.

In the matter of Trabella Uranium Mines, Inc., common stock; File No. 1-3874.

San Francisco Mining Exchange has made application, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the above-named security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following:

The company has failed to file reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Exchange, and communications addressed to the company have elicited no response.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before August 6, 1958, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D. TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

[Amdt. 13]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF CIVIL AIRWAYS

ALTERATIONS

The civil airway alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Division, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest and therefore is not required.

Part 600 is amended as follows:

1. Section 600.6023 VOR civil airway No. 23 (San Diego, Calif., to Bellingham, Wash.) is amended by adding a last sentence to read: "The portion of the east alternate between the Eugene and Portland, Oreg., omnirange stations which lies within the Portland International Airport Military Climb Corridor (R-535) is excluded."

2. Section 600.6283 is amended to read:

§ 600.6283 VOR civil airway No. 283 (Redmond, Oreg., to Newberg, Oreg.). From the Redmond, Oreg., omnirange station to the Newberg, Oreg., omnirange station.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U.S.C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 302, 52 Stat. 985, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 452)

This amendment shall become effective 0001 P. s. t. August 1, 1958.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, AND REPORTING POINTS

ALTERATIONS

The control area alterations appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Division, and are adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to public interest and therefore is not required.

Part 601 is amended as follows:

1. Section 601.1039 is amended to read:

§ 601.1039 Control area extension (Portland, Oreg.). The airspace within a 30-mile radius of the Portland International Airport, including the airspace centered on the back course of the Portland ILS localizer (119° True), extending from the airport 5-mile radius control zone boundary to a point 27 miles southeast thereof and having a width of 2

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

ALTERATIONS

The restricted area appearing hereinafter has been coordinated with the civil operators involved, the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, through the Air Coordinating Committee, Airspace Division, and is adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety of the flying public. Since a military function of the United States is involved, compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required.

Part 608 is amended as follows:

In § 608.45, the Portland International Airport Military Climb Corridor, Oregon, area (R–535), is added to read:

Name and location (chart)	Description by geographical coordinates	Designated altitudes	Time of designation	Controlling agency
Portland International Airport Military Climb Corridor, Oregon (R–535) (Portland).	The area centered on the back course of the ILS localizer 119° TRUE, extending from the airport 5 mile Control Zone boundary to a point 27 miles southeast thereof and having a width of 2 miles at the Control Zone and expanding to a width of 4.6 miles at the southeast boundary, as further identified by the following explanatory chart.	Lower Level Beginning at the edge of the Control Zone to a point 5 miles from the edge, at a level of 2,000′ MSL; thence to a point 10 miles from said edge at a level of 6,000′ MSL; thence to a point 15 miles from said edge at a level of 10,000′ MSL; thence to a point 20 miles from said edge at a level of 15,000′ MSL; thence to a point 27 miles from said edge at a level of 19,000′ MSL, as further identified by the following explanatory chart. Upper Level Beginning at the edge of the Control Zone to a point 1 mile from said edge, at a level of 10,000′ MSL; thence to a point 3 miles from said edge at a level of 17,000′ MSL; thence to a point 5 miles from said edge at a level of 23,000′ MSL; thence to a point 27 miles from said edge at a level of 27,000′ MSL, as further identified by the following explanatory chart. PART 723—CIGAR-FILLER TOBACCO, CIGAR-BINDER TOBACCO, AND CIGAR-FILLER AND BINDER TOBACCO

COMMUNITY CROPLAND FACTOR

This amendment is based on the marketing quota provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, applicable to tobacco (7 U. S. C. 1311–15), and amends the definition of "Community cropland factor" contained in § 723.872 (23 F. R. 5327). The year "1958" appearing in such section is changed to "1959."

Section 723.872 (e) is amended to read:

(e) "Community cropland factor" means that percentage determined by dividing the total cropland for all old farms in the community in 1959 into the total of the 1959 tobacco acreage allotment for such old farms: Provided, That (1) if it is determined that the cropland factors for all communities in the county are substantially the same, the county committee, with the approval of the State committee, may consider the entire county as one community, and (2) if there is only one farm in the county on which tobacco is grown, the community cropland factors of the nearest community in which tobacco is grown shall be used in determining the acreage indicated by cropland.

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Sugar Requirements and Quotas

[Sugar Reg. 814.19, Amdt. 2]

PART 814—ALLOTMENT OF SUGAR QUOTAS

DIRECT-CONSUMPTION PORTION OF MAINLAND QUOTA FOR PUERTO RICO, 1958

Basis and purpose. This amendment is issued under section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (hereinafter called the "act") for the purpose of further amending Sugar Regulation 814.19 (23 F. R. 136, 2853), which established allotments of the direct-consumption portion of the 1958 mainland quota for Puerto Rico.

This amendment of S. R. 814.19 is necessary to: (1) Give effect to the amendment of Sugar Regulation 811 (23 F. R. 4597) which established the direct-consumption portion of the 1958 mainland quota for Puerto Rico of 133,064 short tons, raw value, a quantity greater than the 130,016 short tons, raw value, previously allotted and to allot the larger quantity in accordance with findings heretofore made and (2) prorate to other allottees, to the extent they are able to utilize additional allotments, allotment deficits declared by two allottees totalling 1,721 short tons, raw value. Prior to issuance of Sugar Regulation 814.19, Amendment 1, the South Porto Rico Sugar Company released its entire 1958 allotment. Accordingly the quota was allotted by Sugar Regulation 814.19, Amendment 1, to the other allottees.

Findings heretofore made by the Secretary in the course of this proceeding (23 F. R. 136) provide that this order shall be revised without further notice or hearing for the purposes indicated above and such findings set forth the procedure for the revision of allotments.

Accordingly, allotments are herein established on the basis of and consistent with such findings.

Effective date. It is hereby determined and found that compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and, consequently, the amendment made herein shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Order. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act, it is hereby ordered that paragraph (a) of § 814.19 be further amended to read as follows:

§ 814.19 Allotment of the direct-consumption portion of 1598 sugar quota for Puerto Rico—(a) Allotments. The direct-consumption portion of the 1958 sugar quota for Puerto Rico, amounting to 133,064 short tons, raw value, is hereby allotted as follows:

Allottee:	Direct-consumption allotment (short tons, raw value)
Central Aguirre Sugar Co., a trust	6,434
Central Roig Refining Co	20,937
Central San Francisco	1,473
Porto Rican American Sugar Rfy., Inc	84,020
Western Sugar Refining Co	20,000
All other persons (raw sugar only)	200
Total	133,064

Done at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of July 1958.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Nectarine Order 7, Amdt. 1]

PART 937—NECTARINES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 37 (7 CFR Part 937; 23 F. R. 4616) regulating the handling of nectarines grown in California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Nectarine Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of nectarines of the varieties hereinafter specified, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of the specified varieties of nectarines.

(b) It is, therefore, ordered that the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of § 937.307 (Nectarine Order 7; 23 F. R. 5190) hereby are amended by deleting the semicolon (;) appearing after the phrase "U. S. No. 1" and inserting in lieu thereof, the following: ": Provided, That nectarines of the Freedom variety, which otherwise grade at least U. S. No. 1, may be handled when the surface of the individual fruit of such variety is affected by russeting which is not checked or cracked; and nectarines of the Golden Grand, Marigold, Le Grand, Grandeur, Late Le Grand, and Gold King varieties, which otherwise grade at least U. S. No. 1, may be handled when not to exceed 25 percent of the surface of the individual fruit of the respective variety is affected by russeting which is not checked or cracked;"

(c) The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 26, 1958.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

PART 937—NECTARINES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 37 (7 CFR Part 937; 23 F. R. 4616) regulating the handling of nectarines grown in California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Nectarine Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of nectarines of the varieties hereinafter specified, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. (b) It is, therefore, ordered that the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of § 937.308 (Nectarine Order 8; 23 F. R. 5191) hereby are amended by inserting, after the phrase "U. S. No. 1," the following: ": Provided, That any such variety of nectarines which otherwise grade at least U. S. No. 1 may be handled when not to exceed 25 percent of the surface of the individual fruit of the respective variety is affected by russeting which is not checked or cracked."

(c) The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 26, 1958.

PART 941—MILK IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER

§ 941.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of the said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1958.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order was issued July 15, 1958. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1958, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c (9) of the act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. The order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Except in subparagraph (4) thereof, delete "50 percent" in each instance wherein it appears in § 941.66 (b) and substitute therefor "30 percent."

2. Delete "50 percent" in each instance wherein it appears in § 941.66 (b) (4) and substitute therefor "40 percent."

3. Delete "September, October, and November" in each instance wherein it appears in § 941.66 (b) and substitute therefor "August, September, and October."

4. In § 941.66 (b) (4) delete "December of the same year and continuing through August" and substitute therefor "November of the same year and continuing through July".

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of July 1958, to be effective on and after August 1, 1958.

AUTHORITY: §§ 957.0 to 957.91 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 957.0 Findings and determinations. Findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held in Pocatello, Idaho, on November 5–6, 1957, upon proposed amendments to Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended (7 CFR Part 957), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Malheur County, Oregon, and the counties of Adams, Valley, Lemhi, Clark, and Fremont in the State of Idaho, and all of the counties in Idaho lying south of the aforesaid counties in Idaho. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to potatoes produced in the production area by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will tend to establish, as prices to the producers thereof, parity prices and by protecting the interest of the consumer (i) by approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and (ii) by authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers of such potatoes above the parity level, and (iii) by authorizing the establishment and maintenance of such minimum standards of quality and maturity, and such grading and inspection requirements as may be incidental thereto, as will tend to effectuate such orderly marketing of such potatoes as will be in the public interest;

(2) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of potatoes grown in the production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, is limited in application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to subdivisions of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to the differences in the production and marketing of potatoes grown in the production area; and

(5) All handling of potatoes grown in the production area and in the current of commerce between the production area and any point outside thereof, is either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) Handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping potatoes covered by this order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the volume of potatoes covered by this order, as amended, have signed a marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area, and

(2) The issuance of this order, as amended, is approved or favored (i) by at least two-thirds of the producers of Irish potatoes who participated in a referendum held during the period April 28 through May 5, 1958, and who, during the determined representative period (July 1, 1957 through April 30, 1958), have been engaged within the production area in the production of potatoes for market, and (ii) by producers who participated in the aforesaid referendum who, during the aforesaid representative period, produced for market at least two-thirds of the volume of such potatoes produced for market within the production area specified herein by all producers who participated in the said referendum.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore, ordered that on and after the effective time hereof, the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area as defined herein shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this amendatory order; and such terms and conditions are as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 957.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture to whom authority has heretofore been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

§ 957.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047).

§ 957.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 957.4 Production area. "Production area" means all territory included within Malheur County, Oregon, and the counties of Adams, Valley, Lemhi, Clark, and Fremont in the State of Idaho, and all of the counties in Idaho lying south thereof.

§ 957.5 Potatoes. "Potatoes" means all varieties of Irish potatoes grown within the aforesaid production area.

§ 957.6 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Irish potatoes according to those definitive characteristics now or hereafter recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 957.7 Certified seed potatoes. "Certified seed potatoes" means and includes all potatoes officially certified and tagged, marked, or otherwise appropriately identified, under the supervision of the official seed potato certifying agency of the State in which the potatoes are grown, or other seed certification agencies which the Secretary may designate.

§ 957.8 Handler. "Handler" is synonymous with shipper and means any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

§ 957.9 Ship or handle. "Ship" or "handle" means to pack, sell, transport, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of interstate or foreign commerce between the production area and any point outside thereof, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect any such commerce.

§ 957.10 Producer. "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potatoes for market.

§ 957.11 Committee. "Committee" means the administrative committee, called the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, established pursuant to § 957.20.

§ 957.12 Fiscal period. "Fiscal period" means the period beginning and ending on the dates approved by the Secretary pursuant to recommendations by the committee.

§ 957.13 Grade and size. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of potatoes, and "size" means any one of the officially established sizes of potatoes, as defined and set forth in:

(a) The United States Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1559 of this title), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(b) The United States Consumer Standards for Potatoes as issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (§§ 51.1575 to 51.1587 of this title), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon; or

(c) Standards for potatoes issued by the State from which the potatoes are shipped, or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 957.14 Export. "Export" means shipment of potatoes beyond the boundaries of continental United States.

§ 957.15 Pack. "Pack" means a quantity of potatoes in any type of container and which falls within specific weight limits or within specific grade and/or size limits, or any combination thereof, recommended by the committee and approved by the Secretary.

§ 957.16 Container. "Container" means a sack, box, bag, crate, hamper, basket, carton, package, barrel, or any other type of receptacle used in the packaging, transportation, sale, or other handling of potatoes.

§ 957.17 District. "District" means each of the geographical divisions of the production area established pursuant to § 957.22 or as reestablished pursuant to § 957.23.

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE

§ 957.20 Establishment and membership. (a) The Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee consisting of 8 members, of whom 5 shall be producers and 3 shall be handlers, is hereby established. For each member of the committee there shall be an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member.

(b) Each person selected as a committee member or alternate to represent producers shall be an individual who is a producer in the district for which selected or an officer or employee of a producer in such district, and shall be a resident thereof. A producer who handles potatoes other than of his own production shall qualify as a producer under this section, and §§ 957.24, 957.25, 957.27, and 957.29, only if the potatoes of his own production constituted 51 percent or more of the total quantity of potatoes handled by him during the portion of the then current season preceding his nomination.

(c) Each person selected as a committee member or alternate to represent handlers shall be an individual who is a handler or an officer or employee of a handler, and shall be a resident of the production area.

§ 957.21 Term of office. The term of office of committee members and alternates shall be for one year beginning on the first day of June and continuing until the following May 31. Committee members and alternates shall serve during the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, or during that portion thereof beginning on the date on which they qualify and continuing until the end thereof, and until their successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 957.22 Districts. For the purpose of selecting committee members, the following districts of the production area are hereby established:

(a) District No. 1. The counties of Oneida, Power, Bingham, Butte, Clark, and all counties lying east thereof in Idaho;

(b) District No. 2. Malheur County, Oregon, and counties of Owyhee, Elmore, Boise, Valley, and all counties lying west thereof in Idaho;

(c) District No. 3. The remaining designated counties in Idaho included in the production area, and not included in District 1 or District 2.

§ 957.23 Redistricting. The Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee, may reestablish districts within the production area and may reapportion committee membership among the various districts. In recommending any such changes in districts or representation, the committee shall give consideration to: (a) Shifts in potato acreage within districts and within the production area during recent years; (b) the importance of new potato production in its relation to existing districts; (c) the equitable relationship between the committee membership and districts; (d) economies to result for producers in promoting efficient administration due to redistricting or reapportionment of members within districts; and (e) other relevant factors.

§ 957.24 Selection. Members and alternates of the committee shall be selected by the Secretary on the following basis (unless otherwise apportioned pursuant to § 957.23) from nominations made pursuant to § 957.25 or from other eligible persons: (a) two producer members and one handler member, with their respective alternates, from District No. 1; (b) one producer member and one handler member, with their respective alternates, from District No. 2; and (c) two producer members and one handler member, with their respective alternates, from District No. 3.

§ 957.25 Nominations. For the selection by the Secretary of the members and alternates of the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, nominations may be made in the manner indicated in this section. Nominations for members and alternates may be submitted by producers or handlers, as the case may be, or groups of either thereof, on an elective basis or otherwise.

(a) In order to provide nominations for committee members and alternates, the committee shall hold, or cause to be held, prior to April 1 of each year, one or more meetings of producers and of handlers in each district to nominate committee members and alternates.

(b) In arranging for such meetings, the committee may, if it deems it to be desirable, utilize the services and facilities of existing organizations and agencies, and may combine its meetings with others.

(c) At each such meeting, at least one nominee shall be designated for each position as member and for each position as alternate member on the committee.

(d) Only producers may participate in designating nominees for producer members and alternates, and only handlers may participate in designating nominees for handler members and alternates.

(e) Nominations shall be supplied to the Secretary, in such manner and form as he may prescribe, not later than May 1 of each year.

(f) Each person who is both a handler and a producer may vote either as a handler or as a producer and may elect the group in which he will vote.

(g) Regardless of the number of districts in which a person produces or handles potatoes, each such person is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, in designating nominees for committee members and alternates. In the event a person is engaged in producing or handling potatoes in more than one district, such person shall elect the district within which he may participate, as aforesaid, in designating nominees. An eligible voter's privilege of casting only one vote, as aforesaid, shall be construed to permit a voter to cast one vote for each position to be filled in the district in which he elects to vote.

§ 957.26 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner specified by the Secretary pursuant to § 957.25, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select the committee members and alternates on the basis of the representation prescribed in this subpart.

§ 957.27 Acceptance. Any person selected by the Secretary as a committee member or as an alternate shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within ten days after being notified of such selection.

§ 957.28 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a committee member or as an alternate to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate, a successor for his unexpired term may be selected by the Secretary from nominations made in the manner specified in § 957.25 or the Secretary may select such committee member or alternate from previously unselected nominees on the current nominee list from the district involved. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, the Secretary may fill such vacancy without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of the representation provided for in § 957.24.

§ 957.29 Alternate members. An alternate member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate during such member's absence and may perform such other duties as may be assigned or requested by the committee. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member his alternate shall act for him until a successor to such member is selected and has qualified. The committee may request the attendance of one or more alternates at any or all meetings, notwithstanding the expected or actual presence of the respective members.

§ 957.30 Procedure. (a) Five of the members of the committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum; and at least five concurring votes shall be required to pass any motion or approve any committee action. At any assembled meeting, all votes shall be cast in person.

(b) The committee may provide for meetings by telephone, telegraph or other means of communication and any vote cast at such meeting shall be confirmed promptly in writing.

§ 957.31 Expenses and compensation. Committee members and their respective alternates shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in the exercise of their powers under this subpart, and may receive compensation at a rate, to be determined by the committee and approved by the Secretary, not to exceed $10.00 for each day, or portion thereof, spent in attending to committee business.

§ 957.32 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this subpart in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violation of the provisions of this subpart; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this subpart.

§ 957.33 Duties. It shall be the duty of the Committee:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(b) To select a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary, to select subcommittees of committee members, and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable;

(c) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of each such person;

(d) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes, and to engage in such research and service activities which relate to the handling or marketing of potatoes as may be approved by the Secretary;

(e) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(f) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative;

(g) To make available to producers and handlers the committee voting record on recommended regulations and on other matters of policy;

(h) At the beginning of each fiscal period to submit to the Secretary a budget of its expenses for such fiscal period, together with a report thereon;

(i) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal period, and at such other time as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this subpart; a copy of each such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of the committee for inspection by producers and handlers; and

(j) To consult, cooperate and exchange information when deemed desirable by the committee with other potato marketing committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper committee activities and objectives under this subpart.

BUDGET, EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 957.40 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary may find are reasonable and likely to be incurred during each fiscal period for its maintenance and functioning, and for such purposes as the Secretary, pursuant to this subpart, determines to be appropriate. Handlers shall share such expenses upon the basis of a fiscal period. Each handler's share of such expense shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof during a fiscal period and the total quantity of potatoes handled by all handlers as first handlers thereof during the same period.

§ 957.41 Budget. At the beginning of each fiscal period, and as may be necessary thereafter, the committee shall prepare an estimated budget of income and expenditures necessary for the administration of this part. The committee may recommend a rate of assessment calculated to provide adequate funds to defray its proposed expenses as authorized in § 957.40. The committee shall promptly submit such budget promptly to the Secretary with an accompanying report showing the basis for its calculations.

§ 957.42 Assessments. (a) The funds to cover the committee's expenses pursuant to § 957.40 shall be acquired by the levying of assessments upon handlers as provided in this subpart. Each handler who ships potatoes as the first handler thereof shall pay assessments to the committee upon demand, which assessments shall be in payment of such handler's pro rata share of such expenses.

(b) Assessments shall be levied upon handlers at rates established by the Secretary, but not to exceed $1.00 per carload, or equivalent quantity. Such rates may be established upon the basis of the committee's recommendations or other available information.

(c) At any time during or subsequent to a given fiscal period, the committee may recommend the approval of an amended budget and an increase in the rate of assessment. Upon the basis of such recommendation, or other available information, the Secretary may approve an amended budget and increase the rate of assessment. Such increase shall be applicable to all potatoes assessable under this part and handled by the first handler thereof during such fiscal period.

§ 957.43 Accounting. (a) All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part.

(b) The Secretary may at any time require the committee, its members and alternates, employees, agents, and all other persons to account for all receipts and disbursements, funds, property, and records for which they are responsible. Whenever any person ceases to be a member or alternate of the committee, he shall account for all receipts, disbursements, funds, and property (including but not limited to books and other records) pertaining to the committee's activities for which he is responsible, and deliver all such property and funds in his hands to such successor, agency, or person as may be designated by the Secretary, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor, agency, or designated person, the right to all of such property and funds and all claims vested in such person.

(c) The committee may make recommendations to the Secretary for one or more of the members thereof, or any other person or persons to act as trustee or trustees for holding records, funds, or any other committee property during periods of suspension of this part, or during any period or periods when regulations are not in effect and, if the Secretary determines such action appropriate, he may direct that such person or persons shall act as trustee or trustees for the committee.

§ 957.44 Refunds. At the end of each fiscal period funds arising from the excess of assessments collected over expenses shall be accounted for as follows:

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of such excess assessments at the end of a fiscal period shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal period unless he demands payment thereof, in which event such proportionate refund shall be paid to him;

(b) The Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee, may determine that it is appropriate for the maintenance and functioning of the committee that the funds remaining at the end of a fiscal period which are in excess of the expenses necessary for committee operations during such period may be carried over into following periods as a reserve. Such reserve may be established at an amount not to exceed approximately one-half of an average fiscal period's operational expenses; and such reserve may be used to cover the necessary expenses of liquidation, in the event of termination of this part, and to cover the expenses incurred for the maintenance and functioning of the committee during any fiscal period when there is a crop failure, or during any period of suspension of any or all of the provisions of this part.

(c) Upon termination of this part, any funds not required to defray the necessary expenses of liquidation shall be disposed of in such manner as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate. To the extent practical, such funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

REGULATIONS

§ 957.50 Marketing policy—(a) Preparation. Prior to or at the same time as recommendations are made pursuant to § 957.51, the committee shall consider, and prepare, a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes. In developing its marketing policy the committee shall investigate relevant supply and demand conditions for potatoes. In such investigations the committee shall give appropriate consideration to the following:

(1) Market prices for potatoes, including prices by grade, size, and quality, in different packs, and in different containers;

(2) Supplies of potatoes by grade, size, and quality in the production area and in other potato producing areas;

(3) The trend and level of consumer income;

(4) Establishing and maintaining orderly marketing conditions for potatoes;

(5) Orderly marketing of potatoes as will be in the public interest; and

(6) Other relevant factors.

(b) Reports. (1) The committee shall promptly submit a report to the Secretary setting forth the aforesaid marketing policy and shall notify producers and handlers of the contents of such report.

(2) In the event it becomes advisable to deviate from such marketing policy because of changed supply and demand conditions, the committee shall formulate a new or revised marketing policy in the manner set forth in this section. The committee shall promptly submit a report thereon to the Secretary and notify producers and handlers of the contents of such report on the new or revised marketing policy.

§ 957.51 Recommendation for regulations. Whenever the committee deems it advisable that the handling of potatoes be regulated pursuant to § 957.52, or § 957.53, or both, it shall recommend to the Secretary grade, size, quality, or maturity regulation, or any combination thereof, or amendment thereto, or modification, suspension, or termination thereof, whenever it finds that such regulation, as provided in such sections, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

§ 957.52 Issuance of regulations. (a) The Secretary shall limit the handling of potatoes whenever he finds from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that such regulation will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such limitation may:

(1) Regulate in any or all portions of the production area, the handling of particular grades, sizes, qualities, or maturities, or any combination thereof, of any or all varieties of potatoes during any period; or

(2) Regulate the shipment of particular grades, sizes, qualities, or maturities of potatoes differently, for different varieties, for different portions of the production area, for different packs, for different containers, or for any combination of the foregoing, during any period; or

(3) Fix the size, capacity, weight, dimensions, or pack of the container, or containers, which may be used in the packaging or handling of potatoes, or both; or

(4) Regulate the shipment of potatoes by establishing, in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity.

§ 957.53 Shipments for specified purposes. Whenever the Secretary finds, upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that it will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall modify, suspend, or terminate regulations under or pursuant to § 957.42, § 957.52, or § 957.65, or any combination thereof, in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the following purposes:

(a) Export;

(b) Relief or charity;

(c) Livestock feed;

(d) Certified seed potatoes;

(e) Processing into specified products, and

(f) Such other purposes which may be specified by the Committee, with the approval of the Secretary.

§ 957.54 Minimum quantity exemption. The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish, for any or all portions of the production area, minimum quantities below which shipments will be free from regulations issued or in effect pursuant to §§ 957.40 to 957.65, inclusive, or any combination thereof.

§ 957.55 Notification of regulation. The Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations issued or of any modifications, suspension, or termination thereof. The committee shall give reasonable notice thereof to handlers.

§ 957.56 Safeguards. (a) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent shipments pursuant to § 957.53 from entering channels of trade and other outlets for other than the specific purpose authorized therefor.

(b) Safeguards, provided by this section, may include, but shall not be limited to, requirements that handlers:

(1) Shall obtain the inspection required by § 957.65 or pay the assessment provided by § 957.42, or both, in connection with the potato shipments effected in accordance with § 957.53; and

(2) Shall obtain Certificates of Privilege from the committee for shipments of potatoes effected or to be effected under provisions of § 957.53.

(c) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe rules governing the issuance and the contents of Certificates of Privilege.

(d) The committee may rescind, or deny to any handler, Certificates of Privilege if proof satisfactory to the committee is obtained that potatoes shipped by him for the purposes stated in § 957.53 were handled contrary to the provisions of this section.

(e) The committee shall make reports to the Secretary, as requested, showing the number of applications for such certificates, the quantity of potatoes covered by such applications for such certificates, the number of such applications denied and certificates granted, the quantity of potatoes shipped under duly issued certificates, and such other information as may be requested by the Secretary.

INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION

§ 957.65 Inspection and certification. (a) During any period in which regulations are in effect pursuant to §§ 957.42, 957.52, or § 957.53, or any combination thereof, no handler shall handle potatoes unless such potatoes are inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, and are covered by a valid inspection certificate, except when relieved from such requirements pursuant to recommendations by the committee and approved by the Secretary.

(2) Regrading, resorting, or repacking any lot of potatoes shall invalidate any prior inspection certificates covering such potatoes insofar as the requirements of this section are concerned. During any period in which shipments of potatoes are regulated, as aforesaid, no handler shall handle potatoes after they have been regraded, resorted, repacked, or in any way further prepared for market, unless such potatoes are inspected and covered by a valid inspection certificate as required in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Insofar as the requirements of this section are concerned, the length of time for which an inspection certificate shall be valid may be established by the committee with the approval of the Secretary; and such length of time may be different for shipments for different purposes.

(d) When potatoes are inspected in accordance with the requirements of this section, a copy of each inspection certificate issued shall be made available promptly to the committee by the inspection service.

COMPLIANCE

§ 957.70 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no handler shall ship potatoes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with provisions of this subpart, and no handler shall ship potatoes except in conformity to the provisions of this subpart.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 957.80 Reports. Upon the request of the committee, with approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to the committee, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, such information as will enable the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this subpart. The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, or rescind any requests for reports pursuant to this section.

§ 957.81 Right of the Secretary. The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the said committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 957.82 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached to this subpart, and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in this subpart.

§ 957.83 Termination. (a) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal period whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of producers who, during the preceding fiscal period, have been engaged in the production for market of potatoes: Provided, That such majority has, during such period, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such potatoes produced for market; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before April 30 of the then current fiscal period.

(d) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

§ 957.84 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart the then functioning members of the committee shall continue as trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, of all the funds and property then in the possession of or under control of the committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(b) The said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall upon request of the Secretary execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant thereto.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the committee or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the committee and upon the said trustees.

§ 957.85 Effect of termination or amendments. (a) Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendments to either thereof, shall not (1) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (2) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulation issued under this subpart, or (3) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

(b) The persons who are committee members and alternates on the effective date of this subpart shall continue in office until their successors have been selected and have qualified. All rules and regulations issued or approved by the Secretary pursuant to this part (Order No. 57, as amended) and not in conflict herewith, which are in effect immediately prior to the date of this amendment shall continue in effect under this subpart as originally issued, or subsequently modified, until such rules and regulations are changed, modified, or suspended in accordance with this subpart.

§ 957.86 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 957.87 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

§ 957.88 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers, granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 957.89 Personal liability. No member or alternate of the committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 957.90 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 957.91 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed, from time to time, by the committee or by the Secretary.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of July 1958, to become effective September 1, 1958.

[SEAL] MARVIN L. McLAIN,
Acting Secretary.

966.110 Separability of provisions.
966.111

AUTHORITY: §§ 966.0 to 966.111 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c.

§ 966.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Northern Louisiana marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to receipts of other source milk allocated to Class I, producer milk, associated producer milk and Class I milk distributed on routes in the marketing area by a nonfluid milk plant.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1958.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued June 24, 1958 and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued July 14, 1958. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1958, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c (9) of the act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who participated in a referendum and who during the determined representative period (May 1958) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Northern Louisiana marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 966.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 966.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States as is authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 966.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as is authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 966.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

§ 966.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended known as the "Capper-Volstead Act"; and

(b) To have full authority in the sale of milk of its members and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 966.6 Northern Louisiana, Marketing Area. "Northern Louisiana, Marketing Area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all territory within the boundaries of the Parishes of Bossier, Caddo, Claiborne, Desoto, Lincoln, Morehouse, Ouachita, Red River, Union, and Webster, all in the State of Louisiana.

§ 966.7 Distributing plant. "Distributing plant" means any plant from which a volume of Class I milk equal to an average of more than 1,500 pounds per day or not less than 4 percent of the Grade A milk and skim milk received from producers and other plants is disposed of during the month through routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets (except fluid milk plants) located in the marketing area.

§ 966.8 Supply plant. "Supply plant" means any plant from which "Grade A" milk or skim milk is received during the month at a distributing plant:

(a) In any of the months of March through June; and

(b) On ten or more days or in an amount equal to a daily average of not less than 8,300 pounds in any of the months of July through February.

§ 966.9 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means a distributing plant or a supply plant.

§ 966.10 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means (a) a fluid milk plant and (b) any milk processing or packaging plant from which Class I milk is disposed of through routes (including routes operated by vendors) or through plant stores to retail or wholesale outlets located in the marketing area.

§ 966.11 Nonfluid milk plant. "Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk manufacturing, processing, or packaging plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 966.12 Producer. "Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with Grade "A" inspection requirements for milk for fluid consumption which milk is (a) received at a fluid milk plant or (b) diverted for the account of a handler from such plant during the month to a nonfluid milk plant: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted: And provided further, That this definition shall not include any such person with respect to milk produced by him which is subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing order issued pursuant to the Act.

§ 966.13 Producer milk. "Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat in milk produced by a producer and received at the fluid milk plant directly from producers or diverted pursuant to § 966.12.

§ 966.13a Associated producer. "Associated producer" means a person who, with respect to any milk not accepted at a fluid milk plant or diverted from it by a handler in any month, meets all of the following qualifications:

(a) Produces milk in conformity with the sanitation requirements of any duly constituted health authority relating to milk for fluid consumption;

(b) Delivered milk for not less than 60 days during the preceding months of September through December, which milk was received at or diverted from a fluid milk plant; and

(c) Certifies in writing to the market administrator, on or before the first day of any month following the first month in which any of his milk is not accepted at or diverted from a fluid milk plant, that he is ready and willing to deliver his milk to such fluid milk plant, and does so perform in response to appropriate request from the handler through the market administrator.

§ 966.13b Associated producer milk. "Associated producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat sold during the month by associated producers to a nonfluid milk plant(s) which, during such month, utilized skim milk and butterfat in products designated pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (1): Provided, That the sale of such milk by associated producers is reported to and verified by the market administrator pursuant to § 966.32 (c).

§ 966.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the month in the form of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 966.41 (a) (1), except (1) such products received from other fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products designated as Class II milk pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (1) and (6) from any source (including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed or converted to another product during the month.

§ 966.15 Handler. "Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of one or more approved plants.

§ 966.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who produces milk and operates an approved plant but who receives no milk from dairy farmers or producers.

§ 966.18 Base-operating period. "Base-operating period" means the months of February through July.

§ 966.19 Base milk. "Base milk" means producer milk received by a handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler during the base-operating period, which milk is not in excess of bases computed pursuant to § 966.80.

§ 966.20 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means producer milk received by a handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler during the base-operating period, which milk is in excess of the base milk received during the month, and shall include all milk received from producers for whom no daily average base can be computed pursuant to § 966.80.

§ 966.21 Chicago butter price. "Chicago butter price" means the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) per pound of 92-score bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported during the month by the Department.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 966.25 Designation. The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 966.26 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 966.27 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of funds provided by § 966.94 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 966.93 necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties);

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this part, and upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as the Secretary may request;

(g) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk and butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made reports pursuant to §§ 966.30 to 966.32, or payments pursuant to §§ 966.90 to 966.95, inclusive.

(i) On or before the 12th day after the end of each month, report to each cooperative association which so requests the amount and class utilization of milk received by each handler from producers who are members of such cooperative association. For the purpose of this report the milk so received shall be prorated to each class in the proportion that the total receipts of milk from producers by such handler were used in each class;

(j) Publicly announce, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 966.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 966.52 (a), both for the current month; and the minimum price for Class II milk pursuant to § 966.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to § 966.52 (b), both for the preceding month;

(2) On or before the 10th day of each month, the uniform price(s) computed pursuant to § 966.72 or § 966.73 as applicable, and the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 966.91.

(k) Mail to each handler at his last known address a statement showing for such handler;

(1) On or before the 5th day of the month the names and addresses of associated producers assigned to such handler;

(2) On or before the 12th day after the end of the month (i) the amount and value of producer milk in each class and the total thereof; (ii) for the months of the base-operating period, the amounts and value of his base and excess milk, respectively; and

(3) On or before the 10th day of the month the quantity and butterfat test of associated producer milk assigned to such handler and the amount in payment thereof to be remitted to the market administrator for payment to associated producers pursuant § 966.90 (f): Provided, That during the base-operating period such notification shall include the quantity and butterfat test of associated producer milk designated as base and excess milk and the amount thereon to be remitted.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 966.30 Reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 7th day after the end of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator for each of his fluid milk plants as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk received from each producer and, for the months of the base-operating period, the quantities of base milk and excess milk;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 966.41 (a) (1) received from fluid milk plants of other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk;

(d) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in inventories of products designated as Class I milk pursuant to § 966.41 (a) on hand at the beginning and end of the month;

(e) Utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section including a statement of the disposition of Class I milk outside the marketing area; and

(f) Such other information with respect to receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 966.31 Payroll reports. On or before the 20th day of each month, each handler, except a producer-handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for deliveries of milk for the preceding month for each of his fluid milk plants which shall show:

(a) The name and address of each producer;

(b) The total pounds and the average butterfat test of milk received from such producer;

(c) The number of days, if less than the entire month, for which milk was received from such producer; and, for the months of the base-operating period, such producer's deliveries of base milk and excess milk;

(d) The rate and net amount of payment to each producer; and

(e) The nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments.

§ 966.32 Other reports. (a) Each producer-handler and each handler operating a nonfluid milk plant shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe;

(b) Each handler, who causes milk to be diverted for his account directly from a producer's farm to a nonfluid milk plant, shall prior to such diversion report to the market administrator and to the cooperative association of which such producer is a member his intention to divert such milk, the proposed date or dates of such diversion, and name of the plant to which such milk is to be diverted; and

(c) Each associated producer shall submit to the market administrator on or before the 3d day of the month, a statement of the quantity and butterfat test of his milk sold during the preceding month to a nonfluid milk plant which during such month utilized skim milk and butterfat in Class II products pursuant to § 966.41 (b) on or before the 12th day of the month, payment statements, weight slips, or other acceptable evidence to verify the quantity and butterfat test of milk sold pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 966.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat from any source;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk, skim milk, cream and other milk products handled;

(c) The pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream and milk products on hand at the beginning and end of each month; and

(d) Payments to producers and cooperative associations including any deductions authorized by producers or cooperative association and disbursements of money so deducted.

§ 966.34 Retention of records. All books and records required this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act, or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case, the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 966.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat at fluid milk plants which is required to be reported for the month pursuant to § 966.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 966.41 to 966.46.

§ 966.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 966.43 and 966.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat: (1) Disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk and drinks, cream, cultured sour cream, and any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk except that classified pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) and (5) of this section; (2) used to produce concentrated fluid milk; and (3) not specially accounted for as Class II milk.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat:

(1) Used to produce eggnog, aerated cream products, ice cream, ice cream mix, ice milk, ice milk mix, frozen desserts, evaporated milk, condensed milk and milk products packaged in hermetically sealed containers or any other product not specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section;

(2) Disposed of and used for livestock feed or skim milk dumped during April, May and June: Provided, That in the case of skim milk dumped, the market administrator is given at least 24 hours' notice of the handler's intention to make such disposition and the amount involved;

(3) Contained in inventory of milk and milk products designated as Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section on hand at the end of the month;

(4) In shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in receipts from producers and other source milk;

(5) Disposed of to commercial bakeries or food product manufacturing plants (other than nonfluid milk plants) which do not dispose of milk for fluid consumption; and

(6) In frozen cream.

§ 966.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall assign shrinkage at the fluid milk plant(s) of a handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat classified as Class II milk; and

(b) Assign the resulting amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk.

§ 966.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified as Class II milk;

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 966.44 Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 966.41 (a) (1), to the fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization as Class II milk is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 966.30: Provided, That the skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the plant of the transferee-handler after the subtraction of other source milk pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (2) and (b) and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be classified as Class I milk: And provided further, That if either or both handlers have other source milk during the month, the skim milk or butterfat so transferred shall be classified at both plants so as to allocate the greatest possible Class I utilization to the producer milk of both handlers;

(b) As Class I milk, if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of products designated as Class I milk in § 966.41 (a) (1);

(c) As Class I milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant, unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The transferring handler claims Class II utilization in a product specified in § 966.41 (b);

(2) The operator of such nonfluid milk plant maintains adequate books and records showing the receipts and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant, which are made available if requested by the market administrator for the purpose of verification; and

(3) The Class I milk, as defined pursuant to § 966.41 (a) (1) in such nonfluid milk plant does not exceed the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in milk received during the month from dairy farmers, who the market administrator determines constitute the regular source of supply for such plant: Provided, That any Class I milk in excess of receipts from such dairy farmers shall be assigned to milk, skim milk or cream so transferred or diverted.

§ 966.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class. For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat solids content of such product together with all of the water originally associated with such solids content.

§ 966.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After making the computations pursuant to § 966.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of producer milk received at the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler each month as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk assigned to producer milk pursuant to § 966.42 (b);

(2) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk as defined pursuant to § 966.14;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory on hand at the beginning of the month and classified pursuant to § 966.41 (b) (3);

(4) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class the skim milk contained in products designated as Class I milk in § 966.41 (a) (1) received from the fluid milk plants of other handlers, according to the classification of such skim milk as determined pursuant to § 966.44 (a);

(5) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(6) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk contained in producer milk, subtract such excess from the remaining pounds of skim milk in series beginning with Class II milk. Any amount so subtracted shall be known as "overage."

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section;

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of the Class I and Class II milk allocated to producer milk.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 966.50 Basic formula price. The basic formula price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the highest of the prices computed, pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent.

(a) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department, divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 4.0.

Pet Milk Company, New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Company, Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Company, West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the Chicago butter price, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 4.0.

(2) From the simple average as computed by the market administrator of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound for nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.96.

(c) The average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid or to be paid for ungraded milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department.

§ 966.51 Class prices. Subject to the provisions of §§ 966.52 and 966.53, the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his fluid milk plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk price. Through June 30, 1960, the minimum price shall be the basic formula price for the preceding month plus $2.00 for each of the months of March, April, May and June, and plus $2.40 for all other months; and

(b) Class II milk price. The minimum price shall be the price computed pursuant to § 966.50 (c) for the months of March, April, May and June and the higher of the prices computed pursuant to § 966.50 (b) or (c) for all other months, rounded in each case to the nearest one-tenth cent.

§ 966.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. For milk containing more or less than 4.0 percent butterfat, the class prices calculated pursuant to § 966.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth percent butterfat at the appropriate rate, rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent, determined as follows:

(a) Class I price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the preceding month by 0.120;

(b) Class II price. Multiply the Chicago butter price for the current month by 0.110.

§ 966.53 Location adjustment to handlers. For milk received from producers at a fluid milk plant located more than 50 but not more than 60 miles by shortest hard surfaced highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from either the City Hall in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana, whichever is closer and which is classified as Class I, the prices determined pursuant to § 966.51 (a) shall be reduced 12 cents and by an additional one cent for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 60 miles.

§ 966.54 Use of equivalent price. If for any reason a price quotation required by this part for computing class prices, or for any other purpose, is not available in the manner described, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to such required price.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 966.60 Producer-handler. Sections 966.40 to 966.46, 966.50 to 966.53, 966.70 to 966.72, 966.80 to 966.82, and 966.90 to 966.96 shall not apply to producer-handler.

§ 966.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders. (a) An approved plant will be considered to be a nonfluid milk plant during the month for the purpose of this part if (1) a larger volume of Class I milk is disposed of from such plant in the marketing area of another order issued pursuant to the act than is distributed in the Northern Louisiana marketing area (i) through retail or wholesale outlets (other than distributing plants) during the month, or (ii) to distributing plant(s) in each of the preceding months of September through December, and (2) such plant would be subject to the classification and the pricing provision of such other order.

(b) The operator of such approved plant shall with respect to the total receipts and utilization or disposition of skim milk and butterfat at the plant, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require in lieu of the reports required pursuant to § 966.30 and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 966.70 Net obligation to handlers. The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price and add together resulting amounts;

(b) Add an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (6) and (b) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add an amount computed as follows;

(1) Determine the pounds, if any, that the skim milk or butterfat in inventory subtracted from Class I milk pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (3) and (b) is not in excess of the quantity in producer milk classified as Class II milk (other than as shrinkage) for the preceding month; and

(2) Multiply such pounds by the difference between the Class I price in the current month and the Class II price in the preceding month adjusted by the appropriate butterfat differentials;

(d) Add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months;

§ 966.71 Computation of aggregate value used to determine uniform prices. For each month, the market administrator shall compute for each handler who operates a fluid milk plant an aggregate value from which to determine the uniform price(s) per hundredweight for producer milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 966.70 an amount equal to the volume of associated producer milk assigned to such handler pursuant to § 966.27 (k) (3) multiplied by the Class II price;

(b) Add or subtract for each one-tenth of one percent that the average butterfat content of producer milk received by such handler and associated producer milk assigned to such handler is less or more, respectively, than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers determined pursuant to § 966.91 and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk and associated producer milk;

(c) Add an amount equal to the total deductions to be made pursuant to § 966.92; and

(d) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating a fraction of a cent in computing the uniform price(s) for such handler for the preceding month.

§ 966.72 Computation of uniform prices. For each month which is not in the base-operating period, the market administrator shall compute the uniform price for producer milk received by each handler by dividing the aggregate value computed pursuant to § 966.71 by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by, and associated producer milk assigned to, such handler. The result less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content at a fluid milk plant located not more than 50 miles from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana.

§ 966.73 Computation of the uniform prices for base milk and for excess milk. For each of the months of the base-operating period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler a uniform price for base milk and for excess milk as follows:

(a) Compute the value, subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, of excess milk received by such handler by multiplying the quantity of such milk by the Class II price;

(b) Compute the value of base milk received by such handler by subtracting the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section from the value obtained pursuant to § 966.71: Provided, That if such resulting value is greater than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of such base milk by the Class I price, such value in excess thereof shall be added to the value computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section to the extent the excess price shall not exceed the base price. Any additional value remaining shall be prorated on a volume basis between excess and base milk;

(c) Divide the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section by the hundredweight of base milk. This result less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content at a fluid milk plant located not more than 50 miles from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana; and

(d) Add the value represented by any fraction of a cent subtracted pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section to the value obtained pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and divide by the hundredweight of excess milk. This result less any fraction of a cent per hundredweight shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content at a fluid milk plant, located not more than 50 miles from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana.

DETERMINATION OF BASE

§ 966.80 Computation of daily average base for each producer. The daily average base for each producer shall be an amount calculated by the market administrator as follows: Divide the total pounds of milk received by the handler(s) from such producer during the base-forming period by the number of day's production a producer delivered during the base-forming period, but not less than 90.

§ 966.81 Computation of base. The base of each producer to be applied during the base-operating period shall be a quantity of milk calculated by multiplying the daily base of such producer by the number of days for which such producer's milk was received by such handler during the month.

§ 966.82 Base rules. The following rules shall apply for the establishment and transfer of bases:

(a) The base shall be assigned to the producer for whose account milk is received by a handler during the base-forming period and to each person for whose account producer milk was delivered to a plant that did not qualify as a fluid milk plant during each month of the base-forming period but which qualifies as a fluid milk plant during any of the months of February through July, bases shall be assigned on deliveries at such plant in the same manner as if such plant was a fluid milk plant during each month of the base-forming period; and

(b) An entire base shall be transferred by the market administrator to another person upon receipt of an application form, approved by the market administrator, and signed by the baseholder(s), or his heirs, and by the person to whom such base is transferred subject to the following condition:

(1) If a base is transferred to a producer already holding a base, a new base shall be computed by adding together the producer milk deliveries of the transferee and transferor during the base-forming period and dividing the total by the number of days from the first day of delivery by either the transferee or transferor during the base-forming period to the last day of December inclusive but not less than 90 days.

§ 966.83 Announcement of established bases. On or before the 25th day after the end of the base-forming period, the market administrator shall notify each producer and the handler receiving milk from such producer of the daily base established by such producer.

PAYMENTS

§ 966.90 Payments to producers. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows:

(a) On or before the 28th day of each month, for milk received during the first 15 days of the month at not less than the Class II price for the preceding month;

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month which is not in the base-operating period for milk received during such month, an amount computed at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight pursuant to § 966.72 subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 966.91 and 966.92, respectively, plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producers; and less (1) payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, (2) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 966.93 and (3) proper deductions authorized by such producer;

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the months of the base-operating period for milk received during such month, after allowance for payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producer, marketing service deductions pursuant to § 966.93 and proper deductions authorized by such producer, an amount computed:

(1) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for base milk computed pursuant to § 966.73 for the quantity of base milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 966.91 and 966.92, respectively; and

(2) At not less than the uniform price per hundredweight for excess milk computed pursuant to § 966.73 for the quantity of excess milk received from such producer during the month, subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to §§ 966.91 and 966.92, respectively;

(d) On or before the 11th and 25th days of each month, in lieu of the payment pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) and (c) of this section, respectively, each handler shall pay to a cooperative association which so requests, with respect to producers for whose milk such cooperative association is authorized to collect payment, an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers;

(e) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) or (d) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer or cooperative association from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The daily and total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

(f) On or before the 12th day after the end of the month, each handler having associated producer milk shall remit to the market administrator for payment to associated producers an amount computed by multiplying the quantity of associated producer milk assigned to such handler pursuant to § 966.27 (k) (3) by the difference between such handler's uniform price(s) as determined pursuant to § 966.72 or § 966.73, as applicable, and the Class II price determined pursuant to § 966.51 (b). Such amounts shall be maintained by the market administrator in a separate fund out of which he shall, on or before the 16th day after the end of the month, make appropriate payment to each associated producer, such payments to be verified pursuant to § 966.32 (c) (2).

§ 966.91 Butterfat differential to producers. The applicable uniform price to be paid each producer pursuant to § 966.90 shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 4.0 percent, respectively, at the rate determined by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in producer milk allocated to Class I and Class II milk pursuant to § 966.46 (b) by the respective butterfat differential for each class, dividing the sum of such values by the total pounds of such butterfat, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

§ 966.92 Location differentials. In making payment to producers and cooperative association pursuant to § 966.90 a handler may deduct, with respect to producer and associated producer milk received at or assigned to a fluid milk plant located more than 50 miles by shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the nearer of the city halls in Minden or Monroe, Louisiana, the amount per hundredweight applicable to such plant pursuant to § 966.53.

§ 966.93 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 966.90 shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as may be prescribed by the Secretary and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association.

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the service set forth in paragraph (a) of this section and for whom a cooperative association is authorized to receive payment for marketing services as set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers and shall pay such deductions to the cooperative association entitled to receive it, on or before the 15th day after the end of the month during which such milk was received. Such deductions shall be accompanied by a statement showing the quantity of milk for which such deduction was computed for each such producer. In lieu of such statement, the handler may request the market administrator to furnish such cooperative association the information reported for such producers pursuant to § 966.31.

§ 966.94 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler except a producer-handler, shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within the month of (a) other source milk which is allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 966.46 (a) (2) and (b); (b) producer milk including such handler's own production; (c) Class I milk distributed during the month on routes (including routes operated by vendors) to retail or wholesale outlets located in the marketing area from a nonfluid milk plant other than a plant as defined under § 966.61; and (d) associated producer milk.

§ 966.95 Adjustment of accounts. Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler, or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 966.96 Termination of obligation. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money;

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representative all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler and said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this subpart to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this subpart shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8 (c) (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION

§ 966.100 Effective time. The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 966.101.

§ 966.101 Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provisions of this part whenever he finds this part or any provisions of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 966.102 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 966.103 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books, and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 966.110 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his Agent or Representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 966.111 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this part, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of July 1958, to be effective on and after the 1st day of August 1958.

TITLE 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 20—STANDARDS FOR PROTECTION AGAINST RADIATION

TREATMENT OR DISPOSAL BY INCINERATION

The following amendment is designed to remove an ambiguity in the current regulation and to assure that no licensee shall treat or dispose of any licensed material by incineration without prior Commission approval of his proposed procedures.

Inasmuch as this amendment is designed to clarify an existing regulation and not to effect any change in the Commission's procedures and requirements, the Atomic Energy Commission has found that general notice of proposed rule making and public procedure thereon are unnecessary. The Commission will, however, give consideration to any comments or suggestions concerning the amendment. All interested persons who desire to submit written comments and suggestions relating to the following amendment should send them to the United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

Effective thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a new § 20.305 is added to Title 10, Chapter I, Part 20—

Standards for Protection Against Radiation, to read as follows:

§ 20.305 Treatment or disposal by incineration. No licensee shall treat or dispose of licensed material by incineration except as specifically approved by the Commission, pursuant to §§ 20.103 (a) and 20.302.

(Sec. 161, 68 Stat. 948, as amended; 42 U. S. C. 2201)

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 7th day of July 1958.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Subchapter B—Food and Food Products

[Docket No. FDC-63]

PART 27—CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED FRUIT JUICES; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; QUALITY; AND FILL OF CONTAINER

HONEY DESIGNATED AS OPTIONAL INGREDIENT OF CANNED PRUNE JUICE

In the matter of establishing a definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice, a water extract of dried prunes:

In the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 30, 1958 (23 F. R. 3779), the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to the authority of section 701 (e) (3) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919; 21 U. S. C. 371), which authority was delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (22 F. R. 1045), published findings of fact and a proposed order based upon the evidence submitted at the public hearing held in the above-identified matter. No objections were filed to the proposed order within the time limit specified therein.

Now, therefore, in accordance with the authority vested in me by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371) the following findings of fact and order are hereby promulgated:

Findings of fact.[1] 1. On May 25, 1955, the National Canners Association submitted a proposal requesting that there be established a definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice, a water extract of dried prunes. As relevant to this proceeding, the request of the National Canners Association proposed that honey, along with other designated sweetening ingredients, should be provided for in the standard as optional ingredients. Subsequently, the National Canners Association modified their proposal by deleting the provisions that had listed sweetening ingredients, including honey, as optional ingredients of the food to be standardized. The proposal, modified as requested, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 28, 1955 (20 F. R. 8125). (R. 4–5, 145–6, 294–5; Ex. 1, 2, 3)

2. W. F. Straub and Company, Chicago, Illinois, a canner of prune juice who had for many years added a small amount of honey to the article, protested the failure of the proposed standard to list honey as a permitted optional ingredient. The order ruling on the proposal was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 17, 1956 (21 F. R. 1094), and it did not list honey as a permitted optional ingredient in the definition and standard of identity for the food. To this order W. F. Straub and Company filed a formal objection and requested a public hearing on the issue of providing for the optional use of honey in prune juice. (R. 6–8, 84–6, 89, 268, 304; Ex. 2, 4, 5, 12)

3. At the hearing held upon the Straub Company's objections, the evidence established that a significant number of consumers and persons participating in the taste tests were able to detect the difference between prune juice with 2 percent to 3 percent honey added and prune juice without honey. Many of those participating in the taste tests expressed a preference for prune juice with honey. It appears that honey adds flavoring other than sweetness and makes prune juice more palatable to some consumers. Because of the variation in the dried prunes used, particularly variations in tartness, it is advisable to allow a variation in the amount of honey added. The minimum amount of honey that should be used is 2 percent by weight and the maximum is 3 percent by weight. (R. 57, 84, 88–9, 90–122, 150–1, 204–7, 211, 225, 292, 320–36; Ex. 7, 9, 14, 16, 17, 21, 25, 26, 27–30)

4. The witnesses testifying at the hearing in support of the use of honey as an optional ingredient advocated that the article with honey should have not less than 18.5 percent prune solids, which is the same minimum value for prune solids in the article without honey. With this provision in the standard, it would not be cheaper to add honey to the prune juice. (R. 58, 84, 115–6, 122–9, 208–10; Ex. 4, 14, 18)

5. While many of those participating in the taste tests expressed a preference for prune juice with honey, others expressed a preference for unsweetened prune juice and for prune juice without honey. The evidence of record supports the use of honey in the range of 2 percent to 3 percent. This is a relatively small proportion of the food. It will promote fair dealing for the standard to require that the prune juice with added honey be labeled to show the percent of honey that it contains. A reasonable label statement is "with _____ honey" or "_____ honey added," the blank being filled in with the percent by weight of honey in the finished food, or with the statement "between 2 and 3 percent." (R. 57, 84, 90–111, 144, 150–2, 204–7, 221, 225, 259–60, 278–84, 288, 306, 307–8; Ex. 16, 17, 21, 26–30)

Conclusion. Upon consideration of the entire record and the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to modify the definition and standard of identity for canned prune juice, a water extract of dried prunes, by listing honey, in a quantity not less than 2 percent and not more than 3 percent by weight, as a permitted optional ingredient and by designating such optional ingredient for label declaration by a statement informative as to the relatively small proportion of honey in the finished food.

Wherefore: It is ordered, That § 27.60 (21 CFR, 1957 Supp., 27.60) be amended to read as follows:

§ 27.60 Canned prune juice; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Canned prune juice is the food prepared from a water extract of dried prunes and contains not less than 18.5 percent by weight of water-soluble solids extracted from dried prunes. The quantity of prune solids may be adjusted by the concentration, dilution, or both, of the water extract or extracts made. Such food may contain one or more of the optional acidifying ingredients specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, in a quantity sufficient to render the food slightly tart, and it may contain honey added within the quantitative limits prescribed by paragraph (b) (2) of this section. Such food is sealed in a container and so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

(b) The optional ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are:

(1) One or any combination of two or more of the following acidifying ingredients:

(i) Lemon juice.
(ii) Lime juice.
(iii) Citric acid.

(2) Honey, in a quantity not less than 2 percent and not more than 3 percent by weight of the finished food.

(c) (1) The name of the food is "Prune juice—A water extract of dried prunes." For the purposes of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act concerning the label declaration of the name of the food, the explanatory statement "A water extract of dried prunes" may appear immediately below the words "prune juice," but there shall be no intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, and the type used for the words "A water extract of dried prunes" shall be of the same style and not less than half the point size of the type used for the words "prune juice."

(2) (i) When one or more of the acidifying ingredients specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section are used, the label shall bear the statement "_____ added" or "with added _____," the blank being filled in with the name or names of the optional ingredients used.

(ii) When honey, as specified in paragraph (b) (2) of this section, is used the label shall bear the statement "with _____ honey" or "_____ honey added," the blank to be filled in with the percent by weight of the honey in the finished food or with the statement "between 2 and 3%."

(iii) When one or more of the ingredients designated in paragraph (b) (1) of this section and the ingredient designated in paragraph (b) (2) of this section are used, the statements specified in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph may be combined, as for example, "with lemon juice and between 2 and 3% honey added."

(3) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words specified in this paragraph, showing the optional ingredients used, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

Effective date. This order shall become effective 90 days from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919. Interprets or applies sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046, as amended 70 Stat. 919; 21 U. S. C. 341)

TITLE 24—HOUSING AND HOUSING CREDIT

Subtitle A—Office of the Administrator, Housing and Home Finance Agency

PART 3—SLUM CLEARANCE AND URBAN RENEWAL

RELOCATION PAYMENTS; MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The rules and regulations governing the making of relocation payments under section 106 (f) of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, 42 U. S. C. 1456, to individuals, families, and business concerns displaced by an urban renewal project, prescribed on behalf of the Housing and Home Finance Administrator by the Acting Urban Renewal Commissioner, as of October 8, 1956 (21 F. R. 9991, 12–15–56), as amended (22 F. R. 1980, 3–26–57; 22 F. R. 9937, 12–12–57; 23 F. R. 750, 2–5–58; and 23 F. R. 1723, 3–13–58), are hereby further amended in the following respects:

1. In § 3.101 (j) (1), by deleting before the period at the end thereof the phrase "following the allocation of Federal funds"; and

2. In § 3.108 (a), by deleting the phrase "covered by a grant contract".

(Sec. 502, 62 Stat. 1283, as amended, sec. 106, 63 Stat. 417, as amended, sec. 305, 70 Stat. 1100, sec. 304, 71 Stat. 300–301; 12 U. S. C. 1701c, 42 U. S. C. 1456)

Issued as of the 30th day of July 1958.

R. L. STEINER,
Urban Renewal Commissioner.

PART 723—BOARD FOR THE CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

STAFF ACTION

1. Section 723.8 (e) is revised to read as follows:

(e) After the Secretary of the Navy has taken action on the record, the applicant or his counsel is entitled upon request:

(1) To inspect the record of proceedings; and

(2) To receive a copy of the Board's findings, decisions, and recommendations;

Unless the Chairman considers that granting the request would be detrimental to the public interest.

(Sec. 6011, 70A Stat. 375; 10 U. S. C. 6011. Interprets or applies sec. 1552, 70A Stat. 116; 10 U. S. C. 1552)

836.67 Conditions of payment.
836.68 Damages allowed.
836.69 When claim must be presented.
836.70 Who presents claims.
836.71 Form of claim.
836.72 How claims are settled.
836.73 Monetary jurisdiction.
836.74 How claims are processed.
836.75 What actions commissions take.
836.76 Claims over $1,000 and $15,000.
836.77 Cross servicing claims.

AUTHORITY: §§ 836.61 to 836.77 issued under sec. 1, 70A Stat. 488; 10 U. S. C. 8012. Interpret or apply sec. 1, 70A Stat. 154, 155; 10 U. S. C. 2734, 2735.

DERIVATION: AFR 112-6, February 6, 1958.

§ 836.61 Purpose. Sections 836.61 to 836.77 state the procedures for settling and paying claims made against the United States by inhabitants of foreign countries because of death, personal injury, or damage to or loss of public or private property, real or personal. Sections 836.61 to 836.77 apply only in those cases where such claims arise outside the United States, its Territories and possessions, and are caused by military personnel or civilian employees of the Air Force.

§ 836.62 Definitions—(a) Claims. Demands for payment submitted by individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations, including foreign countries, states, territories, and other political subdivisions of such countries, other than demands for payment that arise under ordinary obligations incurred in procuring regular services or supplies (contract claims).

(b) Civilian employees. Civilian employees of the Air Force, prisoners of war and interned enemy aliens engaged in labor for pay; and volunteer workers and others serving as employees of the Air Force without compensation.

(c) Inhabitant of a foreign country. A person who dwells or resides in a foreign country. Neither citizenship nor domicile is required. A foreign country includes any place under the jurisdiction of the United States in a foreign country. A person includes a corporation or other business association. A corporation or other business association is not necessarily excluded as an inhabitant because organized under United States law.

(d) Military personnel. Forces or individual members of the Air Force.

(e) Noncombat activities. Authorized activities which are peculiarly Air Force activities that have little parallel in civilian pursuits or which historically have been considered as furnishing proper basis for paying claims—such as maneuvers, special field exercises, using explosives, firing guns or other weapons, practice bombings, operating aircraft and missiles, using balloons, using animals, using equipment or devices having latent mechanical defects, moving combat or other vehicles designed especially for military use, and using and occupying real estate.

(f) Settle. Consider, ascertain, adjust, determine, and dispose of a claim, whether by approval or disapproval in whole or in part.

§ 836.63 Claims payable. Unless otherwise prescribed, claims for death, personal injury, or damage to or loss of property, real or personal, may be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77.

(a) Death. Only one claim arises for all beneficiaries. The amount allowed, to the extent found practicable, will be apportioned among the beneficiaries as prescribed by the law or custom of the situs where the accident or incident resulting in death occurred.

(b) Property. Included in the property for which damage claims may be settled are real property used and occupied under lease (express or implied) or otherwise, and personal property loaned, rented, or otherwise bailed to the United States under an agreement (express or implied), unless the owner has expressly assumed the risk of damage or loss. Claims for damage or loss enforceable under a lease or other contract may be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77, or under contractual procedures, as deemed in the best interest of the United States. Claims for rent, as such, may not be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77, but allowances may be made for the use of property arising out of trespass or other tort, even though claimed as rent.

§ 836.64 Claims not payable. A claim will not be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 if it:

(a) Results directly or indirectly from combat activities;

(b) Involves personal injury or death and arises out of any working accident covered by any workmen's compensation law or regulation, whether Federal Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916 (39 Stat. 742, as amended; 5 U. S. C. 751), Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424; 33 U. S. C. 901); or law or custom of the situs which provides compensation or social security benefits; or when similar benefits are provided by insurance under applicable regulations, or pursuant to United States contract: Provided, That this provision has no application to claims for property damage, or where there is a mandatory provision in the law of the situs requiring the claimant to reimburse the foreign government agency out of any recovery;

(c) Is waived or assumed by a foreign country under a treaty or international agreement, or is cognizable under a treaty or agreement which requires settlement by a foreign country;

(d) Is purely contractual in character;

(e) Is based on the negligence of a United States concessionnaire or other independent contractor or his employees;

(f) Arises from private contractual or domestic obligations;

(g) Arises out of the activities of dependents of military personnel, or their servants;

(h) Is based solely on compassionate grounds;

(i) Is a bastardy claim;

(j) Is for patent or copyright infringement;

(k) Arose before July 29, 1956 and the incident occurred outside a foreign country, its Territories, possessions, or territorial waters (open seas) or the claimant was an inhabitant of a foreign country other than the one in which the accident occurred; or

(l) Arose in an "occupied country" before a treaty or international agreement relating to claims. (Such claims usually are paid out of funds chargeable to the economy of the occupied country concerned under an agreement.)

§ 836.65 Claims under other laws and regulations—(a) Sections 836.11 to 836.24 (AFR 112–3). Claims will be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77, if applicable, although they might otherwise be settled under §§ 836.11 to 836.24.

(b) Sections 836.51 to 836.56 (AFR 112–5). Claims which are within the scope of §§ 836.61 to 836.77 and also within the scope of §§ 836.51 to 836.56 may be processed under the provisions of §§ 836.51 to 836.56 or §§ 836.61 to 836.77, or under both, as the facts and circumstances may warrant: Provided, That such settlement can be accomplished without defeating the purpose of the Foreign Claims Act and §§ 836.61 to 836.77.

(c) Sections 836.90 to 836.99 and and 836.116 to 836.120 (AFR's 112–7 and 176–8). Claims which may be settled under §§ 836.90 to 836.99 or §§ 836.116 to 836.120 will not be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77.

(d) Sections 836.141 to 836.148 (AFR 112–12). Claims which may be settled under §§ 836.141 to 836.148 may be settled under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 only when specifically authorized by The Judge Advocate General in each case. Authority may be requested by communication containing a summary of the facts, without forwarding the claim file.

§ 836.66 Claims under treaties and agreements. When a foreign government is responsible for settling claims against the United States under Article VIII of the Agreement Regarding the Status of Forces of Parties to the North Atlantic Treaty; under Article XVIII of the Japanese Administrative Agreement; or under a similar treaty or international agreement:

(a) Air Force authorities generally will be required to obtain and furnish foreign countries relevant evidence from United States sources, except as limited by Air Force security regulations. Reasonable requests for other assistance in investigating claims may also be complied with.

(b) Where claims are processed under a treaty or other international agreement and the Air Force has been assigned claims responsibility, the United States Sending State Office, or comparable office for claims in foreign countries, will send a copy of each voucher for reimbursement (68 Stat. 1006; 31 U. S. C. 224i–2) with a copy of the bill submitted by the foreign government. These copies will be forwarded by a letter of transmittal indicating the number and total amount of claims disapproved by the foreign government to:

The Judge Advocate General
Headquarters USAF
Attn: Chief, Claims Division
Washington 25, D. C.

§ 836.67 Conditions of payment. (a) Acts or omissions that create a condition without which the accident or incident could not have occurred but are not its proximate cause, will not constitute a proper basis for payment, even though they violate the law of the situs or military regulation. A claim may be approved under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 when the act or omission (except for so-called "other noncombat activities") that caused the injury, death, or damage to or loss of property was negligent, wrongful, or otherwise involved fault and was caused by:

(1) Military personnel;

(2) Civilian employees who are citizens of the United States;

(3) Civilian employees who are not citizens of the United States and were hired in one country for employment in another; or

(4) Civilian employees who are not citizens of the United States, other than those in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, acting within the scope of their employment.

(b) The law or custom of the situs pertaining to contributory or comparative negligence, and to joint tort-feasors, will be applied so far as practicable to determine liability.

(c) Scope of employment will be determined by United States law.

§ 836.68 Damages allowed. Generally, in determining the proper elements and amount of damages, the law and custom of the situs will be applied, but neither court costs, including attorney's fees, nor the like, punitive or moral damages, nor interest is allowable. Items properly allowable in personal injury claims include actual and reasonable medical and hospital expenses, reasonable compensation for physical pain and suffering and disability, and loss of earning capacity, and, if death results, actual and reasonable burial expenses and compensation for loss of life. Property damage or loss is governed by §§ 836.1 to 836.6.

§ 836.69 When claim must be presented. A claim must be presented within 1 year after the accident or incident from which it arose to either the appropriate United States or foreign government officials. (See § 836.66)

§ 836.70 Who presents claim—(a) Proper claimant. Each claimant, and in a claim based on death, the decedent, must have been an inhabitant of a foreign country at the time of the accident or incident and not otherwise barred from allowance of a claim. (For claims arising before July 29, 1956, the claimant must have been an inhabitant of the foreign country in which the accident or incident occurred; a transient is not a proper claimant. An inhabitant of any part or subdivision of a foreign country is considered to have been an inhabitant of the foreign country for any claim arising in any part of that country.)

(b) Claimants excluded. (1) A national, or a corporation controlled by a national, of a country at war or engaged in armed conflict with the United States, or of any country allied with such enemy country, unless the foreign claims commission considering the claim or the local military commander determines that the claimant was at the time of the accident or incident, and is, friendly to the United States.

(2) Members and civilian employees of the Armed Forces of the United States and their dependents who are inhabitants of the United States and in a foreign country primarily because of their sponsor's or their own Armed Forces orders.

(3) United States citizens not inhabitants of a foreign country.

(4) Persons whose injuries are caused under circumstances where compensation or similar benefits are provided under law, regulation, or custom. (See § 836.64 (b).)

(c) Insurers and other subrogees. An insurer or other subrogee may not present a claim in his own name. A claim for the entire amount of damage or injury suffered will be presented by, and settlement made solely with, the insured, without regard to the insurance; not with the insurer or with both the insured and the insurer. This leaves undisturbed, as between the parties, the rights of the insured and of the insurer or another who has become subrogated to the rights of the owners of the property lost or damaged, or of the person who is injured or whose death results. This permits the United States to settle with a single claimant, and no inquiry into or determination of the relative rights of the parties will be made.

§ 836.71 Form of claim. A claim may be presented orally but, before approval, must be presented in writing and signed by the claimant or his authorized agent or attorney. Written claims should be presented on Standard Form 95, "Claim for Damage or Injury," but any written claim will be considered if it gives a reasonably definite indication of the time, place, and nature of an accident or incident and an estimate or statement of the amount claimed. The amount claimed will be expressed in terms of the currency of the situs and, if allowed, will be paid in the currency of the country either in which the accident or incident occurred or in which the claimant was or is an inhabitant.

§ 836.72 How claims are settled. (a) Claims will be settled or forwarded as herein directed, or in accordance with regulations and statutes described in §§ 836.65 and 836.66. Claims under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 and 836.11 to 836.24 will be settled by Air Force foreign claims commissions if within their monetary jurisdiction.

(b) To permit the prompt settlement of claims within reasonable proximity to the places where accidents or incidents occur, The Judge Advocate General may authorize the appointment of one or more commissions in each foreign country where Air Force personnel are stationed or claims may arise.

§ 836.73 Monetary jurisdiction. Unless specifically limited in the appointing orders, a commission of one member has authority to settle claims not over $1,000. A commission of three members has authority to settle claims presented in amounts not over $15,000, and claims presented in amounts over $15,000 determined by the Secretary of the Air Force or his designee to be meritorious in an amount not over $15,000. When the commission was appointed by the United States Air Forces in Europe or the Pacific Air Forces, any settlement allowance for over $5,000 will be subject also to the approval of the appointing authority, or his Director of Claims. When the commission was otherwise appointed, such settlement allowances will be subject to the approval of the Chief or Assistant Chief, Claims Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General. When such a claim is settled by disapproval, no approval action is required and the commission need only forward one complete claim file. (See § 836.75.) When a commission settles a claim by an allowance of over $5,000, the approving authority may:

(a) Approve the whole allowance or any lesser amount over $5,000 (approval authorizes payment); or

(b) Disapprove the allowance in any amount over $5,000 and return the claim file, with the necessary comment and recommendation, to the commission for its consideration and action.

§ 836.74 How claims are processed. When a commission receives a claim and allied documents, it will consider the claim and determine how it should be processed for settlement. (See §§ 836.1 to 836.6.) If the claim was not presented within 1 year, the claimant will be advised by the commission that the claim is barred. A claim otherwise within §§ 836.61 to 836.77 but not presented within 1 year will not be settled under §§ 836.11 to 836.24. If necessary, the commission will conduct a further investigation or refer the claim to appropriate authorities for investigation. It may confer with the claimant to resolve or determine facts and, if deemed in the best interest of the Government and permitted by the situation, conduct a hearing and take testimony. Claims under other laws, treaties, agreements or regulations, or claims in excess of monetary limits, will be forwarded promptly to the proper authorities.

§ 836.75 What actions commissions take. The action of a commission on a claim under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 and §§ 836.11 to 836.24 will be included in a standard seven-paragraph memorandum or certificate opinion, as appropriate. Memorandum opinions will include findings on all pertinent factual and legal questions. The opinion will clearly state the reasons when a claim is disapproved; and, when a claim is approved in whole or in part, the opinion will include the amount allowed for each item, calculations or explanations of the differences between amounts claimed and amounts approved, and citations of local law or custom, when applicable. For budget and record purposes, all awards and settlement agreements will be expressed in the currency of the situs with an approximate dollar amount in parentheses immediately following. They will also include the rate of exchange.

(a) Effect. The settlement action of a commission upon claims within its jurisdiction is final and conclusive.

(b) Notice. The claimant will be notified by letter of the commission's settlement action and the reasons therefor on a claim within its jurisdiction, where the claim is disapproved or the amount approved is less than the amount claimed. Copies of the opinion or action will not be furnished the claimant.

(c) Reconsideration. A commission may reconsider its settlement at any time before payment. When the commission is composed of different personnel than at the time of the original action, settlement may be reconsidered only upon presentation of new and material evidence, or to correct fraud, collusion, errors in calculation, or other mistakes. The opinion of a commission on reconsideration will state the reason for the reconsideration.

§ 836.76 Claims over $1,000 and $15,000. Claims over the $1,000 limit of a one-man commission that are not amended to an amount within its jurisdiction will be referred to any Air Force three-man commission within that area, or to The Judge Advocate General. (See §§ 836.11 to 836.24.) Claims over $15,000 under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 that are not amended to an amount within the jurisdiction of a commission will nevertheless be considered by a three-man commission and forwarded promptly, through appropriate claims channels, to the Chief, Claims Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General, with supporting papers, findings of fact, recommendations, and opinion as to the action to be taken by the Secretary of the Air Force.

§ 836.77 Cross servicing claims. Any claim, whether arising from activities of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard (when operating as a service in the Navy) may, upon request by the service concerned, be settled by a commission appointed by the Secretary of the Air Force or his designee, in accordance with §§ 836.61 to 836.77. Claims arising after July 28, 1956 from accidents or incidents caused by a civilian employee of the Department of Defense, other than a civilian employee of the Department of the Army, Navy, or Air Force, may be settled and paid under §§ 836.61 to 836.77 by Air Force commissions. The cross servicing of claims is mandatory when the Air Force has been assigned sole responsibility for the settlement of claims in a designated foreign country or oversea area. A claim arising from Air Force activities in a foreign country where another service has been assigned responsibility for its settlement will be sent to the appropriate claims office of that service for settlement.

Colonel, U. S. Air Force, Deputy Director of Administrative Services.

PART 836—CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

PERSONNEL CLAIMS; MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In Part 836, § 836.99 Notice to claimant is revised and §§ 836.100 and 836.101 are added:

§ 836.99 Replacement in kind. (a) The commander of the organization with which the claimant is serving or to which he belongs, may direct that personal property damaged or lost be replaced in kind from available Air Force stocks. However, this applies only if the items claimed are not Government property, including property furnished through the Clothing Monetary Allowance System or through issue (see paragraph (d) of § 836.92).

(b) A claim that may be settled under this paragraph will be processed in accordance with other pertinent provisions of §§ 836.90 to 836.101. However, it will not be forwarded to higher authority for approval action. The action by or for the commander directing replacement in kind, and the replacement made to comply with such action, will be for all purposes a final and conclusive settlement of the claim.

§ 836.100 Approval and payment or disapproval—(a) Approving authorities—(1) General. When claims submitted under §§ 836.90 to 836.101 cannot be disposed of under § 836.99, they will be considered, ascertained, adjusted, determined, and settled, when substantiated in accordance with other pertinent provisions of §§ 836.90 to 836.101. Such claims will be approved and paid or disapproved only by the officer or officers designated by the Secretary of the Air Force for that pupose.

(2) Settlement authority. Claims filed for not more than $1,000 may be settled and paid by the approving authorities in the field, in accordance with the delegation of such authority by the Secretary of the Air Force. Claims filed for more than $1,000 will be forwarded for action and permanent filing through the appropriate Air Materiel area, oversea command, and/or foreign claims commission to:

The Judge Advocate General
Headquarters USAF
Attn: Claims Division
Washington 25, D. C.

(3) Disapproval. Where the circumstances of the loss warrant total disapproval, the file will be forwarded by the action authority in the field direct to The Judge Advocate General, USAF, regardless of the amount claimed.

(b) Payment. When a claim is approved in whole or in part, the approving authority will transmit the claim, and its related file, to the appropriate disbursing officer for payment.

NOTE: If the claimant dies before or after the approval of the claim filed in his name under paragraph (a) of § 836.98, and no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, finance procedures will govern the method of paying the amount due the deceased claimant.

(c) Notice to claimant. When the authorized designee of the Secretary of the Air Force disapproves a claim, the claimant will be notified in writing of the action taken and the reasons therefor.

§ 836.101 Reconsideration of action. The action of the approving authority in disapproving a claim in whole or in part will be final and conclusive for all purposes, as such settlements are not subject to appeal to the Secretary of the Air Force or any other agency of the Government. However, the approving authority may reconsider any claim when the claimant submits evidence showing errors or irregularities in the submission or settlement of the claim. Requests for such reconsideration or review will be in writing and will be submitted to the approving authority within 60 days after the claimant receives notice of disapproval or partial approval of his claim. If, upon reconsideration, it is determined that a further amount is due the claimant, a supplemental voucher will be prepared.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 46—RURAL SERVICE

RURAL BOXES

The proposed amendment to § 46.5, paragraph (c), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 27, 1958, at page 1217 (23 F. R. 1217) is hereby amended and adopted as a regulation of the Post Office Department, as set forth below.

In § 46.5 Rural boxes amend paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Posts and supports—(1) Construction. Posts or other supports for rural mail boxes must be neat and of adequate strength and size. They may not be designed to represent effigies or caricatures that would tend to disparage or ridicule any person. The box may be attached to a fixed or movable arm.

(2) Newspaper receptacles. A receptacle for newspapers, not restricted to any one paper, may be placed above or below the mail box or on the post or support, provided it will not interfere with the delivery of the mail, obstruct the view of the flag, or present a hazard to the carrier or his vehicle. The receptacle must not extend beyond the front of the mail box when the box door is closed. No advertising shall be displayed on the outside of the receptacle except that the name of a publication may be shown.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 156.53.

Chapter I—General Services Administration

Appendix A—Delegations of Authority

GENERAL DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO HEADS OF SERVICES

STAFF OFFICERS AND REGIONAL COMMISSIONERS

Organization of General Services Administration. The Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 377; 40 U. S. C. 471), vests the functions of the General Services Administration in the head of the agency, the "Administrator of General Services". These functions are performed by the Administrator, or, subject to his direction and control, by such officers or divisions of the agency as he may designate.

There are two organizational levels within the agency: The Central Office and the "Regional Office". Within the Central Office there are the Office of the Administrator, five "Service" organizations and three Staff Offices. The Office of the Administrator consists of the Immediate Office of the Administrator, Office of the Deputy Administrator, the Office of the Special Assistant to the Administrator—Congressional and Public Affairs, and the Board of Review. The Service organizations are: Federal Supply Service, Public Buildings Service, Transportation and Public Utilities Service, Defense Materials Service, and National Archives and Records Service; the Staff Offices are: The Office of the Administrative Assistant to the Administrator, Office of the General Counsel and Office of the Comptroller. The Services are responsible for the direction and coordination of their programs in the ten regional offices. Staff Offices provide assistance and advice throughout the General Services Administration. On policy and major operational matters, the Services maintain direct communication with the "Regional Commissioners". On professional, technical and routine matters, they communicate directly with their counterpart "Regional Directors". The Regional Offices, headed by Commissioners, are completely integrated and parallel the organizational pattern of the Central Office.

A more detailed description of the organizational structure of the General Services Administration may be found in the "United States Government Organization Manual" published annually as a special edition of the FEDERAL REGISTER, by the Federal Register Division, National Archives and Records Service, General Services Administration.

NOTE: The numbering of Delegations of Authority Nos. 320 to 328 inclusive, dated February 17, 1958, upon which this publication is based, is followed in designating sections herein; sections of the applicable Delegations of Authority are similarly designated herein as subsections except for such as are reserved or do not have direct application to the public. Successive redelegations of authority are numbered as hyphenated sections for each echelon of organization, e. g., sec. 320-1 will state the redelegation of authority from the Service to the Regional Commissioner, and sec. 320-1-1 will state the redelegation of authority from a Regional Commissioner to a subordinate division of his office.

Extent of delegation. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator of General Services by the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377), as amended, and other applicable statutes, Executive orders, regulations, and delegations, the following legal authority is hereby delegated to the designated officers and employees as set forth below.

The Administrator of General Services, as necessary, may direct that certain actions or categories of actions be submitted to him for review and approval prior to the exercise of the authority delegated herein.

Any authority delegated herein shall be exercised in accordance with such applicable laws and regulations as are in effect on the date of the exercise of such authority.

Except as otherwise provided by law or in this delegation, the recipient may redelegate and authorize successive redelegation of authorities to his subordinates as he determines to be appropriate to the full and expeditious performance of their assigned responsibilities: Provided, That any authority delegated to the Head of a staff office may not be redelegated by him to a Regional Director or other officer or employee of a Regional Office.

Execution and delivery of instruments. Any authority delegated herein shall include the authority to take any action incidental to the exercise of such authority, such as, but not limited to, the following:

(a) To execute, acknowledge and deliver appropriate written documents and instruments, including deeds, leases, permits, contracts, receipts, and bills of sale;

(b) To accept any notes, bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other security instruments taken in consideration, in whole or in part, in connection with the disposal of property;

(c) To perform all acts necessary or proper to release and discharge any security instrument or any lien created thereby or otherwise; and

(d) To perform any other acts necessary to effectuate the transfer of title to property.

Newspaper advertising. Any authority delegated herein to advertise, give public notice, or determine the manner of advertising shall include the authority to publish advertisements or notices in newspapers. 60 Stat. 809 (1946) (5 U. S. C. 22a; Rev. Stat. 3828 44 U. S. C. 324).

Authorities superseded. This delegation of authority supersedes all previous delegations of authority to officers and employees of the General Services Administration specified herein.

320. Administrative Assistant to the Administrator. The Administrative Assistant to the Administrator is hereby delegated authority under the:

1. Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended.

(27) To administer and manage leases and permits where disposal has been by lease or permit: Provided, that such authority shall not include the authority to enforce, adjust, and settle any claim arising thereunder. Sec. 204 (g) (40 U. S. C. 485 (g)).

(32) To procure the temporary (not in excess of one year) or intermittent services of experts or consultants, or organizations thereof, including stenographic reporting services. Sec. 203 (b) (5 U. S. C. 630 (h) (b)).

(35) To determine whether motor vehicle and related services will be furnished through the use, under rental or other arrangements, of motor vehicles of private fleet operators, taxicab companies, local or interstate common carriers, or Government-owned vehicles of combinations thereof. Sec. 211 (b) (2) (40 U. S. C. 491 (b) (2)).

(38) To fix prices payable by requisitioning agencies for motor vehicle and related services. Sec. 211 (d) (40 U. S. C. 491 (d)).

d. Title III. Pursuant to section 309 (a) (41 U. S. C. 259 (a)), the Commissioner, Federal Supply Service, is designated as an "agency head" for the purposes of Title III; and, except for the making of delegations or determinations specified in section 302 (a) (41 U. S. C. 252 (a)), the Commissioner may exercise the following authority provided in Title III:

(1) In connection with contracts or purchases in excess of $10,000 negotiated under paragraph (7) or (8) of section 302 (c), to make determinations and give the publicity required by section 302 (b) (41 U. S. C. 252 (b)).

(2) To negotiate purchases and contracts for property and services without advertising, and to make any determinations and decisions required in connection therewith. Sec. 302 (c) (1) through (14) (41 U. S. C. 252 (c) (1) through (14)). In connection with the negotiation of purchases or contracts which should not be publicly disclosed, section 302 (c) (11), and purchases or contracts which are to be negotiated in order to assure standardization of equipment and interchangeability of parts, section 302 (c) (12), the authority to make the determinations and decisions specified in section 302 (c) (11) and (12) is not redelegable. In connection with the negotiation of purchases or contracts for experimental, developmental, or research work, or for manufacture or furnishing of property for experimentation, development, research, or test section 302 (c) (10), the authority to make the determinations or decisions specified in section 302 (c) (10) is redelegable only to a chief officer responsible for procurement and only with respect to contracts which will not require the expenditure of more than $25,000. (41 U. S. C. 302 (c).)

(3) To make purchases and contracts for property and services by advertising. Sec. 302 (c) (41 U. S. C. 252 (c)).

(4) To determine that the rejection of all bids is in the public interest. Sec. 303 (b) (41 U. S. C. 253 (b)).

(5) To determine the type of negotiated contract which will promote the best interests of the Government. Sec. 304 (a) (41 U. S. C. 254 (a)).

(6) To make the determinations required in connection with cost, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee, and incentive-type contracts. Sec. 304 (b) (41 U. S. C. 254 (b)).

(7) To approve advance payments and to make the determinations and decisions required in connection therewith. This authority is not redelegable. Sec. 305 (a) (41 U. S. C. 255 (a)).

2. Other applicable statutes, regulations, and Executive orders. a. Disaster relief. (1) To exercise the following authorities of the Administrator as prescribed by Federal Civil Defense Administration Disaster Orders issued from time to time pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Congress (64 Stat. 1109 (1950)), as amended, 42 U. S. C. 1855–1855g, and Executive Order 10427, dated January 16, 1953:

(a) The authority to enter into and execute memoranda of understanding with duly authorized officials of any State within a major disaster area which has been designated by the President and with duly authorized representatives of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, to the end that General Services Administration may appropriately assist in providing surplus supplies and equipment for the relief of small businesses whose places of business have been damaged or destroyed by major disaster; and

(b) The authority to carry out and fulfill all commitments properly made and obligations properly undertaken by GSA by virtue of such memoranda of understanding.

(2) To exercise the following functions assigned to the Administrator in any major disaster pursuant to Public Law 875, 81st Congress (64 Stat. 1109), as amended, 42 U. S. C. 1855–1855g, and Executive Order 10427, dated January 16, 1953.

(a) The utilization, or lending to States and local Governments of General Services Administration equipment, supplies, facilities, personnel, and other resources (other than the extension of credit);

(b) The distribution of medicine, food and other consumable supplies; and

(c) The donation or lending of surplus equipment and supplies to States for use or distribution by them.

b. Abandoned, forfeited, and seized property. (1) To exercise authority of the Administrator covering abandoned, forfeited, or seized property, under the Act of August 27, 1935, as amended (49 Stat. 879; 40 U. S. C. 304f-m), and sections 5862 (b) and 5688 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U. S. b. Title I. (1) To exercise authority relating to conducting tests, making charges, and fixing fees therefor. Sec. 109 (g) (5 U. S. C. 630g (g)).

(1) To procure and supply personal property and nonpersonal services for the use of executive agencies and perform functions related to such procurement and supply; and, upon its request, provide these services to any Federal agency, mixed-ownership corporation, or the District of Columbia. Secs. 201 (a) (3), 201 (b) (40 U. S. C. 481 (a) (3), 481 (b)).

(5) To withdraw surplus property. Sec. 203 (a) (40 U. S. C. 484 (a)).

(11) To authorize abandonment, destruction, or donation of property to public bodies, and to make any determinations and findings incidental thereto. Sec. 202 (h) (40 U. S. C. 483 (h)).

(12) To direct agencies to delay or discontinue the disposal of any item of surplus property and to determine that such action is in the interest of the Government. Sec. 203 (a) (40 U. S. C. 484 (a)).

(13) To dispose of surplus property. Secs. 203 (a) and (c); Secs. 13 (d), 13 (g), and 13 (h) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944, as amended. (40 U. S. C. 484 (a), (c); 50 U. S. C. 1622 (d), (g), and (h).)

(14) To assume custody and accountability of surplus property. Sec. 203 (b) (40 U. S. C. 484 (b)).

(15) To perform, or provide for the performance of, the care and handling of surplus property. Sec. 203 (b) (40 U. S. C. 484 (b)).

(16) To prescribe and utilize appropriate terms and conditions for disposals of surplus property by General Services Administration. Sec. 203 (c) (40 U. S. C. 484 (c)).

(17) To grant interim rights for use and occupancy of surplus property and to disapprove or notify that no objection will be interposed to holding agencies granting such rights. Sec. 203 (c) (40 U. S. C. 484 (c)).

(18) To grant credit and take security in connection with any disposal authorized. Sec. 203 (c) (40 U. S. C. 484 (c)).

(19) To dispose of surplus property by negotiation and to determine that disposal by advertising in a given case will not better protect the public interest. Sec. 203 (e) (40 U. S. C. 484 (e)).

(20) To disapprove, or notify that General Services Administration will interpose no objection to actions proposed to be taken by any agency to enforce compliance; reform, correct, or amend instruments; and grant releases from terms and conditions thereof. Sec. 203 (k) (2) (40 U. S. C. 484 (k) (2)).

(21) To take possession of, utilize, transfer, or dispose of, abandoned and unclaimed property and determine the fair value and the costs of care and handling thereof. Sec. 203 (m) (40 U. S. C. 484 (m)).

(23) To administer and manage leases and permits where disposal has been by lease or permit: Provided, That such authority shall not include the authority to enforce, adjust, and settle any claim arising thereunder. Sec. 204 (g) (40 U. S. C. 485 (g)).

(25) To procure the temporary (not in excess of one year) or intermittent services of experts or consultants, or organizations thereof: Provided, that such authority shall not include the authority to procure stenographic reporting services. Sec. 208 (b) (5 U. S. C. 630h (b)).

(28) To approve payment of ground rent for buildings owned by the United States or occupied by Federal agencies, and to approve payment of such rent in advance when required by law or to determine such to be in the public interest. Sec. 210 (a) (3) (40 U. S. C. 490 (a) (3)).

(29) To approve payment of rent and make repairs, alteration, and improvements under any lease entered into by or transferred to General Services Administration for housing any Federal agency exempted by law, as of June 30, 1950, from the 25 percent limitation of the Act of June 30, 1932. Sec. 210 (a) (5) (40 U. S. C. (a) (5)).

(30) To obtain payments through advances or otherwise, for services, space, quarters, maintenance, repair, or other facilities furnished on a reimbursable basis to any other Federal agency, or any mixed-ownership corporation, or the District of Columbia. Sec. 210 (a) (6) (40 U. S. C. 490 (a) (6)).

(31) To make changes in, maintain and repair the New York pneumatic tube system. Sec. 210 (a) (7) (40 U. S. C. 490 (a) (7)).

(32) To repair, alter, and improve rented premises without regard to the 25 percent limitation of Section 322 of the Act of June 30, 1932, and to make the determination required in connection therewith. This authority is not redelegable. Sec. 210 (a) (8) (40 U. S. C. 490 (a) (8)).

(33) To furnish utilities and other services to occupants or users of National Industrial Reserve plants and surplus property installations. Sec. 210 (a) (10) (40 U. S. C. 490 (a) (10)).

(35) To acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, real property or interests therein. Sec. 210 (a) (12) (40 U. S. C. 490 (a) (12)).

(38) At the request of any Federal agency or any mixed-ownership corporation, or the District of Columbia, to acquire lands for buildings and projects authorized by the Congress, make surveys and test borings, prepare plans and specifications, and contract for and supervise the construction and development, and the equipping of such buildings or projects; and determine sums necessary to be transferred to General Services Administration by such agency in advance for such purposes. Sec. 219 (c) (40 U. S. C. 490 (c)).

(39) To make the determinations required by sec. 210 (g) in connection with the moving or supplying of furniture and furnishings to agencies moving between General Services Administration controlled locations. Sec. 210 (g) (40 U. S. C. 490 (g)).

d. Title III. Pursuant to section 309 (a) (41 U. S. C. 259 (a)), the Commissioner, Public Buildings Service, is designated as an "agency head" for the purposes of Title III; and, except for the making of delegations or determinations specified in section 302 (a) (41 U. S. C. 252 (a)), the Commissioner may exercise the following authority provided in Title III:

(1) In connection with contracts or purchases in excess of $10,000 negotiated under paragraph (7) or (8) of section 302 (c), to make determinations and give the publicity required by section 302 (b) (41 U. S. C. 252 (b)).

(2) To negotiate purchases and contracts for property and services without advertising and to make any determinations and decisions required in connection therewith. Section 302 (c) (1) through (14) (41 U. S. C. 252 (c) (1) through (14)). In connection with the negotiation of purchases or contracts which should not be publicly disclosed, section 302 (c) (11), and purchases or contracts which are to be negotiated in order to assure standardization of equipment and interchangeability of parts, section 302 (c) (12) the authority to make the determinations and decisions specified in sections 302 (c) (11) and (12) is not redelegable. In connection with the negotiation of purchases or contracts for experimental, developmental, or research work, or for the manufacture or furnishing of property for experimentation, development, research, or test, section 302 (c) (10), the authority to make the determinations or decisions specified in section 302 (c) (10) is redelegable only to a chief officer responsible for procurement and only with respect to contracts which will not require the expenditure of more than $25,000. (41 U. S. C. 302 (c).)

(3) To make purchases and contracts for property and services by advertising. Sec. 302 (c) (41 U. S. C. 252 (c)).

(4) To determine that the rejection of all bids is in the public interest. Sec. 303 (b) (41 U. S. C. 253 (b)).

(5) To determine the type of negotiated contract which will promote the best interests of the Government. Sec. 304 (a) (41 U. S. C. 254 (a)).

(6) To make the determinations required in connection with cost, cost-plus-a-fixed fee, and incentive-type contracts. Sec. 304 (b) (41 U. S. C. 254 (b)).

b. Title III. Pursuant to section 309 (a) (41 U. S. C. 259 (a)), the Commissioner, Transportation and Public Utilities Service, is designated as an "agency head" for the purposes of Title III; and, except for the making of delegations or determinations specified in section 302 (a) (41 U. S. C. 252 (a), the Commissioner may exercise the following authority provided in Title III:

(1) To negotiate purchases and contracts for property and services without advertising, and to make any determinations and decisions required in connection therewith. Secs. 302 (c) (1) through (6), (9), (11), (13), (14) (41 U. S. C. 252 (c) (1) through (6), (9), (11), (13), (14)). In connection with the negotiation of purchases and contracts which should not be publicly disclosed, section 302 (c) (11), the authority to make determinations and decisions specified in section 302 (c) (11) is not redelegable.

(2) To make purchases and contracts for property and services by advertising. Sec. 302 (c) (41 U. S. C. 252 (c)).

(3) To determine that the rejection of all bids is in the public interest. Sec. 303 (b) (41 U. S. C. 253 (b)).

(4) To determine the type of negotiated contract which will promote the best interests of the Government. Sec. 304 (a) (41 U. S. C. 254 (a)).

(5) To make the determinations required in connection with cost, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee, and incentive-type contracts. Sec. 304 (b) (41 U. S. C. 254 (b)).

2. Other applicable statutes, regulations, and Executive orders. a. Strategic and Critical Materials Stockpiling and Defense Production Acts. (1) To negotiate and execute all contracts for transportation or related services arising under:

(a) The Strategic and Critical Materials Stockpiling Act (60 Stat. 596 (1946), 50 U. S. C. 98) or the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

(b) The supplemental stockpile, pursuant to the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended (68 Stat. 454, 7 U. S. C. 1691), Executive Order 10560, dated September 9, 1954, and Delegation of Authority from the Director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, dated November 17, 1954 (DMO V–4, 32A CFR Ch. 1).

(c) The Abaca Production Act of 1950 (64 Stat. 435, 50 U. S. C. 541) and Executive Order 10539 of June 22, 1954, as amended by Executive Order 10552 of August 18, 1954.

(d) The Domestic Tungsten, Asbestos, Fluorspar and Columbium-Tantalum Production and Purchase Act of 1956 (70 Stat. 579, 50 U. S. C. App. 2191–2195), and Delegation of Authority issued pursuant thereto by the Secretary of the Interior, dated July 31, 1956 (21 F. R. 5872).

(e) The agreement between Commodity Credit Corporation and General Services Administration relating to services to be furnished by General Services Administration with respect to strategic materials acquired by Commodity Credit Corporation through barter of surplus agricultural commodities.

3. General authorities. c. Drawback documentation. (1) Procurement authority delegated hereunder shall include the authority to execute certificates required in support of drawback entries pursuant to Customs Regulations, to endorse export bills of lading, and to execute certificates of exportation. (19 CFR 22.37.)

328. Regional Commissioners. The Regional Commissioners are hereby delegated authority under the:

1. Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended. a. Title II. (1) To represent executive agencies in proceedings involving carriers and other public utilities before Federal and State regulatory bodies, with respect to transportation and other public utility services for the use of such agencies. Sec. 201 (a) (4).

(2) To consider, ascertain, determine, adjust and settle the following claims:

(a) Claims in connections with abandoned or unclaimed property. Sec. 203 (m).

(b) Claims or adjustments. Sec. 204 (d).

(c) Enforcements, adjustments, or settlements. Sec. 204 (g).

(5) To withdraw surplus General Services Administration personal property. Sec. 202 (b) (2) (40 U. S. C. 483 (b) (2)).

(8) To authorize abandonment, destruction, or donation of General Services Administration personal property to public bodies, and to make any determinations and findings incidental thereto. Sec. 202 (h) (40 U. S. C. 483 (h)).

(9) To approve credit in connection with the disposal of surplus property and the establishment of credit terms and conditions. Sec. 203 (c).

(10) To take possession of, utilize, transfer or dispose of abandoned and unclaimed personal property and determine the fair value and costs of care and handling thereof. Sec. 203 (m) (40 U. S. C. 484 (m)).

(12) To administer and manage any credit, lease or permit, and any security therefor, and to collect all moneys due the Government on account thereof: Provided, That such authority shall not apply to any legal action to adjust, enforce, and settle any right of the Government with respect thereto. Sec. 204 (g).
